Independents Take a Featureful Game

Morenci Gets Brief End of 14 to 9 Score—Grottos from Ann Arbor to be Opponents for Tecumseh Next Sunday.

In a game that had several "not on the program" features the Tecumseh Independents triumphed over Morenci here last Sunday afternoon, the score being 14 to 9. There was a large attendance.

Next Sunday afternoon the home nine meets the Grotto team from Ann Arbor at Athletic park.

Tecumseh started strong against Morenci, registering at the final station four times in the first inning, and added one more in the second. Morenci jumped into the scoring column in the fourth by sending three men around. In the fifth the visitors took the lead, four of them going all the way around on a series of hits and a fumble. The Independents made an effort to tie the tally in their half of this inning, but [illegible] one man to make the complete circuit, leaving them one short.

The local fans were given a chance to cheer in the sixth, when the home men drove in five scores with their heavy hitting. The lead obtained at this time was sufficient to win, but to make it safe the Bailey aggregation romped in with three more counters in the seventh. In this same inning Morenci got a pair of tallies.

Early in the game two fans got into an argument and attracted quite a little attention but the contest proceeded and their dispute was soon forgotten. In the seventh inning Morenci threatened to quit playing when they became dissatisfied with a decision made by G. Arthur Rathbun, who was umpiring the plays on the bases. This disagreement was soon settled, however, and the contest went through the remaining innings according to schedule.

Last Sunday's game was the first one at which admission was charged instead of taking up a collection and the new plan proved very successful, the returns being larger than from the previous method of securing pay for the sport.

FLINT MAN OPTIMISTIC OVER CHANCES FOR G. O. P. CHOICE FOR GOVERNOR

Charles S. Mott, candidate for the Republican nomination for governor in the primaries on August 31, and who stopped off in Tecumseh last week on his way to a conference with political leaders in Adrian, was extremely optimistic over his prospects for the nomination. He has been making a hasty tour of the state and says he has met with hearty encouragement wherever he has gone. Friends of Mr. Mott, who have been working in various sections of the state, also send most encouraging reports into the Mott campaign headquarters in Flint.

The desire of the electors of the state apparently is for a business man to take charge of the state's affairs and Mr. Mott's business training and experience, together with his remarkable record as mayor of Flint, seem to be well known throughout Michigan.

Mr. Mott is a native of New Jersey. He served as a gunner's mate in the Spanish-American war, and in 1900 took charge of the W[illegible] Mott plant at Utica, N. Y. In 1907 the Weston-Mott plant was moved to Flint. It was in 1912 that Mr. Mott was first elected mayor of Flint, and he gave up a $25,000 a year position to serve the city for $300 a year and then turned his salary over to charity. He was twice re-elected mayor.

Anybody who tells you that owners of moderate-price cars are not interested in the quality of their tires has never met very many of them.

We come in contact with the small car owner every day and we have found that he is just as much interested as the big car owner.

III

There is one tire, at least, that makes no distinction between small cars and large cars so far as quality is concerned—the U. S. Tire.

Every U. S. Tire is just like every other in quality—the best its builders know how to build.

Whatever the size of your car, the service you get out of U. S. Tires is the same. It isn't the car, but the man who owns the car, that sets the standard to which U. S. tires are made.

IV

We feel the same way about it. That's why we represent U. S. Tires in this community.

Select your tires according to the roads they have to travel:

In sandy or hilly country, wherever the going is apt to be heavy—The U. S. Nobby.

For ordinary country roads—The U. S. Chain or Usco.

For front wheels—The U. S. Plain.

For best results—everywhere-U.S. Royal Cords.

How It's Done

This is a day and age of improvement. Everybody uses the latest, best and most improved methods. The farmer wouldn't think of trying to harvest his grain with a hand sickle.

It is up to you to discard the stocking method and deposit your funds in the bank—the modern method of handling funds. Paying bills by check is as far ahead of the old cash-in-hand method as the self-binder is ahead of the hand sickle. Try this up-to-date method and you'll find it hardly necessary to keep books. We'll do it for you, and the cancelled checks we return will prove we have guarded your funds carefully.

Four Complete Operations Every Trip over the Field

Now that farm labor is scarce, it is to your advantage to do your work in the quickest and easiest way, especially when that method will bring even bigger crops than the old.

The planting season is always a busy one, but you will find that the work is accomplished a lot easier if you use a John Deere-Van Brunt Fertilizer Drill. This drill makes horsepower and manpower available for other purposes. In one trip over the field it pulverizes the soil, makes the seed furrows, plants and covers the seed and the fertilizer. And, besides, it increases the crop yield because it does better seeding.

Come in and ask us to show you the patented adjustable gate force feed used on Van Brunt Grain Drills. This force feed is the construction that insures even seeding over the entire field. No seed is wasted, and there are no bare spots in the field. The "Van Brunt" does first-class work in any soil capable of being seeded. It does not choke up in mud, gumbo, sticky or trashy soil.

Save extra labor and seed and increase your crop yield by buying a Van Brunt Fertilizer Drill from us.

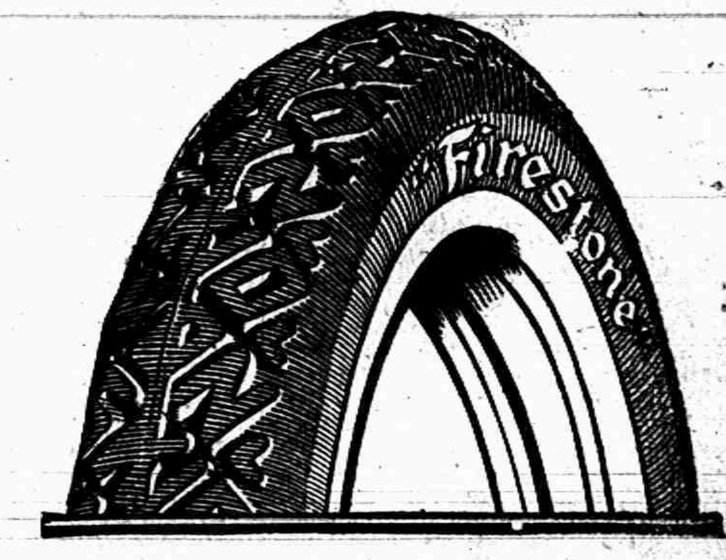
Firestone



Sales of this tire have increased 96% the first six months of this year, proving the balanced tire, the Firestone 3½ has accomplished what Firestone sought for it, more mileage, greater economy, greater comfort, which has been passed on to the public at low cost—most miles per dollar.

Balanced! That means to you more than mere thickness of tread, greater air capacity, more plies of fabric, greater cushioning, or the gauge of the sidewall. It means that all component parts of the Firestone 3½ are scientifically balanced by specialists who have put years of study and practice into a single purpose—to meet your demand in a small car tire. You can now have all four tires on your car give uniform service if they are Firestone.

Burglars Make Bold Early Morning Haul

W. L. COLLER'S STORE IS ENTERED FROM REAR

Robbers Drive Up in Auto and Motor Away With $50 in Cash, Number of Guns and Rifles, Jack Knives and Cartridges.

Will Coller's sporting goods store was broken into this morning and robbed of 12 guns and rifles, valued at $30 each, $50 in cash, two boxes of Jack knives worth $15 and a package of No. 38 "soft nose" cartridges.

Wesley Clark was attending to the removal of the plaforms from the center of the street at 5:30 this morning when he noticed a large car, in which were seated four men, back into the alley west of Clark's market. In a few minutes he saw the same car come out of [illegible] swiftly.

Howard Wilson, who is baking at Nevison's bakery, met two men in the alley back of Mr. Coller's store about that time, one of them coming out of the sporting goods store. One of the men said, "Good morning, brother," and turning walked back into the store. Thinking they were members of the Willett orchestra, which had played for the dance on the floor above last night, Mr. Wilson went on with his work. About an hour afterward he said to Herbert Gill "I didn't know there was a back door to Bill's store before." Mr. Gill said there is no back door to the Coller store. To settle the argument they went to investigate. They found the door and it was wide open. This made them suspicious so they called Mr. Coller at his home. He in turn notified Deputy Sheriff John B. Smith and came down to look after things. He found his case of guns and rifles cleaned out, but some of them were just inside the back door, evidently the burglars had been frightened away before their job was completed. He found the money drawer was empty and the jack knives and cartridges were missed later.

The robbers timed their visit just right as Nightwatchman Rubadou goes off duty at 5 o'clock.

The only clue left is the track of four cord tires in the alley and the description of the one man given by Howard Wilson, that the fellow was of medium height and wore a green hat and coat.

Deputy Sheriff Smith notified Sheriff Nutten, who wired in every direction, and himself took the trail toward the lakes and Jackson. As yet no trace of the burglars has been received.

Honors are Won by Tecumseh Boys

Judging Team From Agricultural Department Carry off Prize in Contest.

Frist prize and next to highest [illegible] were the honors won by a judging team from the agricultural department of Tecumseh high school in a stock judging contest held at the J. Bazley farm near Ypsilanti yesterday. The local team was composed of Raynor McLain, Bert Osterhout and Malcolm Waring, the young men being accompanied by their instructor, O. W. Laidlaw.

Competing against teams from Ypsilanti, Monroe and Albion, Tecumseh won first prize, having the highest team score. The prizes were two fine books, "Types and Breeds of Farm Animals" and "Soils and Fertilizers," for each contestant.

Raynor McLain, with 216 points, ran close for highest individual score, which was taken by Monroe with 217 out of a possible 300 points.

Tecumseh boys can feel proud of their achievement and are to be congratulated on their success.

Time for Payment of Taxes Extended

Sept. 7 Set as Last Day—Assessor Field is Denied Extra Pay.

Taxpayers of Tecumseh have been granted a month's more time in which to make their annual contribution to the village treasury. The board of village trustees at its meeting Monday evening voted to extend the time for receiving taxes to September 7, this action being taken in answer to a plea from Treasurer Franc S. Gillespie that she be given an additional four weeks in which to make the collections.

At the previous meeting of the council Village Assessor George Field submitted a bill for $275 for spreading the assessments this year. This was $100 more than was paid for this service last year. The bill was sent back to Mr. Field for correction, it being contended it was too high. The assessor appeared before the trustees in person Monday evening and again presented the bill, explaining that the task of spreading the tax assessments this year took more time than ever before, and that he considered he was entitled to extra pay. Mr. Field declared he was supported in this contention by Supervisor John F. Schreder, who had asserted the tax rolls this year were more difficult to prepare than at any time in the 15 years that he has been supervisor. The assessor pointed out that the many changes in real estate during the past year had made his work almost double what it was in former years and he considered he was entitled to added compensation for the extra labor.

Trustee Moore expressed the opinion that Mr. Field would get all the law allowed if he was paid $175 as in 1919 and that the assessor knew what the compensation was before he was elected and should not expect extra pay. Trustee Hendershott supported Alderman Moore in this contention. When the bill was referred to the finance committee the members recommended that Mr. Field be paid $175 and this sum was voted him by the trustees.

Underwood-Orr post, American Legion, which is to have a big sports day Wednesday, August 25, requested and was granted permission to use Chautauqua park as a place for parking autos on the day of the celebration.

Quite a number of bills were approved and ordered paid and this completed the business of the evening.

Orson Benedict Falls Dead off his Wagon

Neighbors Find Well Known North Adrian Resident Lifeless in the Road.

Orson Benedict, farmer residing at North Adrian, about seven miles southwest of Tecumseh, dropped dead while at work yesterday afternoon.

He had been hauling gravel and while near the old Tingley farm some of his neighbors, who were threshing nearby, noticed his horses had stopped and he was nowhere in sight. They ran to his wagon and found him lying in the road. They carried him to his home and summoned a physician, but the latter pronounced life extinct, saying Mr. Benedict probably was dead when he fell from his wagon.

The funeral will be held Saturday at 2:30 p. m. from the home and at 3 o'clock from the North Adrian church.

Mr. Benedict, who had resided in that locality many years and had hosts of friends, is survived by the widow and three children: Mrs. Ethel Powell, residing near Raisin Center, Rev. Ernest Benedict, pastor of the M. P. church at Attica, Mich., and Roy, who with his wife resides on the home farm. Four sisters and three brothers also survive: Mrs. Flora Smith of Detroit, Mrs. Elsie Boone, residing at Shaftsburg, near Lansing, Mrs. Addelle Farnham of Prattville, Mrs. Addie Boone of Hillsdale, Lewis Benedict of Prattville and Albert Benedict of Tecumseh.

Jewels Presented to Past Matrons

Exercises by Eastern Star are Impressive—Program Most Pleasing.

The meeting of the Order of the Eastern Star Thursday evening was unusually delightful, with one feature which those who witnessed it will probably never forget. Eleven past matron's jewels have been conferred by the chapter this summer, six receiving their beautiful insignia at the meeting Thursday night.

After the regular business session had been conducted by Worthy Matron Ina Abbott, the following excellent program was presented:

"Robin Adair"—Temple Quartette, Will S. and Fred C. Dickinson, Harold Lowry and Thomas Deniston.

Reading, "Johnson's Boy"—Mrs. K. A. Braman.

Reading, "The Surgeon Misunderstood"—Mrs. A. J. Montgomery.

Vocal solo, "My Laddie"—Mrs. R. S. Moore, accompanied by Mrs. F. C. Dickinson.

Each number was encored enthusiastically.

Worthy Patron George Hines then told of the presentation of the past matron's jewel to Past Matron Adelia Rosacrans that day and asked for a minute's silent prayer for the sister's recovery.

The following names of past matrons were called: Mrs. M. E. Corey of Ashville, N. C., Mrs. Nellie Temple, Miss Anna Cutting, of Long Beach, Cal., Mrs. Bertha McClure of Erie, Pa., Mrs. Ella James, Mrs. Cora Teachout of Jackson, Mrs. Olive Hendershott, Mrs. Florence Montgomery, Mrs. Cora Field. Mrs. Temple, Mrs. James, Mrs. Teachout, Mrs. Hendershott, Mrs. Montgomery and Mrs. Field responded and Patron Hines, with an excellent speech of appreciation, presented them with the jewels, the remainder to receive theirs by mail. Each responded with well worded thanks, showing their love for the order. The ceremony for the presentation of this jewel to Mrs. Ella Anderson had been performed during her recent visit here.

The program was closed with the singing of "Auld Lang Syne."

The company then went to the dining room, where refreshments were served by Mrs. H. W. Whaley and her committee.

The lodge room was pretty with bouquets of summer flowers at each station and more were used on the tables in the dining room.

REV. AND MRS. THOMPSON AGREEABLY SURPRISED

The beautiful flowers at the M. E. church Sunday morning elicited from Rev. C. M. Thompson words of warm appreciation as it was the 42nd anniversary of his marriage to "the best woman on earth." Taking the cue, several of his congregation arranged a surprise on their pastor and wife for Monday evening and their plans worked splendidly.

There were nearly 100 at the party which was held at the parsonage. During the evening Rev. and Mrs. Thompson received the congratulations of their friends upon their long term of happy wedded life. A short musical program was given as follows:

Piano solo—Miss Georgianna Conklin.

Piano solo—Miss Gertrude Turner.

Vocal solo—Mrs. Havila Haskins.

Vocal solo—Mrs. Ella Routson Braun of Lorain, Ohio.

Mrs. B. Hurry, with a short, appropriate speech, presented Mrs. Thompson with a cut glass salad dish and Rev. Thompson a rug for his study. To this the host and hostess responded heartily. Ice cream and cake were served at the close of the evening.

Rev. Somers of Dundee was among those present.

Victory Medals for World War Vets

Tecumseh Post of American Legion Will Make Presentation on Armistice Day.

All world war veterans are to be given a Victory medal by the government. Underwood-Orr post, No. 34, American Legion, to see to it that the vets in Tecumseh and vicinity are thus recognized. It is planned to make the formal presentation of the medals to the local veterans on Armistice day, November 11.

The local Legion post was asked to take charge of the medal presentation in this city in a communication from the state headquarters. Not only enlisted men and officers but also contact surgeons, army nurses and West Point cadets who were in service any time between April 6, 1917, and November 11, 1918, will receive a medal. Immediate relatives of deceased soldiers and sailors will also be presented with one.

Blanks for making application for Victory medals are in possession of the Tecumseh post and the members and others entitled to one of these world war souvenirs are urged to provide themselves with a blank. The post officials will aid in every way in assisting the vets in securing one of these medals which is the official for the world war.

While the plans have not been perfected it is the intention of the Tecumseh post to make the presentation of the medals on Armistice day an occasion which will leave a deep impression on the survivors of the bloody conflict in Europe.

ONSTED HAS GALA DAY; MANY GO FROM HERE

Onsted was "at home" yesterdya to all its old boys and girls and their home comers' day was a splendid success.

The weather was ideal, the sports lively and the great crowd had a jolly time. The Tecumseh Ladies' band was on the scene and its efforts were heartily applauded.

One feature was the reunion of the Onsted ball team of 35 years ago, of which Tecumseh's present village president, George Hines, was a member. These boys and their families took their dinner together and the affair was unusually pleasant for them.

In the forenoon a ball game between the Masons and Odd Fellows resulted in victory for the latter and in the afternoon Onsted's team won over Jasper.

The many Tecumseh people who attended pronounce our sister village most hospitable.

TWO SCHOOLS HOLD AN ENJOYABLE REUNION

Very delightful was the reunion of the Sand and Evans lake schools held at Sand lake Saturday. During the business session officers were elected as follows:

President — Will Brighton of Sand lake.

Secretary for the Sand lake school—Mrs. Eva Kerr.

Secretary for the Evans lake school—Ed Hoxie.

Treasurer—Mrs. Carrie Pawson.

Anecdotes of their school life and telling of their pleasure at meeting their old friends were Charles Marr of Wyandotte, Mr. and Mrs. Lon Welch of Pasadena, Cal., Lou Gray of Greenville.

The occasion was so happy it was decided to hold a reunion again on the last Saturday in July, 1921.

Attending from Tecumseh were Mr. and Mrs. Guy Belding, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Aylesworth and their grandchildren, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Davis of Detroit, Mrs. L. W. Swift, Mr. and Mrs. George McNeil and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dewey.

Wallace of the Methodist church, the young people being accompanied by Mrs. May Mobbs of Columbus, Ohio, the bride's mother. The newlyweds will reside in Detroit, where Mr. Davis is employed at one of the Ford plants.

Miss Mobbs was born here and here she resided until after her graduation from high school, when she went to Detroit and took a course in the Detroit Business Institute. Later she acecpted a position in the Detroit office of the Travelers' Insurance Co.

Mr. Davis came from Unicoi, Tenn., but has been in Detroit some time. The young people have a home already at 234 Alexandrine avenue, to which they went after a short visit with Mrs. Davis' grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Aylesworth.

Union Services are To be Continued

Rev. Edward Escolme Speaker Sunday Evening—Next Community Meeting at Presbyterian Church.

The community service last Sunday night was held at the Methodist church with Rev. C. M. Thompson presiding. During the devotionals at the beginning of the service Mrs. Havila Haskins sang a solo.

Rev. Edward Escolme gave the address of the evening, using Isaiah's vision of God as his theme. "We must realize that God is holy, His holiness is the divine remedy for our sinfulness," said Rev. Escolme. He continued: "We are most liable to receive the vision of God in His temple, not at the movie or baseball game on Sunday. We find nowhere in the Bible that God does not treat sin as sin, not as an unfortunate occurrence, but as a sin to be punished. That sweet harmony exists between man and God regardless of what man does is not warranted in the Scriptures. We may think how good we are, that someone else may need the grace of God, but when we get a revelation of holiness of God we'll say with Isaiah, 'Woe is me!' We might better see the worst of ourselves now than wait until we face our God. No matter what our sin, God's grace is equal to our need. God can purify your heart then your outward life conforms to His will. But we are saved not for selfish purposes; our highest purpose is to be made a channel of Divine blessing, of which there is no more holy privilege.

"The fountain of living water must come from a pure channel so our hearts must be open, purified, with no envy, pride, bitterness, jealousy. This channel must be a blessing to others, to bring some one else to the same fellowship we enjoy. This town needs to grow. The Christian people must be able to touch with God and others."

Rev. Thompson then invited to the platform George H. Baker of Detroit, one of the corps of "four minute men" who are doing such splendid work for Christ in that city. Mr. Baker, who formerly resided here, and was well known by his audience, told of the work of the "four minute men," the great need of harvesters in God's kingdom where the laborers are so pitifully few.

After the service a conference of the ministers and a few laymen was held and it was decided to continue the community services throughout the summer.

Next Sunday evening's service will be held at the Presbyterian church.

CYCLONE SWEEPS FARM OF DR. HARDY'S MOTHER

Dr. and Mrs. P. B. Hardy received word yesterday that the cyclone which swept over New York state caused much destruction on the farm owned by his mother.

According to the news received here the wind storm in the east must have been similar to the one which some months ago caused such great property loss on the Ridge road.

Several persons were killed in the twister which swept over New York state, houses, barns and trees were leveled and much other damage done. On the farm of Dr. Hardy's mother two barns were destroyed and the roof of the house torn off.

Now paying 47 to 49c doz. for eggs; 25 to 28c for poultry. J. C. O'Neil—adv.

To Our DETROIT Subscribers

The Herald has received instructions from William J. Nagel, postmaster in Detroit, to continue using the OLD house numbers in that city until January 1, 1921, on all mail going into Detroit, instead of the new numbers.

In obeying these instructions, The Herald asks the co-operation of its subscribers in Detroit and requests them to refrain from sending to this office changes of address resulting from the renumbering of the houses there until after January 1, 1921.

As these are government regulations we gladly observe them, but to avoid confusion we must have the co-operation of the Detroit subscribers.

FOOTPAD IS DEFIED BY DR. H. R. CONKLIN

The attempted holdup of Dr. and Mrs. H. R. Conklin Monday evening has been the main topic on the streets this week. The doctor and wife had started to motor to their Sand lake cottage about midnight of the evening named and when near the Joe Tilden place, just west of town, they were twice ordered to halt by a man in the road. The Tecumseh physician threw the rays of his spotlight into the fellows face and drove by with a spurt of speed. Knowing several of their Sand lake neighbors were still in town, Dr. and Mrs. Conklin stopped at the Waldron farm and phoned back to Deputy Sheriff John B. Smith. He with Marshal B. W. Mominee drove out to the Tilden place but could find no one.

The doctor says the man was nearly as tall as he and wore a dark felt hat pulled down over his eyes. He carried what looked, in the flash of light, like a short iron bar.

Culbertson School Reunion Delightful

More Than 200 Present—Officers are Re-Elected—Meet Again Same Place in Two Years.

There were over 200 former pupils, teachers and residents of the district, both past and present, at the reunion of the Culbertson school Tuesday. When the crowd arrived just before noon they found a great tent erected on the school lawn and under it were long tables, heavily laden with the housewives' most excellent cooking. Each table was decorated with large boquets of the gay summer flowers, with sprays of green scattered about effectively. After greeting the many strangers the dinner was served by a group of the young people of the district under the guidance of Mrs. Mary Benedict and Mrs. Fred Sheldon. Grace was spoken by Fremont Goheen of Eaton Rapids.

Following the feast came a business meeting conducted by Fred Goheen, the president of the reunion. By motion it was decided to meet again in two years at the same place. The officers were reelected as follows:

President—Fred Goheen.

Secretary-Treasurer — John T. Boyce.

Corresponding Secretary—Miss Nannie Kyle.

A committee was appointed to draft resolutions on the death of the revered teacher, Mrs. Jennie Gallatin Waring, as follows: Miss Kyle, S. W. Boyce and Mrs. Mary Benedict.

A program was another fine feature of the day. This was announced by Miss Mildred Boyce, who prefaced each number with a story or joke to the point.

After several songs familiar to the company Miss Boyce asked for

Editorial Comment

LET'S DO OR QUIT.

The Herald hoped to be able to [illegible] this week that the board of directors of Tecumseh Home Building association had let contracts for the construction of three new homes, but such statement cannot be truthfully made at this time. Everything looked favorable toward such action at the close of a meeting of the board of directors held Friday evening last. Three separate bids had been received and the figures submitted were so near alike that it was the sentiment of the members of the board to award the contract of the construction of one house to each bidder, thus assuring the completion of three new homes ready for occupancy this fall.

It is stated that Tecumseh needs more homes to facilitate the growth and insure the permanency of our labor employing institutions. If this is true the building program should be started at once. We need our industries and the people connected therewith and would be glad to welcome more skilled mechanics to our beautiful city.

On the other hand, if Tecumseh is sufficiently supplied with homes and the opportunity for growth is obscure, the board of directors should be discharged and the association dissolved.

SANITATION.

The inquest into the source of water supply at one of our beautiful lake resorts led to a recommendation by the state board of health that supply pipes be extended further into the deep waters of the lake. That's all right as far as it goes, but does the board of health overlook the more dangerous contamination — the condition of outhouses at some of these resorts? Not only at summer resorts are toilet facilities disgracefully unsanitary, but nearly every small town railway depot is infested. But at resorts where hundreds of people gather for a day's outing the dangerous nuisance should be abated. We are pleased to note a bettered condition at some of the county fairs.

HAVE YOUR GUN READY.

A serious public menace, growing more dangerous every year is the gun-man—the man or gang of men who have no respect for property rights or human life. The Grass Lake bank robbery that cost the life of a good, respected citizen, is only another recent example that the people of the smaller towns must be on their guard always against these desperate thieves and murderers. Keep your gun in condition and handy.

SAVE THE UNIONS FROM BAD LEADERS.

When a young man goes from the country to the city to work he is expected to join a labor union. He will find the rank and file good fellows, but the officers, in many cases, are a law unto themselves.

In Chicago was a labor leader named "Moss" Enright, very successful because he rolled up a large fortune in a few years. Also in a few years he shot to death some three or four other labor leaders.

Then sprang up another labor leader named "Big Tim" Murphy. Big Tim fussed with Enright and one day a bunch of fellows drove out of the latter's home and at close range shot him full of holes with a sawed-off shotgun. "Moss" was very dead in a second. The authorities got the goods on Big Tim and clapped him into jail together with a couple of witnesses who told what they knew. The law habaes corpused the two witnesses who instantly disappeared. Now the law, having no evidence, is going to let Timmy go. That's city law for you.

Also in Chicago is "Umbrella Mike" something or other, head of the electrical men's union. Mike is worth half a million, blackmailed out of contractors by threats or strikes, and he has served time as a convict for some of these deals which unfortunately got into court. After getting out of the pen, the union reinstated him as leader and recently he tied up the whole street railway system of Chicago by ordering a sudden strike.

Labor unions are good things, but we hope that country boys who go to the cities to work will fight for decent leaders of their unions.

A FISHERMAN'S PARADISE

Editors The Herald:

Being an admirer of Isaac Walton, I had often wished I could find a lake where the fish would jump into the boat. Well, I found a lake where the fish were so plentiful that they would bite at the bubbles in the wake of our boat. They did not jump in the boat, but we caught so many that our arms would ache from pulling them in. Lake Penage is the name of such a body of water, with many bays and islands. It is north of Georgian Bay and south of Whitfish, Ontario, Canada. To get to this lake from the depot you have to walk five miles, portage across a river, then walk four miles more, over corduroy roads made by lumbermen. The lake is 30 miles long, eight miles wide and filled with tree-covered, high, rocky islands. It is one of the most beautiful natural places you could find, as everything is just as nature left it and very wild.

There are plenty of deer, moose, wolves, foxes, bear and porcupines and a few beaver. As the hunting season was off we did not get any but had many chances to kill deer and moose while out fishing. We saw 18 deer in ten days.

While on an 18-mile boat ride down the lake we saw two moose [illegible] across the [illegible] overtook them and took several pictures at close range. On the same trip our party caught 46 bass and pickerel. The pickerel in Canada are what we call walleyed pike.

The fish in Lake Penage consist of small mouth bass, gray trout, salmon trout, pickerel, great northern pike and blue gills. The lake is very deep and to catch trout we had to troll 150 feet deep. The other fish we caught in about 18 feet of water. We only fished about three hours each day and my number for the ten days was 224 of the different kinds except blue gills. My largest fish weighed 23 pounds, a great northern pike, being the largest ever brought into any of the camps. I saved the head and gave the meat to the Indians. The white people do not eat pike, as the trout and walleyed are much better, they think. The pike looked good to me. Of course we had so many fish that we would catch a lot, put them on a stringer, go to an island, take a picture of them and then let them go. We would fish to see who would get the largest ones. It did seem hard to catch such large and so many fish and then throw them back when we knew what a meal they would make at home.

Our party consisted of A. L. Peck of Toledo and Thurlow Sanford of Milan, and I think they feel as I do, that a fishing trip to Lake Penage is money well spent.

I have a good collection of pictures you may look at if you care to, and if you are planning on a fishing trip try Lake Penage.

Officer Killed in Capturing Robbers

Grass Lake Bank Looted of $37,000 But Bandits are Caught and Most of Money Recovered.

One of the most desperate battles between bank looters and sheriff's officers ever staged in this part of the state took place at Wolf lake in Jackson county last Thursday afternoon, one deputy being shot to death, another wounded, one bandit being the target for seven bullets, another suffering a broken leg and before the bloody engagement was over the gang which had robbed the Grass Lake bank of $37,000 just before noon that day was in custody and most of the money was recovered.

Undersheriff Harry Worden of Grass Lake met his death in aiding to round up the robbers and Deputy Sheriff Verl Kutt of Jackson suffered a slight scalp wound when a bullet grazed his head.

Six men are under arrest for complicity in the robbery. They are James "Doc" Stowe, Walter Wilson, Dan Rosenberg, W. E. Harris, Lester Bacon and George Comfort. The four first named are known to have participated in the hold-up while the other two are suspected of having had a part in it. Rosenberg is believed to have fired the shot which killed Deputy Worden.

About 11 o'clock Thursday morning three armed robbers walked into the Farmers State bank at Grass Lake, locked the two bank officials present and two customers in the toilet and looted the institution of about $37,000 in cash and Liberty bonds. Then they walked out of the front door, stepped into an auto and disappeared. Soon after their departure E. J. Foster, president of the bank, returned and discovered the institution had been robbed. He liberated the captive officials and customers and spread the alarm. It was a fish line that gave the officers the clue which led to the capture of the bandits. [illegible] found on the floor of the bank and the officials suspected the holdup men had dropped it and had probably been staying at a lake and would return there. Undersheriff Worden and Deputy Sheriff Kutt were among the first officers on the scene and on finding the fish line hastened to Wolf lake, not far from Grass Lake, and began searching for the robbers. Four or five men were found in a tenant house close to the hotel and when the officers attempted to force an entrance to the building a gun fight ensued. Undersheriff Worden being shot to death and Deputy Sheriff Kutt wounded. Wilson and Harris were captured after the gun play, the former being wounded seven times. Stowe and Rosenberg jumped out of a rear window, the former breaking his left leg. They were caught later. Bacon and Comfort were taken into custody as suspects as one of them was armed and the other gave evidence of being one of the gang. Four of the men under arrest have prison records.

Several of the bandits had been staying at Wolf lake for some weeks, having been guests of a prominent Jackson man just the day before the robbery.

Undersheriff Worden is survived by his widow and three children.

No charge has been placed against the bandits as yet, but it is likely at least four of them will be accused of murder.

Feed the Soil That Feeds You

We have heard much lately about depleted farms that are not able to produce a sufficient crop to pay for the work. Did you ever stop to think that the same thing may happen to your farm?

Bearing a crop is work for the soil just as your daily duties are work for you. Without food you can not continue long to work. Unless you return nourishment to the soil, in time it, also, will cease to produce. Put lime or other standard fertilizer on your soil. In order to do this at the least possible cost, use a machine built for the purpose—the Van Brunt Lime and Fertilizer Sower. This machine is a paying investment for every farmer whose land has been used continuously even for a few years.

You can get one of them at our store. If you will just drop in at your first opportunity, we will tell you all about it.

speeches, taking the theme, "The School from Various Viewpoints."

"The Teacher" was Mrs. Albert Benedict's portion and her learned paper on the main fact in the teacher's life, the child, was a great treat. She asserts the teacher must be religious, moral and patriotic and inject all three qualities into her scholars. She also pleaded for a stronger unity between the home and teacher.

Albert Boyce was the next speaker, with "The Boy" his topic. His talk was full of good advice to the youth leaving the farm for the life of the cities. He repeatedly reminded them there is no other way to success but by hard work. "Doing as well as you did yesterday is not enough." He gave a beautiful tribute to the mothers of the district, some long gone but who by their sterling characters have left their lasting imprint on those about them.

The program was here varied by a vocal solo by Wilbur Boyce, "The Barefoot Trail." He was accompanied by Miss Marjorie Boyce.

"The Parent" was toasted by James Cupples, a former teacher of the district. He strongly commended the district for the effort of organizing this reunion, which speaks so well for the community. He emphasized the duty of the parent to the child, to see that he is well fed, has good places to play and a good healthy building in which to study. He strongly advocates the necessary punishment by the teacher but objects forcibly to the nagging of the teacher as practiced by some parents.

Many answered the "Don't You Remember?" Fremont (Dick) Goheen began school in 1854. He gave a partial list of his first teachers, with a tribute to each. He mentioned Amanda Goheen, Mary Jane Culbertson McNair, Lucinda Stevens, Julia Hough, Miss Alvordson, Julia Miller Roberts, Mr. Wood, Mr. Wheeler, Brant Roberts, Austin Hall, Rufus Raymond. Among the scholars he spoke of were Albert Coffin, John Scriber, James and Samuel Boyce, Ella McCann, Ed and Jack Culbertson, the Durees, the DePuys, the Smeltzers, the Mather sisters and the three Marshall boys.

Miss Emma Rogers told of the literary societies and social activities of the district in the late seventies, especially of a great Fourth of July celebration in Jehiel Davidson's woods in 1879.

D. T. Hall's memories were mainly of the water snakes which scared him from the old swimming hole and locking the other "kids" in the woodshed.

Herman Atwell of Palmyra followed with more stories of the olden times.

Mrs. Clarence Hunt delighted her audience with a reading, "When Father Took the Bee Sting Cure for Rheumatiz."

S. W. Boyce told of their new standardized school building which most had viewed earlier in the day and the requirements necessary for such a school, all of which had been followed.

Other speakers were Mrs. Sylvia Davidson of Jackson and Mrs. Rose DePuy Tabor of Madison, Wis.

Miss Kyle read many messages from members at a distance, a few of them being Katie Kehoe Rose of Battle Creek, J. D. Kishpaugh of Gridley, Kan., Libbie Smeltzer McCloud of Detroit, Mrs. Jennie Hall of Springfield, Ill., Ellen McCann Herbison of Bath, J. P. Bunnell of Ft. Wayne, L. B. Benedict of Youngstown, Ohio, Emilie Guiwits of Lincoln, Neb., Lillian Cole of Adrian, Minnie Jones Cairnes of Toledo.

After the singing of "Auld Lang Syne" the gathering adjourned.

Present besides those above mentioned were Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Culbertson of Detroit; Mrs. Frank Weed of Battle Creek, Mrs. Saunders and Mrs. Fremont Goheen of Eaton Rapids, Mr. and Mrs. Webb Kay of Detroit, Alice Nemire of Columbus, George Benedict of Detroit, Miss Edith King of Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Nobles of Detroit, Miss Irene Kehoe of South Bend, Mrs. E. McKenzie of Chicago, Miss Wilhelmina Koernig of Monmouth, Ill., Mrs. Hattie Moon Dresser of Litchfield, Mr. and Mrs. John Calhoun of Holloway.

One pleasant incident was a family reunion of six brothers and sisters of the Boyce family: John T. Boyce, Mrs. Mary Benedict, Mrs. Jane Agnes Rector, Mrs. Nellie VanDoren, Samuel W. Boyce and Albert Boyce of Columbus.

Among the former teachers were James Cupples, Miss Kyle, Mrs. Hattie Moon Dresser, Mrs. Edith Rector Calhoun, Lloyd Hanford, Mrs. Iva Waldron VanValkenburg, Miss Vie Snedicor, Mrs. Edith Fluhrer Hunt, Mrs. Albert Benedict.

Mrs. Benedict and Mrs. Sheldon ask anyone who inadvertently carried home anyone else's dishes in place of their own to return the same to them and they will find the owners.

And so closed the most successful Culbertson reunion yet held, the credit for which largely goes to the president and other officers.

PRESBYTERIANS NOT TO CALL REV. GEO. MITCHELL

A congregational meeting was held at the Presbyterian church after the morning service Sunday, when Rev. Edward Montgomery of Adrian, moderator of this presbytery, presided. After prayer by R. M. Moiles, the business for which the meeting was called was transacted, that of voting on the candidacy of Rev. Geo. Mitchell of White Bear, Minn., for this pulpit. The first question balloted was "Are we ready to proceed with the election of a pastor?" Sixty-five voted yes and 35 no. Then came the ballot in relation to Mr. Mitchell, which stood 40 for his election and 56 for his rejection.

The meeting was adjourned following an address by Rev. Montgomery, in which he gave some excellent advice to the congregation.

At the morning service Rev. Montgomery gave the sermon, using as his text Psalm 24:1-2, "The earth is the Lord's and the fullness thereof; the world, and they that dwell therein. For He hath founded it upon the seas, and established it upon the floods." Rev. Montgomery said: "Let this be the solid foundation under our feet, in spite of the unrest in every phase of our lives today. In business, science, politics and even religion there is the unrest as there has been in every other age. But now the masses of workmen, drunk with power, are making demands hitherto unknown. No wonder men in business feel insecure. Religious standards, creeds and formulas are losing ground and only the spirit, the personal experience counts. But fear not, the foundation of God standeth sure.

"No matter what changes take place, the fact of duty remains unchanged. The fact that man is heir to immortality remains solid and God's eternal purposes must succeed."

Mrs. Jenny C. Law Hardy addressed the M. E. Sunday school Sunday on "The Birds and Animals of Australia." On her return from her recent trip she brought home a splendid collection of mounted birds and skins of the Australian animals and many of the wild men's weapons, which she exhibited during her lecture, much to the edification of her audience. The little people and many of their elders asked questions and the discussions proved interesting indeed.

A large crowd attended last night's street show and witnessed a good program. Barth and Barth, a man and woman, gave some excellent acrobatic stunts and the woman the best bar work that has been seen here this season. For next Wednesday Manager Jones has billed two Scotch bag-pipers and dancers and a team of acrobats.

FIRST FARM BUREAU PRESIDENT FROM RANKS

The American Farm Bureau Federation drafted a real farmer from the ranks to serve as its first president. He is James R. Howard of Clemons, Ia. Three years ago Jim Howard was known to his neighbors "as the best farmer in central Iowa," so they elected him head of the local County Farm Bureau. Last year the state organization selected him, and now he heads the national body. Howard grew up on the same farm where he now lives—only the original quarter section now numbers 480 acres. He attended school at Grinnell, Penn College and University of Chicago. He tried teaching, then banking, but 10 years ago returned to active charge of the old farm—which now is rated "one of the best in the state."

Fire Chief Heesen Threatens to Resign

COUNCIL'S REFUSAL TO PAY BILL OF $25 CAUSES UPHEAVAL.

Remark Chief Had Not Done Duty Incenses Official — Department Induces Head to Remain—Officers Re-Elected—Needs to be Brought Before Trustees.

A special meeting and what proved to be sort of an indignation session was held by the Tecumseh fire department at the council rooms Tuesday evening.

The reason the meeting was held was because the board of village trustees recently refused to pay a bill for $25 presented by Floyd Heesen, [illegible] the fire department. When John McCaughan was hired as driver of the fire truck it was agreed he was to have certain days off duty, when a substitute driver would be provided. Arrangements were made by the council with Chief Heesen and he consented to take the responsibility of getting the truck to the fires in the absence of Driver McCaughan. Chief Heesen faithfully filled his obligations in this respect throughout the year and at the end of that period submitted a bill for $25 for these special services. The councilmen declined to pay it on the ground that Mr. Heesen was not called upon to take out

Many Features Being Planned For Sports Day

Indications are that Tecumseh's big sports day is to be a grand and glorious occasion in every way.

The plans for the event are now being rushed to completion and the promoters anticipate the day will be a red letter occasion in the history of the city.

Wednesday, August 25, is the date, and Underwood-Orr post, American Legion, under whose auspices the sports are to be held, is making an intensive effort to provide new and entertaining features for every moment of the day.

In the forenoon there will be a parade, all sorts of races on the business streets and free vaudeville stunts.

During the afternoon there will be a ball game at Athletic park between the Tecumseh Independents and the Grottos of Ann Arbor, more free vaudeville acts and a speaker of prominence will give an address.

The program for the evening includes free vaudeville stunts and two dances will be in progress.

Throughout the day and evening three bands will keep things lively, there will be side shows in operation, a merry-go-round will be a feature as well as a "whip" and many concessions.

An aeroplane will be stationed here for the day, the bird-man to give some sensational maneuvers in the air.

With such a varied program, the Legion men hope the attendance will break all records.

LAST CAR OF OIL FOR THIS YEAR HAS ARRIVED

The second and what will also be the last car of street oil to be received in Tecumseh this year has arrived and is now being spread.

Although the oil arrived in this city Monday and it had been planned to begin spreading it Tuesday, the heavy rain of Monday night made this impractical.

As not enough petitions to warrant ordering more of the fluid have been received by L. E. Temple, the purchasing agent, no more will be ordered this year.

Pleads Prohibition Be Kept in Force

Mrs. Jenny C. Law Hardy Found No Drunkenness in U. S. But Much in Wet Australia.

In her address on "Australia and Prohibition" at the community service at the Presbyterian church Sunday evening Mrs. Jenny C. Law Hardy made a fervent appeal to her many hearers to help keep America dry, thus preventing the cursed liquor traffic from again imbedding its fangs in the people of the United States.

Dr. and Mrs. Hardy have but recently returned from a trip to Australia, which was the latter's birthplace, and her discourse was the summary of her observations while journeying across dry America and wet Australia. On comparing liquorless America with Australia and its traffic in intoxicants the United States was shown to be the more desirable place in which to live.

That prohibition is being strictly enforced in this country cannot be doubted, says Mrs. Hardy. She explained that on their trip to the

Oppose Sending Their Children to West Branch

Objection has developed to placing the kindergarten, first and second grades in the West Branch school, parents residing in Brownville having prepared a petition of protest signed by a large number of people making their homes in that part of town, and it is to be presented to the board of education.

The petition is as follows:

We, the undersigned parents and guardians of the children of Brownville in the kindergarten and first and second grades, do hereby respectively petition the school board of District No. 7, Tecumseh, Mich., in behalf of said children that they be permitted to remain in the central building, or the older grades be sent to the West Branch and the smaller children be permitted to remain in the High school for the following reasons:

1. It is too far to walk.
2. After walking the greater distance the children could not get home to lunch and back for the afternoon session.
3. They are too young to be trusted to go that distance without an older person because of having to cross the railroad and seven extra blocks and street crossings.
4. Also seven extra blocks farther to walk than to the central building.
5. Also in case of severe winter weather and bad walks they would be unable to attend school.

SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD HAS SESSION AT LAKE

The Sunday school board of the Methodist church held its August meeting last Tuesday evening in the delightful summer home of Dr. and Mrs. H. R. Conklin at Sand lake. About 50 people were present, eight auto loads going from Tecumseh. All had a joyous time and there was a profitable business session under the direction of Superintendent Willett.

Mrs. McIntyre and Mrs. Field were appointed a committee to cooperate with the committees of the other churches to plan for the county Sunday school convention to be held in Tecumseh October 21 and 22.

Leslie Abbott was appointed delegate to the boys' conference to be held in Bay City September 24 to 27. Raynor McLean and Bertram Updike were made alternates.

A picnic lunch was served. Dr. and Mrs. Conklin, together with Mr. and Mrs. Myron Conklin proved themselves most gracious entertainers.

Decides to Erect 3 Houses at Once

Tecumseh Home Building Association Swings Into Action.

Action is now promised by the Tecumseh Home Building association, it having been decided to erect three houses at once.

The board of directors had practically decided to take this step but because of the long delay and the possibility that a need for homes no longer existed here it was considered advisable to have the expression of the stockholders in regard to the matter. The meeting of the stockholders was held Monday evening, about a dozen of the 28 in the association being present.

During the discussion it was brought out that the house shortage is still as acute as in the spring and the concensus of opinion was that the board of directors' project for the erection of theree homes be undertaken immediately.

It is planned to have these houses consist of five rooms and a bath, with furnace heat, plumbing all complete and all details in first class condition. The houses are to be erected on desirable lots so that they would be attractive and the chances for selling them all the better. One is already spoken for, so it was the general opinion that there would be no difficulty in disposing of the other two.

Work on the buildings is to start immediately, with the prospects that the three houses will be ready for occupany before snow flies.

Fords Place Big Order for Rails

More Rolling Stock and Better Roadbeds Also Planned for D., T. & I.

It having been announced that Henry Ford and his son, Edsel, who recently purchased the D., T. & I. railroad, have also bought $500,000 worth of steel rails, it is expected the portion of the road traversing Tecumseh will also be improved when the new equipment is placed. Those in close touch with Henry and Edsel Ford have intimated that besides the new rails, additional rolling stock and better roadbeds are included in the plans of the new owners of the line.

According to advices from Lansing the Ford plan for constructing a connecting line between the Detroit, Toledo & Ironton and the Detroit Terminal railroad, at a point two and one-half miles southwest of Trenton, is being held up by the Michigan Public Utilities commission.

The utilities commission Wednesday filed a brief with the Interstate Commerce commission urging the latter not to authorize the connecting line until certain technical points as to the possible application of the state law regarding supervision of security issues had been cleared up.

Jonathan Green Expires, Aged 93

Death Hastened by Accident on Railroad Tracks—Had Held Many Public Offices.

Death yesterday morning removed one of the most prominent of Raisin township's farmers when Jonathan Green, aged 93, passed into the long sleep. In June the carriage in which Mr. Green was riding was struck by a D., T. & I. train. He apparently recovered from his injuries in a measure and in a few days was again on the streets of Tecumseh visiting with his many friends, but the shock was too great for a man of his years and his health has been gradually failing.

Mr. Green was born in Rochester, Monroe county, New York, in 1827 and when 25 years of age came to Raisin Valley. Ever since, with the exception of four years spent in Detroit, he had lived in the same house.

He had held many offices of trust, in state, county and township, but none that he seemed to enjoy more than his work on the school board of his district. For 55 years he had served in various offices and never missed a meeting.

He was assistant U. S. assessor from 1862 to 1870, then for four years was deputy U. S. marshal, with headquarters at Detroit. He was appointed undersheriff in 1874, which office he held four years. Since he had served several terms as justice of the peace.

He was a charter member of Raisin Grange and Raisin Valley Grange and was thought to be the oldest Granger in the state.

His wife, who was Miss Jane Cornelius, died about 12 years ago. Mr. Green leaves two daughters, Mrs. Addie M. Graves, who lives on the home farm, and Mrs. David E. Barker of Macedon, N. Y., and one son, Arthur, also living on the old place. There are also six grandchildren, 14 great-grandchildren and one sister, Mrs. Helen Darrohn, of Rochester.

The funeral will be held tomorrow at 2:30 from the home, four miles southwest of town, with burial in Raisin Valley cemetery.

FORMER TECUMSEHITE WEDS A MONTANA GIRL

Julius Wuerthner, well known in this vicinity and prominent young attorney of Great Falls, Mont., was married July 28 to Miss [illegible] Pierce of Miles City, Mont. The ceremony was performed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. J. [illegible]man, relatives of the bride, in Great Falls. The Rev. [illegible] Keller of the Episcopal Church of the Incarnation read the service in the presence of a small party. The young couple are spending their honeymoon at a lake near Spokane, to be at home to their friends after October 1 in Great Falls.

Mr. Wuerthner is a brother of Miss Laliah Wuerthner of this city and besides attending to his growing law practice is a musician of note, playing one of the [illegible] church organs [illegible]. The bride is one of the younger society set of Great Falls and the number of parties given in her honor show her popularity in her home city.

T. B. C. Clinic Here September 2 and 3

County Red Cross Chapter Brings State Specialists to Make Free Examinations.

September 2 and 3 a free tuberculosis clinic will be held in Tecumseh and all those who suspect they have the disease are urged to attend. The two-day clinic will be held in the basement of the public library.

Mrs. Mary [illegible]ves is making the local arrangements for the clinic, she being chairman for this work in this city. The campaign against the great white plague in this county is under the direction of the Lenawee Chapter of the American Red Cross, Miss Laura Ethel Comfort of Tecumseh, the visiting nurse, being in direct charge of the work. Miss Mary Mackenzie, the secretary of the Home Service department of the county Red Cross chapter, will also have a part in making the clinic successful.

The actual work of making the examination of patients will be done by men trained for this branch of the medical profession. Dr. George H. Ramsey, of the tuberculosis clinician section of the Michigan department of health, and Dr. Frank L. Rose, of the same department, will make the examinations. Dr. Rose will pay particular attention to the children brought to the clinic. One nurse from the state board of health will accompany the two specialists.

It is the hope of the Red Cross that a large number of people will avail themselves of this free opportunity to have suspected cases of tuberculosis diagnosed and it is requested all interested will be present either September 2 or 3. It is especially desired that children who may be threatened with or suffering from the disease be brought under the observation of the physicians.

The specialists from the state board of health will spend ten days in Lenawee county, making their first visit here. On September 4 and 6 they will hold a clinic in Blissfield, September 7 and 8 in Morenci and in Hudson on September 9 and 10.

F. W. Stevens Goes to Important Post

Nephew of Henry W. Stevens Will Represent U. S. Bankers In China.

Frederick W. Stevens of Ann Arbor, nephew of Henry W. Stevens of this ctiy, has been chosen for a most extraordinary and difficult task by a group of the leading bankers of America which will take him to China on a mission that may take several years to fulfill. The University City man was born and reared at Clinton and is well known in the neighboring town and has a number of acquaintances in Tecumseh.

Mr. Stevens has been chosen as the representative of the group of American bankers participating in the consortium for China and will leave for Peking about the middle of October. Announcement of the former Clinton resident's appointment to this important post was made by J. P. Morgan & Co. of New York.

The consortium which Mr. Stevens will represent is composed of groups of banks and bankers from the United States, England, France and Japan, formed at the request of the governments of these nations for the purpose of assisting China in the development of her great public enterprises.

The great trust placed in Mr. Stevens and high honor bestowed on him reflects most favorably on Clinton, the town of his birth. His uncle, Henry W. Stevens, also takes particular pride in the unlimited confidence placed in his nephew by the leading bankers of the United States. F. W. Stevens is a graduate of the University of Michigan and for 20 years practiced law in Grand Rapids and later in Detroit, being general counsel for the Pere Marquette railroad for some time. After severing his connection with J. P. Morgan & Co. he traveled extensively in the orient. Mrs. Stevens will accompany her husband on his important mission.

Foundry Damaged, Barn and Auto Burn

Blaze at Heesen Bros.' Plant Quickly Extinguished; R. N. Lowe Has $1,300 Fire Loss.

Two fires have occurred in Tecumseh during the past week, one of them being a spectacular early morning blaze which drew hundreds of people, most of them but scantily clad. The most destructive of the two blazes was the one early Saturday morning at the R. N. Lowe place on West Chicago street, where a barn and auto were consumed, the total loss being estimated at $1,300. At supper time Saturday the roof of a portion of the Heesen Bros. & Co. foundry was discovered in flames, the damage here being about $250.

The fire in the Lowe barn was discovered at 3:30 a. m. by Mrs. Lowe when she awakened to get their young son a drink of water, the child being ill with the measles at the time. The flames were crackling loudly by this time and had attracted the attention of neighbors. Edward Nyland had just driven in from the lake and he hastened to call the fire department. The blaze had gained considerable headway and the fire fighters could not save the structure nor the Ford auto that it contained. The firemen did valient duty, however, in preventing the flames from spreading to the numerous nearby buildings and were remarkably successful. The sheds of the Baptist church, which were only a few feet from the Lowe barn, did get scorched to the extent of about $50.

Besides the auto, the barn contained a quantity of lumber, more than $100 worth of tools, some furniture and a complete hunting outfit, including valuable guns, owned by Mr. Lowe. The cartridges in this equipment and a can of gasoline in the structure as well as the tank on the Ford exploded before the firemen arrived, no one being hurt. There was about $150 insurance on the barn. How the fire started is not known. Mr. Lowe put his car away about 9 o'clock Friday night and had not been near the barn after that.

About 6 o'clock Saturday evening George Hawkes, the nightwatchman at the American Steel and Wire Company plant, discovered flames bursting through the roof of the core department of the Heesen foundry. This had not made much headway and the fire department soon had this blaze extinguished, about $250 damage being done. How this blaze started is still a mystery, but R. A. Heesen expressed the opinion that there had probably been too hot a fire in one of the stoves, which had caused an over-heated chimney from which the roof caught fire. As the hose had to be laid across the tracks of the New York Central railroad the evening train north was delayed for a few minutes while the firemen were making sure that all the flames had been extinguished.

Four Tecumseh R. F. D. Men Benefit by $100 Increase—Get Sick Leave Also.

Beginning with this month rural mail carriers receive an increase in pay and the four R. F. D. men having routes out of Tecumseh will be among those to benefit.

Under the new schedule of salaries the carrier on a standard route of 24 miles in length will receive $1,800, this being $100 more than previously. The maximum pay is $2,150 for a route of 36 miles.

The R. F. D. men will also get sick leave hereafter, a privilege they have not enjoyed in the past. The sick leave clause gives them ten days per annum, which is cumulative up to three years, after which it lapses if the carrier has not had occasion to use it.

In the future the rural mail carrier is granted a vacation at the rate of one and one-fourth days for every month he has been in service during the year.

NUMBER OF BAPTISTS AT SERVICE AT SAND CREEK

Sunday afternoon the members of the choir of the Baptist church and a few friends accompanied their pastor, Rev. W. R. Curtis, to Sand Creek where a service was held. Enroute the party enjoyed a bountiful picnic dinner. The choir rendered an appropriate anthem, after which Rev. Curtis gave a splendid discourse, using for his text John 12:24. After the service the Sand Creek people furnished ice cream, which was very much appreciated. Every one who went enjoyed the trip except those who had to mend punctured tires on the way home.

AFRAID OF THE CARS.

Not much change in national politics since the conventions of the two big parties. Two good, solid American men (newspaper men at that) head the tickets of parties that have wilfully sidestepped national and world problems simply because they were afraid of the cars.

From indications it looks quite probable that the dominating issue of America's entrance into the great war has been forgotten. The people were told, when asked for their loyal support, that the United States' motive was to make future wars impossible. The armistice was signed and Europe was allowed to forget that we had any interest whatever in the war. Our troops were withdrawn and political squabbles in Washington kept the greatest power of the world out of the League of Nations. Wars are continuing and will continue as long as the prestige of the United States is withdrawn from the allies that fought three years to save our skin over here. We helped them turn the tide to victory in the crisis on the battlefield, but abandoned them in their need to establish peace.

As we sow so shall we reap. In all probability we can look forward to another big war, more deadly than all that have passed. And why? Just because men will allow petty politics to warp their good judgment.

The last national administration was handicapped by political differences—a Democratic president with no party support. In this most important era are the people of the United States going to let such a circumstance be repeated? There is no need to fear the loyalty, uprightness and ability of either of the candidates of the two leading parties. The real danger is in tying the successful aspirant's hands by giving his opposition a majority in the house.

With the head of the nation and the senate and congress in harmony there is a chance that at least some of our difficult problems can be solved. Plan to stand behind your favorite candidate and vote him the right support next November.

GOOD ADVICE OF A BIG CITY EDITOR.

It is reported that one or both of the big parties have decided to do a lot of billboard advertising over the country during the campaign. Which moves Arthur Brisbane, the famous New York editor, to remark in his widely printed column headed "Today":

"Poor advertising. Better use the small country newspapers, such as Harding and Cox own, and especially the country weekly newspapers. They cost less than billboards, and are worth a thousand times more—the people BELIEVE in them."

Truly. And the Republican and Democratic campaign committees would be wise to remember it. Where billboard advertising gets one mile, the country newspaper gets 1,000 miles.

The country people see the billboards and when they don't hate them for the horrible disfigurement of their landscape, they are indifferent to them.

They don't hate their community newspaper. They are not indifferent to it. As a matter of fact they have a feeling that is akin to love for the newspaper that chronicles the news of their neighbors, friends and relatives and they are as attentive to its contents as they are indifferent to the abominable billboard.

All the people of a community know the editor and trust him. If they hadn't learned to trust him, you may be sure he would have no newspaper today. Trusting him, they trust his paper and believe it. Think of billboard advertising alongside of that. Ye gods!

NO SLUMP IN SIGHT.

As far as the mental eye can see there are no prospects for a decided slump in prices. In fact still higher costs are predicted in many lines of necessities of life. One of the greatest difficulties experienced by the business world has been the procuring of supplies. Lack of transportation facilities has been a depression generally felt by the public and will continue to be felt when the consumer pays his coal bill this winter, providing he can get the coal. However, there may be some relief from transportation congestion if the railroads succeed in securing increased freight rates they are laboring for. Increased freight rates will not tend to lower the price of commodities.

BUSINESS FAILURES.

Eighty-four per cent of the business failures of the past year occurred among firms that did no advertising. This is the assertion made by the Bradstreet Commercial Agency, which is as unbiased authority as can be found in the business world today. Bradstreet compiled this information from statistics—not guesswork.—Brooklyn Exponent.

Business men are too apt to believe advertising an expense instead of an investiment, fail to study conditions and continue in the old rut without any vision of future prosperity. The advertiser as a rule studies conditions, keeps up with times and gives service besides selling goods. He makes a success of business life and has the confidence of those who help in the making of his success.

The man of little faith pops up quite frequently, even in small things. He loses a watch or money and waits for the finder to advertise the lost article, afraid that he might spend two bits without getting results. The finder of lost articles also assumes a waiting game and becomes disgusted when the loser fails to give notice of his loss. Many lost articles have been restored to owners through the medium of Herald want adlets.

NOT IMPRESSED.

Thirty-three years in the Arctic, trapping and hunting, has been the life of W. D. Clark, who came recently to Vancouver for the first time in that period. He saw upon his arrival his first automobile, first street car, first flying machine, and first moving picture, AND HE WAS NOT IMPRESSED. Simple nature, even with the northern rigors, is more attractive to him than civilization with its hundred and one varieties of burning energy. Mr. Clark came out with his last season's catch, which brought him $9,000. He returned to visit his 12-year-old daughter, whom he sent "outside" a few years ago to be educated in the ways of modern civilization. Mr. Clark's trapping range is in the Eagle River country on the Yukon.

When you get down to the real bottom of things do you wonder Mr. Clark was not impressed with modern civilization as viewed in the cities? What does a man get out of life in the roar and rampant energy of city existence? Cooped up all day in stuffy office or a smelly factory and at night restricted to four walls—at best with a tiny yard behind. Think of going through a 60 or 70-year life that way! Is it any surprise that it breeds discontent?

Mrs. Louise Klann and daughter, Mrs. Margaret Kohn, came Saturday from Capac, having been called here by the illness of the former's granddaughter, Miss Mabel Bloomer. Leora Bloomer, who has been visiting here for a couple of weeks, accompanied them to her home here.

Mrs. John Taylor, Mrs. W. B. Swick, Mrs. Chas. Gorham and Lillian, Mrs. A. J. Smith and Pearl and Miss Mary Cheever attended the Lenawee Cuonty L. O. T. M. association meeting in Palmyra Wednesday, Mrs. Taylor and daughters, Mary and Grace, accompanied them and spent the day at Lavern Taylor's.

Roy Reynolds had the misfortune to sustain a fracture of his right leg and hip Wednesday. The accident occurred at Ann Arbor while he was engaged in a tug-of-war with several men. When his foot slipped from a stone his weight was thrown upon his leg in such a way as to break it. This is the third time this leg has been fractured. He was brought to his home here where Dr. A. R. Lusty is attending him.

Higher Freight Rates Will Boost Coal Prices

Of course, you are aware that the higher freight rate soon to go into effect will result in an increase in the price of coal of from 75 cents to $2 per ton. The many thousand tons of coal that are daily being shipped to lake ports to be transported to points in the northwest is creating an acute shortage here and is bound to stimulate speculative buying.

OUR PRICE LOWER THAN OTHERS

In some towns the dealers are charging from $12 to $14 a ton for soft coal. Our prices are lower than this at present, but now it is a question whether prices will be very much lower for a long time because so many uncertainties and complications are developing from time to time.

WE CAN DELIVER AT ONCE

We have soft coal that we can deliver to you today and have a very little more in transit.

We would advise that you get your threshing coal at once and place your order for later requirements, specifying some of our excellent grade Ohio Lump.

Some dealers in nearby towns are asking $19 to $20 for Hard Coal, so you can realize what the independent coal is costing. Very few if any of the dealers have sufficient contracts to cover their requirements.

THERE'LL BE LITTLE HARD COAL

Nearly everybody is anxious to burn hard coal in the furnace, but it is almost certain there will not be enough obtainable at any price. We believe it would be economy for people to burn soft coal and there is more liklihood that this fuel will be available.

Two weeks ago there was a little loose high priced Pocohontas coal to be had but it was grabbed up quickly and now there is none of that kind in sight at any price.

BUY NOW—WHAT YOU CAN GET

All things considered, our suggestion to our friends is that you buy now what you can use while you do not need it, because it is very likely when you do need it the price will be almost prohibitive if you can get the coal at all.

WHY?

In selecting your next automobile what will be the points on which you will make the decision?

Will you buy a car because it is nationally well advertised?

Will you purchase it because your neighbor has one like it?

Will you buy it because you wish a better car than your neighbor has?

Will you select it because you can afford to have a better machine than the one you are using?

Will you buy it because you have confidence in a certain dealer, one you know will give you the best of service?

Will you purchase it because some agency will give you a better deal on the old car? Possibly you have not as much faith in this make but the deal you can get is an extra good one and you have already made up your mind to trade it off in a year anyway.

How We Would Buy a Car

Knowing what we do regarding the automobile business, if we were going to buy a car we would go at it along these lines:

First, we would decide on what priced car we could afford.

Then we would look over a few of the cars in this class, would watch them go by, but would not even hint to our neighbor that we planned to purchase a new car. We would then decide on one of the cars in this price class, one that was being sold by an agency that had been estblished for some time and we believed was making enough money to remain in business for a few years at least.

We would go to this agency and ask to be shown the department where the auto parts are kept that we might SEE the parts that we might need within the next few months or years, thus being positive that the agency actually has what we might need. If they have the parts on hand and are willing to tell us all about the many details of the car that we would ask about, then we would request this agency to appraise the car we now owned with a view to making a bargain. We would not hold out for the last cent that we could possibly get for the used car, for we would realize that if we did drive an extra good bargain the agency would remember it for a long time and would not be as willing to give as good service as if the dealer had made a fair profit. We know enough about business to be confident that this agency is not making anywhere near the profits many people believe it is, as cars are sold on too small a net margin.

We ARE selling a lot of

Overland

CARS

We DO carry in stock a well assorted supply of parts.

We DO expect to be in business for years to come as we have other lines. For this reason we try our best to please you on your auto purchase, expecting that we can also sell you Coal, Farm Machinery, Tractors, etc. We know that if you did not get good service here we could not continue to sell you goods. Thus it is plain that our position is much different than if we sold only autos.

Think it over from all angles.

Then call and see us about the Overland or Wyllis-Knight cars or the Samson Tractor or Truck.

Entertain 50 on Golden Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cooper Remembered With Gifts on Gladsome Occasion—Newly-Weds Present.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cooper were married just a half century Sunday, August 8, so in celebration a party of 50 of their friends and neighbors passed a delightful day at their home on East Kilbuck street. In the party were their grandson and bride, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Cooper, of Adrian who were married only the day before, with two other couples of newly-weds and Mr. and Mrs. Truman Gee of Dundee, who celebrated their 53rd wedding anniversary April 3, last.

The home was decorated in yellow and white, arm-loads of golden glow being used in each room with streamers of yellow and white festooning the ceilings. A large tent had been erected on the lawn, where at handsomely laid tables a picnic dinner was served. Here again was carried out the color scheme of yellow and white. The food was served from a table which [illegible] of Mrs. [illegible]'s fondly cherished gifts at the wedding 50 years ago and the knife used to cut her wedding cake was again in service for the golden anniversary.

The love of their friends was evidenced by a fine display of gifts sent them as souvenirs of the event.

Robert Cooper was born in Huron county, Ohio, August 7, 1847, while the helpmate who has accompanied him these many years down life's pathway first saw the light in Pioneer, Ohio, May 1, 1854. Her maiden name was Hannah Marshall. With her parents she moved to Charlotte when very small. There she resided until about 15 years of age, when she went to Bay City. It was there she married Mr. Cooper August 8, 1870. They soon went to Dundee and that was their home for 43 years, when they moved to Tecumseh seven years ago.

Both these highly esteemed old people enjoy excellent health, Mr. Cooper working every day while his wife goes energetically about her housework. They have five children: Mrs. Eulalie Beaubien of this city, Edward Cooper of Adrian, George and Fern Cooper of Tecumseh and Claude of Toledo. Three of the boys spent long terms in the service of their country. George gave nine years to the infantry, Fern was with the artillery three years and Claude during his eight years in the navy saw much of the world. There are 12 grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

Present from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Truman Gee, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Gee and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Gee of Dundee; George Heman and family of Britton; Mr. and Mrs. Claude L. Cooper and little Margaret, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Slater and little daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Good and children of Toledo; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gee, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Berlen of Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. Ed Cooper and family, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Cooper and Otis Beaubien of Adrian.

The aged couple are prominent in the Friends church.

LENAWEE HISTORY AS TOLD BY F. S. DEWEY AT PIKE MEN'S GATHERING

When the Michigan Pike Association members arrived at Cambridge Junction last week on their international tour they were given an absorbing sketch of Lenawee county's early history by F. S. Dewey of Detroit, a former resident of the county. Mr. Dewey is a descendant of one of the pioneer families of Cambridge and during the past few years has spent much time in gathering historical data regarding the vicinity in which he was born.

The Detroiter spoke from the porch of the old Cambridge Junction Inn, one of Southern Michigan's earliest and best known landmark's, his words attracting the undivided attention of the pike association members.

Mr. Dewey's address is of such deep interest to the people of this vicinity that it is given herewith:

"Fellow Citizens, Pilgrims, Philanthropists, Benefactors, we welcome you to this our land of rural charm. You are nearing the close of a journey of 2,000 miles. You are now arrived at Cambridge Junction. Creeping down yon sloping hill you see beautiful la Plaisance Bay Turnpike leading from Monroe and Tecumseh, the ancient home of the old chief. Here it makes junction with the Chicago turnpike, cut through as a trail in 1824. In '32 congress appropriated $250,000 to construct the Chicago turnpike, 100 feet wide. In most of its extent it has lamentably shrunk. Eager settlers thronged along its way.

"In 1833 this old house (Cambridge Junction Inn) was built by Sylvester Walker and was used as a wayside inn until 1854, when the great brick tavern across the way was finished. From an historical viewpoint this old wayside inn surpasses any other house in Michigan. In 1836 that distinguished and charming English author, Harriet Martineau, rested here. 'Society in America' was the product of her long pilgrimage to the far west.

Daniel Webster Occupied Room.

"In 1837 that peerless statesman and orator, the pride of America, Daniel Webster, selected this house for a resting place. His illustrious presence consecrated the walls of that upper southeast room that looks out upon the two great thoroughfares. Observe that old truncated oak, at the west. Its top was severed in 1840 there to mount the stars and stripes. The fiercest campaign that ever swept our country was on. Every throat was hoarse with 'Tippecanoe and Tyler Too.' A vast mass meeting was held here. Throngs gathered from 50 miles around. A huge team of 40 oxen came from the Jackson way, hauling a completely equipped log house with live coons tethered to the top.

"Not to be outdone Jonesville and Somerset hove in on the scene with a long team of 80 oxen, trailing a log mansion on ponderous oaken wheels, sections of the mighty oak. Coonskin head gear decked the throng and every house was rich with casks of delicious old hard cider in every threat of trickling. That fiery orator, Tom Ewing from Ohio, stirred up the throng from time to time as the husky housewife stirs a steaming pot of cornmeal mush.

First Missionary Arrives.

"In the early thirties came that sweet missionary, the Rev. William Narcissus Lyster, all through this wild region on his little donkey, searching for souls. He was the first rector at Tecumseh, at Clinton, at Cambridge and Brooklyn and finally, '47, '48, of Christ church in Detroit.

"Behind the bar in this front corner room he stood, in '43 with the bracing rows of shining bottles the bracing rows of shining bottles for backing, and announced his text—Isaiah, 55th, 1st verse, 'Ho, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters, and he that hath no money; come ye, buy and eat; yea, come, buy wine and milk without money and without price.'

"In 1847 the whole family of James Fennimore Cooper arrived here and took up their abode fot the summer. Mrs. Cooper, her two daughters and two servants remained here and fished in those crystal lakes, while Mr. Cooper, the real father of American romance, journeyed with his two Indian guides far to the westward and like a bee gathering honey, culled the precious material for that charming story of the 'Oak Openings,' in which the principal character is the old Bee Hunter.

Building of First Church.

"There was no church edifice here. William Blackmer lived over on the southeast corner. He wanted a church, would give the site to any denomination that would build it. Lines were sharply drawn. The people could not agree. To settle the controversy he said: 'I will give the land to the denomination that will put the first load of brick upon it.' To the west there lived Alonzo Smith. He was in the anxious crowd and barefooted. He made the dust fly and at midnight he roused the brickman in Jackson. As the sun gilded the tops of the Irish Hills he drove triumphantly in upon the sacred hilltop and there was founded the first rural Episcopal church in Michigan.

"These trackless forests were quickly settled by an intelligent and prosperous people, and in every cabin man was king and the iron poker was his regal scepter; while the song of the housewife mingled with the cooing of her brood and the hum of the spinning wheel, all mingled with the myriad bird songs, bringing down from heaven measureless blessings as you behold them on your way."

After some men get a start in life they don't know when to stop.

"Rat-Snap Beats the Best Trap Ever Made," Mrs. Emily Shaw Says.

PLEADS PROHIBITION BE KEPT IN FORCE

Pacific coast they made investigations at various places to get an idea of how the dry law was being enforced. Nowhere in this country did they see any drunkards, she asserted. They visited the slums of Chicago and entered a number of the places that were formerly considered the worst, but drunkenness was not to be found. There were but few men in the places and these were orderly, quiet and partaking of soft drinks. In Texas and Arizona the conditions were the same, the men in the mining towns being quiet, sober and peaceable, a decided contrast to the days when liquor was to be had freely. She said one of the most unusual sights in the western towns was to see the cowboys drink buttermilk instead of red liquor.

But on arriving in wet Australia the scene changed, the speaker said. They had not been in the largest port in New Zealand 15 minutes before they encountered a drunken man. The most pitiful phase of the present situation in Australia, declared Mrs. Hardy, is the fact that the returning soldiers fall such easy victims to the liquor sellers. They saw many drunken soldiers, but the lecturer defended these fighters, asserting practically the first greeting these men get is "Come and have a drink." Intoxicated men were seen everywhere in Australia and the degrading conditions accompanying the traffic in liquor were observable in all the towns.

In refutation of the oft-made statement that more liquor is now being made and imbibed in the United States than when this country had saloons, Mrs. Hardy said it would make the drinkers just as intoxicated as in the olden days, but in their travels in America they had failed to find the jags that were so prevalent before aridness struck this land.

Australia is most liberal in compensating its returned soldiers, but the veterans are not much benefitted by it as half of their pay finds its way into the cash drawer of the saloons, according to one of the officials connected with the pension department. It was stated that 84 million dollars is spent for liquor each year in Australia.

Mrs. Hardy said the liquor interests in this country are sending out reports to other lands that [illegible] It was to refute these falsehoods that she appeared before the public. One of the numerous stories current in Australia is that America is now a nation of dope fiends, this being the result of the country going dry. Another is that the women of the United States have taken to drinking as a protest against prohibition.

The agitation that the sale of beer and light wines be permitted in America is at the behest of the liquor men, the lecturer-tourist declared. She warned the people of Tecumseh that this would only be an entering wedge, and if such a law was passed it means the return of the saloon and all its evil influences.

"You have no idea how the world looks up to America now that this country is dry," asserted Mrs. Hardy. "You do not realize how the world looks up to the women who have helped to make the United States dry. If America again legalizes the liquor traffic it will be a blow to the whole world, as this country is considered the leader. It is up to the women to keep this curse out of the land and I urge you to go to the polls and vote right. Those who fail to vote are slackers as much as the man who evades military service."

Next Sunday evening the community service will be held at the Methodist church.

the truck once during the time he was on call as there had been no fires on those occasions. The chief resented the imputation he had not done his duty and threatened to resign, this being one of the principal reasons for the meeting of Tuesday night.

After the election of officers, which resulted in the old ones being rechosen, Chief Heesen reminded his associates he had been at the head of the Tecumseh fire fighters 14 years and the present councilmen's insinuation that he had not done his duty was the first time his faithfulness had been questioned. Trustee Charles Hanna, who was the only councilman present, remarked it was not a question of the chief not having done his duty, but as he had not been called upon to drive the fire truck during the time he was acting as auxiliary driver the village officials were of the opinion he was not entitled to pay. Mr. Heesen replied that even though there was no fire during the time he was on call as substitute driver, he had the responsibility, could not leave town and was in other ways obliged to give the fire department his first attention. He questioned the willingness of the village trustees to co-operate with the fire department, pointing out that a short time ago when the department asked for rubber coats, boots and hats for the 14 members the council cut the order more than half and bought only six coats and hats and no boots. The chief declared another nozzle is needed at present as well as 300 or 400 more feet of hose to keep the equipment complete enough to assure efficiency at fires. He said the proposition had been made to the council that a complete outfit be purchased for every man in the department and each one be held responsible, before he is paid off at the end of the year an accounting be made and those who could not produce the garments be charged for them. No action was ever taken along this line, he asserted.

In substantiation of Chief Heesen's contention that his duties as auxiliary truck driver meant more than most people realized one of the members of the department called attention to a case that had come to his knowledge. This was the fact that on one of the occasions when the chief was acting as substitute he had an opportunity to go out into the country and demonstrate an automobile in his capacity as salesman for the Tecumseh Big Chief garage but as he was obliged to remain within call of the fire engine house he could not go and lost the sale.

There was much further discussion, a motion finally prevailing that Chief Heesen be given a vote of confidence and his resignation be not accepted. Mr. Heesen consented to continue at the head of the department but remarked he hoped he would hear no more about not doing his duty.

It was decided to have Chief Heesen and any other member of the department he might name appear before the council at its next meeting, which will be Monday evening, and bring to this body's attention the needs of the department, one of the requests to be for a gas mask, which could have been used here several times recently. This will be furnished by the government on request, it was stated. It was also voted to ask the council to furnish funds with which to send the chief to the annual convention of the state firemen's association and to reinstate the Tecumseh department in this organization. It has been four years since this city has been represented at the state convention.

Village Trustee Charles Hanna was elected a new member of the fire department, making a full quota of 12 members, the chief and truck driver.

President—D. F. Wright.
Vice President—W. L. Coller.
Secretary—J. Lester Coller.

The other members of the department are Floyd Heesen chief; George Hoag, first assistant; Percy Bowen, second assistant; B. W. Mominee, third assistant; Wesley Clark, Glenn Tansley, Ray Carr, Robert Eagan, Fred Shurtz, Charles Hanna and the truck driver, John McCaughan.

Chief Heesen reminds the public that only members of the department are permitted to ride on the fire truck. There is a village ordinance imposing a fine of $5 on others than members of the department for catching rides on the truck. He warns the people this will be enforced.

Hiram Cahill, locomotive engineer, 409 Evans St., Tecumseh, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills certainly do just as represented and I can recommend them highly. Three years ago I was laid up for eleven weeks in a terrible bad shape with kidney trouble. My back nearly had me wild with pain; every time I moved, sharp pains would catch me right across my kidneys. I had no control over the kidney secretions and many nights was obliged to get up as many as six times to pass the kidney secretions. They were highly colored and otherwise unnatural. I doctored, but got no relief until I bought three boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills from Wright & Son's Drug Store. This remedy reached my case at once and these three boxes cured me."

J. D. Shull's Cellar Entered by Burglars

Grape Juice Stolen—Robbers Who Invaded W. L. Coller Store Not Apprehended.

Burglars have again been active in Tecumseh, the cellar of John D. Shull being broken into Saturday night and a quantity of grape juice stolen.

Just at what hour the cellar was invaded is not known as the robbery was not discovered until Sunday morning. The intruders had drilled enough holes on a semi-circle in the outside cellar door to knock a piece out large enough to reach in and remove the brace which held the door.

It is the opinion of the local officers that the robbery was committed by local men who knew how the door was secured and what could be obtained.

The auto load of burglars who robbed the W. L. Coller store a week ago today seem to have made good their escape. One definite clue, which gave promise of resulting in developments, has proven of little importance. Hardy Greenfield, employed at the Quaker Oats Company plant, saw a Buick automobile parked opposite the Coller place and a man was peeking into the store. Mr. Greenfield took the license numbers on the car and late on Thursday communicated with the officers. The license plate was issued in Ohio, the number being 259,228. Investigation revealed that this number was issued to a Woodville, Ohio, resident for a Hupmobile. As the robbers were driving a Buick it is likely they stole the license plates and it will be difficult to trace them.

The sheriff's department in Jackson became worried last Thursday when it became known that the Coller store had been robbed and a number of guns, rifles and ammunition secured, as it was feared the burglars were confederates of the hold-up men who had robbed the Grass Lake bank and killed an officer when they were captured. The report was current in Jackson the auto load of robbers, all heavily armed, were on their way to the Prison City to effect a jail delivery of the six thugs held for bank robbery and murder. The guard around the Jackson jail, composed of members of the State Constabulary, was increased and other measures taken to frustrate the plans of the rescue party. Nothing along this line developed, however, and it is the general belief the men who broke into the Coller store came from Toledo and hastened back there. They did drive through Tipton at breakneck speed soon after they left here, this being learned later in the day Thursday.

Price of Tires Not Likely to go Down

On Contrary, Slow Buying May Cause Upward Trend, Say the Well Informed.

Car owners who are holding back on the purchase of tire equipment in the hope of a reduction in prices are likely to be disappointed. There is nothing in the tire manufacturing situation to indicate a downward trend of tire costs.

On the contrary, a "break" that will necessarily mean the advancing of prices seems inevitable.

A resume of the tire industry and the conditions under which it has developed in the last decade, causes the casual observer to wonder, in fact, that tire prices have not already begun to climb steadily.

Unless one studies carefully the underlying reasons for the successful checking of tire prices in the face of overwhelming advances in virtually every other commodity, it is rather amazing to note that prices now are much lower than they were ten years ago. It is still more interesting to compare prices of standard manufacture tires today with prices of the same product at the beginning of the war. Good tires now cost no more than in 1914. There has not even been an appreciable advance in the last two years. And yet the quality is higher and the purchaser gets more value for his money than ever before.

When one considers that prices of raw material, labor and transportation have made more tremendous leaps in the last five years than during any period in manufacturing history the natural query concerning the manufacturers is: "How do they hold down the prices?"

And from this question comes the answer to another: "Will the prices go down?"

It does not appear that a decrease is likely. Manufacturing genius, which has about reached its limit, has kept down the cost to the tire user. The standard manufacturer has combated price increases by developing his processes. He has expended millions of dollars in the installation of new machinery, better machinery and new methods. He has brought his output up to maximum and has made his profits on a quantity margin. He has smashed overhead expenses by use of these weapons and by putting his distribution on such a broad basis as to make it economical.

Output has reached its zenith. So long as demand continues strong there is a possibility that tire prices will remain on their present level. But if a general determination to "hold out" should spread among car owners it is more than probable that such an attitude would tend to create a reverse effect to the one desired and send tire prices rocketing.

To substantiate the surprising facts recited here attention is called to the result of price comparisons made recently by a leading tire and rubber company. Although these figures included only the quotations of that particular company, they may be accepted as an average because the company is considered one of the leaders in the industry and is a standard manufacturing concern. This company's tabulation showed that while a 30x3 tire cost $27.60 in 1910, the 1920 price is only $18.75. Tubes for this size tire cost $5.65 in 1910, while the present price is only $3.15. A 33x4 tire cost $54.10 ten years ago and it can be bought for $39.25 now. The larger sizes are also lower in price now than in 1910.

Rev. C. M. Brown, now pastor of a large community church at Hamilton, Ohio, preached to a congregation of old friends at the Presbyterian church Sunday morning. He was pastor of this church formerly and the announcement that he would once more address his people drew a good sized congregation. He took for his theme "Appreciation" and his sermon was most excellent, reminding us that we should scatter our boquets of appreciation and encouragement as we go, not waiting until our friends are dead and loading their coffins with flowers.

An amusing incident happened in the business district the other morning. One of our well known elderly residents was seen sitting in front of the Tecumseh Kandy Kitchen early that morning with a can. A prominent business man, on his way to the postoffice, noticed the elderly man and in reply to a remark the waiting one said he was going to buy some oil when the store opened. "What, buy oil at a confectionary store?" asked the passerby. The aged man with the can got up, looked at the store front and then admitted the joke was on him and hastened into the Pulver drug store, which had been open for some time, and got the oil he wanted.

Series With Tipton Starts Here Sunday

Independents Rout American Oils of Jackson With 9 to 4 Score.

Local baseball fans are of the opinion that the American Oils of Jackson used too much lubrication in their game here with the Tecumseh Independents last Sunday for the visitors slipped considerable and as a result the home boys' list of victories is increased by one. The score was 9 to 4.

Beginning next Sunday afternoon the Independents will start a series of three games with Tipton, the first one to be played on the local diamond. These contests are looked upon as among the most important of the season. Extra efforts will be made by the Independents to annex the trio of encounters. The second game will be at Tipton and the place for the third one has not been selected.

In Sunday's game Howe was again effective in the box and his teammates, with eleven smashes, helped to cinch it. [illegible] and Cole edified the crowd with a double play in the first inning.

Granted a Divorce, Gets Hotel Property

Mrs. Elma Murry Winner in Double Court Action.

A decisive victory was won by Mrs. Elma Murry in the double court action in which she and her husband, James Murry, have been involved. She is granted a divorce and gets possession of the local hotel property, in which her husband alleged he had an interest. The two cases were heard two weeks ago in circuit court, testimony in one proceeding also being used in the other. Judge Burton L. Hart took the cases under advisement after the testimony was all submitted and filed his decision on Saturday.

When the Murrys came to Tecumseh last April and purchased the hotel of the Barretts, Mrs. Murry made a payment, her husband being designated a partner in the deal. It was brought out in the testimony that Mrs. Murry financed the hotel proposition although her husband assigned to her his rights in certain patents. He did little to build up the business of the hotel, according to her statements during the trial, and she alleged he was often under the influence of stimulants. When she sued her husband for divorce on grounds of extreme cruelty, he countered with a suit for a settlement of his interest in the hotel.

In his decision Judge Hart awards Mrs. Murry a divorce and she is to be paid $1 by her husband as settlement in full for alimony and rights in his patents. She is given possession of the hotel but is directed to return to Mr. Murry a check for $59 received from an express company for damages to a mirror. The contestants are to pay their own attorney's fees. Wood & Rathbun of this city represented Mrs. Murry.

First of Series is Taken by Tecumseh

Second Game With Tipton Will be Played in that Village Next Sunday Afternoon.

Despite the fact that all of the baseball luck was with the visitors, the Tecumseh Independents pulled down the first of the series of three games with Tipton in the contest here Sunday afternoon. The score was 8 to 5. Next Sunday afternoon the two teams will battle it out at Tipton and another heated encounter is anticipated. The local team hopes a large number of rooters will journey to the neighboring town to help enthuse the Independents to a victory.

There was a good attendance at the Sunday game and the thrills were numerous. Howe fanned eight of the Tiptonites. Both teams made a quartet of misplays.

Tipton started with a rush, scoring three in the first inning. The other two runs were garnered in the sixth. Tecumseh had the short end of the score until the Independents had batted in the eighth. They sent one man across in the second and third, and two completed the trip in the sixth. Hits by Howe, Bricker and Hunt and some fumbles netted the home men four tallies in the eighth, cinching the game for them.

Fire Department's Needs Told Council

More Hose and Complete Outfit for Each Member Among Recommendations—Chief and News Gatherer Have Verbal Clash.

An echo of the recent special meeting of the Tecumseh fire department was heard at the regular session of the council Monday evening. There were five members of the fire department present at the meeting of the village trustees, Chief Floyd Heesen being the spokesman in presenting to the councilmen the needs of the fire fighting force. Before the question was disposed of there was a wordy battle between Chief Heesen and The Herald representative who had reported the special session of the fire fighters organization. [illegible] president of the firemen's association threatened to forcibly remove the reporter from the next meeting if the news gatherer was present. The Herald man challenged any of the firemen present to point out a single misquotation or erroneous statement in the article about their session, but none accepted. That some of the firemen did not like to have appear in cold type what transpired at their meeting was very evident, while others admitted that the article was a correct recital of what took place.

When Village President Hines called for a report from the committee on fires and fire limits he invited the department members to present their case. Chief Heesen informed the council there are at present about 1,300 feet of hose in the tower at the fire station and while the truck can carry 1,000 feet, there are only about 600 feet on the vehicle now. He explained that some of the hose in use now is

Storm is Worst in South Part of Town

Gale Fells Many Trees, Causing Telephone and Electric Companies Much Damage—Two Inches of Rain Falls.

Repair work on the telephone and electric lines in Tecumseh, damaged by last Friday's storm, is still in progress, with prospects that service will be on a normal basis within a day or two. The high wind and heavy rainfall early Friday afternoon caused much damage in this city, especially on the south side of town, where numerous trees were blown down, carrying telephone and electric light wires with them. Two inches of rain fell, there was considerable hail and the wind for a time was blowing at almost hurricane rate.

Miss Lydia Babcock, manager of the Tecumseh Telephone Company, states this storm caused more phone trouble than any "blow" in the ten years she has been connected with the local concern. About half of the local telephones were put out of commission by falling trees. A cable was severed on Maiden Lane when a tree in front of the home of Mrs. Helen Clark was blown down. A "lead" was broken on Kilbuck street and another on Oneida street. It is anticipated all telephones will be in service again by Friday.

The Tecumseh Electric Company also had its share of trouble. Wires were pulled down by falling trees and limbs in various places on the south side of town. The American Steel & Wire Co. and the Quaker Oats Co. plants had to shut down for the balance of the day as the wires over which they get power were severed by falling trees. Several of the nearby towns which are furnished current from the local electrical plant were also affected by the storm's havoc with the wires, but service was interrupted to these places only about 10 minutes. The electric company expects to have the repair work completed by the end of the week.

While doing repair work Ralph Smith, of the local electrical company, was burned about the hand, which may incapacitate him for work for some time. Dr. J. W. Beardsley attended him.

The wind storm spent most of its fury in that part of Tecumseh situated south of Logan street, as north of this thoroughfare few limbs of trees were blown down and the telephone and electric companies suffered little damage.

A Tecumseh man had a narrow escape in Tipton during the storm, which also did damage there. Roy Prichard had just stepped out of an automobile when a falling branch of a tree crashed through the top.

Lightning shattered several telephone poles in that place and some wires were blown down, interruping the service considerable. Electric light wires were also affected.

Big Crowd Sees Street Show.

Last night's street show was fully up to the standard maintained earlier in the season and there was a large crowd in attendance. The first act was contortion stunts by a man and woman, both seeming to be without a bone in their body. Box and Phil, in a juggling act, presented some new ones, and Phil with a stuttering song made quite a hit. A Hawaiian trio was the third number on the program and their music was much enjoyed. As has been published previously the local post of the American Legion has charge of the entertainment next Wednesday when an elaborate Sports day program will be presented.

East Side Parents Join School Protest

Object to Sending Young Children to West Branch Building on Ground It is Too Far.

Contending that young children should [illegible] from the east side of Tecumseh to the West Branch school, as the board of education has planned, the parents of that section of town have joined the residents of Brownville in protesting against the proposed step.

Their petition of protest is as follows:

We, the undersigned parents and guardians of the children of the east section of the village of Tecumseh, wish to add our protest to that of the parents and guardians of Brownville, against the sending of our young children to the West Branch school, and respectfully request the school board to consider the idea of letting them remain in the central building. It is entirely too far to send young children from the extreme east end of the village, and we believe some provision can and should be made whereby said children could be kept in the central building.

We suggest the sending of one of the older grades to the West Branch, as they are older and more capable of taking care of themselves. In view of the dangerous crossings and severe winter weather many of us will be forced to keep our children at home when they are of the age when they should be in school.

Luther's Favorite Text is Discussed

Rev. C. M. Thompson Gives Community Meeting Sermon Before Small Congregation.

That the auto is an enemy of church attendance on warm summer nights was evidenced Sunday evening by the small congregation at the community service at the Methodist church. But the faithful who did attend were more than repaid by the very excellent sermon preached by Rev. C. M. Thompson.

During the opening service Mrs. Havila Haskins sang a beautiful solo.

For several weeks Rev. Thompson has been giving his people sermons on the favorite texts of great men, and for this evening he took the text which made the turning point in the life of Martin Luther, causing him to be the greatest of all reformers. This text was "The just shall live by faith."

In Carlisle's tribute to Luther he said: "Nations rose and fell according to their attitude to Luther."

In a letter dated January 4, 1644, which was preserved in a famous German library, written by Dr. Paul Luther, a son of the great Martin, he relates that his father told his family that while climbing Pilate's staircase in Rome on his knees, light broke upon him in this text and he rose to his feet, freed from the yoke of superstition and brave for the persecution which he knew was to follow.

"This text is found three times in Paul's wonderful letters, once to the churches in Asia, again to those in Europe and the third to the Jews. It has the calm majesty and strength of the ocean," said Rev. Thompson.

"The Jews were bound by 618 commandments. David reduced these to 13, Isaiah to 6, but this text, 'The just shall live by faith,' gives the whole in a nutshell.

"Up to the time of his trip to Rome Luther had the Pagan conception of God where torture was a form of worship. Then he went forth from that staircase a new man, believing no longer that the just shall live by fear."

"What is this faith?" queried the minister. Giving the old answer which cannot be improved: "Faith is trust in Jesus with our all." Hence "The just shall live by trust in Jesus."

Grim Reaper Claims Mrs. Fred Rosacrans

Wife of Prominent Merchant Had Been Ill Long Time—Leader in Church and Club Work.

In traveling down life's pathway one seldom meets as sweet a character as Mrs. Fred Rosacrans, and great was the sorow in Tecumseh when on Sunday morning it became generally known that she died during the night.

For many months Mrs. Rosacrans had been ill, having been confined to her bed the past three months, her illness being caused by liver trouble.

She was the only daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Tremaine, prominent Tecumseh people. She was born in Vienna, N. Y., October 13, 1857, and there she grew to girlhood, graduating from the high school. Later she finished a course at the Casnovia, N. Y., seminary. She taught school for several terms and then on Nov. 26, 1877, married Fred Rosacrans, whom she had met here while on her visits to her aunts, Mrs. S. W. Anderson and Mrs. Morris Primrose. Mr. Rosacrans brought his bride to Tecumseh, where he was even then in the dry goods business, and this city has since been their home.

To this home came six children, three boys and three girls, Leon and Eugene, now in business with their father, Harry of Toledo, Mrs. Florence Adamson of Chicago and the Misses Marian and Marjorie, who live at home. One brother, Rev. Myron Tremaine, of Findlay, Ill., is the lone remaining member of the Tremaine family. The death of the mother makes the first break in this always happy family home circle, where at all times all the friends of each member were heartily welcomed and the hospitable home ever was open for various church and club activities.

Mrs. Rosacrans was a devoted member of the Methodist church, active in all the branches of the work. She had been the efficient president of the Ladies' Aid society, teacher of the little people in the Sunday school and deeply interested in the mission work. Mrs. Rosacrans was a past matron of the local chapter, Order of Eastern Star, enjoying the sessions of that order greatly. In club work she was also interested, having been twice president of the Wit and Wisdom club and treasurer of the Monday club several terms. Last year she was vice president of the latter organization.

The funeral was held from the home Tuesday afternoon, Rev. C. M. Thompson making the funeral address, when in a short talk he told of the loss the church sustained as had also the family and hosts of friends. Mrs. Ella Hodges and Mrs. R. T. Meade sang "Lead Kindly Light." Close relatives were the bearers, about 40 members of the Eastern Star acting as escort.

Present from away were Mr. and Mrs. George Adamson of Chicago, Rev. and Mrs. Myron Tremaine of Findlay, Ill., Miss Ella Primrose and Mrs. Perley Skinner of London, Ohio, Mr. and Mrs. Will Meyers and Mr. Diamond of Detroit, Harry Rosacrans and family and William Perkins, T. I. Wilson, Mr. Donahue and A. Wilson of Toledo, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Kimball of Clinton.

CAMP CURTIS PROVING DECIDEDLY SUCCESSFUL

Forty-two boys and girls are having the time of their life at Manitou Beach, Devil's lake, accompanied by Rev. Curtis and wife. Two large tents accommodate the boys for their sleeping quarters, while a large canvas stretched between serves as mess hall. At the end of the mess hall is another small tent that is used as kitchen, while still another is used as a commissary. Twenty-two put their feet under one table. Charles Klappich of Monroe is assisting Pastor Curtis with the boys.

In Pleasant Oak cottage Mrs. Curtis has 18 girls and is assisted by Mrs. Henry Beard. Each group has three boats at its disposal continually. The bathing privileges are among the best in the state. It is a common thing to see this group in the water with an overturned boat to jump from. Many are learning to swim. The grove is large and roomy and back of the grove is a ball diamond that is given to the young people as a playground. The whole group is getting regular training in military tactics, as well as calisthenic exercises. Games of all kinds are played, while each morning both groups gather by themselves for a half hour devotional meeting.

Editorial Comment

HOME BUILDING AND LOT PROFITEERING.

Our home building program has been discouragingly slow. Tecumseh Home Building association was formed last March, when shares to the amount of $10,500 were subscribed by public spirited citizens to relieve the housing situation. A board of directors was chosen and this board was authorized to proceed to construct modern homes. Plans were submitted and bids were received after considerable delay. Five months have passed and no actual work started. The demand for houses now is just as great as it was at the time the association was formed. Scarely a day passes that from one to three people make application to The Herald for homes.

Now the board of directors have struck another snag. Some owners of lots have so far forgotten their town public spirit to go back on options given. They jumped the price. What do you think of such public spirit? Owners of lots that would have been pleased to receive a nominal price have doubled the figure. One says "To h— with the option!"

The board of directors is at fault in one particular—too slow of action—and deserves the just criticism of the people interested in the future welfare of their city. But there is no excuse for lot owners to further block building operations by throwing aside town loyalty and joining the ranks of profiteers.

We need more homes in Tecumseh. We need them now when people want to make this their home town. Why delay further? We need not stop because a few lot owners have gone back on their word and are out for more money. There are enough lots well located that can be procured at a suitable figure so the finished home can be sold as reasonable as possible.

THE GOLDEN RULE.

"Do unto others as you would have them do unto you." If you find a pocketbook containing money, or any article of sufficient value, make an effort to restore to owner. It is your duty.

There are people in Tecumseh that do not practice this rule. In fact there are people in this community that are either dishonest or ignorant, or perhaps both. This fact has been proven quite to our satisfaction during the past few weeks when advertisements in The Herald for lost articles failed to bring results. Purses or pocketbooks containing money have recently been lost and advertised, without hearing from the finder, who by his act of silence brands himself dishonest. It is the duty of a party finding a lost article to make reasonable effort to discover the owner and restore property. Finding lost property does not convey ownership. If the finder does not make an effort at restitution he is dishonest and classed with thieves in the eyes of the law.

About two weeks ago a person was seen to pick up a wallet that contained something like $240 in money. The identity of this person was not established absolutely so the lost wallet was advertised and a reward offered for its return. Yet this person, knowing the money belonged not to him, kept silent. Several other pocketbooks containing money were advertised by the losers, with the same results.

As mentioned before, it is up to the finder of lost property to advertise for the owner if the article is of any value. Then if the owner does not claim the property the finder can pay advertising expense and keep his find.

STREET OILING PROPOSITION.

L. E. Temple, who some time ago was appointed as purchasing agent for Tecumseh by the Commerce Club, has completed a job that he is not anxious to assume again, and we doubt if there is any other individual in town that would care to undertake the job.

As purchasing agent Mr. Temple became responsible for the payment for the oil purchased for our streets, and it was not a small sum, either. When he goes after a thing, Mr. Temple generally gets it. He got the oil and by using his head, the telephone and personal interviews he managed to secure one or two persons in each block oiled to assume responsibility for payment of the dust-laying fluid used in their block.

The plan worked, but it also proved its inefficiency and injustice. A private citizen or business man should not be called upon to become responsible for the cost of any public improvement. That's what we have a village government for—to transact the business of the community it represents. Street oiling is a business matter and a public improvement. It should be done by the municipal authorities the same as graveling and scraping streets.

To do this work properly in the future the municipality should be equipped to perform the same. A storage tank would be advisable so the oil could be spread at the most favorable time and in quantities so it would not be disgusting and unsavory to adjoining property holders. In some instances the last oiling would have been better and more economical if less oil had been used, with a second application later. A storage tank would permit such procedure.

TECUMSEH SPORTS DAY.

The Herald favors days of general relaxation — a day of entertainment and fun for the people of a community—a day that brings together people from different sections to renew acquaintances and enjoy wholesome fellowship.

Such a day, we take it, is scheduled for Wednesday, August 25, fathered and fostered by Underwood-Orr Post, No. 34, American Legion. The boys of the Legion have been planning and working hard [illegible] Tecumseh people and visitors here a day of wholesome fun and enjoyment. The efforts of the world war vets, we feel certain, will be rewarded by a general turn-out of the people, thus making it a day of community fellowship long to be remembered. We predict the boys will succeed in staging one of the biggest of big days for Tecumseh.

THE WRONG DICTATORSHIP

It appears to be settled by the testimony of the friends of the Russian soviets—not their enemies—that the so-called "dictatorship of the proletariat" is a dismal, utter failure.

It could not be otherwise. The city workman has been behind the Russian dictatorship, and the city workman is not fitted by education, by environment, nor by nature to carry out the terrifically difficult experiment in government that has been attempted in Russia. In the mass, the city proletariat is cruel, unthinking, unreasoning. There are plenty of things that have made him so. In the average individual, there is nobody in the world more offensively tyrannical to those of his own class in life. The average city workman, particularly the unskilled, makes a brave slogan of free speech, but only for himself. He howls down the other fellow in a minute when he finds the other fellow not thinking as he thinks. And if howling isn't enough, a smash in the jaw is the next ready "argument."

To put over communism in any nation—or even in a group—it appears that a dictatorship is necessary at the start. If industry's toilers are to dictate government rules, certainly the workers in the fundamental, basic industry should be the dictators. The fundamental industry is agriculture. In addition the farmer is more intelligent, more tolerant, and much more liberty-loving because of his environment and his outlook, than the city man. Even in densely ignorant Russia, the situation would probably be far different today if the farmers had seized the regins of government instead of the narrow ignoramuses who did seize it.

THE FUNDAMENTAL INDUSTRY.

Reports from the field show that the farm bureau movement continues to spread mightily. The farmers are joining by the thousands all over the land.

The trouble has been [illegible] cities and in high places there has been a woeful lack of understanding about the country's fundamental industry—agriculture. Men have been unduly attracted to the big profits and high wages in manufacturing and in serving the big and crowded communities that manufacturing has built up.

When fortunes could be made in a day, little interest could be worked up in a business that required a combination of intelligence, industry and patience—the business of producing food. Men forgot that it was basic and that, being basic, it should be fostered for their sake as well as its own. It naturally followed that the city workman and also the financier and merchant, felt that city work, city business, city wages, city profits were the really important things in this country. They are not.

Men everywhere will have to come to the realization that food producing is the fundamental industry and that all others depend on it in the last analysis. When they do come to this realization, economics, politics, and life in general, will begin to look up in this country, in the cities as well as in the quieter places. The farm bureau movement will, we think, lead the way to this great national change of viewpoint.

FORDSON
TRADE MARK
Farm Tractor

When Henry Ford set about building the Fordson tractor, he had a thorough understanding of just what it should be and what it should do. His early life on the farm gave him a deep insight into the daily life of the farmer; his mechanical genius saw the type of tractor needed. And for more than twelve years he experimented over more than 7,000 acres of land in different kinds of soil, with different crops.

So he built the Fordson. It is so simple that a school boy can operate it. It is low in first cost. It is lowest in operating cost and Fordson parts and Fordson service are always to be had promptly from the dealer.

The Fordson is a profitable investment. It can be used every working day in the year. It is an inexpensive power plant and it will lighten your work.

Don't delay ordering your Fordson Tractor. The demand is greater than the supply.

Why You Should Use a

DEERING

Corn Binder

The DEERING makes the best possible bundles in short corn, because the large range of adjustments enable it to put the band in the proper place and nearer the butts than any other corn binder.

The DEERING handles down corn to the best possible advantage, because the corn, when it reaches the binding attachment, is bound while in a horizontal position life a sheaf of wheat. No mussy looking bundles from the DEERING.

The DEERING handles the corn gently—doesn't knock off the ears and it doesn't break the twine through heavy strains. The bundle carrier is close to the ground. The bundles are dropped easily and gently outside of the main wheel and are not walked over by the third horse in the next round.

The DEERING makes square butted bundles with the aid of a highly efficient butt adjuster.

Both wheels of the DEERING are the same height, no side draft with three horses.

THE PRICE AT WHICH WE ARE NOW SELLING DEERING CORN BINDERS IS 15 PER CENT LESS THAN WHAT IT WOULD COST US TO BUY MORE.

Isn't it to your advantage to place your order NOW with US?

FORMER LOCAL YOUNG PEOPLE WED IN DETROIT

On Thursday evening, August 12, was solemnized the wedding of Miss Margaret Marie VanWinkle, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. VanWinkle, and Orris Bernard Goodrich, a former popular principal of the Tecumseh high school. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's parents in Detroit, by the Rev. Dawe of the Trinity Methodist church. The ring service was used and the couple were attended by Miss Florence VanWinkle, a sister of the bride, and Homer Hanham, now of Ypsilanti. Only the immediate families attended.

The bride and her bridesmaid wore whit organdie and carried roses. The newly-weds took their honeymoon trip to Niagara and points east, and upon their return will reside in Jackson, where the groom is to teach next year, both in the city schools and the continuation part time school, supervising the boys' work.

LEWIS PRIEST FLEECED BY DETROIT SHARPERS

Lewis Priest bid his friends good-bye Sunday and started for Penn Yann, N. Y., to make an extended visit. The next that was heard about him was an article in a Detroit paper of Monday telling that the Tecumseh cobbler had been bunkoed in that ctiy. The story was to the effect that having a few minutes to wait before his boat departed for Buffalo, he got into conversation with a stranger, who offered to show him a German submarine which was docked at the foot of Woodward avenue. As they walked along another fellow joined them and began a hard luck story of losing his money by sharpers. Very sympathetically the first friend (?) suggested they play a few games to pass the time that Mr. Priest had to wait. In a little while the Tecumseh man was shy about $50, all he had with him, except his boat ticket. One of the men was apprehended by the police on Mr. Priest's description but he did not have the money.

FUN WILL BE KING ON BIG SPORTS DAY

have their work well in hand and that with favorable weather the coming sports day will eclipse even the remarkably successful similar events held here in the days gone by. The Tecumseh Legion is doing its utmost to make the occasion one that will have a leading place in the history of the city's entertainment efforts and solicits the co-operation of the public. Co-operation in this case means attendance at the sports day and from assurances the local world war vets have had from residents of this city and the surrounding country they anticipate a record-breaking crowd in this city August 25. There will be a large delegation from the neighboring towns, the reputation which this city established in former years with its sports days still being fresh in the memory of many of the people.

The festivities of the day will begin with the parade at 10 o'clock in the morning, many of the merchants to have attractive floats in the procession.

At 10:30 the sports program will be held on the main streets, worthwhile prizes to be awarded the successful contestants. The list of sports with the prizes offered is as follows:

Boys' 50-yard dash—First prize, $1; second, 50c in trade at B. J. Pulver's drug store.

Three-legged race—Prize, box of LaEstrellas at W. W. Whiting cigar factory.

100-yard dash—First prize, $3; second, $2 in trade at Jones' Clothing Shop.

Wheel barrow race—Prize, box of Little Beauty cigars at Wm. Barrett's factory.

Boys' bicycle race—First prize, $3; second, $2 in trade at W. L. Coller's sporting goods store.

Tug of war—Prize, $8.

It is estimated the sports program on the streets will be completed by noon. At 1:30 p. m. there will be a parade to Athletic park. Here more sports will be indulged in, prizes also being given the winners. The program here will include:

Fungo hitting—Prize, baseball bat.

Baseball throwing—Prize, baseball.

Catching greased pig—Prize, the pig.

Then will come one of the big features of the day, a ball game between the Tecumseh Independents and the fast Zal Gaz Grotto team of Ann Arbor. When these two nines met in combat on the local diamond recently it was discovered they were very evenly matched and the Independents had to go to the limit to take the game. What the visitors will do on this occasion can only be surmised, but word comes from the University City that the aggregation from that place can see nothing but victory on its baseball horizon so far as the game of next Wednesday is concerned.

Throughout the day there will be free shows on the street and three bands will play lively airs. There will be selections by Tecumseh's own musical organization, the Ladies' Band, Zal Gaz Grotto of Ann Arbor will bring its famous band and Archie Boyd is organizing a group of musicians who will attract no little attention.

A country store will also be one of the features of the day and concessions of all kinds will make bids for the patronage of the crowds that will be in attendance.

Balloon ascensions are not new but they are always thrilling, especially if featured with a parachute drop. Such a stunt will be presented and it is anticipated this old-time thriller will be as big a drawing card as in the days of yore.

Those who like to dance will have an opportunity to satisfy their craving along this line. Round dances will be the vogue at Witherell hall, while an old-fashioned country dance will be in progress in K. of P. hall.

For the convenience of the women attending the sports day there will be a rest room in the quarters of the American Legion.

Arrangements have also been made to park autos at Chautauqua park, two blocks south and one east of the main corners. Men will be in charge so that cars may be left there all day and they will not be molested.

In fact the members of the local Legion believe they have made careful plans for entertaining the thousands who are expected to be present in a manner that will be to the entire satisfaction of the fun seekers and bring the post the returns they hope for.

The Legion requests that the merchants decorate their places of business sufficiently to help add to the festive spirit that is to prevail. Residents are asked to display flags.

That the athletic contests be spirited to a marked degree it is urged that all participate heartily in the sports.

THE OLD LONG BRIDGE

A Bit of History.

Years before our Civil war a long bridge was built from the city of Washington across the Potomac river to the Virginia shore near Arlington. Constructed of Georgia pine on oak piles it had come to be known as "The Old Long Bridge" when the great war came on.

Immediately it came into the limelight, for it was the main artery of communication between the government at Washington and the Army of the Potomac for the four long years of the war. Across it marched over a million men to that war. The almost numberless government army trains of wagons, carrying the innumerable things that an army must have, made it a busy place both night and day. The words, "The Old Long Bridge," were almost as common in the newspapers as were the names of Lincoln, Grant or Lee. Its capture or destruction would have been as great a calamity as the loss of a great battle. There are several old soldiers still living in this vicinity who marched over that bridge in their youth, when the nation's life was in eminent peril. The writer crossed it during the great Centennial Celebration of 1876, soon after which another bridge was built by its side, but not until 1907 was it entirely removed.

Col. R. E. Whitman of the 30th Maine Vol., later a captain in the United States cavalry, now deceased, then bought of the contractor a quantity of the old lumber from the bridge, and had made therefrom 4,000 canes. Each one had on its upper end a nickel-plated cap or head plainly stamped on which are the words, "Old Long Bridge." This head clearly identifies these canes from all other walking sticks.

Through the kindness of F. W. Day of Cleveland I recently came into possession of eight of these old canes. It seemed most appropriate to me that these very historic souvenirs should go to the veterans of my acquaintance who crossed that bridge in the stirring days of the war of over 50 years ago. After repairing and revarnishing them they were given to the following veterans of this vicinity: S. P. Hosmer, John Hubbard, Wm. H. Jay, John D. Shull, Hiram H. Smith, Alva Spayde, George VanTyne and Henry Wagner.

Regretting that I had not more of them to give to other worthy eligibles, I pass them around and with them goes my very best wishes for their health and length of days. May they never need these helps in walking. My hope is that they may serve in recalling to the minds of these worthy men the stirring and heroic days of their youth.

And when these worthies have crossed that wider, darker and more dreaded river that confronts us all, may these simple sticks often call to the minds of their acquaintances and descendants the sufferings and sacrifices of our soldiers and stimulate the latter's patriotism, generation after generation, for centuries to come.

Saves Traveling

"I don't believe in banks," says old G. Rouch, "they don't do me no good." Perhaps not, but we would like to see him run down to Washington to get his pension check cashed or to New York or San Francisco when he is lucky enough to receive a check on one of those places. Maybe he'll sell a horse to a man in a neighboring town and receive a check in payment. Did you ever stop to think that if it were not for this bank you would have to be on the road half the time going after money or taking money some place? We make no charge for cashing your checks.

The Dependable Tractor that Burns Kerosene Completely

The 12-25 H. P. dependable Waterloo Boy Tractor is just the kind of machine that we like to put into the hands of our customers.

There is nothing experimental about it. Its dependability has been fully proved in years of draw-bar and belt service on the farm.

Right along with its dependability for long-continued good work, there is another big feature that you will appreciate every day you use the Waterloo Boy.

Its patented kerosene manifold—one that you can get on no other tractor—converts kerosene into a highly combustible gas enabling the motor to get full power from every drop.

No kerosene gets into the lubricating oil. There is no carbonizing of cylinders or fouling of spark plugs.

And it saves many dollars in fuel cost every year of its operation.

This tractor is simply made; easy to keep in good running order. The working parts, fully protected from dust, are placed where you can easily get at them through inspection places and detachable casings. The engine, perfectly balanced, mounted on a solid foundation, runs without vibration—no racking of mechanism. Gears are steel-cut and case-hardened—practically everlasting. Its Hyatt Roller bearings prevent friction and conserve full power. All bearing points and gears are kept constantly in a bath of oil by the perfect system of lubrication. You are sure to like every feature.

Come in and get fully acquainted with the dependable, economical Waterloo Boy becoming the worse for wear and recommended that from 300 to 500 feet of new hose be purchased. He also recommended the purchase of one play pipe, a shut-off nozzle and that the department be supplied with gas a mask, it being mentioned that the government would supply this free of charge on application from the proper authorities. The chief further suggested that the council provide each member of the department with a rubber coat, hat and boots. He said it was a more satisfactory arrangement for each fireman to have his own equipment, even though they were not always present. It meant ruined clothes for the fireman who attempted to do his duty without proper protection, it was pointed out. Chief Heesen made the proposition that the council buy enough outfits to equip each member of the department and that each man be held responsible for his gar[illegible] If he [illegible] for them at the end of the year when a settlement is made with the members of the department the price of the missing articles be deducted from that man's pay.

TRADE WITH ADVERTISERS

In referring to the bill for $25 which he submitted for special services as auxiliary truck driver during the past year, Mr. Heesen said he admitted he was not called upon to take out the vehicle and was glad someone did not sutain a fire loss, but contended that he was entitled to it as he was responsible for the fire auto during the time the regular driver was absent and should be compensated.

Trustee Pulver inquired why 14 rubber outfits were needed if there are only a few of the firemen on duty at a blaze, and Alderman Hendershott was also anxious to get enlightenment on this point. Wesley Clark and Robert Eagan, both small men, said they had been hampered time and again by being compelled to fight flames in rubber coats that were made for men at least a third larger than they, and that if they were supplied with individual outfits that would fit them they would be of greater service in preventing destruction by fire. Geo. Hoag told of fighting flames at the fire in the Big Chief garage, informing the aldermen that his clothes became soaked with water because there were not enough rubber coats to go around and he could not wear the garments for several days.

In reply to question by Trustee Pulver, Chief Heesen said that he estimated a rubber outfit such as they needed would probably last about five years and as the members of the department took pride in keeping fire losses low in Tecumseh and were serving the village faithfully at low pay compared to the danger involved he believed the small outlay necessary to grant this request would willingly be granted by the council.

Mention was also made that hydrant couplings be cut to fit the hose used by the Adrian fire department so that in case of a conflagration here and help was needed the county seat organization could come to this city's aid. The Adrian department also planned to have couplings to fit the Tecumseh hose so that the local department could be of assistance there in case of need.

The whole matter was disposed of for the time being when a motion prevailed to have the committee on fires and fire limits give the recommendations of the department consideration and report at the next meeting of the council.

It was reported that repairs were needed on the walls of the boiler room at the water works plant and the water committee will look into this.

Payment of bills was the only other business to come up.

WIT AND WISDOM CLUB HAS ITS ANNUAL PICNIC

At the Rector home on South Union street on Friday afternoon the Wit and Wisdom club held its annual picnic. The storm of the early afternoon did not dampen the fun in the least, and the carpets spread on the lawn kept the company dry shod. The supper was served at 6:30, the tables being gay with the summer flowers.

An impromptu program followed, when a vocal solo was rendered by Miss Havila Haskins, a reading given by Miss Mildred Royce and Mrs. J. D. Service told several of her inimitable stories.

The next meeting of the club will be a business session in September in preparation for the study meetings which will begin in October.

MRS. LAWRENCE VANTYNE DIES; ILL SEVERAL MONTHS

Mrs. Lawrence VanTyne, a lifelong resident of Tecumseh, passed away Tuesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, just preceding the hour for th[illegible] Mrs. Fred Rosacrans. Mrs. VanTyne had been in declining health for several months, but confined to her home only six weeks.

Helen Frances Rosacrans was born in this city November 28, 1849, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Asa Rosacrans, one of Tecumseh's most prominent pioneer families. She became the wife of Lawrence VanTyne October 7, 1868, so they had been companions nearly 52 years. Three sons gladdened the home, Claude Halsted, head of the department of history at the University of Michigan, Harry, long deceased, and C. Fred at home. Also surviving is her brother, Fred Rosacrans, and a sister, Mrs. Jennie Hicks, besides her four grandchildren of the family of the son, Claude.

Of a quiet, unassuming disposition, her great interest was in her home life, but she leaves a host of friends. She was a member of St. Peter's Episcopal church.

The funeral services will be conducted by the Rev. Frederick Hewitt at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning and will be private.

MISS MARGARET HOAG AND HAROLD BROWN WEDDED

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Kempf Monday evening took place the wedding of the latter's sister, Miss Margaret C. M. Hoag, and Harold Roy Brown of Adrian. The Rev. W. R. Curtis of the Baptist church performed the ceremony, with the attendants Miss Margaret Chase and Lorain Hagadorn, both of Adrian.

The bride was dressed in a gown of pale blue georgette over pink satin. She wore a chain which Mr. Brown had brought her from France and she carried a silk handkerchief which her grandmother, Mrs. Cynthia Hoag, carried at her wedding. The bridesmaid wore pink chiffon.

The living rooms were gay with the bright hued summer flowers, as were also the tables at which the wedding supper was served. Only the immediate families were the guests.

After a trip to Morenci and points in Ohio the young people will begin housekeeping on a farm three miles southeast of Britton.

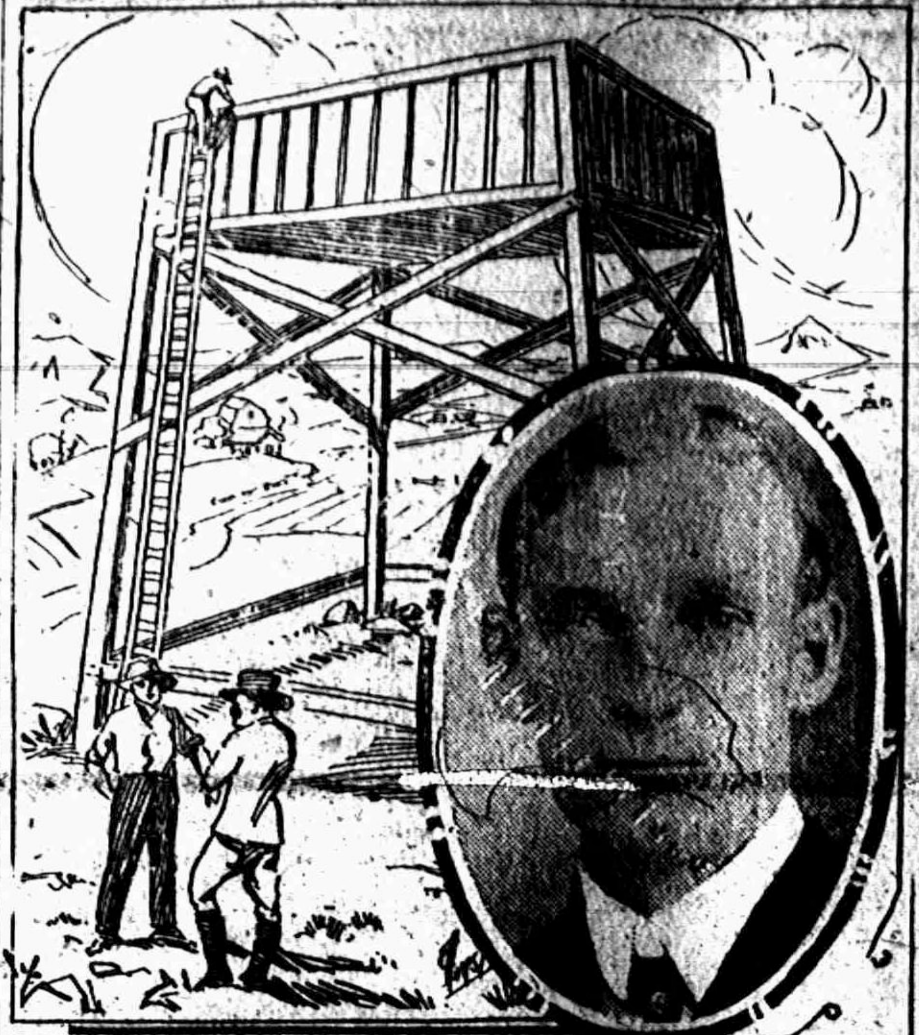
Miss Hoag is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Hoag of this village and has lived here nearly all her life. Mr. Brown and his groomsman were bunkies all through their service in the World war. They left Adrian with Co. B., 32nd Division, but were transferred to the 107th Supply Train. They were overseas 18 months.

The newly weds have the best wishes of the Tecumseh people.

It is absurdly easy for a woman to have a headache when she can't think of any other excuse.

Charity doesn't cover many sins unless it begins at home.

HAS SCIENCE SOLVED IRRIGATION PROBLEM?



Millions of dollars have been spent in the last few years on the perfection of irrigation, which, up until the present time, was the only solution to crop production in arid sections.

But science is always solving these problems in other ways, as in the case of Chas. M. Hatfield, the "Rain Wizard," who claims to have perfected a chemical apparatus whereby rain clouds are attracted and caused to drop their wealth of rain drops. Mr. Hatfield has practiced his secret system for 23 years with much success, charging from $1000 to $3000 an inch for rain. Only recently he is credited with a cloudburst in the northwest. Press reports did not state whether or not he was paid at the above rate.

Past Masters, ten of them, occupied the chairs when two candidates, Geo. Wilson and Wm. Camburn, were raised to the sublime degree of Master Mason, at a special convocation of Clinton Lodge, No. 175, F. & A. M., Friday evening.

In Mr. Webster's Dictionary

the word "Sterling" is given as meaning "fineness, proven quality. In explanation it continues to say: "Eastphalian traders . . . . were known in England as Easterlings. Their money being of the best quality, the name shortened to Sterlings was taken to denote fine money" and subsequently to apply to other articles—with similar meaning.

When we registered our trade name with the U. S. patent office there was some objection on account of its being a "descriptive" word.

We'll agree that it is, and that it describes accurately—according to Mr. Webster.

That quality explains why we are receiving so many inquiries and testimonials from users all over the country.

6,000 Participate in Sports Day Program

AMERICAN LEGION GRATIFIED WITH SUCCESS OF AFFAIR.

Numerous and Varied Attractions Give General Satisfaction—Tecumseh Wins Ball Game—Net Financial Returns Not Yet Known.

About 6,000 persons participated in the Sports day held under the auspices of the Tecumseh American Legion Wednesday, this attendance [illegible] by R. K. Anderson, commander of the post. The gala day was an unqualified success, Underwood-Orr post being gratified with the support received and is sincerely grateful to all who helped make the occasion such a profitable undertaking. It is not yet known definitely what the net returns will be, but that the finances of the local Legion post will be on a firmer footing is assured. The ideal weather was an important factor in contributing to the success of the festivities.

While the crowd was not as big in the afternoon as some had anticipated, in the evening the attendance was very large. The thousands present entered into the Mardi Gras and merry making spirit with vim, and all the shows and concessions were liberally patronized.

The program opened early in the forenoon with the parade as scheduled, this being followed by the street sports. In the afternoon there were more sports at the ball grounds and then the game between the Independents and the Zal Gaz Grotto nine of Ann Arbor. Tecumseh won the contest 7 to 0. A more detailed account of the game will be found elsewhere.

Throughout the day and evening there were band concerts in the business district and free vaudeville stunts. Dancing was also in progress afternoon and evening at the K. of P. hall and Witherell hall, square dances being featured at one place and round dances at the other. Willett's orchestra of Adrian and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Stalter furnished the music.

In the evening the fun was at its height, the carnival spirit being very manifest. Confetti was hurled profusely, the barkers for the various concessions put forth their best efforts and the crowd was jolly and loosened the purse strings more than at any other time during the celebration.

While all of the members of the Legion worked faithfully to make the undertaking a success, the major portion of the credit goes to General Chairman F. C. Hanna and Post Commander R. K. Anderson. Wade Jones gave especially valuable and much appreciated co-operation in regard to the vaudeville acts and the attraction at the Liberty theatre.

The Parade.

Led by Herman Seitz, mounted on a spirited horse, the parade moved east on Chicago street very little behind time and proceeded to Ottawa street and then countermarched.

The first vehicle in the procession was the fire truck, Chief Floyd Heesen being on the seat with the driver, John McCaughan. Next came the Boy Scouts of Troop No. 2 under command of Rev. W. R. Curtis. The Girl Scouts followed, Mrs. Curtis being the leader.

The Tecumseh Ladies' band was the next in line and played lively marches. Clark Gallup had several models of the Chevrolet car in

CANE MILL AT BRITTON BURNS, TRAMP SUSPECTED

The cane mill, owned by Cass Zeluff, was burned to the ground yesterday. It was thought to be of incendiary origin as a tramp was seen running toward the railroad track just before the smoke began to come from the building. Mr. Zeluff estimates his loss about $3,000, with little insurance.

Bullets Don't Halt a Fleeing Burglar

Nightwatchman Rubadou Scares Intruder From [illegible] Grocery and Shoots at Auto in Which Store Breaker Escapes.

Again on Sunday morning was Tecumseh visited by robbers, but this time they went away empty handed. A man forced entrance into the C. F. Smith store, but was frightened away by Nightwatchman George Rubadou before he could make a raid.

As the nightwatch opened the screen door on the east entrance to the Smith store about 3 o'clock Sunday morning he saw a man tiptoeing carefully from the back of the store toward the cash register. The intruder at the same time saw Mr. Rubadou and dashed to the rear door and out the alley into a car, with driver waiting in the dark under the trees across the street. The car speeded south on Ottawa street, to the accompaniment of shots from the nightwatchman's revolver, but the fellows made a clean get-away.

Investigation by Mr. Rubadou proved the fellow had broken the glass in the rear door and unlocked the bolt through this opening. Nothing was molested, thanks to the presence of the officer.

Nothing but Blanks for the Grotto Team

Independents Score Seven Times—Ann Arbor Makes Numerous Errors—Crowd Large.

Errors on the part of the Zal Gaz Grotto team of Ann Arbor helped the Tecumseh Independents to score seven times in the game on Sports day while the visitors were unable to get a man beyond third base. For six innings it was a pitcher's duel, Nearhood, for the Independents having the edge in the tight places over Lowe. Both are southpaws.

In the critical places Nearhood was given gilt edge support by the local players and this coupled with his own effectiveness kept the opposition at bay all the way. If the Ann Arbor boxman had been accorded more consistant backing the locals would not have piled up the number of scores they acquired.

Tecumseh got its first run, which proved to be enough to win, in the fifth. Harris hit for two bases and scored when Howe's drive was juggled by the shortstop. He advanced on a fielder's choice and scored when the first baseman made a misplay. H. Hanna and Bricker had both singled in the first inning but two were down and their teammates could not produce the help needed.

It was in the seventh that the Independents did their next scoring, three tallies resulting. Harris got on when the shortstop again fumbled and came in when C. Hanna slashed out a three-base drive. Hanna scored when the left fielder dropped a fly and after Blesing made a hit he was encouraged to register when the center fielder missed one.

Another trio of markers was secured in the eighth on a walk, Harris' single, C. Hanna's double and an error on the part of the third baseman.

Hunt covered second base for the Independents for four innings, Howe playing first. Then a shift was made, Hunt retiring, Howe going to second and Rogers taking his regular position at first base.

The attendance was the largest of the season.

ST. PETER'S GUILD HAS PLEASURABLE GATHERING

The ladies of St. Peter's church were pleasantly entertained Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Lavern Russell, southwest of town. The attendance was good. Games on the lawn furnished amusement. The hostess, assisted by Mrs. R. K. Anderson, Mrs. Clyde Barber and Mrs. Adamson, served tea, sandwiches and cakes. Those furnishing transportation were R. K. Anderson, L. E. Temple, Clyde Barber, Mrs. Ives and Mrs. Hayden.

The next meeting will be at the parish house the first Tuesday in September. It will be a joint meeting of the Ladies' Guild and the Woman's Auxiliary and will be a program and business meeting.

The collection amounted to $3.50, which will be used by the Auxiliary for missionary work.

Contract Awarded For First Home

Tecumseh Home Building Association Buys Train Lot on Union Street.

A splendid building lot purchased and contract for first house awarded was the business transacted at a comparatively short session of the board of directors of Tecumseh Home Building Association Monday night.

The first business was the consideration of an offer from Miss Lucy Train for the purchase of a lot [illegible] Union street. A motion to purchase the lot was unanimously carried.

After going into the three bids submitted by contractors for the construction of houses a motion was carried to award the first contract to the lowest bidders, and Baxter & Goheen get the job if specifications to be submitted prove satisfactory to the board.

Plans now are that the first house will be erected on the Train lot just purchased and that building operations will begin shortly.

Trust in Jesus and You Need Not Fear

This is Message of Rev. J. F. Kiskaddon to Community Service Congregation—Meeting at Baptist Church Next.

No matter how violent the storm of antagonism becomes against the church of the living God if we call on and trust in Jesus we will not perish. This was the reassurance given the congregation at the community service at the Presbyterian church Sunday evening by the Rev. J. F. Kiskaddon of Covington, Ind. This pastor preached at this church in the morning as a candidate for the pastorate of the local Presbyterian congregation and was induced to occupy the pulpit again in the evening. The community service was scheduled to be held in the Baptist church but will take place there next Sunday instead.

Rev. Kiskaddon took as his text for his evening sermon St. Matthew 8:25-26, "And his disciples came to him, and awoke him, saying, Lord, save us; we perish. And he said unto them, why are ye fearful, O ye of little faith? Then he arose, and rebuked the winds and the sea; and there was a great calm." The topic was "The Majesty of the Master."

The storm scene depicted in the text, said Rev. Kiskaddon, is a true description of the tempest in which the Church of Jesus Christ finds itself today. He declared the confidence of the son of God in that crisis is a rebuke to our fearfulness. The strife in the world today, the passion for amusement and the other storms against the church make us fear it will be destroyed, asserted the visiting pastor. But let us be calm, he counseled. "No power on earth or in hell can withstand the truth that God has given us in His word." proclaimed the preacher. "We lose faith because we forget there is a God. Social evils cannot be overcome with struggles, only by inspiration and revelation.

"Jesus is doing greater things today than when He stilled the tempest on the sea. He is giving new hearts to men and women. People, by the use of the gospel, can do greater things than ever. There is no passion that rises in the human breast that cannot be overcome by the power of Jesus Christ. All the powers of evil may come against Christianity but we will call upon Christ and He will bring about a great calm."

Rev. W. R. Curtis of the Baptist church offered the prayer and Rev. Edward Escolme, pastor of the Friends church, pronounced the benediction.

"Rock of Ages" was given as a solo number by W. S. Dickinson, being beautifully sung.

Will Decide Series Here Next Sunday

Tecumseh Loses at Tipton 9 to 8—Coming Struggle on Local Diamond Scheduled to be Sizzler.

Tecumseh and Tipton are now tied in their series of ball games, the neighboring town team having grabbed last Sunday's contest away from the Independents at that place. The score was 9 to 8, the thrilling contest having been witnessed by a large crowd, several hundred going from here. The first in the series was won by Tecumseh in this city on August 15.

With the result of the series depending on next Sunday's combat the fans are anticipating it with the keenest interest. The struggle will take place at Athletic park in this city. Both teams are being keyed up to a high pitch and those who have witnessed the majority of the games here this season declare the one next Sunday should by all means be the most hotly contested of the year. It is announced by the management of the Independents that the local players are seeing to it that they will be in the best condition possible and that Tipton will come prepared to battle fiercely for the premier honors is a foregone conclusion.

That Tecumseh lost Sunday's game was due to the fact that the Independent's mainstay pitcher, Howe, had been hurling too continuously. He was in the box at Albion on Thursday and twirled half of the 11-inning game which the local shopmen had with the Britton nine at that place Saturday. When he went in against Tipton there Sunday he seemed to lack speed.

Like on previous occasions Tecumseh made a scoring spurt in the initial inning. Blesing, Harris, Bricker and C. Hanna all hit safely and with an error on the part of Hawley, Tipton's third baseman, four Independents scampered around the sacks. The opposition came right back at the leaders, but could get only two tallies. Treat was walked and came in on Hawley's three-bagger. The third-sacker scored on O. Treat's safety.

Tipton sent another run in in the second and after this inning Howe left the box, Westfall going in. The neighboring town team forged ahead in the fourth. Three hits, an error and Westfall's walk-

TEACHER SHORTAGE IS GREAT IN THIS COUNTY

There is a serious shortage of teachers over this county this fall, asserts George J. Tripp, the county school commissioner. Of the 55 who wrote the recent examination 22 failed to receive marks, and this left nearly that number of districts over the county without teachers. Among the fortunate ones in whom Tecumseh is interested are Bernice Ayers, Tipton; Alma Jedele, Clinton; Ruth Schuler, Clinton; Jeanette Hoelzer, Clinton; Dorothy Corwin, Clinton; Eula Schwartz, Norvell; Alice Schneider, Tecumseh; Ella Tripp, Tipton; Emma Lowe, Britton; Violet Boyd, Onsted; Lila Preston, Britton.

Nearly every teacher who took the examination was under contract to teach next year. Special certificates may be issued as the only relief, but already some who have failed are teaching under such a grant and by law the special certificate can be issued only once in three years.

CATAPULTS FROM AUTO, SUFFERS BROKEN RIBS

Mrs. F. D. Avery was hurt quite badly in a peculiar accident Tuesday. She had started for Ann Arbor with Mr. Avery and a party of friends and thinking one of the suitcases, which had been tied to the running board, had been lost, she leaned on the door of the car to look for the case. The door flew open and Mrs. Avery fell to the ground. She did not realize she was badly hurt so went on to Ann Arbor. By the time she had reached that city, however, she was in great pain and was taken to the University hospital. Two ribs were found fractured and she remained for treatment.

Word from Mrs. Avery's daughter, Mrs. Jessie Helfrick, yesterday was that the patient was resting comfortably.

APOPLEXY IS FATAL TO MISS ANNA SNYDER

Miss Anna Snyder, aged 68 years, who had resided with Mrs. Florence Osburn for some months, suffered a stroke of apoplexy Saturday evening about 8 o'clock, passing away the next morning at 5:30. Her niece and husband, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Gilbert, were summoned from Fayette, but did not receive the message until Sunday noon. They immediately came here and arranged to have the body taken to their home in Fayette. This Guy Belding did on Monday and the funeral was held Tuesday.

Miss Snyder came here from Fayette several years ago with her sister, Mrs. Catherine Conrad. The latter died a year ago and the Gilbert family has been at Fayette much lately, so Miss Snyder had lived in Mrs. Osburn's home. Her kindness to the little people there has been marked and her loss is keenly felt. She was a devoted attendant of the Methodist church.

R. J. McCoy Accused of Having Wet Stuff

Liquor Alleged to Have Been Found in Butter Company Garage—Hearing Friday.

In Justice Bennett's court in Adrian tomororw Robert J. McCoy of Tecumseh will have a hearing on a charge of having violate the state prohibition law. Mr. McCoy is accused of having had six quarts of liquor secreted in the garage of the Tecumseh Butter Company, of which he is manager.

A search warrant for the investigation of the garage of the local butter company was issued in Adrian last Thursday evening and was brought to this city by a squad of the State Constabulary under the command of Sergeant Zimmerman and Deputies Weatherbee and Mitchell. When they searched the garage it is alleged a half dozen quarts of liquor were found hidden in the pit of the structure. Mr. McCoy was taken into custody Friday and when he was arraigned in Justice Bennett's court demanded an examination. This was set for tomorrow and he furnished $500 bail and was released.

Interviewed on Tuesday by a representative of The Herald, Mr. McCoy said he had no formal statement to make in regard to the charge against him. He did express the confidence, however, that the accusation could not be sustained. Mr. McCoy said he would be represented by Wood & Rathbun of this city and Clarke E. Baldwin of Adrian.

Editorial Comment

PETITIONS TO SCHOOL BOARD

Brownville and east side parents who signed petitions requesting Tecumseh board of education to change the plan of sending younger children to the west branch school house feel they are justified in having their prayer granted. It is a long distance for the small children of the outlying districts to walk daily especially so during severe winter weather, but is no greater hardship than the children of south and western extremes have endured in attending school at the central building.

With the increased school attendance, the scarcity and added cost of teachers and the general necessary growth of school expenditures the school board finds itself in a position that practically forbids any radical change in its program this year. Sending older children to the branch school would mean greater inconvenience and probably the hiring an extra set of teachers which the annual appropriation would forbid.

There is hope, however, that the situation may be relieved to some extent through the suggestion of one member; that is to provide conveyance for the little ones, if only during the season of severe and inclement weather. This suggestion can be carried out with less confusion and expense than the change of the present school plan. Parents in the outlying districts should keep in mind that our school board is composed of men that take great interest in our educational institution and it is their ambition to serve this institution to their best ability and the best interest of parents and children. Do not be disappointed if your request is not granted.

Proven in Tecumseh it has been that a modernly equipped school building is of great attraction to the young folks seeking the best educational advantages. The increased attendance attests this fact. When the new school building was planned and erected it was thought of adequate capacity for Tecumseh's needs for years to come. Two short years of modern school and equipment have upset these thoughts and proven the handsome structure inadequate for the demands of a growing community. It is a circumstance that could not be foreseen.

HOME BUILDING ACTIVITY.

With a lot purchased and contract for one house awarded it certainly looks as though a start is really made to relieve Tecumseh's housing problem. Let's hope there will be no more unnecessary or annoying delays in the building program.

SHOWING THE FARMER HOW TO MAKE MONEY.

One of the magazines that devote their columns to better business and especially to better business methods by the everyday man—the big business fellow doesn't need it—has been discussing printer's ink and its uses. Among other things we were interested in the following which we extract for the benefit of our readers:

> "The value of the rural press is not realized by one farmer in a hundred. By this I mean that the farmer is slow to take advantage of the profits which the publicity of the press place at his command, in the disposal of blooded stock, the exchange of animals and the disposal of seed grain. There is no reason why the farmer should not avail himself of the advertising columns of the paper as well as the village merchant. By using printer's ink there are many instances where the products of the farm might be sold without the loss of time incidental to taking the same to market and there disposing of it at a price named by the other fellow."

And here is another statement that is worth thinking over:

> "The posting of a notice on the fence corner may have its virtues, but few people have the inclination to get out of their automobiles or tie up their teams to read a poorly composed ad tacked up on a fence post. The same notice, perhaps at a cost not to exceed 25 to 50 cents, might be placed before a thousand farmers who would be permitted to read it while spending the evening around the parlor table, with plenty of time to think it over."

NO BUSINESS DEPRESSION COMING.

Reassuring to a high degree is the statement made by Professor David Friday of the University of Michigan that the threat of a severe business depression in this country this fall has been averted. Prof. Friday is one of the leading economists in America today and his resume of the present conditions and what is likely to come bear much weight.

The U. of M. man says even if a depression should come within a year or two it will not be severe. Never again, he predicts, will this country be called upon to go through such a panic as was suffered in 1873 and again in 1893-94.

"I do not believe there will be a serious depression this fall," said the professor. "It looked threatening last spring, but the situation has changed since then.

"Crops are one of the most important independent determinents of business conditions and a bad crop situation might well have brought on a depression this autumn by lessening trade, especially in the agricultural districts and so providing a succession of business failures which always precipitate a panic.

"The wheat crop is good, we will probably have the largest corn crop in our history, potatoes are good, and in general the crop situation of the entire country is excellent. The season is so far advanced that there is little danger of anything happening to nullify the present bright prospects.

"The labor situation shows considerable signs of improvement as regards efficiency. Unemployment, due to the small amount of activity in the building trades, and to the laying off of men in certain lines of industry like the woolen mills and in the rubber industries, has improved the efficiency of labor, and thus decreased the cost of the labor element for the unit of output. Labor is also less quarrelsome today than it was in the spring, and there seems no likelihood of serious strikes this fall. The transportation situation should certainly improve with increased wages to rail employes and increased rates.

"But the most important factor of all, in a way, is the check on the expansion of bank credits.

"This country has made so much solid industrial progress during the war and the decade preceding it, that it is unreasonable to expect a repetition of 1873 or 1893. The last 20 years has seen very little industrial revolution in this country, but it has brought a tremendous increase in production, and it is not likely that any series of events which are now in prospect will lead to the sort of thing we saw in '73."

This optimistic view into the future will no doubt encourage merchants and manufacturers in general to go after business on a broad scale and in an [illegible] manner.

It isn't always safe to judge the quality of men or cigars by their price.

Big Musical Attraction Coming to the Bradley

Dunbar's Famous "White Hussars" Here on Trans-Continental Tour.

MUSICAL MERRYMAKERS

RALPH DUNBAR'S WORLD FAMOUS SINGING BAND, "THE WHITE HUSSARS," AT THE BRADLEY OPERA HOUSE, TECUMSEH, THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 2.

A big treat is in store for the music lovers of Tecumseh and vicinity next week Thursday, September 2, when Ralph Dunbar's big singing band, "The White Hussars," with Mr. Al Sweet as director, will be presented at the Bradley opera house [illegible] night engagement.

Hundreds of people from this vicinity who were fortunate enough to see "Robin Hood" when presented at the Bradley last winter, will remember the high class of attractions Mr. Dunbar presents, as "Robin Hood" was one of Mr. Dunbar's entertainments. Mr. Dunbar's name at the head of a theatrical offering is the same guarantee that "sterling" is on silver. It assures you of the very best the country can produce.

Mr. Al Sweet, director of "The White Hussars" has for some time been musical director for the Victrola company and previous to that was musical director with the famous Ringling Brothers circus.

"The White Hussars" are only playing two engagements between Chicago and Detroit (where they open for a special engagement at the Michigan State fair the following day after the Tecumseh engagement) and it is through some excellent business the management of the Bradley has given Mr. Dunbar on former occasions that Tecumseh is fortunate enough to be one of the two engagements.

"The White Hussars" is not only a superb military band but a wonderful male chorus, equalling five first class male quartets combined, a supreme musical entertainment for everyone. Their engagement at the Bradley should and will prove to be an evening's entertainment long to be remembered by music lovers who can appreciate the very best the theatrical profession can offer.

Seats may be reserved in advance by phoning the management of the Bradley (phone 365) now. First floor, $1.00; balcony, 50c, plus war tax.

FORDSON
TRADE MARK
Farm Tractor

There is only one model of the Fordson tractor. Henry Ford knows the wisdom of concentrating every energy on one model; his genius has been centered on building just one compact, easily operated tractor—a tractor useful on small farms or large farms, field work or belt work—and that will cost the least to maintain and operate.

Henry Ford & Son have specialized—they have made one tractor and made it well. That means lower manufacturing costs and a lower selling price for tractor parts, and a most serviceable, reliable tractor.

In means that the Fordson dealer is able to carry a goodly stock of tractor parts, and that he can give prompt, efficient service to the Fordson farmer. The Fordson, like the Ford car, is a utility for use during the entire year.

The demand for Fordsons is far greater than present production. Place your order now—if you delay, you may not be able to get your tractor when you want it. Order now—it is your protection.

Samson Model M

Tractor

When you buy a tractor you want heavy draft horsepower, both for the drawbar and belt, but at the right price in first cost and upkeep as well. This is what you get when you buy a SAMSON MODEL M. It is built throughout like a high-priced automobile.

We have many tractors out now about a year and it is a pleasure to hear the favorable comments regarding the ample power at drawbar for plowing, the abundance of power for belt work and the manner in which the automatic governor regulates the power just when you want it regardless of where it is being used.

We are now making deliveries for fall. Prices are not yet at their highest point and it will be economy to buy now when tractors are obtainable, so you can get the fall plowing done and have plenty of time to get in your crops in the spring.

If it is a matter of terms we can assist you. Call and talk it over.

WHOOPING COUGH MENACE, HEALTH OFFICER ASSERTS

That whooping cough is dangerous and has been responsible for 304 deaths in Michigan during the first six months of the present year, is the warning issued by Village Health Officer Hendershott. Dr. Hendershott says whooping cough is communicable from the earliest symptoms, during the convalescence and even after the characteristic cough has subsided. It is infectious, however, during the early stages. The disease is unusually prevalent in Michigan at the present time. The Tecumseh health officer urges parents to exercise the utmost care, that every case be reported (by the householder when no physician is employed) the house placarded as required by law and patients isolated and not permitted to come in contact with other children or to go about the streets or public places. Unless vigorous action is taken and parents co-operate with the authorities it is feared the disease will claim the lives of hundreds of children in the state.

Robert Schmaltz of Adrian was a Sports day visitor in Tecumseh.

ST. PETER'S CHURCH SCHOOL HAD DISTINGUISHED VISITORS ON SUNDAY

At the session of St. Peter's church school last Sunday morning there were present Miss Sophia Galation of New York City, Mr. and Mrs. Keedle and Mrs. Galation of Hamburg, Mich., and another gentleman from Milan, also Mrs. Hendry Clancy of Fayetteville, Ark.

Miss Galation and Mrs. Keedle are the granddaughters of Dr. Peter P. Galation, who came from New York state in 1831. As was his custom, he held services for his family in his home. Others became interested and asked him to hold services in the school house, which he did. Later he served as lay reader, and so started St. Peter's—oldest church west of the Alleghanies.

Mrs. Clancy, who is stopping at the Hotel Murry, spent her early childhood in Tecumseh, she having lived in the third house east of the Stacy home on West Chicago street until she was 14 years of age, and now after an absence of 54 years has returned to renew old acquaintances. Mrs. Clancy told us many interesting things concerning the church as it was at that time, and all departed with a feeling that the session had meant more to us than usual. It was incidentally mentioned that it would be fine to have a reunion of all those connected with the past of St. Peter's. Let's talk it over and see what can be done. W. B.

Community Picnic Big Event.

The community and homecomers' picnic held Saturday was not so well attended as in former years, owing to the threatening cool weather and the farmers being so busy, but those who were privileged to attend enjoyed every minute of the time. In the evening readings were given by Mrs. Roy Hendershott, a splendid address by Rev. Prestige of Dundee and the concert by Tipton band were enjoyed by all. Later came dancing, with music by an orchestra from Saline.

Now the whole family can go out on a Summer evening

THE women should certainly be thankful for the automobile. It has given them a chance to see a lot more of their husbands.

II

But it has done a great deal more than that.

It has brought people closer together, given them new interests, swept away old prejudices.

What affects one man now generally affects a good many of his neighbors in the same way. And they have a better chance to get together and talk things over.

III

It's had its effect on the tire business.

When automobiles were new people were willing to buy any kind of a tire. Now they're beginning to insist on knowing what they are getting.

And the more they insist, the better it will be for us.

IV

We want our customers to know what they are getting.

That's why we represent U. S. Tires—so there will be no doubt about it.

Whatever the size of your car, you know that the U. S. Tire you put on it is the best kind of tire its makers know how to make.

U. S. Tires are guaranteed for life, without any limitation of mileage.

That ought to mean something to the man who has thought about tires.

Select your tires according to the roads they have to travel:

In sandy or hilly country, wherever the going is apt to be heavy—The U. S. Nobby.

For ordinary country roads—The U. S. Chain or Usco.

For front wheels—The U. S. Plain.

"I don't believe in banks," says old G. Rouch, "they don't do me no good." Perhaps not, but we would like to see him run down to Washington to get his pension check cashed or to New York or San Francisco when he is lucky enough to receive a check on one of those places. Maybe he'll sell a horse to a man in a neighboring town and receive a check in payment. Did you ever stop to think that if it were not for this bank you would have to be on the road half the time going after money or taking money some place? We make no charge for cashing your check.

Get More Work Out of Your Tractor by Using a Tractor Disc Harrow

Keep your tractor as busy as possible at work that pays. The more work it performs, the more profit you will secure from your investment.

Besides using it when you plow, use it in disking before and after you plow. That makes a well-prepared seed bed—the kind that pays most.

Come to our store and let us show you the John Deere Pony Tractor Disc Harrow—a sure profit-maker behind any standard tractor.

This is an exceptionally strong, light-draft, flexible harrow. It has a separate lever for angling each gang so that all tendency of harrow to crowd to one side when working in hard and soft ground, or on hillsides, can be overcome.

Its third lever makes thorough pulverizing possible. With it you can give the right pressure to the inner ends of the gangs of the front section to make all the discs penetrate at equal depth the entire width of the harrow.

There are other features on this harrow which we would like to show you, such as double-bar gang frames, twice as strong as any single-bar gang frame, all-steel stub pole and adjustable spring steel scrapers. Be sure to ask us about these features.

ing a man with the bases full gave Tipton two markers. They got another in the fifth, making their score 6. The Independents again struck their batting stride in the seventh, netting four tallies and putting them in the lead. Two errors, a walk and a hit for two bases by Bricker and a three-sack drive by Cole did the business. But the local men could not retain the lead. Tipton, in the same inning, registered three times at the final station and copped the game. This was accomplished as the result of hits by Baker and Fish, an error and two passes.

Bricker pitched the last two innings.

Game at Albion.

The Tecumseh Independents were blanked by the Albion Red Sox in that city last Thursday. The game was an exciting one. Up to the sixth inning neither side had scored, but Albion got busy at this time. The Red Sox nicked the home plate three times in this round on hits and a bungle. In the next inning, with the sacks all occupied, Helmer drove out a home-run, making the score 7 to 0. Tecumseh was unable to get a man around at any time during the contest.

Howe and Harris were the battery for the Independents and Glasscoff and Prough officiated for the Red Sox.

Baseball Notes.

Bricker, left fielder for the Independents, boosted his batting average considerable in the first game of the series with Tipton. He got a hit each of the four times he was at bat.

The shut-out handed the Tecumseh team by the Albion Red Sox was the worst defeat the Independents have suffered this season.

An excellent record has been made by the Independents this season and they appreciate the loyalty of the local fans but would welcome more at the games.

Drake, shortstop for the Independents, suffered a sprained ankle while playing with the Tecumseh shop team at Britton Saturday. This kept him out of the contest at Tipton Sunday and will probably interfere with his playing for some time.

A Tecumseh shopmen's team was defeated at Britton Saturday during the community picnic there, the score being 6 to 5. The game had to go 11 innings before it was decided.

Ruth May Kempf.

Ruth May Kempf was born June 17, 1919, in Raisin township, and died August 12, 1920, aged 1 year, 1 month and 26 days. Besides her father and mother she is survived by two sisters and three brothers.

The funeral was held at the home in Raisin August 14 at 2 o'clock, Rev. W. R. Curtis, pastor of the Tecumseh Baptist church, officiating. Burial was in the Lake Ridge cemetery.

A precious one from us has gone,
Her voice we loved is stilled,
Her place is vacant in our home
Which never can be filled.

God in His kindness has recalled
A precious one from us;
Although her body lies below
Her spirit is in heaven.

Card of Thanks.

We thank Rev. Curtis for his kind words and the choir for the beautiful singing.

FRANKLIN

Wisner Family Reunion.

The third annual meeting of the Wisner family occurred August 21 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Wisner. Relatives were present from Battle Creek, Athens, Union City, Mendon, Sharon, Port Huron, Weston, Canada and other points, about 60 in number.

The dinner of chicken pie and other good things was served on the lawn under a canvas erected for that purpose. Just as the guests were being seated a storm broke which quickly became a downpour. The Helping Hand of the M. E. church, Tipton, which was serving the dinner, was equal to the occasion and soon transferred the "eats" into the house, where the feast went on undisturbed.

A business session was held on the lawn, called to order by the president, S. N. Wisner, and officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: President, A. B. Wisner, Clinton; vice president, Robert Longman, Battle Creek; secretary and treasurer, Grace Collar, Battle Creek.

A. C. Wisner of Canada responded to a call for a speech when the rain began to fall, again sending the guests scurrying to the porch and house, where the interesting talk was concluded.

Most of the guests then visited the little family cemetery on S. N. Wisner's farm, where Abraham and Sarah Wisner, grandparents and great-grandparents (several times removed in some cases) of nearly all the guests, are buried.

Ice cream and cake were then served and most of the guests prepared for their long drive home, all feeling that this had been a "Red Letter" day, very happily spent. There were some sly jokes about the rain and the Wisners all being Baptists anyhow.

The next annual meeting will be held the third Saturday in August, 1921, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mel Case near Athens.

DON'T WASTE TIME

It's a waste of time to experiment with liniments and plasters when you have a dull, throbbing backache or sharp, stabbing twinges. Get after the cause! Help the kidneys with Doan's Kidney Pills. Read this.

Miss Rhoba Arner, 108 Oneida St., Tecumseh, says: "We have often used Doan's Kidney Pills in our home and so far as my experience goes, I can recommend them. I had been feeling run down and my head was just a steady, dull pain. I was dizzy by spells and my kidneys didn't act regularly, either. I knew that Doan's Kidney Pills were good for these troubles, so I sent to Pulver's Drug Store and got a box. After using them, my troubles left me. My kidneys have never bothered me since and it's a pleasure for me to endorse Doan's Kidney Pills."

TO THE REPUBLICAN VOTERS:

We wonder if you have remembered in the press of other political business, that Cassius L. Glasgow of Nashville, Michigan, is seeking the nomination for Governor on the Republican ticket.

Now we are interested in him because we believe him to be an absolutely capable man and right on all questions. He was raised a farmer, has had twenty-five years experience in business, four years in the Legislature and twelve years as Railroad Commissioner, which gives him the experience needed for Governor.

We have never had a Governor in our family and we would like one, especially when we honestly believe we are supporting the best-fitted all-round man that is running this year for Governor and if you knew this cousin of ours as well as we know him, we are sure you would go to the voting place early August 31st, rain or shine, and vote for him. If you do not know him, just take our word for it that he is all right. We ask you, as a special favor that you get your neighbors and friends to join with you and give C. L. Glasgow a big vote at the Primaries August 31st.

Do not forget the date—Tuesday, August 31st.

Yours truly,

the parade and L. E. Temple & Co. had the various models of the Overland car in the procession. The same concern displayed the Samson truck and the Samson tractor.

Among the business men and manufacturers having decorated vehicles in the parade were Karl A. Braman, the Wm. Hayden Milling Co. and Spitler & Horn.

Albert VanDoren had an interesting exhibit in the parade, showing the various models of the Mitchell car from 1911 to 1920 inclusive.

The "rube" band, under the direction of Archie Boyd, created much amusement. This organization occupied the truck used by Lester Coller in conducting his music store and Sunbeam studio.

The Legion was greatly disappointed in the non-appearance of the Grotto band of Ann Arbor. This organization sent word late Tuesday evening that it would be unable to come. The sports day promoters immediately made efforts to get a substitute musical organization and communicated with E. J. Morden of Adrian, who was able to engage enough players from the county seat and neighboring towns to form a third band, which played a greater share of the day. His interest in behalf of the local post was greatly appreciated.

The Sports.

Immediately following the parade came the sports, the people entering into tht contests heartily. These were the winners:

50-yard dash for boys—First, John Erwin Anderson; second, Raymond Nobles.

Three-legged race—Rude Meade and Fred Steinhoff of Adrian.

Sack race—First, H. Baldwin; second, John Erwin Anderson.

Girls' 50-yard dash—First, Modelle Owens; second, Christine Wilson.

Fat man's race—First, A. P. Banta; second, Ray Carr.

100-yard dash—First, J. Lyon; second, H. Baldwin.

Wheelbarrow race—George Steel and Fred Nobles.

Bicycle race for boys—First, John Erwin Anderson; second Raymond Taylor.

The tug of war was pulled off between a group of Quaker Oats men led by Fred Anderson and a team of agriculturalists whose captain was Albert Foster. The Quaker Oats men pulled the others over the mark, winning the $8 in cash.

Judges of the sports were H. S. Moore, W. F. Fisher and F. G. Heesen.

John Larsen was the starter and kept things moving with frequent and effective promptings.

Sports Day Notes.

Practically all of the shops were closed for sports day that the employes might all join in the festivities.

The Christiansen brothers were in charge of the Legion lunch booth and are real artists in the sandwich and coffee line.

The doll shop, in charge of Mrs. Bertha Jones of Rochester, N. Y., and Miss Hazel Stahler, was a big hit, if one could judge by the number of dollies being toted home by the little and big.

Elmer Lockwood's display of mounted birds and insects was a place of much interest to the crowds. Many there were who viewed his "Wonderland of Nature" and found it an extraordinary exhibit.

The captain of the Tecumseh ball team, Ed Rogers, was given a fine ride in the aeroplane, as his team was the winner. This was in fulfillment of a promise made by the pilot, offering a ride to the captain of the victors.

Al Brooks was the only person hurt all day as far as we can learn. He was hit in the face by a thrown ball just before the ball game and suffered a broken nose. Dr. J. W. Beardsley brought him back to his office and cared for his injuries.

The Boy Scouts were much in evidence, especially while the sports program was being held, and gave valuable assistance in keeping the crowd back that the athletes might have space in which to compete for the attractive prizes.

The clown who furnished so much amusement for old and young as the dude was Mr. Laming of Elyria, Ohio, with Montie Harrington in the 82nd division and his guest for yesterday. Mr. Laming has been engaged for the state fair at Detroit.

Preceding the ball game there were three sports events at Athletic park. At fungo hitting Louie Howe was the most proficient and won a baseball bat. Percy Raymond, a member of the Grotto baseball team, threw a baseball further than the other contestants and was presented with a ball. There was a scramble when the greased pig was liberated and after somewhat of a chase Albert Foster caught it.

There were more than 1,100 cars parked on the streets last night, so says James Jones, who put handbills in all cars except those in the garages and church sheds.

Quick work was done in clearing away the stands and other equipment for the day, as by Thursday noon most of the temporary structures had been removed.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church served more than 200 at dinner. Mrs. VanAlstine of Chicago, Mrs. Mary Benedict's guest, rendered delightful piano music throughout the dinner hour.

R. H. Mack, manager of the International Vaudeville Exchange, and his family were here from Detroit yesterday for the sports day. It is through Mr. Mack that the Wednesday shows are engaged and he wanted to see Tecumseh put on a real day.

The oftener the Ladies' band is heard the more popular it becomes, and many were the complimentary remarks heard on the streets. The organization is fast making a name for itself and is bringing Tecumseh into the limelight in a most favorable manner.

That John Larsen is a most efficient salesman with a royal pair of lungs was evident by his work at the Country Store. This feature drew great crowds and gave the best satisfaction, for every ticket drew something from a fly swatter to a sack of flour.

The promoters were unable to get in touch with a balloonist who could appear here Wednesday, but an aeroplane was substituted and the flights interested all. The plane was from the H. & M. Air Service of Ann Arbor and was in charge of Pilot O. J. Hall and a mechanic. A number of passengers were taken up.

The usual Wednesday vaudeville stunts were added to the sports of the day, making a full program. Tanner, the juggler, gave some unusual work, but the most pleasing feature was a musical number, Alfredo & Petro, who played a violin and accordian. These men are of the secret service in Detroit and have been billed here several times this summer, but trouble would arise in the foreign section in the Michigan metropolis and they would have to remain on duty. They are artists and won applause readily. The third number, by Miss McCurdy, vocalist, was rendered in front of the Liberty theatre. The lady had a pleasing voice and was heartily encored.

Frequently was the lack of rowdyism commented on. The crowd, which was estimated anywhere from 6,000 up, was good-natured and here for a good time.

The Royal Neighbors had a booth on the main corners and sold lunches and ice cream, disposing of over 20 gallons of cream. Mrs. Charles Bennett presented the lodge with a crocheted centerpiece which went to Mrs. Will Powell, the ladies clearing $11.50 in that alone.

"To School" Will be Cry on Monday

EVERYTHING IS READY FOR RE-OPENING HERE.

All But One of 22 Instructors Engaged—Board Not to Change Plans Regarding West Branch, But Will Await Developments.

Next Monday, September 6, will be an important day in the life of the children of Tecumseh for on that day the local school will begin the 1920-1921 term. Everything will be in readiness for the re-opening of the school and all the instructors will have been engaged with the possible exception of one. It is the belief of the school authorities that the coming term will be the most successful one in the history of the local school.

At a meeting of the board of education on Monday afternoon the petitions of the residents of the east side of town and those in Brownville, protesting against sending the very young children to the West Branch school, were given consideration. The board decided to make no change in its plans for the present, desiring to wait until school opens, ascertain how many pupils have to walk a long ways under the present schedule and then take such action as seems necessary. One method of solving the problem which has arisen since it was decided to put the kindergarten, first and second grades in the West

Mrs. Denmark has recently finished a course at the Ferris Institute. Through her visits to her parents and her grandmothers, Mrs. F. D. Avery and Mrs. E. M. Lewis, she has made for herself a large circle of friends in Tecumseh, whose best wishes follow her to her new home.

MR. AND MRS. J. S. TEMPLE ATTEND TWO REUNIONS

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Temple were in the party of 120 of the Temple and Bliss clan who met at the M. A. C. grounds in Lansing August 26. Relatives attended from Detroit, Dakota, Hastings, Ypsilanti, St. Johns, Lansing, DuPlain, Grand Ledge, Wacousta, Kalamazoo, Riley and Bingham. A delicious dinner was served, followed by ice cream and watermelon. At 3 o'clock the assembly was called to order and J. S. Temple elected president. They voted to meet annually.

After a day's dieting the Tecumseh couple journeyed to Nashville, where they met with Mrs. Temple's people. There 40 partook of a bountiful repast, after which an interesting program was given, Mrs. Temple presiding. This was the twenty-third reunion of the Frosts and Whitlocks. Their next reunion will be held at Lansing, with Frank Hoover in the chair.

Democratic Candidate for President Coming Friday

JAMES M. COX

Tecumseh is to be highly honored tomorrow when James M. Cox, governor of Ohio and Democratic candidate for president of the United States, will give an address here, this place being the first town in Michigan where he will appear and one of the few cities in this state which he will visit.

According to his schedule, Gov. Cox will arrive in Tecumseh at 8:55 a. m., railroad time, this being 9:55 by the time under which this city is now operating. The Democratic aspirant for president will arrive in a special car attached to the New York Central train from Toledo. The train will make a 10-minute stop at the Chicago street crossing and it will be at this place where Gov. Cox will address the people of Tecumseh. It is expected there will be a large attendance, as announcement of his coming was made at the free street show last evening and word that he would be here had been passed out to the faithful of the party previously. Many are also expected from the surrounding towns.

Music will be furnished by the Tecumseh Ladies' band and that the distinguished visitor will be given the welcome due him is being looked after by a committee composed of Wade Jones and E. C. Heilman.

Previous to the arrival of Mr. Cox, Congressman Frank E. Doremus of Detroit, Democratic campaign manager for the western district, will give an address. He will arrive in Adrian from his Chicago headquarters early Friday morning and accompanied by a party of county seat Democrats will motor to this city, arriving here in time to speak at 8:15.

Before Gov. Cox leaves Toledo for his trip through Michigan he will be joined by a party of Wolverine Democrats, headed by William F. Connolly, national committeeman, and T. B. Preston, chairman of the state central committee. The train will leave Toledo at 7:30, with Tecumseh the first stop in Michigan where an address will be given. A short talk will also be given at Manchester and the next place where the Democratic nominee for president will speak will be in Jackson. Here a stop of about 30 minutes will be made, Gov. Cox speaking in the park near the railroad station. Edward Frensdorf of Hudson plans to board the train at Lenawee Junction and accompany the distinguished passenger to Jackson.

Battle Creek, Lansing and Kalamazoo are the other Michigan cities to see Gov. Cox.

Vote in Tecumseh Is Less Than 300

Few Women Visit Polls—Campbell Favored Here as Republican Nominee for Governor.

There was a light vote cast at the primary election in Tecumseh Tuesday, less than 300 exercising the franchise privilege. Few women voted, not as many visiting the polls as was expected.

Milo D. Campbell, of the nine seeking the Republican nomination for governor, received the largest number of votes in this city. Chas. S. Mott and Luren Dickinson were second and third choice in the order named. Thomas Read won the nomination for lieutenant governor so far as the voting in this city was concerned. Congressman Earl C. Michener had a big lead over Hubert F. Probert, his Republican opponent for nomination as representative in congress from this district.

Ford VanDusen received twice as many votes in Tecumseh as L. L. Knowles, his rival for the Republican nomination for sheriff. Worthy G. Smith also had a marked advantage over Elwin B. Clark, who opposed him for the nomination as register of deeds on the Republican ticket. In the contest for the nomination as prosecuting attorney on the Republican ticket Leland F. Bean easily outdistanced James H. Cornelius.

About half of the voting here was done in the forenoon and about half in the afternoon, instead of most of it in the latter part of the day as is usually the case. Many of those visiting the polls wrote in the names of candidates for certain offices and then failed to place a cross in front of the names, thus making them invalid.

These were chosen delegates to the county conventions:

Republican—John F. Schreder, H. H. Hanna, F. E. Pratt, Wm. Fisher, George Rathbun and R. K. Anderson.

Democratic—B. J. Pulver, W. W. Whiting, E. C. Heilman, Fred B. Wood, J. H. Smith and W. L. Jones.

EASTERN STAR TAKES IN FOUR NEW MEMBERS

There were four candidates initiated into the Order of the Eastern Star Thursday evening: Miss Lillian Russell of Britton, Mr. and Mrs. Wilmot Collins and Mrs. E. N. Billings.

There were a number of guests present, quite a party coming from Clinton. With them was Past Worthy Patron Robert Boyd, who made quite a speech. Other visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hanford of Detroit and Mrs. Florence Griffith of Cleveland. After the lodge session ice cream and cake were served by Mrs. R. J. W. Bowen and her committee.

Grounds too Wet For Deciding Game

Tecumseh and Tipton to Grapple Next Sunday in Third Contest of Series—American Oils Here Labor Day.

Rain prevented the Tipton and Tecumseh baseball teams from playing the final game of their series here last Sunday and they will settle this argument on the local diamond next Sunday.

Quite a crowd had gathered despite the downpour early in the afternoon and both teams were eager to decide the momentous question of which could win the majority out of three games, but the grounds were in such condition that play was out of the question.

It is the general belief that the delay will result in keener interest in the outcome of the series between these two nines and that the attendance next Sunday will break all records.

The Independents had a return game scheduled with the American Oils of Jackson for the coming Sunday but will postpone this in favor of the go with Tipton. The latter team was scheduled to meet Clinton next Sunday but will forego the encounter with that aggregation and come here with the hope of giving Tecumseh a drubbing.

The American Oils of Jackson, instead of playing here Sunday, will be the opponents of the Independents in this city on Monday, September 6, Labor day. This Jackson team is a fast one and the Tecumseh men will have to extend themselves if they have hopes of maintaining their record for victories.

"HELEN'S BABIES" GUESTS AT THE CONKLIN COTTAGE

A company of 24 ladies, chaperoned by Rev. C. M. Thompson, on Tuesday wended their way over the hills to Sand lake where at the Conklin cottage they were guests of Mrs. Myron Conklin. They were Mrs. B. Hurry's Sunday school class of the M. E. church and ever since, as "Helen's Babies," they were taught by Mrs. Helen Griswold, these picnics have been annual events. They were equipped with a fine spread for dinner and supper and the day was most delightful.

At the business meeting they elected officers as follows:

President—Miss Emma Rogers.

Vice President—Mrs. B. Hurry.

Secretary and Treasurer—Mrs. Will Waldron.

A short program also was given.

From out of town were Mr. and Mrs. George Bangs of Adrian, Mrs. Harriett Britten of Lansing, Mrs. Almira Gage of Chelsea and Mrs. Emma Ford of Blissfield.

Rev. W. R. Curtis Points Out Need of Recreation Spot With Equipment in Community Sermon.

The community service at the Baptist church was fairly well attended last Sunday night. Revs. C. M. Thompson and W. R. Curtis were the only ministers present, Rev. Edward Escolme being away to conference. The theme of the sermon, delivered by Pastor Curtis, was "The Conservation of the Life of the Young." Among other things he said:

"This might be called an age of unrest. In every sphere we find it. A worse condition might prevail, which would be a slumbering condition. We have spoken of China as the great sleeping giant. One only needs to mingle with youth to meet the throbs of life. This life should not be discouraged, but should be directed. Some work has been done among the boys of Tecumseh. As a result we find less profanity and slang, and not such a tendency toward gambling among the boys as is manifest in the young men of the town.

"Why should not Tecumseh boys and girls be given a play ground with equipment, and play under supervision as well as other towns? A few dollars expended for equipment in our beautiful park would accommodate scores of children. At present a few watch others play. The crowd is entertained. Entertainment takes the place of recreation. The crowd watches a ball game. Eighteen may play. This is true of all the games usually promoted. The mass gets no recreation. So we see children in groups entertained by some one who is trying to be a clown before them. Through lack of supervision some equipment may have been broken in the past. But what boy or man has not had an inclination some time to break some thing or transgress upon the standard of life that some deacon was averse to. And yet some of the best men of our day were the most marked in their boyhood with just such tendencies.

"We have a great gymnasium in connection with our school, but the concensus of opinion is that it furnishes recreation to a few. The child that plays best works best. Older people would find life more worth living if they would play more. The task of the day would be accomplished much easier. The friend we meet would be more uplifted by our lives."

Rev. Curtis called the attention of his people in his morning address to the habit of gambling which many so-called Christians have. He said it is common for concessions to have sales of chance. But in the light of the law as well as the moral relation we should hold toward each other it is wrong to gain at the loss of another. "You expected to get something for nothing. If you did your brother had to lose to make it possible," declared the preacher. "The willingness of your competitor does not relieve the moral wrong in which you enter."

MANY FROM HERE AT THE TANSLEY-BROOKS WEDDING IN JACKSON

A wedding of interest to the people of Tecumseh took place in Jackson yesterday at noon with very pretty details. Miss June Rose Brooks, the popular physical training teacher in the local school last year, was the bride, with the other important party Glenn Tansley. The wedding took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Brooks, Rev. S. A. Griffith of the Presbyterian church using the ring service in the presence of sixty guests.

The house was trimmed with yellow and green, the feathery fronds of golden rod mingling with black-eyed Susans. In the corner of the parlor had been arranged a bank of the flowers and ferns and it was here the ceremony was read. The young couple were attended by Miss Alma Tansley, the sister of the groom, and Allan McNeil of Detroit.

The bride wore a creation of white satin and lace with a veil and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses. Her bridesmaid's gown was of lavendar crepe de chene, she carrying pink roses.

After the congratulations the company was served a two course luncheon at small tables on the lawn. The waiters were Tecumseh's victorious girl basketball team who gave so much of the credit for their success to Miss Brooks.

The newly-weds left on a two weeks' wedding trip. On their return they will go to housekeeping in the Lowry house, corner of Oneida and Logan streets.

Present at the wedding from Tecumseh were the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Tansley, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Clark and two daughters, the Misses Cecile and Dorothy, the Misses Lois Donaldson, Anna Carson, Helen McIntyre, Arlene Gillespie, Frances Alderdyce, Marion Harrington and Margaret Marsh, and the boys' basketball team consisting of Leslie Abbott, Harold and Sam Sisson, Lawrence Harrington and Leroy VanWinkle. Other Tecumseh people present were Wyman Service of Detroit, Homer Hanham of Ypsilanti.

Miss Brooks graduated from the U. of M. and taught the one year here with signal success.

Mr. Tansley has been employed for nine years in the Clark market, and is one of the popular young men of the town, which was his birthplace. As his bride, he has hosts of friends whose best wishes go to the young couple.

SCHOOL OPENS MONDAY.

There's much adoo in kidland and playtime's nearly o'er,
The younger generation's going back to school once more.
That dress-up frock, that blue serge suit are being cleaned and pressed,
Cause Ruth and Ray and Roland plan to look their very best.

While those three R's are busy, there's another three as well—
The famous three who taught us how to read and 'rite and spell.
They're waitin' in the school house for all youth to come, and then They're going to make tots wiser ere vacation comes again.

Tecumseh people will have an opportunity to get a glimpse of Gov. James M. Cox of Ohio, Democratic candidate for president, tomorrow morning. According to present plans the Cox special will leave Toledo tomorrow morning, reach Tecumseh at 8:55 o'clock, when Gov. Cox will give a short address. He will then go to Jackson. At the prison city a stop of 45 minutes will be devoted to a grand reception and platform speech at the depot park.

That boys know what is going on in a town was demonstrated when a lecturer at the recent Clinton chautauqua asked the kids of his audience if there were any "tightwads" in the town. The kids readily acknowledged that they knew of the existence of such, but the lecturer wisely refrained from asking them to name them.

Yes, every town has its quota of tightwads and they are easily traced. Some like to see things boom, but are careful not to contribute to any community welfare movement. Others believe in churches, but their religion allows them to contribute only a penny or nickel toward their support when the plate is passed. The most pitiful tightwad, however, is he who denies himself comforts that he can well afford, hoards every penny and finally, when death claims him, leaves his little hoard for some one else to spend for the very things of which he denied himself.

Yes, the tightwad is known to every one in a community—even to the boys and girls.

CLARENCE JACKSON PASSES AWAY IN WEST

Word came to Mrs. Ella Hodges Sunday of the death of her brother, Clarence Jackson, which occurred Saturday at 2:30 p. m. at a hospital at El Paso, Texas. He had for some time been a sufferer from stomach trouble but had been in the hospital only a week.

Clarence Jackson was the only son of the late Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Jackson, born in Ridgeway June 21, 1878. When but a little boy he came to Tecumseh with his parents. Here he spent his early life, but graduated from the Jackson high school. He learned the printer's trade in The Herald office and for several years was foreman. Sixteen years ago he went to Arizona and had never visited his home or people. At the time of his death he resided in Willcox, Ariz.

He is survived by the widow and the one sister. He kept his membership in the local K. of P. lodge.

The funeral was held at the home in Willcox, with burial in that city.

Of a genial disposition, Clarence was a friend maker and is sincerely mourned by his boyhood friends.

Whelan-Billington Reunion.

The second annual reunion of the Whelan-Billington families took place Friday, August 27, at Maple Grove, Wampler's lake. Relatives were present from Chicago, Oakley, Adrian, Jackson, Cement City and other points. A pot luck dinner was served in the grove and 92 relatives did full justice to the abundant and delicious food. After each guest was satisfied there still remained sufficient sweetmeats on the tables to "do it all over again." Ice cream was then served and a social hour enjoyed.

The meeting then adjourned to "The Farm," where a business meeting was held in the pavilion, opened by the president, Mrs. John Eckert. The secretary, Mrs. Lora Billington, read her report, which was approved. New officers elected were: President, Hoyt Whelan; vice president, Lawrence Dibble; secretary, Mrs. Nettie Whelan; treasurer, Floyd Billington; program committee, Mrs. Floy Whelan, Mrs. Bonny Ingraham; refreshment committee, Mrs. Elva Dibble, Mrs. Lelia May.

The meeting was then turned over to the program committee, Mrs. Bonny Ingraham, chairman, who announced the following: Instrumental solo, Miss Alice Whelan; recitation, Leona Ingraham; solo, Mrs. Lotta Hardy (Miss Dorothy Taylor at the piano); recitation, Thelma May; instrumental solo, Miss Frances Case; recitation, Mrs. Floy Whelan; solo, Mrs. Naomi Blinkenhop; recitation, Miss Ingraham; recitation, Mrs. Bonny Ingraham.

A collection to meet the present expenses was taken, which amounted to $16. It was voted to engage some society to serve the dinner next year.

The next reunion will be held the last Friday in August, 1921, at Sand lake.

Reunion Attended By Two Local Vets

Henry W. Stevens and James Ingersoll Meet With Eighteenth Regiment at Adrian.

Henry W. Stevens and James Ingersoll from Tecumseh attended the reunion of the Eighteenth regiment, Michigan Volunteer Infantry, which was held in Adrian Friday.

There was a good attendance and the aged fighters enjoyed the gathering to the fullest, realizing as they do that in a few years there will be no survivors of the Civil war to hold reunions.

Mr. Stevens was chairman of the memorial committee, which paid a touching tribute to the departed comrades, 21 members of the Eighteenth regiment having responded to "taps" during the past two years.

Among the comrades who have passed away since the regiment held its previous reunion in 1918 was Ransom W. Mills of Tecumseh. In paying tribute to the departed members, Mr. Stevens, as chairman of the memorial committee, eulogized them highly, the following lines being part of his remarks to the gathering:

When Soldiers Meet.

When a soldier meets a soldier,
Mem'ries of the past arise,
Making each a peer and equal,
Bound by noble human ties.
There's no room for greed and envy,
There's no selfishness at heart,
For since days of canteen sharing,
Each has played the hero-part.

When a soldier meets a soldier,
There's a handclasp firm and strong,
And that friendly kind of greeting
That is sure to help along.
Each can hear the blare of trumpet,
Hear the throb of drum and fife,
Hear the picket's lonely marching
As he guards the soldier's life.

When a soldier meets a soldier
In his country's uniform,
He can hear the boom of cannon,
Hear the battle's raging storm.
Through the smoke and shower of bullets
He is rushing, as of yore,
And again the flag of glory
Over all is seen to soar.

When a soldier meets a soldier
There's no greeting like to theirs,
It reveals the faith and honor
Each one prizes, each one shares.
Since they left the fields of battle
They have never ceased to pray
That the last of war is over,
And that all stack arms for aye.

O ye veterans who were fighting
In the days of '62,
There's no greater homage given
Than your country gives to you.
Onward, onward you are marching
To God's Camping Ground of Peace,
And we pray that years may bless you
Ere the taps sound your decease.

—Ella Platt Keller.

Mr. Stevens has received his commission as aide de camp on the staff of the national commander of the G. A. R., David M. Hall, and will probably attend the national convention to be held in Indianapolis September 19.

Among the things treasured by Mr. Stevens is a one dollar bill bearing the date of his enlistment, July 11, 1862. He served three years, his discharge papers, which he also values highly, showing he went back into civilian life June 26, 1865.

BRADLEY OPERA HOUSE ATTRACTIONS

"Male and Female" Coming Next Sunday and Monday.

Next Sunday, Sept. 5, and Monday, Sept. 6 (Labor day), the Bradley opera house will begin the fall and winter season of bigger and better photoplays. On these two days Cecil DeMille's magnificent production of "Male and Female" will be the first big offering, which is announced as the picture of a thousand thrills. Imagine! A group of men and women, suddenly flung on a desert isle. Master and man, mistress and maid—now only males and females. Birth, wealth, trappings vanished. A new life calling to a test of worth where those who are strong lead, and those who are weak follow.

Such is this great story. Ranging from the splendid home of an English earl to the savage scenes in a tropical jungle, from nice conventions of the cultured elite to uncontrolled passions of ancient Babylon. An epic of love and struggle, vital in theme, stupendous in conceptions, amazingly dramatic, beautiful beyond words.

"Male and Female" is taken from Sir J. M. Barrie's notable works, "The Admirable Crichton," and is the first of Sir Barrie's stories to reach the screen. This story has given DeMille a stupendous opportunity for gorgeous gowns, splendid settings and riotous luxury of production. Gloria Swanson, who has the leading role, wears gowns by far more elaborate than anything yet seen on the screen.

"Male and Female" is more luxurious and spectacular than anything ever produced in pictures; words can't describe the splendor of the production. It leaves one speechless.

Thomas Meighan, who is a general favorite with patrons of the Bradley, will be seen in the role of Crichton and an exceptionally fine cast support Mr. Meighan and Miss Swanson. The production will be at the Bradley for two nights so that everyone will have a chance to see it. Larry Seamon in one of his screaming comedies, "The Simple Life," will complete the big super-feature program.

FORDSON
TRADE MARK
Farm Tractor

There is only one model of the Fordson tractor. Henry Ford knows the wisdom of concentrating every energy on one model; his genius has been centered on building just one compact, easily operated tractor—a tractor useful on small farms or large farms, field work or belt work—and that will cost the least to maintain and operate.

Henry Ford & Son have specialized—they have made one tractor and made it well. That means lower manufacturing costs and a lower selling price for tractor parts, and a most serviceable, reliable tractor.

In means that the Fordson dealer is able to carry a goodly stock of tractor parts, and that he can give prompt, efficient service to the Fordson farmer. The Fordson, like the Ford car, is a utility for use during the entire year.

The demand for Fordsons is far greater than present production. Place your order now—if you delay, you may not be able to get your tractor when you want it. Order now—it is your protection.

MRS. MARIETTA WYRILL DIES AFTER LONG ILLNESS

Mrs. Marietta Wyrill, aged 73 years, widow of the late Thomas Wyrill, passed away last night at 11 o'clock at her home on North Maiden Lane after a long illness with heart trouble.

She was born in Newburg Aug. 24, 1847, but her family came to Tecumseh when she was but a child and here she had resided since.

Aug. 21, 1864, soon after Thomas Wyrill was discharged from his service in the Civil war, he and the subject of this sketch were married and to them were born three children: John Wyrill, Mrs. Julia Linton, now deceased, and Mrs. Lena Jones.

Mrs. Wyrill was a devoted Methodist, active in the various organizations of her church, a member of the Lady Maccabees and the Beers Auxiliary. Of a social nature she delighted in attendance at the meetings of these orders and had hosts of friends who sincerely sympathize with her loved ones.

Besides the two children who reside here are five grandchildren: Wyrill Linton of Detroit, Glenn Wyrill of Toledo, Mrs. Florence Harper, who, with her husband and little son, resided with Mrs. Wyrill, Oliver Jones and Maxine Wyrill. Also residing in Tecumseh are one brother, Friend McNeil, and three sisters, Misses Sarah, Lydia and Hortense McNeil.

The funeral will be held from the home Saturday morning at 10 o'clock, with burial in Brookside.

Women are more truthful than men, but occasionally you meet a woman who says she doesn't want to get married.

Combines Ease of Operation with Good Work

It's genuine satisfaction to drive the John Deere Corn Binder round after round and see the standing corn transformed into well-shaped, easily-handled bundles because the hard work is all taken out.

The power carrier does away entirely with the hard work—you don't have to dump the bundle carrier and return to position hundreds of times during the day.

On the John Deere you press the foot trip lever and the power carrier does the rest—it delivers the bundles free of the path of the horses, and practically parallel to the standing corn. The horses don't have to tramp over and on the bundles. Because the carrier is always in receiving position, no bundles are scattered between the windrows.

You will also appreciate the John Deere Corn Binder because it is easy on the horses. The Quick-Turn Tongue Truck takes off all neck weight, and makes it just as easy to turn at the ends as if the horses were hitched to a wagon.

Besides, the truck takes off side draft and prevents sluing because the axle of the truck is flexibly mounted—the wheels hold to uneven ground constantly.

The John Deere works successfully in all kinds of corn fields. The wide throat, with flexible throat springs, holds the corn into the conveyor chains. The bottom conveyor chains operate close to the butts, carrying the corn back in a vertical position all of the way.

The three packers, one working above the needle and two below insure well-formed bundles. The three discharge arms discharge the bundles onto the power carrier. No chance of the discharging bundle mixing with the bundle being made.

We want you to see this binder. There are a lot of other good things about it we want to show you

"TO SCHOOL" WILL BE THE CRY ON MONDAY

Branch school has been under consideration. This is to provide conveyances for the children who have to come a long ways to school, the vehicles to also take the pupils back home. But definite action in regard to the question will be delayed until after school begins.

The West Branch building, which has been closed for about two years, has been thoroughly renovated and made in good condition for housing the three classes that are to study there. Repairs have been made where needed, paint and varnish have been used freely and the rooms are now in very presentable condition. The heating plant has also been given attention and it is the opinion of the members of the board of education that there will be no cause for complaint regarding this school during the coming year.

The following instructors have signed contracts to teach in the local schools for the coming year:

Superintendent—E. E. Crampton, Tecumseh.

Kindergarten — Bertha Vogt, Coldwater.

First Grade — Helen Ferrick, Clinton.

Second Grade—Fern E. Seeley, Cass City.

Third Grade—Esther Strum, Saline.

Fourth Grade—Nina Lowry, Tecumseh.

Fifth Grade—Mabel Openlander, Lansing.

Fifth and Sixth Grades—Maude B. Clark, Albion.

Sixth Grade—

Junior High.

Work to be assigned—Minnie Russell, Tecumseh.

Seventh, Eighth and Ninth Grade English—Mildred L. Boyce, Tecumseh.

Eighth Grade—Alice Wimple, Tecumseh.

Senior High.

Domestic Science—Mildred Agnes Mattoon, Kalamazoo.

Music and Drawing—Martha E. Caldwell, Tecumseh.

French and English—Lois E. Donaldson, Calumet.

Agriculture—O. W. Laidlaw, Tecumseh.

Commercial — Lodema Noggle, Galien.

Physical Training for Girls—Ella V. Holmberg, Kalamazoo.

Mathematics—Calista E. Chaplin, Hillsdale.

Latin—Carolina Borgards, Detroit.

Work to be assigned—Earl W. McNeil, Tecumseh.

Principal, Chemistry — Charles Price, Hillsdale.

There are 22 teachers necessary this year instead of 20 as last year to prevent the crowded condition prevailing in the last term. The placing of the kindergarten, first and second grades in the West Branch building provides the room necessary for the largely increased attendance.

Entrance examinations are held Friday, September 3, and pupils from out of town or those who did not attend here during the past year are urged to be on hand at that time.

There will be a meeting of the teachers at 3:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon at the high school, at which time Superintendent Crampton will discuss various phases of the work for the year.

TRANSPORT TRUCK HERE ON AN ENDURANCE RUN

A Model Seventy Transport truck and crew spent Monday night in Tecumseh, being on the last leg of a 2,000 mile endurance run. This vehicle is of 3½ ton capacity, but was carrying 10,000 pounds.

E. A. Blake, experimental engineer for the Transport Truck Co. of Mt. Pleasant, Mich., was in charge of the truck, F. Clapp being his mechanic. Mr. Blake said this is the first 3½ ton truck to be sent across country on an endurance run and was making the journey in record time and with remarkable success. He declared although they had encountered all sorts of roads, the truck was covering about 140 miles a day. The endurance run was started at Mt. Pleasant, thence to Grand Rapids, Holland, Battle Creek, Benton Harbor, Elkhart, Michigan City, Chicago, Danville, Terre Haute, Indianapolis, Fort Wayne, Toledo, Tecumseh, Jackson and back to Mt. Pleasant. About 1,700 miles of the trip had been made when the truck arrived in this city.

The Tecumseh Big Chief garage is the local agency for the Transport truck, production on the 3½ ton model to be started about the middle of September.

ILL ABOUT TWO YEARS, JOHN J. NEELEY EXPIRES

John J. Neeley, a former resident of Tecumseh, and who had always taken a keen interest in the doings of his large circle of friends here, passed away Thursday evening at his home in Detroit. He had been in poor health for two years, due to anemia.

Following short services at the home at 144 Woodland avenue, the remains were brought to Tecumseh Saturday evening and taken to the home of Mrs. Neeley's sister, Mrs. Jennie Knouase, on West Kilbuck street. The funeral services were held at the Methodist church Sunday afternoon, Rev. C. M. Thompson officiating. Mrs. R. S. Moore sang several appropriate hymns. The bearers were relatives.

Accompanying the remains from Detroit were the wife, three daughters and one son and the following friends: Mr. and Mrs. Louis Voelk, the Misses Janette Dart and Alice Kingsley and Philip Monroe. Others coming from away for the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. James Redman of Litchfield, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Albaugh of Hillsdale, Mr. and Mrs. Henry McCarbery of Ridgeway, Mrs. William Neeley, Mrs. Sarah Gallup, Wilson Neeley, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Neeley, the Misses Jennie and Agnes Neeley, Mrs. Mattie Blowers and daughter, Vernice. Mr. and Mrs. David Boyce of Brooklyn, Mrs. Emma Ford of Blissfield.

Mr. Neeley was born in County Antrim, Ireland, February 5, 1843, and came to America with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Neeley, when but 7 years of age. The family settled in Franklin township, where he remained until he reached man's estate.

He married Miss Ada Haskins, daughter of the Methodist clergyman who was pastor here when the present church building of that denomination was erected. To them was born one daughter, who lived to be only 5 months old. The young wife soon expired and after several years Mr. Neeley married Miss Isabelle Mooney, also of this city. To them were born three daughters, the Misses Edith, Florence and Grace Neeley, and one son, Roy Neeley.

The family left Tecumseh in 1891 and for 16 years resided in Hudson. where Mr. Neeley was in the fuel business. He also owned a farm near that city. In 1906 the family moved to Detroit, Mr. Neeley retiring from business life.

The deceased was the last of a family of nine children, Mrs. Fred Poucher and A. J. Montgomery of this city being a niece and nephew. He was a devoted member of the Methodist church and a close Bible student. Of a happy disposition, his glad smile and hearty handclasp will be sadly missed by his Tecumseh friends, as will his loving attention in his family.

CAR SHORTAGE HAMPERS PURITAN GRAVEL COMPANY

One of Tecumseh's newest concerns, the Puritan Gravel Company, is having great difficulty in filling its orders on account of the decided car shortage. H. A. Perry, manager of the company, says orders have been most encouraging since the pit has been in operation the one trouble being the inability to secure cars enough to ship the gravel in.

The pit at present has a capacity of about 12 cars of gravel a day. During the fall and winter it is planned to put in enough new and modern equipment to more than double the output, when 35 cars can be loaded in a day. This, he says, will make it one of the busiest gravel pits in the state.

The evening of September 13 this band will give a concert in the county seat. Mr. Morden has arranged to take talented musicians on the trip, fourteen cities to be represented by the members of the band he has organized.

The Remington family enjoyed their reunion yesterday at the home of Dr. and Mrs. H. R. Conklin. A bountiful repast was served at noon at small tables in the living rooms and the afternoon was spent in visiting. new parties, James W. Helme, candidate for congress on the Liberal ticket, receiving only two votes.

One of the outstanding features of the election was the big vote received by Congressman Earl C. Michener. As candidate for the same office which he now holds he was opposed by Hubert F. Probert of Jackson and not only received about 20 times as many votes in Lenawee county as Mr. Probert but also carried Jackson county.

Quite a few women voted, a majority of them calling for Republican ballots as the contests in the party added zest to the voting.

Milo D. Campbell of Coldwater was the favorite in Lenawee county of the nine seeking the Republican nomination for governor, as he carried 33 out of the 48 precincts in the county. Mott, Groesbeck and Dickinson were the next most popular in the order named.

Harry L. Larwill, judge of probate, will have no opponent at the November election, the Democrats honoring him to the extent of leaving this office blank on their ticket. When he takes office January 1, 1921, he will begin his twenty-first year as probate judge. He was accorded 3,849 complimentary votes in the primary. Conrad Ottgen, county drain commissioner, and Emory B. Root, Republicans who had no opposition at the primary, also received big complimentary votes. Charles Evans, representative from the first district, and John R. Vine, of the second district, and State Senator Ernest J. Bryant, were also given liberal complimentary votes.

In the State.

Incomplete returns on the result of the contest for the Republican nomination for governor show Alex. J. Groesbeck in the lead, and it is expected the final totals will give him a majority of 20,000 over Milo D. Campbell, his nearest opponent. Mott and Leland were third and fourth in the standings this morning.

Thomas W. Read, speaker in the last house of representatives, easily won over Scully for the Republican nomination for lieutenant governor. Read has a lead of about 7,000.

F. brothers walked in and in a most agreeable manner extended sympathy and greetings. They presented him with a box of cigars and two pounds of candy. Although their stay was short nevertheless it was much appreciated.

About 45 were present Saturday at the Christian church to attend the Juggernaut school reunion. A fine dinner was served, after which came impromptu speeches by nearly everyone present, music and a fine social time. The Britton orchestra favored with several selections. A pleasing feature was the several first recitations that were given. They will meet in the same place next year the last Saturday in August.

A company consisting of Edgar Daykin, Henry, Ed and Mike Bachman, Ed Schneider, C. F. Brown, E. A. Elkington, Everett and Clarence Exelby and their families, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest DuBois and Mrs. I. N. Pilbeam, who were spending last week at Wampler's lake, enjoyed a fine time Saturday evening with an elegant spread at the cottage of Everett Exelby, honoring Mike Bachman's birthday. Mike says he's coming out fine from the effects of the 32nd degree he received.

About 125 friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Bachman met with them Tuesday evening in a farewell party, the occasion being held as they were soon to move to their new home in Adrian. Music and social converse was much enjoyed. Rev. J. C. DeRemer, in behalf of Mrs. Bachman's Sunday school class, presented her with a handsome casserole. The gentlemen of the crowd presented Mr. Bachman with a box of cigars. Mrs. Bachman feelingly responded. Ice cream and cake were served at the close of the evening.

Favors "League" Condemns Senate

GOV. COX HEARD BY SEVERAL HUNDRED HERE

Democratic Nominee for President Reiterates Charge G. O. P. is Trying to Buy Presidency—Cites Newberry Case—Receives Flowers.

Branding the upper house of congress as the "senatorial oligarchy that is attempting to buy the presidency of the United States," emphatically endorsing the League of Nations and challenging any of his hearers to defend the Newberry episode, Gov. James M. Cox of Ohio, Democratic candidate for president, made a most favorable impression on many of the several hundred persons whom he addressed on his brief stop in Tecumseh Friday. Mr. Cox presents a pleasing appearance, clean cut and looks younger than he really is. Although his oratorical efforts lack the dramatic gestures which some public speakers employ, his earnestness and care in selection of words impress one immediately and his remarks leave a noticeable effect.

Attorney James H. Baker of Adrian had the distinction of introducing the noted visitor to the Tecumseh audience. When the lawyer from the county seat referred to Gov. Cox as "our next president" there was considerable applause. The Democratic presidential nominee spoke as follows:

"I am very grateful to you for this reception in the state where I have spent considerable of my

More Equipment For Fire Fighters

Council Approves Recommendations of Committee—Chief Heesen Gets Pay Sought—Nightwatch Given Raise.

Tecumseh is to have more adequate fire protection, as the board of village trustees, at its session Monday evening voted to buy considerable more equipment with which to fight flames. This action came as the result of the needs of the department being brought to the attention of the council by Chief Floyd Heesen and other members of the fire fighting organization recently.

The committee on fire and fire limits, composed of Trustees Kempf, Hanna and Campbell, following an investigation of the request of the department, made its recommendations to the council Monday evening, which were approved. The vote on the question authorizes the purchase of 300 feet of hose, six rubber coats, a half dozen hats, 12 pairs of rubber boots, a spray nozzle and a quantity of liquid fire extinguisher.

Among the bills approved and ordered paid was that of Fire Chief Heesen for $25, this being in payment of his services as auxiliary truck driver during the past year.

Nightwatchman George A. Rubadou requested that his pay be raised from $35 to $50 a month and this was granted.

Mrs. Franc S. Gillespie, the village treasurer, was granted another 30 days in which to complete her work.

Routine business was also transacted.

Rev. J. K. Kirker Is Fatally Injured

Former Popular Pastor of Clinton Congregational Church Dies as Result of Accident.

Deep sorrow was manifested by the people of Clinton and vicinity when word came Friday of the death of Rev. J. K. Kirker at Minot, N. D., a former much beloved pastor of the Clinton Congregational church.

The accident which resulted in Rev. Kirker's death occurred at a gathering in the nature of a "bee" about two weeks previous to his death, which occurred Wednesday of last week. He was assisting in the grain harvest and was on top of a load when supper, to be served by the Ladies' Aid, was announced. Throwing his pitchfork to the ground he jumped from the load and unfortunately was empaled on the handle of the fork. The injury received was a terrible one, but he was taken to Minot, about 30 miles from the scene of the accident, the nearest point where medical aid could be procured. He was operated upon and was doing so well that hopes for his recovery were entertained until Wednesday of last week, when death claimed him.

Rev. Kirker came to Clinton following the resignation of Rev. Latham. A whole-hearted Christian man, he soon won his way to the hearts of the members of his congregation and the church flourished under his leadership. He loved his people and served them well.

About two years ago Mr. Kirker accepted the position of assistant superintendent of home missions, with promises of future advance, and moved his family consisting of an estimable wife and four children to Minot, N. D.

The remains were brought to the home of his parents at Lansing, where the funeral was held last Saturday, C. M. Halladay, Vergil McGillem, Rev. B. A. Warren, Geo. Tag and Walter Cotton of Clinton attending.

Rev. Kirker on several occasions addressed Tecumseh congregations.

School Enrollment Larger than Ever

Twenty Additional Seats Needed in Auditorium—130 Attending West Branch.

There are three more children enrolled in the Tecumseh public schools this year than during the previous term, the total being 609. Three hundred of these students are attending the high school. The enrollment in the West Branch school, reopened this year after having been closed for some time, is 130.

The enrollment in the high school is greater than ever and 20 additional seats will have to be placed in the auditorium. The number of non-resident students in the high school is 116.

The enrollment by grades is as follows:

Kindergarten, 36; first grade 44; second grade, 50; third grade, 40; fourth grade, 50; fifth grade, 41; sixth grade, 48.

Because of the crowded condition there was some time given over to getting things settled, but the students have now become accustomed to studying after the summer vacation and school routine is established.

Football practice has begun in earnest and it is expected Tecumseh high school will have a strong team. There was much joy among the students when it was announced that Earl W. McNeil would coach the squad.

Tuberculosis Cases Scarce in Tecumseh

Clinic, During Which 37 Were Examined, Reveals Only Five Have White Plague.

That Tecumseh and the surrounding territory is practically free from tuberculosis was proven during the free clinic held here Thursday and Friday, as only five cases of the great white plague were found among the 37 persons examined for this disease.

In addition to the five who were found to be suffering with the disease, out of the 37 examined two proved to have moderately advanced cases of pulmonary tuberculosis, three had incipient tuberculosis and three were pronounced suspicious cases. A number of the others were warned to guard their health especially close.

Of the 41 persons examined for eye, ear, nose and throat diseases, four were advised to have adenoids and tonsils removed, nine were advised to have their teeth tended to, three were sent to an occulist, three were advised to be examined for tuberculosis and one was informed his throat should be treated.

There were 19 examined the opening day of the clinic and 18 on Friday. A number who appeared for examinations could not be taken care of, as every moment of the specialists' time was taken up before these could be given attention.

Mrs. Mary Ives, who supervised the local arrangements for the clinic, was complimented by the Lenawee Red Cross Chapter, under whose auspices the physicians from the state board of health came here, on the success of the undertaking.

TWO HOUSES RANSACKED, BOYS ARE GUILTY ONES

During the past week two residences have been invaded by persons seeking plunder and in both instances it was the work of boys. At the P. W. A. Fitzsimmons house, recently vacated by Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Heesen, the intruders scattered things about in a thorough manner, but what was taken has not been ascertained. The farm home of Dollie Waldron, west of town, was the other place visited by the vandals. Here some old coins were taken and even the honey from some of the hives.

Informed of the two cases, Deputy Sheriff John B. Smith started an investigation which revealed that boys had forced their way into the two houses. The parents of some of the lads have already punished them for their depredations, while the others are also to be made to feel that they cannot do wrong without suffering for it. Damage done is to be settled for by the parents.

14-Inning Struggle Is Won by Jackson

American Oils Lost to Independents Year Ago in Similar Battle—Adrian Here Sunday—Tipton Comes Sept. 19.

For 14 innings the Tecumseh Independents and the American Oils of Jackson battled on the local diamond on Labor day before the visitors were able to batter down the defensive line of the home nine and put the game in their victory column with a score of 6 to 5. This struggle was practically a repetition of the opening engagement of last season, when this same team held the Independents at bay for the same number of innings but then lost, the score being identical with the one by which they took the encounter on Monday. It was a brother of Frey, who pitched the final innings of the Labor day contest for the American Oils, that was on the mound for the Jackson team in the previous 14-inning game.

The game on Monday was one that kept the fans keyed up to a high pitch of excitement. Up to the eighth Tecumseh was lagging in so far as scores were concerned, although on several occasions the home men had chances to forge ahead but could not make the grade. Both teams had to resort to the use of a relief pitcher. Berdan of Adrian started for the Independents, but did not seem to be in form and was lifted in favor of Crittenden after the third. After two Independents had scored in the sixth Zink went to the bench and Frey officiated during the remainder of the game. Shortstop West-

Quality of Fair is Greatly Enhanced

Lenawee County Exposition, September 20 to 25, to be Very Extensive—New Features Presented.

From present indications the officials of the Lenawee Agricultural society are led to believe that this year's county fair will be more extensive and of a higher order than any yet held in Adrian. Practically all of the exhibition space in the various buildings has already been contracted for and at the rate at which the stalls are being spoken for it is the opinion of those in position to know that every available inch of display space will be occupied when the exposition opens September 20. New and sensational free acts have been booked and all things considered there is every indication that the 1920 display will eclipse all others.

While the county fair has always been primarily for the purpose of exhibiting the products of Lenawee county, this year a more determined effort will be made to place home crops prominently before the public. Special Lenawee classes have been established in several of the departments, where products of this county will be exhibited exclusively.

An intensive advertising campaign has been launched and with larger and better exhibits, high order free attractions and other special inducements made to draw visitors, it is anticipated the attendance will be far in excess of other high marks.

There is to be plenty of music, as an effort is being made to have every band in Lenawee county in attendance. It is anticipated the Tecumseh Ladies' band will be featured on Thursday, when this city will probably close for the day and everybody attend the fair.

An airplane will be one of the attractions, exhibition and passenger flights being made. Each day there will be four free athletic acts. Hadjiim's Arabs, seven in number, head the list, others being an acrobatic team, a trapeze act and the Steiner Trio, who present an acrobatic novelty.

Those who like horse races will have plenty to attract them as the card outlined provides for four days of racing, starting on Wednesday and ending Saturday. The events and purses follow: Wednesday, green trot, $300; 2:12 pace, $400; green pace, $300. Thursday, 2:22 trot, 2:21 pace and 2:18 trot, all for $400. Friday, 2:25 pace, 2:30 trot and 2:15 pace, all for $400. Saturday, 2:18 pace, 2:14 trot and free-for-all pace, all for $400. The green trot and pace are open to horses owned or trained in Lenawee county for 90 days previous to the fair. Announcements of the racing program have been sent out to all horsemen who have been at the fair for the last three years.

"Hunch" Lands Trio of Alleged Thieves

Deputy Sheriff Smith Becomes Suspicious of Tecumseh Man and Companions With Big New Auto—Wanted in Toledo.

Tecumseh's deputy sheriff, John B. Smith, is now a firm believer in "hunches." One he acted on during the past week resulted in the arrest of a young man of this city and two from Toledo, the trio now being held in the latter city on a charge of stealing an auto there.

Seeing Lawrence Maynard, son of Barney Maynard of this city, and two other men about Tecumseh last Thursday with practically a new seven-passenger Chandler automobile, which had just been painted gray, Deputy Sheriff Smith surmised that all was not as it should be. The more he thought about it the more convinced he became that these circumstances would bear investigation. He telephoned to Adrian and to Toledo, to inquire of the officers there if a Chandler car had been stolen there recently. A reply came from Adrian that no reports had been received there of such a car being taken. It was late Thursday evening, in fact the local officer had retired for the night, before a reply was received from Toledo. The officers there reported that a blue-black Chandler car had been stolen from a garage in that city the day before. Deputy Sheriff Smith got into his clothes hurriedly and hastened to the business part of town after requesting Town Marshal Mominee to meet him at the four corners. Nightwatchman Rubadou was also pressed into service and Dr. J. W. Beardsley, seeing there was something unusual afoot, accompanied the officers. They proceeded to the home of Lawrence Maynard on Brown street in Brownville, the auto in question being parked on the lawn beside the house with pails of grey house paint standing around, it is alleged. Smith entered the house while the other officers remained on duty outside. With Maynard were the two men who had been seen in the auto. They gave their names as James Foster and H. Gettsinger. Foster acted as spokesman and in reply to questions from the deputy sheriff said he owned the car, having just bought it in Toledo, paying half down. The officer was not satisfied and asked the two Toledo men to accompany him. They were directed to get into the car, accompanied by the officers, and drive to a local garage. The deputy sheriff had been given the engine number of the car stolen in Toledo and when the auto in possession of the men apprehended here was examined it was found the engine and generator numbers had been filed off. The rear license plate was also missing.

This convinced the local officer that his hunch was genuine. Summoning Cy Gove and Charles Cole to his assistance, he had Foster act as driver and the car and two suspects were taken to the county jail at Adrian. All the way to Adrian Deputy Smith questioned Foster, who maintained he bought the car but finally got to varying the story, and this confirmed the officer's suspicion that he had made an important arrest.

Friday morning Deputy Sheriff Smith again went to the Maynard home and says he found a bumper and fastenings and the rear license plate which had been taken off the repainted car. He requested Lawrence Maynard to accompany him to Adrian to recover certain tools which had been taken to that city in the Chandler car. On arrival at the jail Maynard was placed under arrest and the Toledo officers notified. On their arrival they identified the car as the one stolen in that city. The Toledo officers were of the opinion that the two men from that city had been involved in hold-ups there and complimented the Tecumseh deputy on apprehending them. The trio of alleged auto thieves and the car were taken to Toledo. It is intimated that a federal charge will be preferred against them, as taking a stolen auto from one state into another is against the U. S. statute.

LENAWEE PRODUCE CO. TO DO COMMISSION BUSINESS

In enlarging the scope of its activities, the Lenawee Produce Company of this city is actively entering the commission business and will handle produce of all kinds in connection with its regular trips to Detroit.

Hoyt Whelan, of the company, explains that there are occasions when additional goods could be carried by the concern's trucks on the trips to Detroit and farmers of the vicinity are being encouraged to bring their produce to the local firm's place of business and have it taken to the Michigan metropolis, where it can readily be disposed of at a good price.

Fruits and vegetables of all kinds will be dealt in and just at present the Lenawee Produce Co. is making an especial bid for pears and apples for the Detroit market. That the commission feature of the company's business will grow, is the prediction of those who know the conditions of the market.

Splendid Program by 'White Hussars'

Famous Singing Band Delights Tecumseh Audience.

Seldom will be found a brass band organization that can on the instant be transformed into a faultless male chorus. Such, however, was the unusual treat presented the audience of music lovers that attended the concert given by Ralph Dunbar's world famous singing band, the "White Hussars," under the capable direction of Al Sweet, a musical conductor of some renown.

The program opened with a lively, snappy march and continued with masterpieces from great composers, descriptive selections, male choruses, vocal and instrumental solos. In short, the entertainment was a delightful musical feast.

The audience was small compared to the excellence of the entertainment.

OPENING GUN FIRED.

The opening gun of the presidential campaign was fired in Tecumseh last Friday morning, and it was a big gun, too, for our city was honored with the presence of one of the big men of the land—Gov. James M. Cox, Democratic presidential candidate.

Although Mr. Cox appeared in Tecumseh for but a few minutes, it was the longest stop in Lenawee county, and during his talk here people became quite favorably impressed with his personality and his evident sincerity. To the unbiased spectator the Ohio governor appeared to be a strong man—a man who speaks straight from the shoulder and believes he knows what he wants and what the country needs.

In his brief speech he touched upon the senate oligarchy—the "power" that is trying to purchase the coming presidency—the "power" that killed the League of Nations plan and obstructed needed national legislation.

The governor plainly stated that he is not fighting the rank and file of the Republican party but the men higher up who have succeeded already in purchasing a seat in the United States senate. He is strong [illegible] nations to prevent wars and his promises along that line are bound to appeal to the mother heart of the nation and many voters of all parties who have looked with more and more disgust upon partisan political maneuvers and stumbling blocks during the past few years.

It is only too evident that the people of the United States want some kind of world tribunal where disputes of nations can be adjusted without wholesale bloodshed—some kind of a scheme whereby world wars in the future will become impossible. Many believed in the League of Nations as presented by President Wilson—not only Democrats, but Republicans of national and world prominence. It looks now, and has looked that way right along, that the Republican party would be in a more certain position at this time had the representatives of the party put through the measure instead of creating the sad havoc of national legislation they did.

Well, the campaign will be interesting, but if they wish to win, the Republican leaders will have to show the people of the nation a plan as good as the League of Nations to prevent the recurring of such terrible wars as the world has just experienced.

THE SCHOOL—THE COMMUNITY.

Young America is again responding to the call for higher education, for this week opened our splendid institution of learning. To take care of all the scholars has been a problem that confronted the board of education this year. The new high school building was crowded last year and the additional increase this year had to be taken care of. Fortunately Tecumseh has a quite modern building in the West Branch school house and this is being utilized to take care of the growing number of school children.

Frequently, in recent years, the writer has heard the expression that "Tecumseh is a dying community." This expression was made by a recent pastor, who must have had in mind the religion of the community, for there is no lack of children to testify to the growth of the community.

As a church-going people the citizens of Tecumseh are by no means "shining lights," and that fact does not stand to the credit of the community. But we have the children and in them we have the remedy to change religious conditions of the community if we will. First, however, we must look to ourselves. If parents do not set fair examples we cannot expect the children to grow up as church-going citizens.

OILED STREETS.

A number of residents of Mill street, the road through Brownville, have expressed their appreciation of the oiling process. These residents have been oppressed with the dust raised by the heavy automobile traffic. "It's a Godsend," one remarked. Another, who stated that some who appreciated the laying of the dust were unable to contribute toward the oiling process, and while the others are willing to "dig up," he believed it the business of the municipality to take care of the dust just the same as any road repair work. The Herald believes and advocates the same view.

LENAWEE COUNTY FAIR.

It is our fair, this Lenawee county fair. It has been designated, or called, the Adrian fair, but Adrian has no strings on it any more than the fair grounds are located in its confines. The fair grounds are where they should be—centrally located and of easy access by railroad. As our fair, we should support it in a whole-hearted manner.

Tecumseh has had a number of holidays this year, but as it is "the biggest little town on earth" it can stand another. According to this view, it has been suggested that we have a "Tecumseh day" at the county fair this year, and as Thursday is usually the big day at the fair, it is appropriate that the "biggest little city on earth" should choose that day. We understand that the Ladies' band has been engaged for that day. Let's go with them.

OUR JOB DEPARTMENT.

Among the work turned out from The Herald job department that has received numerous compliments is the annual school catalogue. Supt. E. E. Crampton, who has received numerous such blooklets from other schools (some from larger places than Tecumseh) informs us that none of them make a better appearance than the Tecumseh catalogue and many are much inferior.

The Herald specializes in good printing and this good printing is not only confined to customers of the community, but to orders from Detroit and Jackson.

Tecumseh users of printed matter who believe in a good community newspaper should not forget that The Herald has a well equipped job department and that it is entirely unnecessary to go out of town for first class work on small or large jobs.

FAVORS "LEAGUE" CONDEMNS SENATE

summers—in the state to whose health-giving qualities I make grateful acknowledgement—in the state in whose woods I have roamed and in whose streams I have fished; so that in a sense I feel like coming back close to home again.

"I want in the first instance to get this very definite thing clearly fixed in your minds. I do not want to be regarded in your view this morning as the candidate of any political party. I want to discuss with you things about which men and women in their calm, unprejudiced view ought not to and cannot have any difference of opinion. I am not making my campaign against the Republican party as such; I am making my campaign from one end of this country to the other against the senatorial oligarchy which has taken possession of the Republican party, which has adopted its platform, and which has nominated one of its members as a candidate for the presidency; and there is no one in this presence who will deny it. I am making a campaign for a prosperity in the land which will be based upon a fair readjustment, and I want to impress upon you in the industrial communities particularly, and in agricultural communities as well, that large sums of money are being contributed now for the purpose of gaining the inside track in making this great adjustment.

"Now, I do not believe that men and women can disagree as to the impropriety of a senatorial oligarchy attempting to annex the presidency of the United States. Our fathers who devised the scheme and the institutions of our government created three distinct branches: the executive branch, the legislative branch, and the judicial branch. They were intended to be separate. They were intended at the same time to work harmoniously, but it was never intended that the senate of the United States was to annex the presidency and it never was intended that large sums of money were to be used to buy the presidency, any more than it was that large sums of money be used to buy a place in the United States senate from the state of Michigan.

"I recognize that I am on Michigan soil, and I am assuming that there is not a man nor a woman in this presence who will attempt now to defend the Newberry episode. Senator Newberry was tried before a Republican petit jury; he was indicted by a Republican grand jury; he was tried before a Republican judge; and he was convicted upon the charge of the unlawful use of money in order to gain his position in the United States senate. And bear in mind the consequences of that deed."

At this point in his address the conductor was heard to call: "All aboard."

"That is a very ungracious conductor. I would like very much to talk more to you. I stand for peace as against war. I stand for prosperity based upon a readjustment that will be fair to all interests; that will not give to any one an advantage over what we designate as the average man. I stand for our entering the League of Nations very soon after the 4th day of March, 1921."

There was loud applause following this statement, the women being especially hearty with hand clapping. The speaker continued:

"My distinguished opponent says that he favors—now, I mean his last plan is; I haven't seen the morning papers and I do not know whether he has a new plan this morning or not; but the last plan of the distinguished senator is that we will take the old Hague tribunal. Now, you know that the greatest war in history happened under the Hague tribunal."

The train was in motion by this time and the Ohioan's last word was "Good-bye." The Tecumseh Ladies' band played as the train sped northward.

Previous to the arrival of the train bearing the Democratic aspirant to the White House Edward Frensdorf of Hudson, former acting warden of Jackson prison, and W. H. Moore of Palmyra, Democratic candidate for congress, gave short addresses. Mr. Frensdorf substituted for Congressman Frank E. Doremus, western campaign manager, who missed train connections and could not get here as had been planned.

The Hudson man, after being introduced by James H. Baker, scathingly arraigned the present Republican state administration and pointed out the advisability of voting for Woodbridge N. Ferris for governor, who seeks the election on a platform guaranteeing to decrease taxes one-third. He expressed the hope that the decent people would stand together and vote for principle instead of party.

Mr. Moore was presented by Mr. Frensdorf. The Palmyra candidate for congress made it known that he was in favor of the League of Nations. He inquired of his audience if it was not an historical fact that those nations which in time of peace prepared for war did not usually get what they got ready for. This being true, did it not seem logical that if we prepared for peace that peace would follow? He urged that such a course be followed.

These two addresses were made with the speakers standing in a Ford automobile parked at the four corners close to where the car of Gov. Cox stopped.

The train for which the crowd so eagerly waited arrived only a few minutes behind time and as it drew near the main corners the Ladies' band struck up a lively tune. Before the train came to a stop the people surged around the rear coach all anxious to get the first view of the distinguished passenger. Gov. Cox's appearance on the rear platform of his private car was greeted with cheers. He had just begun speaking when Mrs. Robert McCoy stepped up and handed the speaker a bouquet, the gift of the Ladies' band, of which she is a member.

A number of the business houses displayed flags and bunting in honor of the noted man who was Tecumseh's guest for such a short time.

Those who made the local arrangements for the speakers' appearance were Wade L. Jones, E. C. Heilman and B. J. Pulver.

Before Gov. Cox began his trip into Michigan from Toledo he was joined by Judge Wm. F. Connolly of Detroit and Edmund C. Shields, secretary of the Michigan Democratic state central committee. Although the first official stop and address in Michigan was made in Tecumseh, the Democratic nominee for president gave a brief talk at Lenawee Junction, half a hundred persons getting a glimpse of him there. The crowd in Tecumseh included a large delegation from Adrian and many from nearby places.

At Clinton and Manchester short talks were also given, the next stop being at Jackson where the Ohioan addressed a large gathering at the depot for about 30 minutes. From there he went to Lansing to speak before the convention of good roads men.

THAT BAD BACK

Do you have a dull, steady ache in the small of the back—sharp, stabbing twinges when stooping or lifting—distressing urinary disorders? For bad back and weakened kidneys Tecumseh residents recommend Doan's Kidney Pills. Read this Tecumseh statement.

Thomas Russell, retired farmer, 209 Pearl St., says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills on different occasions and always found them very beneficial. My back at times has given out, due to heavy lifting when working on the farm and my kidneys wouldn't act regularly. They showed signs of disorder in other ways, also. I suffered from rheumatic pains in my lower limbs too. Whenever I have felt these symptoms coming on, I have gone to Pulver's Drug Store and gotten a box of Doan's Kidney Pills. It has never taken them long to relieve me of my trouble."

An immense new grandstand has been constructed, other improvements made at the grounds, more exhibits have contracted for space, the free attractions will be more sensational than in the past and from every viewpoint those in charge have been convinced the 1920 fair will be far superior to the exceptional exhibits of the past few years.

WANT A SCHOOL BELL OR SOME OTHER SIGNAL

Parents of students have made the suggestion that some sort of a signal be sounded to announce that the school is about to commence.

These parents, some of whom reside at quite a distance from the schools, believe it will be to the best interest of all concerned if a bell is rung, a whistle blown or some signal given a half hour before school opens so that all will be notified in plenty of time to get to school before the sessions begin. It is pointed out that many clocks cannot be relied upon, and that if a public signal is given all will know when it is time to start.

The bell of one of the churches could be rung or the fire bell could be used, it has been suggested, but that some plan be adopted is the plea of those interested.

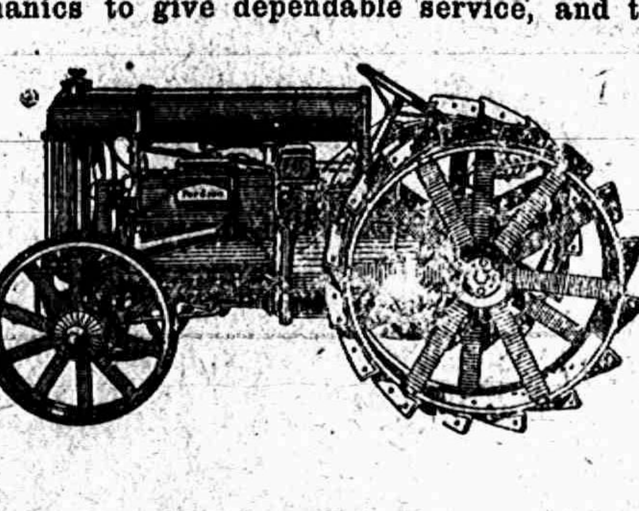
FORDSON

TRADE MARK

Farm Tractor

More than one-third of the tractors in use in the United States are Fordsons, yet the Fordson has only been on the market two years. Just like the Ford car, the Fordson is an all-year utility. It is a compact tractor; it is easily operated, it has more power per pound weight than any other tractor manufactured, it is the lowest priced tractor and it is the most economical to operate.

There are more than seven thousand Fordson dealers in the United States. There is one in every community who not only sells Fordsons, but who carries a supply of Fordson parts for repairs and replacements with skilled mechanics to give dependable service, and to help the farmer get the best out of the Fordson tractor.



The demand for Fordson tractors is greater than the supply. There is only a limited number for each territory. Get your order in now. Orders are filled in the order received.

Gives Talk on Race That is Vanishing

Mrs. Jenny C. Law Hardy Deeply Interests Community Service Congregation with Address About Moaris of New Zealand.

Relating the history of a race which she says will be extinct in about 50 years, telling about the habits, religion and superstitious beliefs of these people, Mrs. Jenny C. Law Hardy's address at the community service at the Methodist church Sunday evening proved intensely interesting to the rather small congregation in attendance.

The race of which Mrs. Hardy spoke so entertainingly is the Moari tribe of New Zealand, Dr. and Mrs. Hardy having spent some time among these people on their recent trip abroad. The Moari race is believed to have landed in New Zealand about 600 years ago. It is not positively known where they came from, but investigators believe they probably migrated from Asia. They are ruled by chiefs who must know their genealogy from the present to the time of the settlement in New Zealand.

The speaker described the men of this race as tall, more than 10 per cent of them being six feet in height. The women are pretty, she said, the most of them having shapely hands and small feet and they walk with a grace unknown to the average white woman. The homes of these people contain many and beautiful carvings and some of the more refined and higher educated of the tribe on visits to Europe have shown a marked interest in art in its highest form. The Moaris have remarkably keen sight, as they can identify stars with the naked eye which American scientists have to use telescopes to discern.

It was stated by Mrs. Hardy that before the white man came among the Moaris they knew nothing about strong drink and were afflicted with few diseases, being a strong healthy race, but now sickness is claiming many of them, the health of the race is undermined and in about 50 years the tribe will have disappeared.

The religion of the Moaris is peculiar and few of the members of the race know much about it definitely. Their god is known as Io, but this name is spoken only by the highest priest, as he is the only one who is considered exalted enough to use the word. The people will speak of their religion only in appropriate places as it is considered too sacred to discuss on ordinary occasions. The race is superstitious to a pronounced degree and if they believe they have violated a religious law they become ill through their consciousness of having done wrong and many have been known to die as a result.

They do not hesitate to practice cannabalism and will eat their slaves as a religious offering or when short of food. It is their belief there are 10 heavens, and that hell is a circle of 12 places of torment.

Housework is a simple matter among the members of this tribe, Mrs. Hardy explained. As New Zealand has innumerable geysers and pools of water of varying degrees of heat, practically every family has its own hot water spot. The housewife puts her food in sort of an oven over one of the geysers, goes to a pool that is of the right temperature for a bath, comes back and the meal is cooked. After the food is served the dishes are put in a basket, which is dipped into a geyser and then set on a hot stone to dry and the housework is finished.

It is the belief of the Moaris that the seat of affection is in the liver or bowels, instead of the heart as we believe. They are firm believers in ghosts.

There are no poor members in the race, as all work, including the chief.

Mrs. Hardy's talk was most absorbing and at its close she was heartily thanked by Rev. C. M. Thompson. Rev. W. R. Curtis offered prayer and Rev. Thompson read the scripture lesson.

The community service next Sunday is to be at the Presbyterian church.

Card of Thanks.

We extend heartfelt thanks to all who were so kind during the illness and following the death of our mother and grandmother, and to those who sent the beautiful floral offerings.

14-INNING STRUGGLE IS WON BY JACKSON

fall was cheered when he leaped high in the air and speared a drive by F. Cote.

On Sunday the Adrian Independents will oppose the Tecumseh team. The county seaters have been vanquishing practically all nines encountered this season, all pitchers seeming to look alike. What they can accomplish against the local players will not be known until after the Sunday afternoon clash, but that they will come here primed to convince the Bailey aggregation that it has much to learn is certain. The fans may rest assured, however, that the Tecumseh men will not be found napping and as a result the coming contest is likely to be one teeming with thrills.

For a second time the third of the series of combats with Tipton had to be postponed last Sunday on account of rain. There were a large number of ardent fans at Athletic park in anticipation of the game, despite the drizzle, but the downpour earlier in the day and the continued falling of moisture made it impossible to stage the fray, much to the disappointment of the faithful. This important game, being the deciding one of the series, will be played off Sunday, September 19, and judging by the intense interest which has marked the contests between Tipton and Tecumseh, a new attendance record may be set.

In the game on Labor day Jackson scored in the initial inning. Berdan walked B. Cote, Callaghan and F. Cote, B. Cote scoring on Handloser's fielder's choice. Herda flew out and Zink fanned.

The visitors registered again in the third when Westfall made an error. Zink singled and the local shortstop fumbled, a second one.

Tecumseh got busy in the fifth, Howe, who had been walked, coming in on Westfall's single after he had advanced on sacrifices by Rogers and Crittenden.

Fearing the Independents would creep up on them, the Oils tallied twice in the sixth, Rogers' misplay, three hits and a walk causing the damage. This made the uphill struggle of the home men more difficult.

The Independents came within one of tying the score when they got to batting in this same inning. An error by B. Cote, by which H. Hanna benefitted, a slashing two-base drive by Harris and a single by C. Hanna netted the two markers which gave the local fans new hopes.

It was in the eighth where Tecumseh took the lead, which proved to be of short duration, however. Bricker's single, C. Hanna's sacrifice, an error by Callaghan and a hit by Rogers permitted two locals to complete the circuit and making the score 5 to 4 in favor of Tecumseh.

Hits by Lowen, Frey and Callaghan gave the opposition a tally in the ninth and tied the score.

It was nip and tuck from then to the 14th, both sides threatening to end it several times, but it remained for the Prison City men to bring the contest to a close. It was the visitor's manager, Callaghan, who broke it up with his bat. Whitter, the first man to face Crittenden in the 14th, met one squarely for a safe hit. The next two fanned, but B. Cote waited out four wide ones and Whitter scored when the second baseman for the Oils smashed out a single. The side was retired when F. Cote sent a fly to Bricker.

Tecumseh went down in one, two, three order.

Here is the score:

Harding Speaks to Michigan People

REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE STANDS FOR AMERICA FIRST.

Protests Against International Difficulties League of Nations Would Bring—Would Protect American Markets for American Products and Establish Foreign Markets for Our Products by Upbuilding of Merchant Marine—Michigan Delegation Proclaimed Largest to Visit Harding Home.

In his address to the combined Michigan and Indiana delegation of Republicans at his home in Marion, Ohio, Saturday, Senator Warren G. Harding, Republican candidate for president, took a stand against the league of nations covenant, declaring himself for America first and for returning to "safe and sober" policies of government.

Senator Harding charged the present administration with reckless extravagance and gross inefficiency, supporting an overlopped coterie of inefficient employees.

His own policy toward the business world, he declared, would put an end to "ineffective meddling" by the government, wipe out many wartime restraints, seek readjust-

At a special meeting of the church and congregation, held Sunday afternoon, the vote on extending a call to the Covington preacher was unanimous in favor. The session was presided over by Rev. Four Hurt in Auto Accident, One Dies

Macon Boy's Back Broken—Miss Hazel Meads of Tecumseh in Car that Plunges Into Creek.

Raynor Murphy of Macon is dead, Rudolph Pratt of Clinton suffered injuries to his back and Miss Hazel Meads of Tecumseh and Robert Pratt, also of Clinton, were slightly hurt when an auto in which they were riding dashed into Bean creek at the Twin bridges near Adrian about 10 o'clock Sunday night. It is believed Murphy, who was driving the car, did not see the sharp turn in the road where the accident occurred. When the auto plunged into the creek the driver was caught under the machine, his back being broken. He lived until 2:30 o'clock Tuesday morning, passing away at Bixby hospital in Adrian, where he and Rudolph Pratt were taken.

Murphy was 17 years of age. He was the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Murphy of Macon township. The mother is very low as the result of the shock caused by the death of her son. The funeral is being held this afternoon at the Murphy home near Clinton, burial to be made in that place. Besides the parents, the young man is survived by two sisters, Alice, at home, and Mrs. John Winterstein of Macon.

Miss Meads is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Meads of this city. The Pratt boys are the sons of Mrs. Ella Pratt, residing two miles of Clinton.

Dies While Resting in Chair on Porch

Mrs. Fred Holmes Had Suffered With Heart Disease Several Years.

Death came suddenly to Mrs. Fred Holmes Monday evening, she passing away about 6 o'clock while seated in a chair on the front porch of her home. She had been a sufferer from heart disease for about five years.

Shortly before she was stricken Mrs. Holmes went out into the yard with the intention of watering her flowers. She began to feel faint and called to her husband and then sat down in the chair on the front porch. Mr. Holmes summoned the neighbors and they assisted him in carrying his wife into the house and then Dr. E. E. Hendershott was called. The physician could be of no assistance, however, as Mrs. Holmes had died before she could be taken into the house.

The funeral will be held at the home Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock and will be private. Burial will be in the family lot in the Tipton cemetery.

Melissa Preston was born in Adrian township April 2, 1858, being the daughter of Samuel and Lucretia Preston. She was married to Joseph Stitt on March 2, 1896. For a number of years they resided on the banks of Evans lake. Sixteen years ago they moved to Tecumseh, buying a home on Democratic street, she residing at this place at the time of her death. Two years after moving to this city Mr. Stitt passed away and seven years later the widow became the wife of Fred Holmes. Besides the husband, Mrs. Holmes is survived by four brothers, Isman and Will Preston of Tipton, Fred of Jackson and Emery of Adrian. She also leaves three step-sons, Alfred Holmes of Tecumseh, Fred of Morenci, and Ralph of Saginaw.

Mrs. Holmes was a member of the Tecumseh lodge of Rebekahs.

The meeting was thoroughly enjoyed by the 150 in attendance.

A bounteous dinner was served at 1 o'clock in the dining room of the church by the ladies of the congregation, this being followed by a program that was most interesting. These numbers were given:

H. Camburn of Macon secretary of the program committee.

The date of the next reunion was set for the first Saturday in September.

PYTHIANS PLANNING TO GIVE ENTERTAINMENTS

An active business and social season is planned by the Tecumseh lodge of Knights of Pythias this fall and winter, an entertainment of some kind to be given once a month. Lenawee's Big Fair Will Open Monday

Thursday Will be Tecumseh Day—Local Band Plays—Features Galore for 1920 Exhibit.

Retaining all the established features that have made the Lenawee fair so popular in the past and with a number of new ones added for this year, the 1920 agricultural exposition of this county, which opens in Adrian Monday, September 20, promises to eclipse all others in number and quality of exhibits. The officers of the Lenawee County Agricultural society have expended more money, time and effort this year than ever before in bringing together an elaborate display of the county's products and entertainment features of the first calibre, and they invite the public to take advantage of this exceptional opportunity by visiting the fair.

While there will be something special of interest each day, Thursday will be the most important to the people of this city and vicinity, as it will be Tecumseh day. The Ladies' band of this city will be featured that day and Tecumseh people, as last year, will be in attendance en masse. The local schools will close that the children may also have an opportunity to see the exposition. This is also the big day at the fair when all of the departments and special features will be at their best.

Other bands will provide the music during the other days of the fair, the Blissfield musicians to play Wednesday, the Imperial band of Adrian Friday and Tipton Saturday.

The officers of the Lenawee exposition have been assured that stock and race horses which were at the state fair at Detroit last week will be brought to the Adrian display.

Four startling free athletic acts will be presented each day and an airplane will be an attraction with a pilot who presents many stunts not heretofore seen in this vicinity. Passengers will also have an opportunity to [illegible].

The grounds have been put in excellent condition, and with good weather the prospects are for a fair that will break previous high records.

That the parents of Tecumseh may become better acquainted with the instructors in the local schools, a reception will be held at the high school Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock, to which all are cordially invited.

The Parent-Teachers' association is giving the reception and it is desired that the parents of all the pupils attend so that they may meet the teachers and co-operate with them, as this will make the school year, just begining, the more successful.

There will be some musical selections and possibly some other entertainment numbers.

Momentous Battle Takes Place Sunday

Tecumseh and Tipton to Settle Baseball Supremacy Here—Independents Down Adrian 6 to 3.

Everybody from Tipton will probably be in Tecumseh next Sunday afternoon when the ball team of that place stacks up against the Independents of this city in the deciding game of their series. That the importance of this contest will draw an immense crowd of fans is certain, as there has been the keenest interest in the diamond engagements between the two teams. The fact that the deciding clash had to be postponed twice on account of rain has added to the agitation over the outcome of the series. Both the teams will go into the Sunday battle with the firm determination to out-score the other and a game of great excitement is expected to be the result.

The last ball game of the season will be played here September 26, Clinton to be the opponent.

In last Sunday's game with the Adrian Independents the Tecumseh team showed its superiority in the initial inning, scoring enough during its first time at bat to win, though the final score was 6 to 3. It is estimated that there were about 1,500 fans in attendance and the game was exciting. There were many present from the county seat. It was the fastest game of the season, being played in an hour and five minutes.

Tecumseh's quartet of runs in the first inning came as the result of Cole being walked, Skinner, O. Hanna and Harris all hitting safely and an error by Adrian's first baseman.

It was in the seventh where the locals did the rest of their tallying. Westfall got on as the result of an error by Second Baseman Bassett, Rogers was issued a pass, Skinner sacrificed and O. Hanna made his second hit of the day. Harris was the only other Tecumseh player to get a pair of clean clouts. C. Hanna, Cole and Rogers pulled off a double play in the fifth.

Adrian got its scores one at a time, sending a man around in the fourth, sixth and eighth, hits figuring in the run making. Hawley, the opposition third baseman, was the only man on that team to get more than one hit, his two safeties being for an extra sack.

The score in detail follows:

Adrian—	ab	r	h	o	a	e
Dause, 1b	4	0	0	12	0	1

GIVE COMMUNITY HOUSE BENEFIT DANCE FRIDAY

As one means of raising funds for a community house in Tecumseh a benefit dance will be given at Witherell hall tomorow, Friday, evening by a committee of women interested in this city's welfare. It is planned to make the dancing party a most enjoyable affair and it is hoped the attendance will be very large.

Bracey's orchestra is to play for the dancing, numerous features to be introduced during the evening. The dancing will begin at 8:30 and last until 12:30.

The need of a community house in Tecumseh has long been evident and now that an effort is being made to bring this about it is the hope of those interested that the committee of women promoting this dance will be given every encouragement.

LEGION WILL GIVE DANCES; SPORTS DAY NETS $1,006.38

Underwood-Orr post, American Legion, will give a series of dances this winter, this being decided on at a meeting held Tuesday evening. The dancing parties will be held in Witherell hall. Montie Harrington, Clyde Drewyor and Archie Boyd are the committee to look after the arrangements.

Other business was transacted at the meeting. Dr. H. H. Hammel was chosen delegate to the second district convention, to be held at Adrian October 11. Hile Bricker was elected alternate.

F. C. Hanna, general chairman of the recent sports day held by the Legion, made his report, it showing that the organization had cleared $1,006.38 on the undertaking. The post extended him a vote of thanks for his zealous efforts.

The post desires to express its appreciation and thanks to the business men of Tecumseh who so cordially supported the sports day and to all who assisted in making the affair such a success.

Farm Bureau Picnic Draws Large Crowd

Topics of Interest Discussed—Tecumseh Ladies' Band an Attraction—Britton Wins Ball Game.

Timely addresses, good music, an interesting ball game and a good attendance were contributing factors in making the community picnic, held by the Macon Farm Bureau in the Grange hall at that place Saturday, a very successful event.

The Tecumseh Ladies' band furnished the music, a number of lively selections being well rendered.

At noon an appetiizing dinner was served by the ladies, this being followed by the program of addresses. County Agent Ralph Carr was the first introduced by F. J. Stevens, chairman of the day. Mr. Carr told of his work and how he aimed to be of assistance to the farmers of Lenawee.

A. E. Illenden, president of the Lenawee Farm Bureau, was the next speaker. He explained that the organization of which he was the head had as its main object co-operation with the farmers that they might profit thereby. He discussed the wool situation and urged the sheep raisers to give their flocks the best of care.

The Farm Bureau movement was endorsed by Dr. Eben Mumford of the Michigan Agricultural college, declaring it the greatest force ever set in motion for the betterment of the conditions under which the present day farmer is laboring. Co-operative buying and selling was urged upon his hearers.

Other numbers on the program were recitations by Rose Gilmore and Floyd Totten.

The ball game between Britton and Macon was won by the former, the score being 8 to 1.

SENATOR HARDING IN HIS HOME TOWN.

Marion, situated near the central part of Ohio, has leaped into fame by producing presidential timber in the person of Senator Warren G. Harding. The city has a population of about 30,000, is quite a railroad center and has numerous factories, among them two establishments that produce steam shovels and dredges. It is a thriving little city with many beautiful homes.

Thus, in a few words, is described the home town of the Republican candidate for president. The people of Marion are courteous to visitors and seem to take great pride in the honor that has come to their city. They highly esteem their fellow citizen who aspires to the highest office of the nation. The people are loyal to Senator Harding, both in speech and action. Nearly every home and nearly every business place is displaying a portrait of the Republican candidate, and this in face of the fact that the county has been on the Democratic list.

To the visitor Senator Harding has the appearance of a sturdy American of the McKinley type. His speech to the Michigan delegation was free from personalities—the name of his leading or any other opponent was not mentioned. His talk was confined to the present administration—its mistakes and extravagance—and to future policies that he deems should be adopted for the nation's welfare. He is decidedly against the league of nations covenant and advocates keeping out of foreign entanglements and restoring this country on a firm and sober business basis. The senator is earnest and forceful in his talk and is likely to convince many who hear him that his policies, carried out by an efficient administration, are what the nation needs.

TECUMSEH DAY AT THE FAIR.

Thursday, next week, is Tecumseh day at the Lenawee fair. For this reason The Herald will be printed on Wednesday next week and it would be greatly appreciated if all advertisers and those having news items would furnish copy early in the week.

Judging from reports received at this office Tecumseh will be strongly represented by her citizenship at the fair next Thursday. Many of our merchants have agreed to close shop at least for the greater portion of the day. The school will be closed for that day to allow the children to accompany their parents to the annual county exhibition. It's up to the weather man now to furnish the right kind of weather to insure a pleasant and profitable visit on the biggest day of the fair.

FARMING AND WASTING.

Motoring through Ohio brings a great contrast in the farming methods of agriculturalists of Southern Michigan and those of the Buckeye state. On this side of the state line and the top portion of Ohio farms have an appearance of greater prosperity and better care, with more commodious buildings and good fencing. Grain has been taken care of in this vicinity, while further south the wheat and oats crops still lie on the fields unthreshed, a prey to birds, rats, mice and other animal life. On one farm last year's corn crop was still stacked on the field. In the oil region the owners of land seem more shiftless, probably due to the fact that they receive sufficient income from their oil wells to make unnecessary any extended exertions for a livelihood. In sections of Ohio neighbors are few and far between, for one can see land for miles without discovering the outlines of dwelling or barn. Automobile traffic seems very light compared with Lenawee and the northern Ohio counties.

ST. PETER'S GUILD HAS BUSINESS-SOCIAL MEETING

Mrs. Wm. Bly was hostess Tuesday afternoon for a meeting of the Ladies' Guild of St. Peter's church. The attendance was good and games and contests furnished much amusement. Dainty refreshments were served. Mrs. Bly, Mrs. Thayer, Mrs. Bert Prichard and Mrs. John McCaughn were the committee for this meeting. The collection amounted to $3.51.

Several matters of importance were discussed, one being the celebration of the 88th anniversary of the laying of the cornerstone of St. Peter's church, and it was also suggested that a society be organized for the young married women of the parish, which met with hearty approval, but no action was taken.

A supper, to be given at an early date, was also considered.

The state boxing commission has just turned over to T. E. Johnson, superintendent of public instruction, $55,000 to be used in purchasing athletic equipment for the public schools. This sum, part of which was furnished by Tecumseh as a result of the boxing contests held in this city last winter by the local post of the American Legion, is the educational department's share of the fees collected by the boxing commission from the promoters of the various bouts held in the state since the commission was established. Twenty - nine counties, Lenawee among them, failed to reply to inquiries some time ago from the state superintendent of public instruction whether they wanted to benefit from such a fund.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Ridgeway of Detroit have returned home after having spent about two weeks in this vicinity visiting relatives. They visited Mrs. James Aten and relatives in Ridgeway.

Crop prospects in this vicinity and in other parts of the state are exceptionally good and the indications are that agricultural products this year in Michigan will be more valuable by $35,000,000 than in 1919.

Harold Lowry will soon sever his connection with the Lilley State bank to attend the University of Michigan. He will take a course in business administration. Miss Ruth Reed will be his successor at the bank.

According to figures just made public, the Tecumseh-Clinton pike is probably one of the most used roads in the state. A count made between the hours of 7 a. m. and 9 p. m. on Labor day showed that 1,012 automobiles passed over this pike during this period. Most of these were tourning cars.

Those in this locality who have been taking produce to the Community market in Adrian will be interested in the fact that the business during August was about $4,000 larger than in the same month last year. The total for the past month was $14,103.98, nearly half of which was in eggs.

The Herald stated last week that J. C. Mahaney had moved his cigar factory across the street from his previous location, but this was an error. He plans to move, but before this can be done permission must be granted by the government, as cigar making establishments are under federal supervision. Until the permit arrives he will be located in the old stand.

Miss Ruth Reed, who has been an employe in the First National bank in Morenci for several years, has resigned her position and about October 1 will become a member of the force in the Lilley State bank here. She is a Tecumseh girl and her many friends will welcome her back. She takes the place at the local bank vacated by Harold Lowry, who will attend the U. of M.

Friends are receiving the announcement of the marriage of Edward Karnes Sales, D. V. M., to Marion McOwan Saturday, September 4, 1920, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William McOwan, at Jersey City, N. J. The young people enjoyed a trip up the Hudson, then to Buffalo, returning by way of the St. Lawrence river. They will be at home after September 11 at 131 Wesley street, Lansing.

Other parts of the United States must be as fortunate as Tecumseh and vicinity so far as the "flu" is concerned, as the public health service has announced that there have been no indications of a return of last year's influenza epidemic. It is said that each year, between May and November, a number of cases are reported, but experts of the government health service do not expect the disease to be as virulent nor as widespread as last year.

Veterans of the Thirty-Second division residing in this locality will be interested in the fact that a reduced fare has been granted these world war survivors to the first annual reunion of the organization, to be held at Milwaukee, Wis., September 19 to 21. A fare and one third is to be charged those who visit the reunion. Application for this rate must be made by letter to Paul B. Clemens of Superior, Wis., division association secretary, who will issue a certificate to each person making the request.

One of the successful candidates at the recent primary election who spent but very little money during the campaign was Henry W. Stevens of Tecumseh, nominated coroner on the Republican ticket. According to his sworn statement, filed with the county clerk, Mr. Stevens' campaign expenses totaled but 16 cents, this having been spent for postage stamps for sending out notices of petitions. Emery B. Root, Leland F. Bean and Russell Hoisington, all successful on the Republican ticket, spent nothing, says their report.

Mrs. Clarence Alderdyce visited her sister and family at Napoleon from Friday to Sunday.

Fred Sheldon and daughter, Miss Gertrude, motored to Detroit Sunday to meet Mrs. Sheldon, who had visited at Harbor Springs.

Mrs. Nancy Babcock, her son, William Babcock, wife and daughter and Mrs. Mary Blesing recently attended a reunion of the former pupils of the Judd school, about two miles east of Saline. About 200 were present, it being the first one that Mrs. Babcock had attended.

Ten of the "hello" girls of the local telephone exchange were guests at the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Price Friday evening. Mr. Price was a former lineman. The young ladies had a picnic supper out in the field and melons were served by the hosts. The occasion proved highly enjoyable.

Corn Binders

Did you ever see such a corn crop?

If so it was many years ago. Do you realize the cutting of this crop is going to try the best of binders, strain them to the limit? Will it pay you to try and get along with that old machine another year? Yes, we know you are planning on buying another year, or some future year when they will be cheaper. Now, are you sure about this anticipated drop in price? Right now we are selling these binders 15 per cent less than we can replace them, and with the great shortage of steel—nearly a year's supply, in fact—there is no probability of a drop in anything made of steel for a long time to come.

We still have a few unsold. Better place order today.

Ensilage Cutters

You now have a tractor and the silo, but how about the ensilage cutter? You expect to hire one again, but can you? The cost of the cutter is a small item compared with that silo full of corn put in at the right time.

In Corn Binders we have the McCormick and Deering.

In Ensilage Cutters the International—"B" for the larger tractors and the "E" for the 8-16 to 10-20 types. We also have the different lengths of pipe and fittings. This year the pipe and fittings you want we will sell you at cost. On all cutters we have to order from now on we will have to pay the 15 per cent advance. Come in and talk it over with us while we can still give you the low price.

Meet us at the Adrian fair, where you will see the SAMSON Tractors and Plows, the three popular sizes LETZ Feed Mills, the PERKINS Windmill, the LOUDEN Stalls, Stanchions and Litter Carrier, the ESSEX and OVERLAND line of cars, the SAMSON line of trucks, also a Type E Ensilage cutter with fittings.

INDUSTRIAL HOME GETS $55,000 FOR HEATING PLANT

The state auditors last week appropriated $55,000 for the reconstruction of the heating plant of the State Industrial Home for Girls at Adrian.

The appropriation passed the board with little discussion, as there was no doubt felt by any member that the need is imperative. Last year the school was unheated for as long as 18 hours at a time.

In the report of the engineers it was recommended that direct radiation replace the present indirect system. As the government is planning to sell the equipment at Camp Custer, that outfit may be purchased for the Adrian institution.

FORDSON

TRADE MARK

It is a habit of Henry Ford to thoroughly try out and test any product he manufactures before he puts it on the market. He personally must know it will do all he wants it to do before he will allow anybody else to buy it. For thirty-five years he worked on this Fordson Tractor. He kept buying land until he had something like eight thousand acres in order that he might get a great variety of soil conditions containing the plowing problems that meet the farmers of the world, and then the Fordson Tractor was put to work and made to take all sorts of practical tests for years before Mr. Ford put it on the market.

And, therefore, when it came on the market, it was right, it was reliable, it would do the work he said it would do. People have bought it, have tried it out, have tested it, and it has proven to be all that Mr. Ford claims it to be, and this is why that while farm Tractors have been on the American market more than twenty years and while three hundred thousand have been sold one hundred thousand of that three hundred thousand are Fordson Tractors, and yet the Fordson has only been on the market two years.

It has sold rapidly because when one farmer bought one, he practically converted the neighborhood to the desirability and profit of the Fordson Tractor on the farm.

The Fordson is made small, compact, flexible, dependable. It is made to be much more convenient to handle than a horse. It was made so that anybody of ordinary sense could operate and take care of it. We wanted to make it so that a mechanic would not have to be sold with every Tractor. It was made by a farmer for a farmer, and it has the endorsement of the farmers—the little farmer and the big farmer. Some farmers have one, some farmers have ten and fifteen, and one farmer we know has fifty-six. It works just as well in the West as it does in the East. It is just as flexible in the North as it is in the South. It is just as profitable in the wheat fields as it is in the sugar and rice fields. It is just as flexible and useful on the fruit ranch as it is among the fields of oats and barley. It is just as useful and profitable in the lumber camp, railroad yard, coal mine, as it is in the oil fields or any other commercial line. But especially designed for the farmer, it is especially his necessity.

Because it increases the production of every acre by enabling the farmer to cultivate his ground to better advantage than he can with mule or horse-power. It takes the sting and drudgery out of farm work. It is a great conserver of labor expense. Oh, it has so many money-saving advantages that the farmer can't do without it and be progressive and make money.

So we ask every farmer to come in and let us tell him more about this Fordson Tractor. Let us make a demonstration for him on his own farm. Let us test it out to his soil conditions. Let's show him.

Don't delay because there are only so many Fordson Tractors to come to this territory. Get your order in now, and remember that the Fordson after service is prompt and sure. We are supplied with everything necessary to keep your Fordson going every day in the year. Come in and let's talk it over.

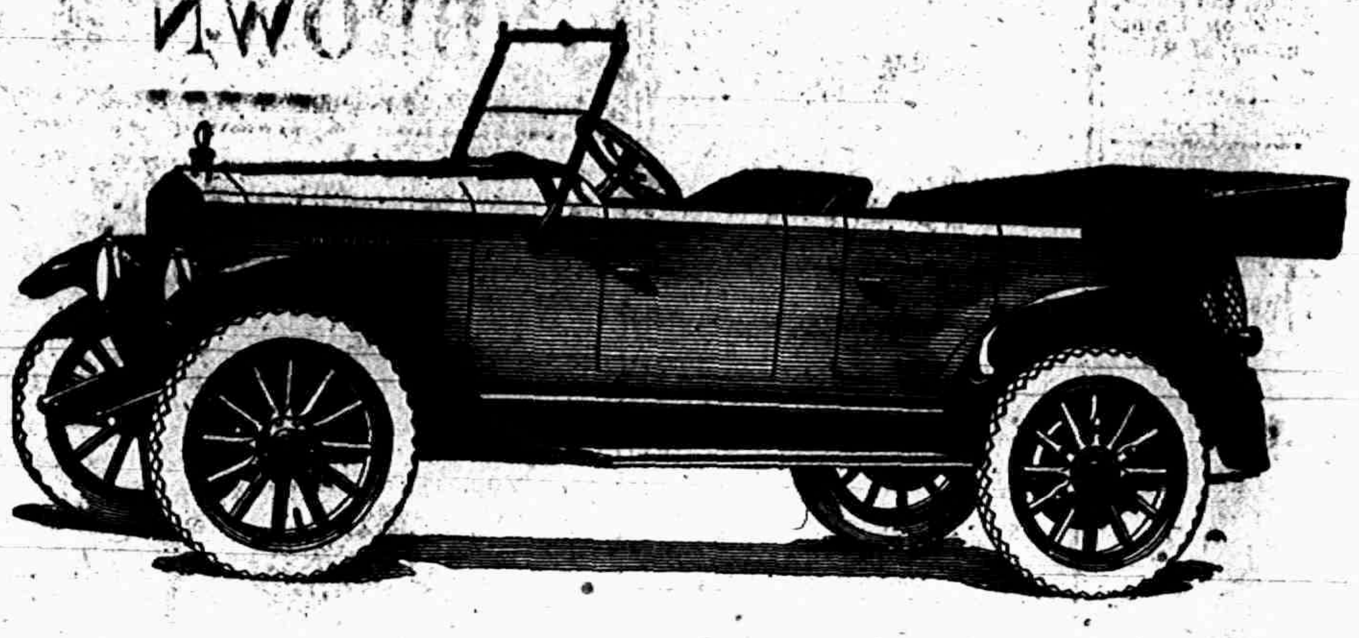
ESSEX MOTOR CARS

We Now Sell Essex, the Dominant Light Car



The Moderate Priced Light Weight Car of Costly Car Qualities -- It Holds the World's Marks for 50-Hour Endurance and 24-Hour Road Tests

It is with great pride that we announce our selection to sell Essex. We know that in Essex we offer the supreme car value of motordom. And what merchant is not proud when he deals in the finest product of its kind?

[illegible] of Essex. You have heard owners, your neighbors, praise it. Doubtless you have had an Essex ride. You recognize it, then, as the dominant car. You know how it combines perfectly the beauty, power, speed and endurance of the finest cars with the moderate price and economical operation of light cars.

And you know how many were disappointed last year because they could not get an Essex. Maybe you, too, failed. The same conditions obtain this year. Demand for this matchless car far exceeds production. But our arrangements are such that if you place your order with us immediately we pledge you delivery when you want it.

Essex Fills Needs Of All Motorists

Essex' history has been a continuous record of brilliant performances. You recall the astonishing approval that followed its first appearance. Its appeal was dynamic. Everywhere critical motorists instantly recognized its fine qualities. Owners of costly cars and of light cars alike became Essex enthusiasts after one ride. Dealers rushed to get Essex franchises. It was the sensation of the motor world.

Then Essex quickly revealed qualities far beyond any claims made for it, even by enthusiastic first owners. Its astonishing power time and again defeated much heavier, costlier cars in road and hill climbing contests. Its surprising speed won over many specially built racing cars.

And, vastly more important to you, it proved endurance and reliability never before expected of any but far higher priced cars.

You know how a stock Essex chassis set the world's official 50-hour endurance mark of 3,037 miles on the Cincinnati Speedway. In 94 hours, 22 minutes it went 5,689 miles, averaging over a mile a [illegible] showed no wear.

Think What These World Marks Mean

You know how another stock car made the world's 24-hour road record, 1,061 miles, over Iowa dirt roads. Not one adjustment was necessary.

Think what this reliability and endurance mean to you. Remember, stock cars were used. So it means the same power, speed and staunchness in your Essex. It means every day, dependable transportation. You know no worries over motor troubles and you are free from the expense, usually found so high by light car owners, of repairs and adjustments.

And Essex Also is Leader in Design

Do not forget that Essex also is supreme in beauty.

Hudson builds the Essex. The same men who designed the world famous Hudson Super-Six also planned Essex. That is the basis of Essex' mechanical superiority and explains its leadership in style.

And remember that with all these fine car qualities Essex also excels other light cars in acceleration, easy driving, nimbleness and flexibility.

It is moderate in price. It has the light car advantage of gasoline, oil and tire economy and it has the costly car dependability and sturdiness. Repair costs are practically nil.

Is it any wonder we are proud that we now sell Essex?

Renew your friendship with this dominant car today.

Sunday School 'Pep' Meet'g at St. Peter's

Young People Enjoy Evening of Pleasure at Parish House.

Thursday evening at St. Peter's parish house was held a "pep" meeting that was enjoyed immensely by the young people of the parish.

Perry Hayden had the play program in charge and a variety of games furnished plenty of amusement that kept the young folks in lively spirit. Rev. J. J. Preston gave a short talk and another feature of the evening was the serving of refreshments, consisting of hot cocoa, sandwiches and doughnuts, by ladies of the Guild.

The evening was such a thorough success that it was suggested the meetings be of monthly occurrence.

ment of tariff levies and taxation and establish a new co-operation between government and private enterprise. Having restored a condition of "sober business" again, he added, he would summon the aid of the ablest administrators of the country to put the government itself on an efficient basis.

Mr. Harding said it was his policy to protect American markets for American products and establish foreign markets for our products through the upbuilding of the merchant marine. We will restore representative government and replace the distended executive powers and extreme centralization which nearly eight years of misnamed democracy has brought us. We will preserve a willingness to listen to the will of the people, and will construe the desire for a common good fortune to mean the necessary good fortune of business, which is the life-blood of material existence.

At the conclusion of Senator Harding's speech the Michigan delegation sang several campaign songs and all were privileged to personally meet Senator and Mrs. Harding at the front porch steps.

Michigan Delegation Large and Enthusiastic.

The long special train carrying the Michigan delegation—leaders and representative Republicans from all sections of the state—arrived at Marion at 5:15 p. m., one hour and 15 minutes behind schedule time.

Within a few minutes the parade was formed, headed by the large Dodge Bros. band, and escorted to the home of Senator Harding on Mt. Vernon avenue by members of Marion Civic Association. Following the band came a delegation of Michigan women carrying a banner bearing this inscription: "Michigan women believe the soul of America is safe with Harding." A large majority of the counties of the state were represented, according to numerous banners that displayed the name of the county.

Col. Charles B. Warren, chairman of the Michigan delegation, introduced Senator Harding with remarks assuring Michigan's liberal support at the coming election.

In his remarks Col. Warren said: "We have come from all parts of the neighboring state of Michigan to offer you, the nominee of the Republican party for president, the support of the Republican men and women—aye, the support of thousands of Democrats of that state. * * * But our support of you, sir, is not alone because you are carrying the standard of our party. We applaud you for your sterling character, your splendid poise and dignity, your sincerity, your frankness, your wisdom in counsel, your love of justice for all Americans. We like you because you do not resort to slander and misrepresentation to carry your bark with the temporary tides.

"We support you for your broad sympathy with the suffering peoples of the old world—your willingness to extend the strong and helpful hand of independent and sovereign America to the torn and worn people of Europe, without imperiling the nation's sovereignty or weakening by constant meddling the nation's efficiency to strike a great blow when the nation's representatives in congress speak the purpose and conscience of the American people.

"We favor your election to the high office of president because you hold that a world organization for peace, or a league for peace, is altogether desirable, but are not willing that this nation should agree to preserve at all hazards with armed force the territorial integrity of foreign powers, unless the regularly chosen representatives of the people voice at the time and upon the precise occasion the desire of our people so to do.

"We shall vote for you because you are not willing that this nation shall solemnly agree to a definite line of action in the remote future when you know the undertaking cannot be carried to fulfillment without the future assent, concurrence and support of the then duly elected agents of our people acting as the conscience and judgment of the American people then dictate.

"We predict your triumphant election and are confident when your great task is completed, the American people will acclaim 'Well done, good and faithful American'."

After a cordial handshake with Senator and Mrs. Harding, the parade reformed and with lights galore and triumphant band music marched back to the special train for the return trip.

A number of auto loads made the overland trip and one car came over 400 miles from the northern part of the state.

Tecumseh Delegation [illegible] to Marion.

Five Tecumseh people, Clyde Barber, driver, F. J. Temple, Wm. Gibson, H. W. Stevens and E. H. Ahrens, made the trip overland, leaving Tecumseh at 6 o'clock, standard time, and reaching Marion at 1:30. The trip was made via Adrian, Delta, Ohio, Maumee, Bowling Green, Findlay, Upper Sandusky, stopping at the latter place for dinner.

The party, arriving at Marion, inquired the whereabouts of Mt. Vernon avenue and were informed to follow the white pillars from the court house corner. These pillars, erected for the official notification ceremony, lead just beyond the Harding residence on Mt. Vernon avenue. The pillars are stately, topped with an American eagle, and contain a cast of the candidate's likeness on the four sides.

Marion people, generally, the Tecumseh delegation found very friendly and courteous. They readily discussed Senator Harding and wife and believe in the integrity and honesty of the honored couple. Mr. Harding, they say, is a "self-made" man, starting his newspaper career with no funds to speak of, until now he has a prosperous business. His is not by any means an elaborate home, but is nicely situated and comfortable. Nearly every window in the city displays Senator Harding's portrait, an evidence of town loyalty.

The Tecumseh party was fortunate in procuring stations close to the front porch of the Harding residence during the reception of the delegates. Remaining for the night in Marion, the party left at 9 o'clock Sunday morning for home, arriving here about 5 o'clock. The distance is just 150 miles.

TRAIN CREW IS ARRESTED FOR BLOCKING CROSSING

When an extra freight over the D., T. & I. arrived in Tecumseh Monday the whole crew was arrested by Marshal Mominee on telephone instructions from the deputy sheriff at Dundee.

It appears that this crew kept a crossing in Dundee blocked for one hour and five minutes and a warrant was sworn out for them, but before it could be served the train had proceeded on its way to this city. The deputy sheriff at Dundee phoned the local marshal to hold the crew until he could arrive with a warrant, which was done.

The crew then got into communication with the division superintendent, who asked the deputy to release the men, guaranteeing their appearance in the Dundee court Tuesday. This action was taken.

The five members of the crew appeared in Justice Reynolds' court in Dundee Tuesday afternoon and the hearing was adjourned until September 24, Conductor Stitt being the only one ordered to come into court at that time.

ELECTRICAL TROUBLES OUR SPECIALTY

THE TECUMSEH HERALD

SEVENTIETH YEAR. No. 51 TECUMSEH, MICHIGAN, THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 23, 1920 Published Every Thursday

Hayden Mill Co. to Build Power Plant

Tecumseh Electric Co. Will Operate Station and Sell Excess Current to Its Patrons.

It has just been announced that the Wm. Hayden Milling Co. is to erect an electric power plant on the banks of the Globe pond, have the Tecumseh Electric Co. operate the station and current not needed by the flour making concern will be sold to electricity users in general in Tecumseh. The final papers in the deal were signed Tuesday evening and work on constructing the power plant is to be started Thursday.

The water power rights of the Wm. Hayden Milling Co. have long been more than ample for its needs and some means of utilizing the wastage has been under consideration for some time. The decision to erect a water power electric plant was the result of careful investigation. Negotiations were opened with the Tecumseh Electric Co. toward disposing of the excess current generated and the agreement signed Tuesday evening was the climax of the deliberations.

A hydro-electric plant, with a capacity of 810 horse power, will be built by the Hayden company just northeast of the mill on the bank of the Globe pond. Under the agreement made the Tecumseh Electric Co. will operate the plant. The Hayden mill will be electrified and a certain voltage will be sold to the mill and the rest of the current to the general public.

The power plant will be equipped with the most modern machinery, a vertical generator to be used, which requires no gearing or belts.

A seven-year agreement has been signed by the Hayden interests and the electric company officials.

Few at Reception For New Teachers

But Function Is Pleasurable, Nevertheless — Parents Present Warmly Welcome Instructors.

Though the attendance was small, the reception for the new teachers, held at the high school Friday evening, was a delightful affair.

The gymnasium was used for the function and had been prettily decorated, fall flowers being used profusely and Japanese lanterns adding to the effectiveness. Bowen's orchestra furnished good music and Jean and Helen Hodges won hearty applause when they sang "Just Like a Gypsy."

As the guests arrived they were furnished with cards on which they wrote their own name conspicuously and then as they encountered the new teachers, who were similarly equipped, cards were exchanged, each writing his or her own name on the other's card and in this way all were soon acquainted. The instructors assured the parents of the pupils they were glad to get acquainted and all the new teachers expressed themselves as well pleased with Tecumseh and their welcome here.

Punch and wafers were served by some of the school girls.

It is to be regretted that more parents did not avail themselves of the opportunity to meet the young people who are instructing Tecumseh's future citizens.

Joseph Platt Loses Life in Explosion

Tipton Man Mistakes Gasoline for Kerosene When Starting Fire in Stove.

When Joseph Platt started a fire with gasoline, thinking it was kerosene, Monday morning at his home near Tipton he made a mistake which caused his death, as he died of burns suffered in the resultant explosion.

Mr. Platt was about to prepare the morning meal and when he poured the oil in the stove he believed it was kerosene. When he touched a match to the fluid an explosion took place, he being enveloped in flames. He ran out of the house calling for help and the hired man came to the rescue with a blanket. The flames were extinguished but not before Mr. Platt was so severely burned that no hope was entertained for his recovery. He passed away about 3 o'clock the same afternoon. He was to have been the head of one of the departments at the Lenawee county fair and was preparing to leave home to spend the week in Adrian when the accident occurred.

Practically all his life had been spent in this vicinity. He was born 56 years ago in New York state, coming to Michigan with his parents when he was very young. Miss Julia E. Wilson became his wife March 22, 1898, and she passed away June 8 of this year. A brother, Robert Platt, also passed away last June at his home in Royal Oak.

Mr. Platt is survived by a daughter, Ruth, and a son, Raymond, who was attending the Tecumseh schools. There also survive five sisters, Mrs. Mary Aten of Tecumseh, Mrs. Louis Tew of Flint, Mrs. Esther Wilkinson of Perrington, Mich., Mrs. C. C. Ridgeway and Miss Anna Platt of Detroit, and one brother, John, of Perrington.

The funeral service was held Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock in the Congregational church in Tipton. Burial was in Brookside cemetery in this city.

Tecumseh Athletic Club to be Revived

Movement on Foot to Make Improvements at Park—Outlook Good.

Prospects are bright for a revival of the once active Tecumseh Athletic association and for a number of much needed improvements being made at Athletic park which will make it an ideal place for holding all sorts of outdoor contests. The movement is being started by some of the younger and more energetic members of the old athletic organization and judging by the encouragement received they believe their object will be accomplished.

A meeting of those most interested was held at the rooms of the Tecumseh club Thursday evening. The situation was canvassed and enough pledged financial support to make the outlook most promising. The plan is that the younger business and professional men who have the interests of this city athletic future at heart buy enough of the stock of the older members in the Tecumseh Athletic association to give the more active element a controlling interest, when the project for improvements can be gone into. Ten of the younger men not now members have agreed to take stock in the association and the indications are athletics are to be put on a higher plane in this city than ever before.

It is the hope of the promoters to erect new fences around Athletic park, build a cinder track, improve the baseball diamond, establish tennis courts, a gridiron and eventually a new grandstand with club house facilities. The idea is to provide a better equipped place for the Tecumseh Independents to play their baseball games and a place where the high school may hold field meets and its lesser athletic contests.

Victory Day in Clinton Saturday

BIG TIME IN SISTER VILLAGE TO BE PULLED OFF.

Program Includes Big Parade, Athletic Events, Band Concerts, Baseball, Balloon Ascension and Parachute Drop, Aeroplane Flights, Fireworks, Dancing, Etc.

Next Saturday Clinton celebrates the second annual Victory day, and for this occasion committees have arranged an excellent program for the entertainment of the town people and a multitude of visitors that are bound to attend the festivities, for Clinton is known far and wide for putting events of this kind across right.

The festivities begin at 9:30 a. m., with a grand parade, headed by the famous Clinton band, augmented to an organization of 30 musicians. Athletic events will be put on at 11:00, followed with a concert by the big band.

Tables for picnic dinners will be placed in the shade of trees, convenient to well water, and close to the scene of the festivities.

At 2:00 p. m. there will be acrobatic stunts by Charles Gaylor, the giant frog man, and at 3 o'clock Clinton and Blissfield baseball teams will battle for supremacy.

The balloon ascension and parachute drop is scheduled for 5:30 p. m., but the passenger aeroplane will make flights throughout the day.

There will be band music and dancing all day and in the evening will be featured fireworks reproducing the battle of Chateau Thierry.

An interesting feature will be a family of Pottawatamie Indians in war paint and feathers. Chief Sam Mandbka is a descendant of the tribe of Pottawatamies that fought and camped along the banks of the Raisin river in this vicinity. The Indians will demonstrate their mode of life in the old days—wigwams, cooking, dress and the making of baskets.

The celebration next Saturday promises to be the biggest event ever staged in Clinton.

Believes He Will be Given Citizenship

Rev. Edward Escolme Halts Naturalization Proceedings by Objecting to War Clause.

Though he was denied citizenship at a hearing [illegible] Burton L. Hart in Adrian Thursday afternoon, Rev. Edward Escolme, pastor of the Friends church in this city, is of the opinion he will be granted this privilege in the near future. In an interview Tuesday Rev. Escolme said he was communicating with the Chicago office of the bureau of naturalization and if a favorable reply was not received from that place he would get in touch with the commissioner of naturalization at Washington and had hopes of presenting his case in such a light that citizenship papers would be granted him.

Rev. Escolme is a native of England and with five other applicants appeared before Judge Hart and Examiner S. E. Galiher of the Chicago office of the bureau of naturalization last Thursday at the county seat. The local pastor requested to be excused from taking the usual oath to answer all questions truthfully, the court assenting to his replies by affirmation. All the various details had been disposed of except that he had not taken the loyalty oath. When Rev. Escolme was instructed to raise his right hand and take this oath he requested permission to say a few words to the court. He informed Judge Hart that while he was willing to serve in defense of the United States in a non-combatant capacity, like the ambulance or medical corps, he could not take up arms against another as he was a conscientious objector to war. "Do you not recognize non-combatants in war?" the pastor asked. "I would be willing to serve in hospital work or in some other way that I can be of help."

Judge Hart pointed out that Rev. Escolme was asking a favor of the government and that it was his duty to do as the government required without reservations. The case was continued until the next naturalization hearing, December 16.

In the meantime the pastor of the local Friends church has been in correspondence with the Chicago naturalization bureau, those in charge there advising him to communicate with the naturalization headquarters in Washington, presenting his case in detail.

Tooting 'Wake Up' Whistle is to Cease

Council Discovers it Costs $1.50 a Day to Blow it and Abolishes Custom—Salary of Water Works Engineer Raised.

Did you know it costs the village of Tecumseh $1.50 a day to blow the water works whistle at 5 o'clock in the morning to awaken the shopmen of the community?

It does.

This has just been brought to the attention of the board of village trustees and at its meeting Monday night that body voted to discontinue the practice of awakening the factory hands at the expense of the taxpayers.

It was some years ago that a petition, signed by many shopmen, was received by the trustees requesting the water works whistle be blown at 5 o'clock each morning as a means of arousing those employed in the local factories. The plea was granted. But that was when coal was easy to get and at a price that did not make a millionaire hesitate before ordering a few tons. Trustee Campbell of the committee on water informed the council that G. C. Arner, engineer at the water works, had brought to his attention the fact that the blowing of this whisle was quite an expense now. The whistle must be sounded at 5 o'clock in the morning, at a time when the steam pressure is normally low, and to get up enough steam to toot the awakener an extra wheelbarrow load of coal must be heaved under the boilers. This extra coal is worth $1.50 at the present time, so that it costs the village this sum each morning that the whistle is blown. It did not take the trustees long to abolish the custom after the expense was pointed out to them and after October 1 Tecumseh shopmen will have to depend on some other means of awakening them.

Water Works Engineer Arner requested his salary be boosted from $100 to $125 a month, the vote on the proposition being favorable. Trustees Hanna, Pulver and Campbell voted in the affirmative, Councilmen Hendershott and Kempf in the negative.

The matter of employing an auxiliary fire truck driver for the ensuing year was left with the committee on fire and fire limits.

Trustee Pulver reported it had been suggested by a business man that Night Officer Rubadou be furnished with a watchdog. No action was taken.

Quite a few bills were ordered paid.

Glen Fielder Given A Military Funeral

Tecumseh Man, Who Gave Life for Country on Foreign Soil, Paid Glowing Tribute.

Buried with full military honors, Glen F. Fielder, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Fielder, was paid a final impressive tribute when his funeral was held at the Methodist church Monday afternoon. The services were well attended, members of the Tecumseh post of the American Legion being present as a mark of respect [illegible] of one of their number who had made the supreme sacrifice while in the service of his country overseas.

The funeral cortege arrived at the Methodist church promptly at 2 o'clock from the Fielder home southwest of the city. Rev. C. M. Thompson opened the service with prayer and Mrs. Ella Hodges and Mrs. R. T. Meade sweetly sang an approprite selection. Rev. Thompson in his discourse referred to the hardships which a soldier of Jesus must endure, saying a good soldier for his country, such as Private Fielder had been, also had to undergo many hardships and privations in the performance of his duty. The parents, too, had their trials, he said, as it was with deepest regret but hopeful pride that father and mother parted with their boys when they went to the front. He eulogized the departed soldier eloquently and closed his sermon with a short sketch of the young hero's life.

Glen F. Fielder was born in Tecumseh 25 years ago and had always resided here or at Tipton. He was a member of the Methodist Sunday school at Tipton. It was on May 27, 1918, that he entered the service of his country, becoming a member of the 38th infantry. He was wounded on the European battlefields, but recovered after being confined in the hospital for some time. Later he was taken ill with influenza, pneumonia developing and this caused his death March 6, 1919. He was buried in Germany, but with a large number of other American fighters his remains were brought back to this country, they arriving in Tecumseh Saturday night.

In conclusion Rev. Thompson offered a fervent prayer and another selection by Mrs. Meade and Mrs. Hodges closed the services at the church.

Private Fielder's flower and flag-bedecked coffin was carried by Legion members, these acting as pall bearers: R. K. Anderson, Percy Bowen, Paul Keyser, Glenn Bowen, Hudson Covert and Fray Croll.

At Brookside cemetery where the interment was made, Rev. Thompson said the final words over the remains and a three-volley salute was given by a firing squad of Legion men composed of Hugh Hanna, Karl A. Braman, Perry Satterthwaite and Herman Seitz. Bugler C. L. Dickinson sounded taps.

The deceased is survived by the parents, three sisters and one brother.

WORLD-WIDE PROHIBITION IS GIVEN SUPPORT HERE

A number of Tecumseh people have enlisted in the campaign to extend prohibition all over the world, they pledging financial support following the address of Dr. G. W. Morrow at the Presbyterian church Tuesday evening. Dr. Morrow is a speaker for the Anti-Saloon League of America and the state league and appeared here in the interest of establishing prohibition every where on the globe. His topic was "America's Opportunity at Home and Overseas," but the attendance was not very large. His address was along the line of strict law enforcement, he warning his hearers that efforts are being made to [illegible] the dry laws of this country and unless vigilance is exercised the liquor interests will again get control. At the close of his talk he asked for financial support, quite a few pledges for a five year period being made.

The contest for the flag offered by the Anti-Saloon League, which was participated in by the Boy Scouts of Troop No. 2, and the Girl Scouts, was won by the latter. Dr. Morrow presented the victors with the banner.

TO PURCHASE ATHLETIC TOGS FOR HIGH SCHOOL

Wilson Aldrich has started a movement among the business men and football enthusiasts in general to raise a fund with which to buy athletic equipment for the high school and the prospects are encouraging that the plan will meet with success.

It came to Mr. Aldrich's attention that some of those playing on the high school football team did not have the necessary equipment and being a former player and deeply interested in gridiron contests he volunteered to head a subscription list to buy needed headgear, etc., for those not thus supplied. Other former players are to be given an opportunity to subscribe to the fund, as well as anyone who has the success of the high school athletics at heart, and contributions will be gladly received.

While football garments will be the first things purchased, it is hoped the contributions will be numerous enough that other needed athletic equipment may be purchased for the high school teams and any one interested is urged to help swell the fund.

Community House Dance Draws Many

Was Social and Financial Success, About $45 Being Cleared.

Financially a decisive success, the dancing party held at Witherell hall Friday evening in the interest of a community house for Tecumseh also proved a charming social event and the committee of women who promoted the function are jubilant over the fruits of their efforts.

The dancing started at 8:30 and lasted until 12:30, Bracey's orchestra playing tuneful, dreamy music to the great enjoyment of the 52 couples in attendance. There were also many spectators. Harold Lowry favored the dancers with a pleasing vocal solo, Mrs. Frederick B. Wood being his accompanist.

Witherell hall had been made very attractive for the party. Fall flowers were used profusely in baskets, for wall adornment and on the platform where the musicians held forth. Boughs were fastened to the supporting pillars in the hall, the whole making a beautiful effect.

For refreshment the dancers were served delicious punch.

It is estimated by the committee of women in charge, of whom Mrs. R. S. Moore was the chairman, that the function will net about $45 toward the community house for Tecumseh, which the Monday club is so desirous of providing the city with.

Editorial Comment

ROAD CONSTRUCTION WASTE.

After spending thousands of dollars of the people's money in road construction it seems an unnecessary waste to let good roads go to destruction for the want of proper care. The time has arrived when it seems a waste to build expensive gravel roads without assurance of stability. Lenawee gravel roads are not receiving the attention they should. Take the new road south of Adrian. Ruts have formed and they have been allowed to remain and if the repairing process is not attended to the roads are certain to deteriorate.

In its construction of trunk lines, Michigan should profit by the experience of Ohio and Indiana. In these states, at a great expense, excellent roadbeds have been built of crushed stone. In a very few years the traffic, reinforced by the elements and lack of care, has destroyed miles of expensive road construction. Trunk lines especially should either be paved or protected from weather and wear by a durable surface. The first cost of completing a road in such a manner would be heavier, but the additional expense would insure more permanent construction besides economy in rebuilding or repair. An example near home is the Clinton-Tecumseh road, over which the traffic is heavy. Before the growing popularity of automobile locomotion, there was little difficulty in keeping the road in an excellent, smooth condition. Considerable money has been spent on this road this year with practically no benefit. The cost of gravelling and scraping would soon pay for a permanent surface treatment and relieve the farmers of clouds of dust.

HE'S A GREAT MAN WHO TAKES PAINS THESE DAYS.

It used to be a great virtue in America to take pains with your job, just as it was a great virtue to be thrifty and save money and wear patches.

But these things seem to have passed. We do our work after a fashion, most of us, and demand more and more money for it, whether it is labor we sell or goods.

Nevertheless, the men who ignore the world's fool ways today and take pains—infinite pains—are really great men. Take Seager Wheeler, the Canadian farmer, who was given a humdrum degree the other day by Queen's college, Kingston, Ontario. In 1883, he bought 160 acres from the Canadian Pacific railroad for $3 an acre. Year after year he selected the best seed of his wheat crops, planting them again, and again selecting them. His Red Bobs were the result of one redhead in a plot of white wheat from Australia. From it he harvested 60 bushels to an acre.

His "Kitchener" wheat he bred in the same painstaking way—one choice head after another. With the Kitchener he made the world's record of 82 bushels to an acre.

But he didn't make much money at it. He isn't rich. He hasn't extended his acres. He spent more time in painstaking experiment than on large crops. He spent time telling the more or less heedless government and public authorities about his experiments and it took time to explain his secrets to thousands of farmers whom he wanted to help. But one thing he DID do—fellow citizens—

His Red Bobs and Kitchener extended the limits of wheat growing 200 miles farther north in Canada so that through his pains wheat can now be grown on tens of millions of acres where no wheat grew before.

Hurrah for Wheeler!

THE AUTOMOBILE IN THE COUNTRY.

Some of the financial wise men are again predicting that the automobile industry has reached its peak.

We don't think so. Perhaps there's a peak in sight for the machines that today are running much above $2500 in price, but below that there are years of good business ahead. Only a few days ago the maker of one of the cheaper priced autos gave orders to increase production 33 per cent for the coming year. Other makers that are able to make in quantity a good machine and deliver promptly are no doubt preparing for the same thing.

The degree of prosperity in this industry depends, of course, on how good the times are going to be. They needn't be especially flush in this connection. If crops are reasonably good, there will continue to be much buying of automobiles in the smaller towns and on the farms. The automobile has been such a boon to the countryside that nearly everybody must have one before the movement is closed. The automobile has made the farmer a city man. It has brought him pleasures and many new comforts that he ought to have and that everybody should be glad to see him have.

If the big cities are near saturation with automobiles, the country is not, even though it has been a large buyer in the past.

The party had been on an eastern tour, visiting the White mountains and saw many beautiful cities and scenes. However, they confessed, while motoring over the perfectly smooth roads in the eastern states is delightful, Michigan, as an agricultural state, has no peer in beauty, especially in the productiveness of its broad acres of farms. Tecumseh, the party considered an especially beautiful little city. Mrs. Stevens when a little girl was a resident of this city, and, although she recalls to mind some familiar residences, many of the old landmarks have disappeared. The party also visited the cemetery, and here, Mrs. Stevens said, she felt more at home on seeing many well known names on the tombstones of former acquaintances. The party returned to their Detroit home Saturday.

Tipton is Wabbly, Series to Tecumseh

Independents Make Most of Opposition Weakness in Fourth and Win 3 to 1; Record Crowd Witnesses Locals' Triumph.

Staggery playing in one inning of Sunday's game on the local diamond resulted in the Tipton team losing this contest and the series to the Tecumseh Independents, a record crowd seeing the home men humble the visitors. Easlick was in the box for Tipton and Howe pitched for Tecumseh, and had the opposition hurler been given the proper support in the critical places the result might have been different. Both boxmen performed brilliantly, each allowing but four hits, and both teams made almost the same number of misplays, but those of the Tiptonites were the more costly as they came at a time when they were of the most help to the opposition. Double plays were a feature of the contest. Sunday's game was the third in the series between these two old rival teams and it being Tecumseh's second victory, the Independents have proven their superiority over the players from the neighboring town.

The baseball season will close in Tecumseh next Sunday, when the Independents will have the Clinton team to contend with. The rivalry between the players from this city and the woolen mills town is as keen as ever and as the Independents have made a compact to win the final game for 1920, thus ending the season victoriously, the coming engagement is likely to be bitterly contested. Clinton will not come here with the intention of tossing the encounter away, so the fans are looking forward to one more hot clash.

Up to the time that Tecumseh came to bat in the fourth inning Sunday's game was a fast one and neither side had scored. Westfall, the first man up, was walked. Blesing sacrificed but was safe at first when the third baseman threw wild. Hugh Hanna got on when the first sacker muffed a throw. Westfall scored as the result of Catcher Treat letting one get past him, Blesing tallied when Treat failed to stop another. In the meantime Bricker singled. Harris reached first on a wild throw by the catcher. Howe sent a fly to left field, Hanna scoring. Bricker was caught off second by a quick throw from left field. Harris was nipped in trying to steal second. This was the only scoring done by the locals, but it proved sufficient, as Tipton could get but one around, this being in the eighth.

Higley was walked and got to third when Harris threw wild to stop him at second. Andrews singled and H. Treat was also given a free ticket to first. Higley was retired at the plate on Baker's fielder's choice. Andrews scored immediately after, but Treat was caught at the tally station on Richardson's fielder's choice. Howe threw O. Treat out at first.

There was one double play made by Tecumseh and two by Tipton. Bricker was especially nimble, making desperate efforts to get under a number of fouls far outside his territory, but they were too distant. Harris and Bricker did all of Tecumseh's hitting, each getting two bingles.

The score in detail is as follows:

FORDSON

TRADE MARK

There are many Tractors clamoring for the patronage of the farmer. The very air is charged with the noise of claims. One would think that all the farmer had to do was to buy a tractor and he would enter into the Millennium.

Well, consider this fact—there are a great many different makes of Tractors. Tractors have been on the American market for twenty years. In that time some three hundred thousand Tractors have been sold to the farmers in the United States. The Fordson Tractor has only been on the market two years, and in that time more than one hundred thousand Fordson Tractors have been sold to the farmers of the United States.

Two and two make four. Two and two always will make four. If the Fordson Tractor had not delivered more good work, more satisfactory work, more economical work, than any other farm Tractor, it would not have sold in the ratio of anywhere from five and more to one. "The proof of the pudding is in the eating." The proof of the superior merits of the Fordson Tractor is in its larger sale and use.

The Fordson Tractor then asks you to buy it because of what it has done for your neighbors. It asks you to buy it on its merits. It asks you to buy it, Mr. Farmer, because you have use for it every day in the year. All the uses for the Fordson Tractor have not yet been uncovered because new places where machine power can take the place of human power, where machine power can supplant horse and mule-power, are being found every week, and wherever such discovery occurs, the Fordson Tractor will fill the bill more satisfactorily than any other form of power.

The Fordson is simple in design, and it is very strongly made of the highest quality of iron and steel. It is the product of the greatest mechanical genius the world has ever known, and it is most economical in first cost and after expense. The Fordson Tractor on your farm will increase the value of every foot of ground in that farm. It will put more dollars and cents into every hour you put into the farm.

Now why not have a Fordson right away? Take up the subject with us. Come in and get the details, and all the particulars. It is only a matter of time until you buy a farm Tractor—that is sure. So don't put it off when it means money to you to act promptly.

Urges Church and State Co-Operate

Rev. J. J. Preston Gives Absorbing Discourse on Problem Presented in Foreign Born.

That the church and state must co-operate in solving the perplexing problem confronting the nation in its foreign born population, was the message of Rev. J. J. Preston to his congregation in St. Peter's Episcopal church Sunday morning. The rector took for his text Leviticus 19:33-34, and his subject was "The Foreigner—A National Asset or a National Menace."

In developing his theme Rev. Preston gave a discourse that was of deep and timely interest, speaking in part as follows:

"Democracy and democratic institutions are faced with one of the gravest problems that this country has ever been called upon to deal with during her whole history. The foreign born and their children number something like 40 millions. Many of them are illiterate. In the state of New York there are 600,000 who are unable to either read or write in the English language. The majority of them are unchurched. For the most part they live in crowded, unsanitary quarters. They know absolutely nothing of the better side of American life. They are ignorant concerning the basic principles of democracy. We have here a problem which is simply appalling in its magnitude and most insistent in its demands. Moreover it is largely a problem for which we are ourselves responsible. The idea grew up that the foreigner was a treacherous outcast from Europe. That he belonged to a low order of society and that all attempts to raise him up and make a good citizen out of him was just so much wasted effort. During the war we were told that the German higher command regarded the common soldier as cannon fodder. Such inhumanity shocked us. We have nevertheless acquiesced in the view that regarded the foreigner as so much commercial fodder. We have looked upon him as a very efficient and necessary machine for the carrying on of our large public undertakings. He has dug our sewers, excavated our cellars, kept our railroads in repair, in fact any work which was in any way disagreeable we turned over to the foreigner. His lot has on the whole been a hard one. He has not had any opportunity of knowing anything about the better side of American life or American ideals.

"While we stood idly by and left the foreigner alone he has been preyed upon by radical leaders who have aroused his worst suspicions and led him to regard society as an enemy. Can we wonder that he hates us, when it has been drilled into him that society has been preying upon him and that he has not been getting proper [illegible]

"I am not trying to justify the foreigner. I am not passing judgment on his charges against society. But what I do want to make clear is this: That we have done nothing for him. We have given every radical a free hand in sowing the seeds of discord, and the unrest and anarchy which is so rampant in our large centers is a logical outcome of the policy that we have been following.

"We have lost an opportunity that we cannot hope will come to us again. That means that both the state and the church ought to combine and immediately counteract the hostile spirit that is so strong among the foreign born today. State and church must work together. Neither one can solve the problem without the active cooperation of the other. The state, by providing better housing conditions and better educational facilities, can do a great deal by way of bringing about a better understanding. But this will not solve the whole problem. Man is a spiritual being and his spiritual nature needs to be stirred into activity and trained along christian lines, otherwise he may use that very training we give him as a weapon against us.

"These sheep without a shepherd are a direct charge upon the church. We can't neglect them. To do so would endanger our whole social structure. We cannot look for a strong, virile national growth so long as we tolerate such unhealthy growths in our congested centers. But if we would be true to Christ, if we have any concept of the mission Christ gave His church, if we have been touched with the love of God that is in Christ we must go out to them. They are a charge which we dare not neglect.

"The Americanization of the foreigner is not a hopeless task. Wherever an honest effort has been made he has responded. What a wonderful opportunity we have at our door then of developing out of our foreign born, especially the children, a generation that shall be a source of strength. The Citizens Service League of Delaware has been endeavoring to familiarize the foreigners with the American ideals and institutions and the results have been uniformly satisfactory. Very timely is the warning of Mr. Mahoney. supervisor of Americanization for Massachusetts. 'The foreigner' he says, 'is being either Americanized or driven into anarchy by every experience he undergoes and by every condition to which he is subjected.'"

Look at the roads for twenty miles around on a Sunday

THERE isn't any "country" any more. The automobile has brought the most remote settlement almost as close to the center of things as the next county was in the old days.

II

To hear some tire dealers talk you might think that nobody knew anything about tires except the fellow from Broadway.

That's not the basis we go on.

We give every man credit for knowing what he is spending his money on, whether he drives up here in his small car from ten miles out in the country or is passing through from the capital in his limousine.

III

That's one thing we like about U. S. Tires.

They make no distinction between the small car owner and the owner of the biggest car in the country.

It's all the same to them. So long as a man owns an automobile—large or small—he's entitled to the very best tire they can give him.

Quality has always been the outstanding feature of U. S. Tires. There's no limit on the U. S. guarantee. All U. S. Tires are guaranteed for the life of the tire.

IV

We have given a lot of thought to this tire proposition. There is some advantage in being the representatives of the oldest and largest rubber concern in the world.

Drop in the next time you're down this way and let us tell you some interesting facts about tires.

Select your tires according to the roads they have to travel:

In sandy or hilly country, wherever the going is apt to be heavy—The U. S. Nobby.

For ordinary country roads—The U. S. Chain or Usco.

For front wheels—The U. S. Plain.

For best results—everywhere—U. S. Royal Cords.

NEW FORD GARAGE WILL BE IMPOSING

the things a modern Ford salesroom, garage and service station should have.

The entrance to the east will be of the vestibule type, one compartment leading to the stairs to the second story and the other to the room on the extreme east end of the building. It has not been positively decided what use will be made of this part. It may be utilized as an additional show room or it will be fitted up as a rest or tea room. Such a place is needed in Tecumseh, as tourists passing through here have often inquired for such a convenience and when the state paved highway is constructed on Chicago street through this city automobile traffic will be much heavier than it is now. A tea and rest room would also be a great convenience to the shoppers who come to Tecumseh, as the building will have toilet facilities for men and women, and if Mr. Williamson decides to establish such a place in this city it is almost certain it will be well patronized.

Four suites of offices will be on the second floor. One of these has been spoken for. They will be modern to the last word and it is anticipated before the structure is completed the other three will have been rented.

The department for storing cars will be the section extending 100 feet back of the two-story part and the width of the building. There will be 10,000 square feet of floor space in this department. An attendant will be on duty here day and night.

The repair department will be in the extreme north end of the structure. This will contain a complete machine shop and a full line of Ford equipment, consisting of special machines for testing and adjusting Ford cars and Fordson tractors. One section will be devoted to overhauling and repairing batteries and another for washing cars, this being so equipped that autos may be cleaned in the winter as well as in the summer.

In the basement will be space for storage of a large reserve stock of tires and Ford parts. The structure will be steam heated throughout and especial attention has been given to the ventilating and lighting.

The building will be as near fire proof as it can be made. The walls are of brick, while the floors are of cement. The outer walls are faced with red rug brick laid up in chocolate colored mortar. Between the first and second floors will be a belt of cement and the appearance of the structure is to be very attractive. There are fire walls between the work rooms and the front part of the building and fire-proof doors will be used to help reduce the hazard from possible flames.

As "service" is the keynote of the Ford sales and garage system this motto will be strictly lived up to in the new "Universal" car establishment in this city. In the parts and accessory department special bins will be built for the various pieces which go into a Ford and a trained man will be in charge that Ford owners may get service in every sense of the word.

Two new and improved gasoline service stations will be a part of the equipment, one to be located on Chicago street and one on Pearl.

When the building is completed a formal opening is to be held. What the nature of this will be has not been determined, but Mr. Williamson plans to make it of an elaborate character, in keeping with the size and importance of the building.

George Kempf is the contractor who is erecting the structure.

JUST GOT OVER A COLD?

Look out for kidney troubles and backache. Colds overtax the kidneys and often leave them weak. For weak kidneys—well, read what a Tecumseh woman says:

Mrs. F. B. Kennedy, 213 N. Pearl St., says: "I can speak very well of Doan's Kidney Pills so far as my experience has gone with them and can recommend them to anyone suffering from kidney and rheumatic trouble. I caught cold many years ago, while skating and sat down on the ice. Ever after that I was troubled with rheumatic pains. I was always worse [illegible] year. My kidneys didn't act regularly and in other ways showed signs of disorder. I would be dizzy by spells and had a tired, nervous feeling. I read Doan's Directory and noticed the statement of one who had been benefitted, so I went and got two boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills and began using them. I procured this medicine at Pulver's Drug Store and it helped me greatly. I am still taking Doan's and hope with continued use to get entirely rid of the trouble."

ALBERT VANES DIES AT FOOD TOWN SANITARIUM

As the result of a relapse following an attack of jaundice, Albert Vanes, widely known in this community, passed away at the Battle Creek sanitarium Sunday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock. He was 32 years of age.

Last winter Mr. Vanes suffered an attack of influenza and pneumonia, being in a very serious condition for some time. About two weeks ago he was taken ill with jaundice but had been on duty again following this attack and then suffered a relapse, complications developing, and he went to the Battle Creek sanitarium for treatment. The end came there.

Mr. Vanes was born in Adrian. He had been employed in Coldwater, Jackson, Detroit and operated a garage at Britton for two years. For the past two years he had been automobile and tractor salesman for L. E. Temple & Company and in this capacity had come in contact and made friends of hundreds of farmers in this vicinity, being very popular.

He is survived by the widow and a step-son, Lawrence Osler, his father, Dennis Vanes, of Coldwater, three sisters, Mrs. O. F. Burnholz, of Adrian, Mrs. C. A. Bradley, of Morenci, and Miss Eva Vanes, at home, and one brother, Dennis, also of Coldwater.

His remains arrived in Tecumseh Monday.

The funeral was held at the home on North Pearl street Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Burial at Adrian.

Her mother then went to live with her and resided with her until her death on December 22, 1902, the daughter tenderly caring for her until the last.

In 1905 Mr. and Mrs. Stitt moved to Tecumseh, where she made many friends. About three years later Mr. Stitt passed away.

THE TECUMSEH HERALD

Change Time Here on Saturday Night

ALL ASKED TO SET CLOCKS BACK AN HOUR

Central Standard Time Will be Resumed Here Same Day County Seat Reverts to Old Schedule.

Everybody in Tecumseh is requested to set clocks back one hour Saturday night as the city will resume Central Standard time Sunday morning, October 3.

The schools will open on Central Standard time next Monday morning in conformity with the return of the old time, and factories, stores and business places in general are urged to do likewise that there will be no confusion in regard to this matter. Sunday the churches will begin services according to Central Standard time and if all co-operate the change can be effected without any misunderstandings.

While the daylight saving plan was to remain in effect in Tecumseh until October 16, the county seat has decided to change back to Central Standard on Sunday, October 3, and to avoid confusion for those from here who have business in the Adrian courts it was thought advisable for this city to also revert to the old schedule that day.

As the railroad trains and the postoffice have been operating under Central Standard time all summer they will make no change and when Tecumseh adopts the former schedule again Sunday the confusion that has resulted from the two times will be a thing of the past.

It has been suggested that stores and business places in general set their clocks back when they close up Saturday evening. For the householder the ideal time for making the change would be upon retiring Saturday night, as this will give an extra hour for slumbering.

It does not matter, however, at what hour during the night the clock is set back for 60 minutes, the important point being that when Sunday, October 3, arrives all in Tecumseh will have gone back to Central Standard time and all other schedules will have been forgotten.

Cuts Corn All Day, Dies on Way Home

Albert Cadmus of Raisin Township Apparently in Best of Health When Death Overtakes Him.

While walking to the house after he had been working in his corn field all day Friday Albert Cadmus of Raisin township became faint and sat down to rest. In a few moments he fell over dead. It is believed the excessive heat and heart disease caused his sudden demise.

Mr. Cadmus, who was 57 years of age, was at the Lenawee county fair Thursday and cut corn all day Friday, being apparently in the best of health. About 5 o'clock that evening, with his brother, Sidney Cadmus, who had been helping him, he started to leave the corn field. He felt weak, however, and sat down to rest for a few minutes. It was shortly after this that he breathed his last.

The brother summoned aid and the stricken man was carried to his home. Later in the evening Coroner Henry W. Stevens of this city was summoned and after making an investigation was convinced that the exertion of cutting corn in the extreme heat which prevailed Friday brought on an attack of heart trouble which resulted in Mr. Cadmus' death.

Albert Cadmus resided with his sister, Miss Agnes Cadmus, on his farm about three miles southeast of Tecumseh. His brother, Sidney Cadmus, has a farm adjoining. The deceased was born on January 5, 1863, on the farm where he died. Besides the brother and sister mentioned he is survived by two other sisters and one brother, Mrs. John McIntyre of this city, Mrs. O. T. Ross of Toledo and John Cadmus of Macon.

Mr. Cadmus was a member of the Grange and had held offices in that organization. He was a bach[illegible]

Victory Day Proves Success in Clinton

LARGE CROWD ATTENDS DAY AND EVENING FESTIVITIES

Blissfield Loses to Clinton in Ball Game—Parade and Sport Contests Entertaining Features.

Victory day, the second annual celebration in Clinton Saturday, demonstrated that our sister town to the north is a live one, for the big event was most successfully carried out as advertised.

The parade, headed by Clinton's splendid band, was the opening feature of the celebration. The march was taken up about 10 o'clock, and in line besides the band were veterans of the world war in uniform, handsomely decorated floats, besides some of the comic variety. The ex-service men came in for their share of honor, the crowds applauding them all along the line of march. The floats attracted considerable attention, both for their artistic decoration and contents—several carrying loads of the blooming youth of Clinton. One outfit carried Chief Sam Mandoka and his family of Pottawatamie Indians, with Heap Big White Chief Uhrich occupying a seat of honor.

The contests attracted live interest, and consisted of all kinds of running and novelty races, a pie-eating contest by boys and a baby show in a store building.

The ball game in the afternoon was witnessed by a large crowd and Blissfield was defeated by the Clinton nine. The score was 11 to 3. In the box for Clinton was Ola Blanchard, a well known Clinton twirler, with L. VanGieson behind the home plate. "Bunny" Fabrique and Russell Boyd, former Clinton boys, were in the game with the home team.

The band concerts during the day and evening were much enjoyed, and the greeting among old acquaintances were pleasurable instances that were not infrequent.

The fireworks in the evening were beautiful and spectacular, making a fitting close of a successful celebration.

The day was a hot one and the numerous refreshment stands, especially those selling ice cream and cold drinks, were well patronized. The town hall, where ladies of the American Legion Auxiliary served refreshments, was also patronized by many town folks and visitors.

Rev. C. M. Thompson Leaves the Ministry

Pastor of Local Methodist Church Past Two Years to Reside at Birmingham—Has Preached for 46 Years.

After 46 years of consecutive service in the ministry of the Methodist Episcopal church, Rev. C. M. Thompson, at the age of 67, voluntarily retires from the active pastorate of churches. Mr. Thompson has for many years been one of the prominent ministers of Detroit conference, occupying pastorates in Midland, Sault Ste. Marie, Detroit, Lapeer, Alpena, Fenton, Hudson and Tecumseh, and for six years he was presiding elder of the Marquette district. He carried through large church building enterprises at Houghton, the "Soo" and Midland. His ministry has been marked also by an evangelistic zeal that has added many to the church membership in all the churches he has served.

He has led the Tecumseh church through two of the most strenuous and successful years of its history, viz: The Centenary drive for money, raising over $8,000 for that purpose the first year, and in the evangelistic campaign of the second year adding 76 souls to the church membership, most of these being young people.

During his term as presiding elder he reported over 900 conversions as the result of one year of evangelism in his district and at the end of his term of six years reported additions to the value of church property of over $200,000. He has directly led 14 young men into the ministry whom he leaves in active service as his successors.

At the time of his retirement and at other times during the conference session he was highly eulogized by Dr. Fruit, Dr. George Elliott, Dr. Maywood of Detroit and others.

During 42 years of his ministerial career Rev. Thompson has been ably assisted by his efficient and faithful wife, who has everywhere rendered most capable service in the women's societies of the churches.

They will make their future home at 223 Ferndale avenue, Birmingham, Mich., moving there in about two weeks.

HIGH SCHOOL FOOTBALL PLAYER IS INJURED

Lawrence Harrington, a member of the Tecumseh high school football squad, suffered an injury which may prove to be a broken shoulder blade while practicing Wednesday afternoon. The muscles of his shoulder are torn but it can not be ascertained positively as yet whether the shoulder blade is broken or not. His back is badly sprained.

The squad was practicing in anticipation of the game here Friday afternoon with Clinton. It is feared the injury will prevent Harrington from playing most of the season.

Men and Boys to Join in Feast

St. Peter's Parish House to be Scene of Father and Son Affair Friday Evening—Meeting of Vestry Held Tuesday Night.

Tomorrow evening, beginning at 7 o'clock, the men and boys of St. Peter's church will meet at the parish house for a feast, to be followed by a program which will include interesting features for both young and old. Weather permitting, a bonfire in the rear of the parish house, and here by the light of the flames the men and boys will join in disposing of the refreshments to be served.

The affair is given in honor of the class of boys taught by Perry Hayden, who Monday takes up his studies in the University of Michigan. The banquet will also serve as an introductory for the new teacher of the class, Prof. C. W. Price.

Arrangments for the function were completed at the vestry meeting held at the home of Lester Rogers Tuesday evening, when Mr. Hayden appeared before the board to explain his plans and seek cooperation.

All men of the church are urged to be present at this get-together meeting and be dad to a boy for that evening.

The Vestry Meeting—88th Anniversary of St. Peter's October 10.

One of the important matters discussed at the vestry meeting was the celebration October 10th of the 88th anniversary of St. Peter's church. The ladies of the church had been working on the idea and the vestry voted to co-operate in making the event a success.

It is planned to invite former members of the parish to a "homecoming" on this day and to make this feature a success all members are urged to present the names and addresses of such former members to the rector, or leave them at The Herald office.

Among other things it is planned to read the sermon used by Dr. Lister at the dedicatory exercises of the church. The robes worn by this early and eminent christian worker at the dedicatory exercises have been carefully preserved and may be used at the approaching event.

Townspeople, regardless of denomination, are invited to attend the service on the afternoon of October 10th.

Six or seven members of the vestry and the rector are planning to attend a banquet of the Diocesan Church club of Detroit to be given at the St. Paul Cathedral church house Tuesday evening, October 5. Important church topics are to be discussed, Bishop Williams and the Rt. Rev. Warren L. Rogers, dean of St. Paul's Cathedral, will be prominent speakers.

It was reported to the vestry that Glen Tansley and his sister, Miss Alma, have agreed to take charge of the choir, and that prospects for a large vested choir are excellent. Mrs. Preston has consented to act as organist.

It was moved and supported that the bequest of the late Tribou LeBaron, long a faithful member of the parish, be invested in Liberty bonds.

The meeting altogether was enthusiastic, as the prospects for fall and winter seasons of church activities in St. Peter's look bright.

Thompson of Tecumseh, father of the groom, the impressive ring ceremony being used.

The little Misses Janet Thompson of Ingersoll, Ontario, niece of the groom, and Kathryn Henig of Detroit, niece of the bride, acted as flower girls.

An excellent luncheon was served by the hostess. Many useful gifts were presented.

After a short wedding trip the happy couple will make their residence in Detroit, where the groom has a position with the Trussed-Concrete Steel Company as civil engineer.

The groom served his country 21 months during the war, being overseas 18 months.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gray of Raisin township have had as guests for a number of days their son, Horace Gray, and bride, the groom having served with the marines during the world war and gave a leg in the battle for liberty for all.

This war-scarred marine and Miss Lydia Gaupp, daughter of J. Fred Gaupp, of Elizabethville, Pa., were married on September 1 at Harrisburg, Pa.

Horace Gray was born and reared in Raisin township and graduated from the Tecumseh high school in 1911. Later he was a chemist for a furnace company in Toledo, Ohio, going from there to Steubenville, Ohio, where he also had a position as a chemist. It was while he was employed in the latter city that he enlisted in the service of his country. He joined up with the marines, being assigned to the 85th company, sixth regiment. He was with these brave fighters in more than one battle but during the Ballou Woods engagement he lost his left leg. He was in the service two years. The bride is a graduate nurse and it was while she was on duty in Washington that she met Mr. Gray and in the capitol began the romance which culminated in their marriage.

The government is to finance advanced education for Mr. Gray and he and his bride have gone to Ann Arbor where he will take a course in chemistry at the University of Michigan.

His many friends in and near Tecumseh extend hearty congratulations to Mr. Gray and his bride.

Editorial Comment

NO "BRICKS" INTENDED.

There was no intention whatever in the editorial last week under the caption, "Road Construction and Waste," to cast any derogative reflections upon the work of Lenawee county's board of road commissioners or superintendent of construction. Nothing of that kind was in the mind of the writer regardless of what impression the cold type may have inferred, for the members of the board are personally known to the writer, who does not hesitate to state that better men for the work would be difficult to find.

For years the writer has been intensely interested in Lenawee county road construction, and his pencil has been used to good effect in getting the work of more permanent building started in this county.

The statement last week that Lenawee's gravel roads were not receiving the attention they should was not intended to reflect upon the work of our commissioners or superintendent. They have a big job in Lenawee and it is unreasonable to expect a new gravel road to be perfectly smooth the first year under the very best conditions. The gravel has to be packed and scraped and scraped and packed until a solid surface is formed. Constant care is needed and we are reliably informed the roads are receiving it as nearly as possible.

In referring to the Clinton-Tecumseh road there was no thought of finding fault with the work done on that thoroughfare, but the object was more to call attention to the almost impossibility of keeping a road with such terrific traffic strain in anything near perfect shape. There probably is not a road in the county that is subjected to a more severe test than this outlet of Detroit, Jackson and other up-state points, and for that reason this road should be paved or permanently surfaced if such a thing is possible.

It was more to guard against mistakes in Michigan as made in Ohio and Indiana early road building that the article of last week appeared. However, Lenawee is not in any great danger of falling into the same mistakes for here we are using high grade gravel, which is more amenable to repair than stone construction.

Road construction for future traffic is a stiff problem, for auto and truck traffic has by no means reached its zenith.

FORD TRIMS PRICES.

"The war is over and it is time war prices were over. There is no sense or wisdom in trying to maintain an artificial standard of values. For the best interests of all it is time a real practical effort was made to bring the business of the country and the life of the country down to regular pre-war standards."

Thus announced Henry Ford last week in newspaper advertisements throughout the land. Following this stand by the Michigan auto monarch came a drop in price of several other makes of cars, and now we can look for a brisk automobile trade, for new cars will be bought by those that can afford them and the old ones will be gobbled up by those who haven't the price for a new outfit.

How far-reaching in the industrial world this price-reducing step will be felt seriously is a point for the near future to reveal. But it does seem high time that the American people should get off their high horse and come down to a natural, plain and sensible business life.

A STORY OF FARM COUNTRY PROGRESS.

In the big cities they still think it is smart to have their ancient "rube" and "hayseed" jokes.

It beats all how provincial and narrow people are when they are shut up in the canyons and the limits of big towns. They get so that they don't know how the world progresses.

A week in the rural towns and on the farm would open the eyes of the fellow who still jokes, as his father and grandfather did, about rubes. What is more up-to-date anywhere than the following:

A Kansas farmer, driving along a country road the other day in his Big Six automobile, turned a corner too sharply and went into a ditch. Carried into the nearby farm house, a farm hand who was a soldier in France gave him first aid and found that he needed skillful surgical attention at once. Taking down the farm house 'phone, the first-aider called up a noted surgeon in Kansas City, 75 miles away. In ten minutes the doctor was aboard an airplane and in less than an hour he was at the injured man's side. An hour later the operation was over and the patient was comfortably resting.

Thus, in less than three hours after the event, the life of an injured man had been saved on the scene of accident far back in the country, by a skillful physician from a great city many miles away.

Hayseed? Huh!

Print paper has not taken a drop in price, nor is it any more readily secured since Henry Ford used his pruning knife on war-time prices. The country publisher gets no encouragement whatever on the newsprint situation.

Only a few more weeks before the presidential election. Are you reading speeches and keeping posted on both sides of the argument, or will you vote as your great-grandfather did before you?

When in need of good job printing let The Herald job department serve you and solve any problems that may come up. Good work, quick service, new type faces.

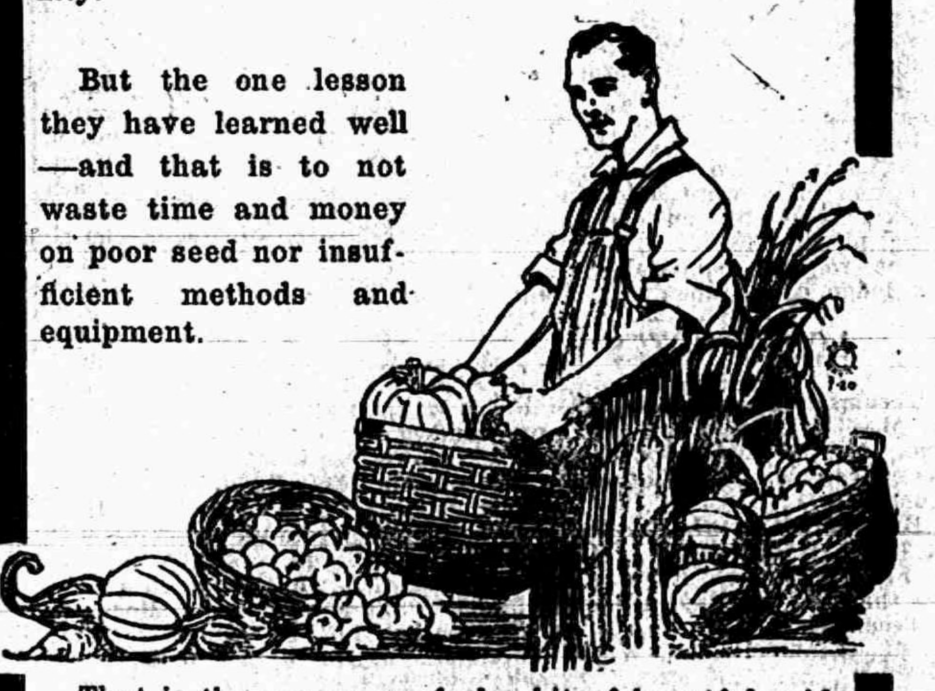
Bumper Crops

—Like those exhibited at our big fair do not "just happen." They are grown by experienced, hard-working, two-fisted agriculturalists—none better in the world than those right here in our own community.

But the one lesson they have learned well—and that is to not waste time and money on poor seed nor insufficient methods and equipment.



That is the reason we feel a bit of boastful pride in the wonderful production from this territory—because for a number of years we have furnished seed and efficient guaranteed farm machinery to the big majority of the farmers in this locality.

Voters in Tecumseh, either men or women, who are registered at present, do not have to re-register to vote at the presidential election. Many are laboring under the impression that every voter must register again before he can cast his ballot at the November election, but this law applies only in cities with a population of 10,000 or over. Only those who are not registered at all, or who have moved to another precinct since last registering, will be required to register before they can vote in the villages and townships.

Record Crowd Sees Fair Tecumseh Day

Attendance is 31,000 — Ladies' Band Makes Hit—Local Concerns Have Exhibits.

Tecumseh people and residents of this vicinity, by their presence, helped to make it a record crowd at the Lenawee county fair Thursday, 31,000 persons paying admission that day. It was Tecumseh day and this city was deserted, as the schools closed, stores were locked up and even the banks closed at noon that all might see the agricultural exhibits of this county on this big day. The Tecumseh Ladies' band provided the music for the day and many were the complimentary remarks heard after each selection.

The fair was at its best on Thursday, all the displays drawing crowds of admirers. The races were snappy and the other numerous features all attracted their share of the attention.

Several local merchants had exhibits at this year's fair, among them L. E. Temple & Co., Lenawee Produce Co., Tecumseh Big Chief Garage, W. L. Coller, Clark Gallup, Lester Coller, the Wm. Hayden Milling Co. had a large "1900" flour sign in a conspicuous place and J. F. Hialey had a number of buggies on display.

It was an exceptionally good fair this year and the people of Tecumseh made the most of the day they spent at the exhibit.

Considerable interest was taken in the Woman's Congress, as Mrs. Jenny C. Law Hardy of this city was a speaker on the big day. She told of the Moari race of New Zealand, relating many of the facts given in an address at the community service in the Methodist church here recently. She appeared in the garb of a Moari chieftainess for her discourse and held her hearers' closest attention throughout the talk.

During the musical part of the program a quartet number was given by Miss Lillian Kennedy, Mrs. Paul Hunt, Fay VanValkenburg and Harold Lowry of Tecumseh.

Post-Season Game Here Next Sunday

Tecumseh and Adrian to Battle in Athletic Association Benefit—Independents Score Twice, Blank Clinton.

Although they finished their schedule with a victory over Clinton here last Sunday, the Tecumseh Independents have agreed to play a post-season contest with Adrian for next Sunday, the entire proceeds to go to the Tecumseh Athletic association to add to the funds being raised to improve Athletic park. The county seat team is still nettled over the drubbing received from Tecumseh a few weeks ago and although victory next Sunday would bring no financial returns it is anticipated the visitors will battle just as fiercely as though it meant money. They want the satisfaction that results when a worthy foe is vanquished. This will be the last ball game here this season and the athletic association officials urge the fans to remember this and make the most of the final opportunity.

Sunday's game with Clinton was one of the fastest of the season the visitors being held scoreless, Tecumseh making two tallies. The victors waited until the eighth before they did any scoring, both their markers being made at this time. Pitcher Howe started things by getting his second hit of the day. He advanced on C. Hanna's sacrifice. Cole was hit by a pitched ball and both runners advanced when Rogers sacrificed. Westfall ended it when he hit safely, as Howe and Cole scored. Blesing was walked after this but O. Hanna fanned, retiring the side.

Up to the eighth inning Tecumseh went down one, two, three a number of times. Clinton threatened to score more than once, Cole having a great deal to do with preventing this, as he made two fast double plays unassisted. In both instances there was danger of the Clintonians sending a man around. It was a banner day for the Tecumseh second baseman, as he made one hit out of the two times he was at bat, brought in one of the two scores and played a star fielding game. Pitcher Howe also performed brilliantly, besides holding Clinton scoreless he scampered in with one tally and hit safely twice out of the three times he journeyed to the plate.

For the visitors VanGieson, Boyd and Prentiss were the sluggers, each pounding out a pair of hits, one of Boyd's being for two sacks. Boyd also figured in a double play, Clark and Fabrique being his accomplices, and he had a big day at first, retiring 15 runners at that point.

This is the detailed score:

Clinton—	ab	r	h	o	a	e
Hawley, ss	4	0	1	1	2	0
[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	0	0	0	0
VanGieson, c	4	0	2	2	1	1
Helmer, p	4	0	0	1	3	0

FORDSON

TRADE MARK

There is every reason in the world why every farmer should buy a Fordson Tractor, while there is not a single reason in the world why a farmer should not buy a Fordson Tractor.

In the claims we make for the Fordson Tractor as being the superior farm Tractor, there is nothing of boasting. Our claims are based upon demonstrated facts. In every sensible test that has been made (and we don't believe in any jockeying or technical tests) but in the real common sense work on the farm—the work the Tractor was intended to accomplish—we say, in all such tests the Fordson has stood head and shoulders above all competing Tractors. And this is best proven in the fact that while there are about three hundred thousand farm Tractors in use in the United States today, and while Tractors have been sold to farmers for twenty years, and while the Fordson Tractor has only been on the market two years, more than one-third of all the Tractors in use in the United States are Fordson Tractors.

Now you can't upset a fact. You can't back away from an established truth, and there it is—out of three hundred thousand Tractors, one hundred thousand are Fordsons, and there are probably some fifty different makes of Tractors on the market. Just let your common sense consider these facts. "Figs are not plucked from thistle bushes, nor plums from thorn trees."

The Fordson Tractor has the necessary power. It is economical in operation. It is flexible in control and operation. It is simple in design, and it is sturdily built of the best iron and steel. It is the product of the genius of Henry Ford, and it wasn't placed on the market until Henry Ford had tested it, and tested it, and tested it, before he asked the farmers to buy it. It is no idle faith that in the Fordson Tractor Henry Ford has given to mankind one of the greatest benefits which has ever come to civilized man.

Now we solicit every farmer to buy one or more Fordsons. Come in and see them. Come in and let us tell you more than we can in an advertisement. Let us demonstrate to you. Let us put it to every test that you ask. The Tractor is just as necessary for the farmer as water is in the house. Come in! Look over the Fordson. Test it. Don't take any chances. Don't experiment. Supply your farm with the Tractor of established value.

Our price delivered on your farm $805.00—ready to go to work.

HUDSON SUPER SIX

Hudson and Essex Cars Return to Bedrock Prices

Reduced $200 to $450

Thousands have planned to buy Hudson and Essex cars this Fall. For five years the Super Six has been the world's largest selling fine car. In 18 months Essex sales made an unmatched record. What must now be the demand for them at these bedrock prices? But labor and material shortages in early summer forced reductions in schedules for fall and winter, and now the return to normal in prices assures such an immediate increase in sales that a scarcity of Hudson and Essex cars seems certain.

Choose your car now. Learn how the price reduction increases its attractiveness, and remember that in either Hudson or Essex you obtain exclusive motors for they are patented.

You can save $200 to $450. Act promptly if you want delivery this fall.

Quiet, Pretty Home Wedding Yesterday

James Aaron Waldron and Ruth Margaret Keeney United—Both Well Known.

Autumn flowers served as a background for the simple but pretty and impressive wedding ceremony which united James Aaron Waldron and Ruth Margaret Keeney at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph R. Keeney, at 11 o'clock Wednesday forenoon. Rev. S. N. Oliver of Tipton performed the ceremony, the couple being unattended.

The words which made Mr. Waldron and Miss Keeney man and wife were spoken in the parlor, this room as well as the rest of the house being made very attractive with a profusion of autumn flowers of various colors. The bride was attired in a brown traveling suit and carried Ophelia roses. Only the immediate families of the contracting parties were in attendance.

Immediately after the ceremony a luncheon was served, the bride's table being graced with LaFrance roses. Mrs. Mattis catered and four girls, the Misses Katherine Patterson, Eleanore Caldwell, Margaret Turner and Dorothy Ihrkey, served.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Perry and Miss Emma Keeney of Saginaw, Mrs. Alice Dicky of Marshall, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rosacrans of Toledo and Frank Keeney, brother of the bride, of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Waldron will enjoy a two weeks' auto trip and will make their home in East Lansing.

The bride and groom are well known in and near Tecumseh. They were both reared in this place, spent their childhood days here and attended high school together. Miss Keeney is the daughter of Joseph R. Keeney. She graduated from Tecumseh high school, attended the University of Michigan and graduated from the Northwestern University. During the past year she has been teaching at Hibbing, Minn. Mr. Waldron is the son of Mrs. Charles Waldron. He graduated from the Michigan Agricultural college and at present is connected with the extension department of this institution.

Several pre-nuptial affairs were given in honor of Miss Keeney. Thursday at the Lavern Smith cottage at Wampler's lake a party was given by Miss Beth Satterthwaite, Miss Zilla Mills and Clara Waldron, the guests being eight girl friends of the bride-to-be. Luncheon was served, wild flowers, autumn fruits and leaves being used for decorations. This was a very pleasant function, those in attendance being Mrs. Perry Satterthwaite, Mrs. Athel Brainard, Miss Marian Rosacrans, Mrs. [illegible] Rosacrans, Miss Edith Shull and Mrs. Wilfred Waldron. A week previous Mrs. Keeney entertained. A week ago Tuesday Miss Edith Shull and Mrs. L. P. Williamson entertained at the former's home for Miss Keeney, progressive 500 being played. First prize, a pair of mahogany candlesticks, was won by Mrs. Perry Satterthwaite, who presented them to the honor guest. Refreshments were served.

DODGES ONE AUTOMOBILE, IS STRUCK BY ANOTHER

James R. Boyce was quite badly injured about the right arm about 7:30 Wednesday morning at the corner of Logan and Ottawa streets when he managed to dodge one automobile while riding to work on his bicycle but was struck by a second car. A machine driven by Floyd Williamson was coming from the west and another auto from the south. Mr. Boyce evaded the car coming from the south but was unable to get out of the way of the other and when he was hit his arm was cut near the elbow, the muscles were cut and he was bruised. He was taken to the office of Dr. H. R. Conklin. He is now resting as comfortably as could be expected. Mr. Boyce is employed at the Tecumseh Vulcanizing works.

They were attended by Donald and Norma Gorham, brother and sister of the bride.

The bride was becomingly gowned in a traveling suit of brown, with hat to match. After congratulations a two-course wedding breakfast was served.

The bride, a talented musician, is one of our popular young ladies, a graduate of our schools and of the state normal at Ypsilanti, and for the past four years has been an efficient music and art teacher at Homer and Tekonsha. The groom has a fine position in Jackson, where after a week's visit with relatives in Hillsdale county, they will reside and where they will be pleased to welcome their friends.

Obituary.

Jane Montgomery Craig, a highly esteemed resident of this vicinity for about a half century, passed away Sunday night at 9:30 at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Sam Patterson, north of town. Death was due to general breaking down and her advanced age.

Mrs. Craig was born in Antrim county, Ireland. April 11. 1835, and passed to her heavenly home September 19, 1920, making her 85 years, 5 months and 8 days of age. She was married to Charles Craig May 26, 1857. who passed away January 18, 1907. They came to America in April, 1865, where they reared a home which truly was an earthly paradise. To them were born nine children, three sons, James. Will and Charles, and six daughters, four of whom, Mrs. Anna Hendershott, Mrs. Jennie Harrington, Mrs. Ellen Hoagland and Mrs. Della Pattison, survive. She is also survived by 19 grandchildren.

She was a good wife, a loving mother and a kind and thoughtful friend, always ready and willing to help others. She was a faithful member for a number of years of the DeSpelder church. While she is gone, her kind deeds and loving example will live long in the memory of those who knew her best.

The funeral services were held Wednesday at 1 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Pattison and were conducted by Rev. Samuel Tamblyn. Many attended to show the respect and esteem in which she was held. The remains were laid to rest in Ridgeway cemetery.

Mrs. Fred. I. Scott of Adrian Admits Taking Savings of Tecumseh Friend.

An extremely high rate of interest was paid by Mrs. Fred I. Scott of Adrian in Justice Hosmer's court in this city Friday when she had to forfeit $38, in fine and costs, for having had two days' use of $25 belonging to Miss Jennie Koster without the owner's consent. It was this way, says Deputy Sheriff John B. Smith:

Some time ago Fred I. Scott was a molder in the H. Brewer & Co. foundry in this city, although at the present time he and his wife reside in the county seat. When he was employed in this city they had furnished rooms in the home of Mrs. D. W. Clark at the corner of Logan street and Maiden Lane. September 22 Mr. and Mrs. Scott drove to Tecumseh in an automobile purchased of a local garage some time ago. Among the places they visited while here was the Clark residence, Mrs. Scott going into the house but her husband remaining in the car. After visiting for a few moments Mrs. Scott said she believed she would go upstairs to see the girls who had rooms there, whom she knew when she resided here. Miss Jennie Koster of Dundee, employed in the macaroni plant, is one of those who has a room in the Clark home, but she was not in. She had $25 in her room, however. Mrs. Scott was upstairs only a few minutes and then came down and departed.

When Miss Koster returned she discovered her savings were missing and reported the matter to the deputy sheriff and told him of the visitor to her room during her absence. Deputy Smith suspected that Mrs. Scott was the one who had made the money disappear, especially after he learned the couple had made a $10 payment on their car that day. Armed with a warrent charging her with the theft, he called on the couple and accused the suspect. She and her husband denied the charge but after a grilling Mrs. Scott confessed. This was on Thursday. They were ordered to appear in Justice Hosmer's court in this city Friday morning and when she was arraigned Mrs. Scott pleaded guilty. She was ordered to return the stolen cash, was fined $25 and assessed $13 in costs.

Being unable to pay, she was taken to the county jail and confined for a time, her husband later being able to borrow sufficient money to settle the case. Mrs. Scott was compelled to hand her victim the $25 she had taken illegally, and to say that Miss Koster was overjoyed is stating it mildly.

Drops Dead On Wife's Birthday

HIRAM H. SMITH VICTIM OF APOPLEXY

Had Planned Surprise for Helpmate—Grief Supplants Joy in Aged Couple's Home While Children from Away are Present to Observe Mother's Natal Day.

A joyous birthday party was transformed into a group of mourners Monday morning when Hiram H. Smith fell dead from a chair at his home on Cummings street. It was Mrs. Smith's birthday and her children were gathered at the parental home to celebrate the event when death, in the form of apoplexy, snatched her husband from the happy gathering.

Mr. Smith, who was 81 years of age, had been to the business section on Monday morning as was his custom. He left his home about 8 o'clock and returned about an hour later. In anticipation of his wife's 75th birthday on Monday he had written to her children inviting them to come to Tecumseh to celebrate the event and all but one of them had arrived. He was joking with one of them when he fell out of his chair to the floor and was dead almost immediately. Dr. E. E. Hendershott was summoned but said nothing could have been done for the stricken man had a physician been present. He pronounced apoplexy as the cause of death. Mr. Smith had suffered a slight stroke in the spring and had been troubled more or less with heart disease. He had not been in the best of health for some time. He was a veteran of the Civil war.

Hiram H. Smith was born in Saline and had always resided in Michigan. November 28, 1867, he took Mary Redmond as his bride at London, Mich., she passing away January 25, 1891. Two sons born of this union survive, they being Rush Smith and Jay Smith, both of Fortuna, Cal. September 13, 1903, Mr. Smith and Mrs. Celia Irish were married in this city.

Mrs. Smith's children by her first marriage who were present to celebrate her birthday were her daughter, Mrs. Cora E. Culbertson, of New London, Ohio, and her son, J. B. Irish, and wife of Newark, Ohio. Another son, William Henry Irish, of Boston, could not come. Grandchildren and great-grandchildren present were H. Reid Culbertson, wife and daughter, Marjorie, of Cleveland and William C. Irish wife and son, Robert S. Irish, of Ft. Wayne, Ind.

The G. A. R. held funeral services at the home at 10:30 yesterday morning and prayer was offered by Rev. Edward Escolme of the Friends church. The funeral party proceeded to London, Mich., where services were held in the church at 2 p. m. Burial was made there. Rev. Escolme accompanied the remains to London.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to thank our friends for their many acts of kindness and flowers sent at the time of our brother's death.

Train Strikes Rig, Farmer is Killed

Henry Tirb Tossed 50 Feet on Crossing Near Farm Home North of Clinton—Horse Cut in Two.

Hurled 50 feet when his rig was struck by a New York Central passenger train Saturday afternoon at the crossing one and a half miles north of Clinton, Henry Tirb, a well known farmer of that place, suffered injuries which caused his death a few minutes later. Mr. Tirb was 62 years of age. He was somewhat deaf and it is believed he did not hear the warning whistle of the train.

He had been to Clinton to call on his brother, William, and was returning home when he met death. The crossing where the accident occurred is only a short distance from Mr. Tirb's home. The horse Mr. Tirb was driving was killed, being cut in two. The buggy was completely wrecked, pieces being scattered for more than a hundred feet. When the engine of the south-bound passenger train struck the rig the driver was thrown 50 feet, suffering injuries about his head, a broken arm and other wounds. The train was stopped and the victim was placed on board and taken to Clinton, but died soon after.

Mr. Tirb had resided near Clinton for 20 years and operated a farm about 40 rods from the crossing on which he lost his life. He is survived by the widow, one son, William, of Manchester, and the brother in Clinton.

The funeral was held Tuesday afternoon at 1 o'clock from the house and at 2 o'clock from the Lutheran church at Manchester, with burial at that place.

St. Peters Dad-Son Feast is a Success

Exclusive Male Function Proves Enjoyable Event.

Congenial and inspiring was the father and son feast at St. Peter's parish house last Friday evening, when men and boys of the parish gathered in honor of Perry Hayden and his Sunday school class of boys and to welcome the new teacher, C. W. Price, who takes up the good work of the retiring teacher who enters the University of Michigan.

A bon-fire in the rear of the parish house was a feature. Surrounding the fire were placed benches and here the men and boys enjoyed a feast of hamburger sandwiches and coffee. Ice cream and cake were served in the parish house and then followed a program of talks and music.

Perry Hayden presided and stated the object of the meeting, later calling upon others for remarks. Responding were C. A. Barber, Rev. J. J. Preston, C. W. Price, Geo. Hines and Wm. Bly. The latter gentleman also entertained with several instrumental (harmonica and guitar) and vocal selections that greatly pleased those assembled.

RIDGEWAY GLEANERS SERVE A SUPPER; MANY ATTEND

To help raise funds to pay for the new hall the Gleaners of Ridgeway recently purchased, this organization served a public supper in their meeting place Wednesday evening, about 150 being present. A program followed the feast.

Rev. Somers of Dundee was the speaker, giving an address which touched on social and fraternal matters and in which he pleaded for a more pronounced demonstration of the community spirit. Vocal and instrumental music added to the pleasures of the evening.

Among those from Tecumseh to attend were Mr. and Mrs. William Fletcher, Mr. and Mrs. John C. O'Neil and Mrs. Roy Prichard.

Tecumseh Now Has a Funeral Home

Modern Establishment, Long Contemplated, Completed by Guy E. Belding—Town Has Needed Such a Place.

Guy E. Belding, local undertaker, has just put the finishing touches on and opened an establishment at 110 West Pottawatamie street which will be known as a Funeral Home and thereby has provided Tecumseh with a convenience which only the larger cities could boast in the past and one that will fill a need long felt in this city. It is a place where funerals may be held away from the noisome traffic of the main thoroughfare and under conditions which will not tend to accentuate the grief of the bereaved relatives and friends.

The Funeral Home is located in the residence of the late C. A. Slayton, which has been owned by Mr. Belding for more than two years. Until recently it was used as a residence, renters occupying it. While Mr. Belding has been considering the proposition of establishing a Funeral Home in this building for more than a year, it was not until recently that definite plans were made to execute the idea. The result of his efforts is an establishment that is complete to the last detail and with appointments of dignity and appropriate in every way.

The front room on the east side of the lower floor is the parlor, handsomely equipped and ideally located for its purpose. To the rear of the parlor there is a chapel where funeral services may be held or where relatives of the deceased may gather to view the remains of their loved one, it being possible to shut this room off from the one to the front with heavy curtains.

On the west of the lower floor there are two rooms in which the most costly caskets will be displayed, the one to the rear connecting with the chapel by means of sliding doors should extra room be needed for services of a semi-public character. The extreme rear part of the building is given over to a small storage room, toilet accommodations and one room is equipped so that embalming may be done there.

The front room to the west on the second floor is used for the display of grey caskets, and back of this is a room in which caskets for children will be shown. In the room to the front on the east side upstairs only black caskets are on display and to the rear is a room where burial gowns and suits will be shown.

Most of the rooms of the house have been repapered and all the woodwork has been revarnished. Practically all of the furnishings are new. The establishment is electric lighted throughout and hot water furnishes heat for all the rooms.

All of the loading and unloading of caskets, etc., will be done at the rear of the establishment, the facilities being excellent for this. There is a driveway from Pottawatamie street through the yard of the Funeral Home and through the premises of Mr. Belding's residence abutting the old Slayton place to the rear, to Kilbuck street.

Those who have inspected the place have pronounced it exceedingly well appointed for the purpose for which it is intended.

Mr. Belding will not move his office to the Funeral Home, this continuing in his furniture store.

ROBERT EAGAN MADE EXTRA DRIVER OF THE FIRE TRUCK

Little business of vital importance came before the board of village trustees at its regular meeting Monday evening. Beginning with October the sessions start at 7 o'clock and there will be only one a month instead of two, as during the summer.

The committee on fire and fire limits reported it had made arrangements with Robert Eagan to be the auxiliary fire truck driver during the coming year, he to receive $35 for his services. The report of the committee was adopted.

The Tecumseh Big Chief garage was granted permission to sink a tank for gasoline in front of its new building on Chicago street.

A supply of electric light bulbs for the city's ornamental lighting system was ordered purchased and the payment of bills completed the evening's business.

Local 'High' Eleven Starts With Victory

Tecumseh Downs Clinton 12 to 9—Meets Addison Here Tomorrow—Outlook Encouraging.

In a game characterized by strong offensive playing by both sides the Tecumseh high school football team overcame Clinton on the local gridiron Friday afternoon by a score of 12 to 9.

Tomorrow afternoon Tecumseh clashes with Addison here and another close and exciting battle is anticipated.

The game with Clinton was the first one to be played by the local eleven and it was gratifying to Coach McNail that his men began the season victoriously. Both teams showed weakness on defensive playing but were effective when on the offensive. Lack of scrimmage and no second team to practice with prevented Tecumseh players from being at their best.

This is the way the local eleven lined up:

Cleveland went in at right end in the second half.

Will End the Season With Sunday's Game

Tecumseh Nine, Humbled by Adrian [illegible] County Seaters, [illegible] Deciding [illegible] October 10—[illegible] Athletic Association.

Adrian having defeated the Tecumseh Independents on the local diamond last Sunday afternoon in the second game of the series between these two nines, it was decided to have a third encounter to settle the question of supremacy. This deciding conflict will be held at Athletic park in this city next Sunday afternoon and will be the last baseball game to be played here this year. Last Sunday's contest was to have been the final one and was a benefit for the Tecumseh Athletic association. The battle Sunday will also be for the benefit of the local athletic organization. It is hoped there will be a very large attendance.

The local team was bested by a score of 5 to 3 in its clash with the county seat men Sunday, errors aiding the visitors to gain a victory. Three tallies were made by Adrian in the fifth, two fumbles by Skinner and hits by Wilds and Hassett causing the damage. Wilds made another hit in the seventh and scored with the help of two sacrifices.

Tecumseh staged a three-run rally in the seventh but it fell one tally short of evening up the score. Harris got on as the result of an error by Hassett. Bricker hit for two sacks, it being his second safe one for the day. Howe singled for the second time during the game and C. Hanna made a sacrifice. Cole drove out his second double for the afternoon and Rogers hit a sacrifice fly.

Adrian cinched it in the ninth by scoring once more as the result of a walk to Wilds, a sacrifice hit by Baker and a single by Gruel.

With Henry C. Spaulding of Lansing, commander of the department of Michigan, Past Commander Lamb of Detroit and Mrs. Wagner, patriotic instructor of the Daughters of Veterans, present as speakers, the G. A. R. boys of Beers Post look forward to an entertainment of unusual merit on Monday, Oct. 18.

The entertainment is given by the October committee, of which H. W. Stevens is chairman.

PLEASANTLY SURPRISED ON HER 25TH BIRTHDAY

Mrs. A. R. Knight was very pleasantly surprised Sunday on returning from Sunday school to find 23 of her friends busily preparing a pot luck dinner in honor of her 25th birthday. The afternoon was spent in picture taking and visiting, and all wished Mrs. Knight many more happy birthdays. They presented her with six silver teaspoons.

Those in attendance were Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Bryan and son, Mr. and Mrs. Leon VanValkenburg and two children, Mr. and Mrs. Dean VanValkenburg, Mr. and Mrs. Fay VanValkenburg, Mrs. Elizabeth Johnson, Mrs. Floyd Smith and daughter, Miss Maude Scofield, Miss Bessie VanAntwerp, Miss Ethel Curtis, Miss Bessie Johnson, Bert Johnson and Gordon Johnson.

SELECTS OFFICERS AND HAS POT LUCK SUPPER

Miss Kyle's Sunday school class met at the home of Mrs. J. W. Cupples Tuesday evening, a thoroughly delightful time ensuing.

About 40 partook of the bountiful pot luck supper at 6 o'clock. The tables and rooms had been beautified with autumn flowers, making an attractive setting for the happy event.

Mrs. J. J. Orr called the business meeting to order at which officers were elected as follows: President, Mrs. J. J. Orr; vice president, Mrs. Grant Schreder; secretary, Mrs. Martha Nye; assistant secretary, Mrs. Ethel Mathias; treasurer, Mrs. J. W. Cupples; assistant treasurer, Mrs. W. S. Dickinson; treasurer of flower fund, Mrs. R. J. W. Bowen.

Roll call was responded to with "vacation experiences," the members telling how they spent their vacations. Those responding were Mrs. John Wyrill, Mrs. N. E. Billings, Mrs. J. J. Orr, Mrs. A. D. Lawrence and Mrs. Chas. Benedict.

On the first Tuesday in November the class meets with Mrs. W. S. Waring.

Entertains for Mrs. Thompson.

Mrs. C. M. Thompson was the honor guest at a function given by Mrs. Charles Monroe at her home Friday afternoon, it being in the form of a farewell party. Mrs. Thompson and her husband, Rev. C. M. Thompson, will soon leave to make their home in Birmingham, Mich. Those present were members of Mrs. Thompson's Sunday school class, covers being laid for 30 at the pot luck supper which was served. Music and a pleasant social time made the occasion a delightful one. A purse was presented the honor guest.

SHEEP-KILLING DOGS MAKE NIGHT RAIDS

During the night or early morning Saturday dogs created havoc in the flock of feeding lambs on the Silvers farm about 3½ miles north of Tecumseh, upon which Clarence Hunt is tenant. Eight of the lambs were atacked and four were so badly mutilated that they were killed to end their suffering. Mr. Hunt saw the dogs and identified two of the animals.

Earl next morning L. A. VanGieson, south of the Silvers farm, discovered a dog rounding up his flock of lambs. He got after the marauder but was unable in the darkness to identify the canine, which headed at top speed across the river toward Newburg. On this farm six lambs suffered from the attack, several of which were badly mutilated.

WIT AND WISDOM CLUB HAS ITS FIRST MEETING OF YEAR

For its initial meeting this season the Wit and Wisdom club gathered at the home of Mrs. B. Hurry Monday evening, an interesting session resulting. There were about 30 present. Instrumental music was provided by Mrs. Wilfred Waldron and a paper of unusual interest on "Poland" was read by Dr. L. G. North. Fred Dickinson sang a pleasing vocal solo, this being followed by an absorbing paper on "Armenia" by Mrs. J. O. Eaton. Roll call was responded to with facts about the two countries mentioned.

The committee served refreshments and a delightful social time followed.

In two weeks the club meets with Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Howard.

JUNIOR BROTHERHOOD OF ST. ANDREW FORMED

Five Boys Assume Obligations at St. Peter's Church Sunday.

The services at St. Peter's church Sunday morning were again of a more than usual interesting character, for at the usual worship hour five boys were admitted into membership of the Junior Brotherhood of St. Andrew, a new organization in Tecumseh.

Perry Hayden presented the young men to the rector, Rev. J. J. Preston, who, in a [illegible] impressive ceremony, received the youths into the order.

Those joining the order were Glen Hines, Webster Anderson, Fred Temple, Lavere French and Zadok St. John.

The Junior Brotherhood of St. Andrew stands for the extension of the work of Christ, each member assuming obligations of work in the kingdom, including daily prayer.

Rev. Preston preached an excellent sermon on personal service, which was appropriate to the occasion. Holy Communion followed the sermon.

REV. THOMPSON TO PREACH FAREWELL SERMON SUNDAY

What is to be his farewell sermon is to be preached by Rev. C. M. Thompson at the community service at the Baptist church Sunday evening. Rev. Thompson, who has been pastor of the local Methodist church for two years, has decided to retire, being succeeded by Rev. W. A. Gregory of Deerfield. It is anticipated there will be a large attendance at the Sunday evening service as Rev. Thompson's many friends will no doubt desire to hear his farewell message.

Last Sunday the community service was held at the Methodist church, the new pastor being the speaker. There was a large attendance and all were impressed with Rev. Gregory's sermon.

That is the reason we feel a bit of boastful pride in the wonderful production from this territory—because for a number of years we have furnished seed and efficient guaranteed farm machinery to the big majority of the farmers in this locality.

Editorial Comment

ONLY ONE TIME NOW.

Although nearly everybody favors the daylight saving plan during the summer months, it is with unfeigned relief that we get back to one kind of time. Saturday night at midnight, when clocks were set back one hour, put an end to the confusion of two kinds of time. If the daylight saving plan should be adopted again next year concerted effort should be made to induce the railroads to observe the same hours. Otherwise the plan is not at all feasible in many instances.

TAKING OFF BUMPS.

Autoists to Adrian are ready to commend the city and county commissioners for their co-operation in removing the bumps from the Bent Oak avenue entrance into the county seat city. It was an uncomfortable detour for autoists to bounce over in their efforts to enter the city. The road has been plowed, rolled and dragged and now the trip can be taken with a little more comfort. Work on the pavement on North Main street is progressing and as soon as this is completed Adrian autoists will have a fine road directly into Tecumseh until they reach our Chicago street. However, this is not quite as bumpy as the Adrian detour was.

SHEEP DESTROYING DOGS.

Every year farmers feeding lambs are harassed by sheep-destroying dogs that are allowed to roam at will during the night hours when farm households are enjoying needed sleep and rest from daily toil. These dogs are a costly menace to a community and should be sharply looked after. They not only savagely kill and mutilate, but they damage entire flocks through fright and terror.

The sheep-killing dog should be chained or destroyed, no matter how valuable he may be to the owner. At best the dog is not worth the amount of damage inflicted upon a flock of sheep or lambs in one of its savage raids. There are only two safe-guards against these costly and shameful depredations—extermination or chaining up of every dog at night. Farmers are attached to their dogs and many are difficult to convince that their pets are guilty of sheep killing but if they really value them they should chain their dogs at night for safety sake.

WHEN A BIG CITY MIGHT TAKE PRIDE.

The ten or fifteen largest cities in the United States are still crowing about their largely increased population, as shown by the 1920 census.

For the life of us we can't see what they have to brag about. When you go to one of these overgrown communities, the first thing that strikes you is crowded street cars. Crowded? That's a mild word. They are packed and it is common to see men hanging on to the steps and the dash boards behind in actual danger of their lives. None of these big cities have enough street cars. Moreover, it is a part of the traction companies' financial policy to have packed street cars during several hours of the day.

Pick up a newspaper of any of these big cities and you learn that the city hasn't enough homes to shelter its huge population. Every one of them is short from 5,000 to 100,000 houses or living apartments. Result: Working people paying from $50 to $125 a month for a five or six-room house or flat.

The school term opened recently in all these cities. None of them has room enough for all the children of school age. In an average big town like Cleveland or Pittsburg or Detroit, tens of thousands of children cannot be accommodated. Hundreds of schoolrooms have 20 to 40 pupils too many, so that none in the room can be properly educated.

Some day, cities will take pride not in great populations, but in the fact that people can ride to work and back again comfortably, that they have homes enough for every family and that there are schools enough to properly educate their little children.

WHEE! CANCEL A TEN BILLION DOLLAR DEBT?

Suppose you had a customer whose trade with you netted you a $10,000 a year profit for 20 years back and more. Suddenly everything went bad with him through no fault of his own. He owed you $10,000 and was on the point of blowing up for good. But if you said to him: "Never mind the $10,000. I'll cross it off the books and we'll call it square; now you start over again." Wouldn't that be good business on your part? Wouldn't that probably result presently in a return to you of that profit of $10,000 a year, or maybe $5,000, from your old rehabilitated customer?

Well, the foregoing is the argument of the advocates of the plan of remitting to our late allies the ten billion dollar debt they owe us. It is explained that this awful debt is largely the cause of the low exchange rate between French, Italian and English money. When the French franc, for instance, is only worth 5 cents over here instead of 20 cents, it makes it poor business for France to buy anything from us. So also with England and Italy. It is better for them to buy from their colonies, or from Asia or South America or even Russia, where money is cheaper than their own. Thus we will lose export business. But if we cancel the debt, help those countries to put their money on a parity with ours, we will send more and more exports to them. So argue the advocates of the plan.

Ten billions of dollars is a big debt to cancel and the proposition looks dubious, anyway, at first glance. But it's a question we should all think over carefully.

In some way or other the credit of Europe, including Germany, must be made better if this America of ours is to prosper. The credit can't be all one-sided.

UNIQUE PARTY IS HELD BY CIRCLE NO. 2, M. E. CHURCH

Invitations in the pockets of little aprons summoned the friends of Circle No. 2 of the Methodist Ladies' Aid to that church Thursday evening for a pleasant little party. The ladies were invited to bring a cent for each inch of their waist measure and the gents cents corresponding with the number of their collars and size of their shoes. It was noticeable that large waisted women and long footed men were greatly in the majority.

The lecture room was gay in streamers of red and white tied with bunches of bitter sweet and in the centerpieces of the small tables filling the room were baskets of the same beautiful shrub.

After an hour in visiting a delightful program was given. The numbers, as announced by the president of the circle, Mrs. F. E. Smalledge, were as follows:

Selection—Waldron's orchestra, composed of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Waldron, Mrs. Howard Matthews, Walter, Ed and Elmer Harper and Maurice Coller.

Reading, "The Church Fair"—Mrs. W. D. Willett.

Piano duet—Mrs. Wilfred Waldron and Mrs. Ed Harper.

Vocal solo—Ernest Church.

Reading, "The Condoling Visitor"—Mrs. W. D. Reed.

Trombone and cornet duet—Wilfred Waldron and Ed Harper.

Violin solo—Mrs. Matthews.

Selection—Orchestra.

Miss Emma Rogers then read a splendid tribute of appreciation of Rev. and Mrs. C. M. Thompson, the departing pastor and wife, to which Rev. Thompson responded.

The tribute was as follows:

As members of the Tecumseh Methodist Episcopal church we wish to express to Rev. C. M. Thompson, who is departing from our midst to make his home in Birmingham, after having labored among us during the past two years, years fraught with much of importance to our nation and our church, our love and esteem for him as a pastor, advisor and friend.

We wish to express our heartfelt appreciation of his work and life among us as a pastor, making clear to us the words of life, sharing with us our joys and sorrows and leading many to a saving knowledge of our Redeemer.

As he enters the superanuated relation of his church may he feel assured that our earnest prayers for God's richest blessings rest with him and his beloved wife who has endeared herself to all our hearts, and may the knowledge of many years of work well done fill their more quiet hours with many happy memories. May they realize fully that our kindest thoughts and best wishes will be ever theirs.

We wish also that these words be printed in the Tecumseh Herald and the Michigan Christian Advocate.

Frank J. Temple, Secretary.

Central Standard time is again in force in Tecumseh. The change from Eastern time was made Saturday night and on Sunday morning the town woke up under the schedule which was in force before the daylight saving plan was evolved. This puts Tecumseh back on the same time schedule by which the railroad trains and the postoffice have been operating.

Volley ball is finding a number of devotees among the business men of Tecumseh. The opening play night was held at the high school Friday with a good attendance. Rev. W. A. Gregory, the new pastor of the Methodist church, preached his first sermon before his Tecumseh congregation Sunday morning and made a favorable impression. In the afternoon he gave an address for the Methodists in Tipton and spoke here again in the evening at the community service at the Methodist church and was heard by a large number of worshippers.

Pythian Sisters from Tipton were entertained last Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Jewett Whelan and with the guests present from this city it made a party of more than 40. Music and a social time made the occasion a very happy one and refreshments were served. Mrs. William VanAntwerp, Mrs. Hoyt Whelan and Mrs. Guy Belding were among the local guests. A committee from the Tecumseh Pythian Sisters assisted Mrs. Whelan in entertaining.

There was much interest shown in the fall opening held Saturday by Karl A. Braman, jeweler and optometrist, as many visited his store, which was made very beautiful for the occasion. The majority of those visiting the store were women, as it had been announced each member of the feminine sex to appear would receive a favor. When it became known that the favor was a rose the place proved doubly attractive. The special decorations included rambler roses in wall pockets, these to remain permanently, bitter sweets, Virginia creeper, palm trees, fruit in dishes and bouquets of natural flowers. New drapes had also been provided for the shelves and with the recently repapered and repainted walls and ceiling for background the effect was most attractive and fetching. Music was an entertaining feature.

Lyceum Course of Great Merit Coming

High School to Provide Four Superior Entertainments During the Winter.

Announcement is made by the high school authorities that a course of Lyceum entertainments will be given again this year, but the numbers will be much more attractive than those given in the past. Four Redpath programs have been booked and each is of a character to provide entertainment that has been highly praised wherever presented. The dates of the attractions have not been received.

The Landis singing orchestra is the musical number among the attractions, this offering being of a high order and presented with elaborate settings. William Rainey Bennett will give a lecture and his magnetic personality and gift as a public speaker lift his discourses far above the average address. "The Climax," a dramatic masterpiece of comedy and music, is unique in lyceum entertainment and is expected to make as decided an impression here as in the larger cities. The fourth number will be given by John B. Ratto, an impersonator of marked talent.

William Rainey Bennett is known in the lecture world as "The Man Who Can." He has a lecture on this subject, the theme of which is that "he can who thinks he can;" that in every brain there is a sleeping genius and that it can be awakened. The lecture which he gives helps young men and women to find themselves. It gives them health, poise and power. It is said to be different from the ordinary lecture of this type. Every laugh comes in naturally. Nothing is forced.

William Rainey Bennett was raised on a farm and, like so many successful men of the present day, has many a time warmed his bare feet on frosty mornings where the cows have lain. He worked his way through college. Starting in with $10, he graduated with money in his pocket, having paid his way by singing. Since then he has done post-graduate work in two universities. His sermon lectures have been published in full as features of some of the metropolitan newspapers.

The programs of John B. Ratto comprise impersonations in make-up of many different characters, and these combine to make a grand panorama of associated characters. This program is so well connected that one character after another follows in logical order.

A novelty also in itself is the fact that Mr. Ratto makes up for each characterization before the audience. He pencils in full view of the audience, telling an appropriate story all the while. Penciling finished, he turns quickly to the table mirror to adjust his wig, facing about [illegible] with the accuracy of his presentation.

Mr. Ratto is a psychologist. While most of his program is of a humorous nature, here and there he slips in a touch of the darker side of life that never fails to score heavily and bring handkerchiefs to the eyes of many. He has swayed many an audience from laughter to tears.

"The Climax"—musical, dramatic, humorous—is unique in Lyceum entertainment. For two seasons the play thrilled New York. Subsequently five road companies played to capacity audiences. Revival of the production by the Redpath bureau was made possible by the personal co-operation of the author, Edward Locke, who organized and coached the present cast.

In "The Climax" the ever-popular theme of love versus ambition is presented most entertainingly.

The Landis Singing Orchestra is composed of a group of experienced lyceum artists who by years of hard work have prepared themselves to give a high class program of great variety and full of life and vim.

Four men and two ladies compose the company. The four men have had several seasons' experience together as a male quartet and four-piece orchestra. The two ladies have had an equally long experience with ladies' singing orchestras. They all had a long chautauqua season together before coming to the lyceum.

All have made a success of their individual work in former organizations and now are combined into a splendid ensemble company. The organization will appear in orchestral and vocal sextets.

FORDSON

TRADE MARK

A Fordson Tractor on the farm means more prosperity for the farmer. It doesn't make any difference how you spell that prosperity—whether it is in increased production; whether it is in the saving that comes from a machine over a horse or a mule; whether it comes in a release from the drudgery and all-day and all-night labor on the farm for both man and wife—because the Fordson answers all those problems to the satisfaction of the farmer.

It can't be otherwise. These are the days of progress, and power on the farm is the necessity. It is only a question of what kind of power the farmer is going to have, but no farmer with the facts now before him can question the monetary advantages of machine power over horse and mule power. The Tractor is the farmer's necessity just as much as the sun is the necessity for growing crops.

All that is necessary for a farmer is to know his Fordson Tractor as familiarly as he understands handling a team of horses. He wants to use the same amount of reason and common sense. In the Fordson Tractor is the concentrated power of eighteen horses, and as flexible as the movement of your arm—much more flexible than horse control—and beyond all comparison much more economical both in service and in keep. Then it will do so many things that horses and mules cannot do, and it doesn't eat while idle.

We don't believe there is any question in the mind of any farmer as to the necessity for a Tractor, but he may have some doubts as to what make of tractor, so that is the reason we are putting this advertisement in this paper to draw his attention to the Fordson Tractor. This is why we put the above arguments before him, and why we now invite him to come in to our place of business and view the Fordson Tractor. Let us show him what it has done. Let us prove to him its superiority over any other Tractor. It means more to him than it does to us. When we sell a Tractor, we make a small profit, but when he buys a Tractor he buys a power that is working for him every day in the year; that is, if he buys a Fordson—we can't speak for the other kinds. Come in!

Which Is the Luckiest Telephone No. In Town?

Are some phone numbers luckier than others? Over in Japan the number "8" is much sought after and it costs the "lucky" one $500 a year. Then they next try for number "357."

But numbers 42 and 49 are unlucky—they say—so police stations get them.

OUR TELEPHONE NUMBER IS 246

ELABORATE PLANS MADE FOR ADRIAN'S GALA DAYS

To have them eclipse any thing of the kind in the past, Adrian is going the limit in making preparations for the gala days to be held there October 20 and 21. Everybody is invited to visit the county seat on these days and enjoy the many attractions to be offered.

The occasion is to be made extraordinarily festive, committees now being busy working out details. School children are to present an historical pageant, prizes ranging from $10 to $50 being offered. A large band, composed of musicians from all over the county, will furnish the music. The gala days are also to be in the form of a home coming.

What is expected to be the most elaborate display of fireworks ever seen in Lenawee county will be given the night of October 20. The next evening will be given over to an "All-Fools-Night." 500 costumes for this occasion to be secured from a Detroit concern.

The committees in charge of the gala days are working feverishly to make the event remarkably attractive and it is anticipated the attendance will be large.

To create interest in the festivities a band and a large number of boosters will tour the county on October 14, making the trip by auto, the caravan to arrive in Tecumseh at 11:30 a. m. Here is the time of arrival of the boosters at the various places in the county:

ST. PETER'S CHURCH 87 YEARS OLD SUNDAY

this anniversary ought to be fittingly observed.

"St. Peter's church is undoubtedly the pioneer parish of the west. All the development of our great west is subsequent to the erection of St. Peter's. As the Reverend W. N. Lyster put it 87 years ago: 'This is the most westerly Epsicopal edifice, which stands on the main highway of western migration.' Our church, which is one of the oldest buildings in the middle west, is still in a remarkably good state of preservation. It stands as an evidence and witness to the devotion and steadfast faith of the early pioneers.

"It seems to us that nothing could be more fitting than that we should make this 87th anniversary an occasion of deep thanksgiving to Almighty God for the example of those early pioneers who did not hesitate to make sacrifices in order that the worship of God should be conducted in a suitable edifice consecrated to His holy service. Those were days when men and women had to endure hardships, practice self denial and make sacrifices. We are prone to idealize the past and in doing so we forget about the hard toil and burdens of those early days. Nor must we forget those noble souls who have during the past 87 years kept St. Peter's going. Amidst all the changes and vicissitudes of those of the past there have always been valiant men and women who have stood by the church. Let us thank God for these champions of the truth. Furthermore, let us pray that this service may lead to a re-awakening of our church life and interest. No one can estimate the influence of St. Peter's in the past. But her mission is not by any means ended. Grave tasks and responsibilities face the church today, and we must not shirk our duty. In former days St. Peter's was an outpost. Today our role has changed somewhat. We are to be a base and bulwark for the church—a source of strength where the outposts of the church today may look for help and encouragement and sympathy.

"The services on Sunday next will be a celebration of the Holy Communion at 9 a. m. and Evensong at 4 p. m. At the afternoon service (D. V.) the robe worn by Mr. Lyster at the opening of the church will be worn by the rector and the sermon which he preached will be read."

Monday Club Starts Year Auspiciously

Many Members Hear Dean of Women at Ypsilanti Normal Give Absorbing Talk on United States' Government.

A large number of Monday club ladies greeted Mrs. Bessie Leach Priddy, dean of women of the Ypsilanti Normal, at the M. E. church Monday, the occasion being the opening session of the organization's work for the year.

The meeting was called to order by the new president, Mrs. F. S. Turner, who, in a few sentences, told of the club's plans for the year and of her desires for a happy, instructive and helpful season for this large organization.

Mrs. R. S. Moore, as chairman of the music committee, conducted the community singing, which proved such a pleasing feature last year. As the club is to study America the larger part of the year, Mrs. Moore appropriately opened her program with the singing of "America." Later she and Mrs. E. C. Heilman sang a number of Indian songs as coming from the real Americans. These were very delightful, the accompaniments being played by Mrs. F. B. Wood.

Mrs. Turner then introduced Mrs. Priddy, whose virile address was listened to with rapt attention, her subject being "The Origin and Nature of Our Government." She outlined the history of governments from the tribal rulings to the present choatic conditions throughout the civilized world. She said even religion is undergoing its upheaval, but tends toward the service for the other man. "We have ahead of us a true industrial and social democracy to be worked out," declared the Ypsilanti lecturer. She continued:

"Our wonderful constitution was derived from the Magna Charta of England of 1216 and now, owing to our different condition and life, is sadly in need of remodeling. Under the present law of electing senators for six years, a president every four years and representatives for two years the conditions which have prevailed in our govenment for the past two years are bound to result. Two years ago a Republican congress was elected, which has completely bound the hands of our Democratic president and things with us have been at nearly a complete stand-still, and at this age when the whole world is looking to us for leadership." As Mrs. Priddy described it, "a monkey wrench was thrown into the machinery of our government."

She asserted: "You come to this election with no enthusiasm, no confidence. A crowd of men met at Chicago in the Republican convention, put up their senatorial candidate, one of those who has helped tie up things the past two years, and said: 'The public be damned.' Then another bunch of men met in San Francisco in the Democratic convention, put up their man and also said 'Let the dear public be damned.'

"One man has said: 'If you women enter politics you'll have to carry your handkerchiefs to your noses.' If the women would attend the caucuses, take part in the ward, village, county, state and national politics soon you would have perfume rather than foul odors."

Mrs. Priddy advocates a number of changes. One is that the senators be elected for less than six years and congressmen for more than two, nor should it be 13 months after they are elected before they can take their offices. The American people should vote for issues instead of parties. They must get away from the fetish of state's rights. In all we must stand back of the government.

Following the address lunch was served by Dr. Pauline Bredow and her committee.

The room was elaborately decorated in red and white, the strands fastened with sprays of bittersweet. Baskets of fall flowers were on the desk, piano and window seats and the effect was indeed lovely.

Next week Dr. Bredow will be leader, with papers on local and state government given by Miss Marion Bills, Mrs. W. J. Morse, Mrs. F. E. Snedicor, Mrs. E. M. Lewis, Mrs. J. O. Eaton and Mrs. John McIntyre. There are many new names to be received also at this meeting.

A. in Adrian Monday morning, Rev. Edward Montgomery of the county seat being the speaker. The sessions are held the first Monday in the month.

Curtis of Tecumseh, president of the association, will lead the discussion on "Doctrinal Differences and Christian Fellowship" at the session January 3. On May 2 "Marriage and Divorce" will be the subject, with Rev. Edward Escolme of this city leading the discussion.

Tripp at the wheel collided at the corner of Chicago and Pearl streets Wednesday morning, both machines being damaged. The left front wheel on Mr. Routson's automobile was so badly bent that the car had to be taken to a garage for repairs. Mr. Tripp's auto was but slightly damaged. Mr. Routson was going north on Pearl street and the school commissioner was traveling east on Chicago.

St. Peter's Guild and the Ladies' Auxiliary of the same church met at the parish house Tuesday afternoon, a business and social session being held. At the business meeting of the Guild a number of matters were taken up. The session of the Auxiliary was in charge of Miss Louise Phelps. The devotionals were led by Mrs. J. J. Preston. Mrs. Adamson read an interesting article about the hospital in Arizona which has been receiving the support of the ladies. Miss Etta Thorpe of Los Angeles, Cal., was a guest. Mrs. Fred O'Dell and Mrs. Floyd Freeman's committee served refreshments, consisting of tea and cake. When the mite boxes were opened it was found they contained $16.29, and as all the boxes have not been handed in this sum will be swelled.

PROMOTER OF SILK INDUSTRY FOR U. S.

Dr. Varton K. Osigian of New Orleans, Armenian, now an American citizen, is a descendant of a family which had been in the silk weaving business in Armenia for 798 years. Dr. Osigian is the only remaining heir to the art of silk making, as the entire family was wiped out by massacres and the war. Adding scientific research in two universities to his inherited knowledge of sericulture he now has a great understanding of this profitable business and is endeavoring to induce capital to take up the industry in this country.

HERE'S PROOF

A Tecumseh Citizen Tells of His Experience.

You have a right to doubt statements of people living far away but can you doubt Tecumseh endorsement?

Read it:

Thomas Langton, retired farmer, W. Chicago St., Tecumseh, says: "I can recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to anybody I know; they are a good kidney remedy. I had kidney complaint awfully bad and suffered a lot with my back. My kidneys acted irregularly and were unnatural. I used Doan's Kidney Pills from Wright & Son's Drug Store and they strengthened my back and regulated the action of my kidneys. Doan's benefitted me in every way."

The above statement was given July 27, 1916, and on May 3, 1920, Mr. Langton said: "Since endorsing Doan's Kidney Pills publicly, I have used them several times, if through having taken cold, I have noticed a return of any trouble. Doan's, at such times, have never failed to give me relief from the ailments."

"We Do Sell for Less"

'We Do Sell For Less'

We will run in this paper this week some of the reasons why "We Do Sell for Less." It will be to your advantage to read carefully these tremendous money saving values and act accordingly.

These reasons will be good until Saturday, Oct. 16, but do not put off buying until the end as a great many good reasons will soon be bought up by the wise people, who want to have the best quality merchandise at the lesser price.

MEN—LOOK AT THIS REASON!

People do not ask for work shirts any more—they say "King Pin," which means the best work shirt made. Sizes 14½ to 19. $1.39 each or two for $2.39.

And—How would you like to buy 5 pair of heavy all wool socks for $2.00? We guarantee them to be 75c values, and most stores ask $1.00 a pair.

Arrow Collars 23c each or 5 for $1.00.
Silk Collars, 35c or 3 for $1.

Men's heavy ribbed undershirts and drawers, $1.50 value, $1.10.

Men's worsted union suits, $5.00 value, $2.69. "A good reason."

LADIES—LADIES COATS—COATS

We are glad to tell you about our coats and you will be glad when you see the prices. We did not buy our coats until the market had broken; the result—just imagine all wool creations in Polo Coats with Fur, and Plush collars—$25.00 to $37.50.

LADIES, HURRY FOR THESE REASONS

Pure thread silk hose, black, navy, white, brown, $1.50 value, 90c.

Save nearly half and buy a $2.25 value silk hose for $1.25.

Ask to see our ribbed top silk hose. Special at $1.59.

$1.00 value silk lisle hose, 79c or 2 pair for $1.00.
Seconds of this number, 59c or 3 pair for $1.00.

Children's Buster Brown stockings, black, white and brown, 2 pair for $1.00.

Boys' heavy fleece lined union suits (seconds), $2.25 values, $1.49.

Men's all wool three pound sweater coat, $10.00 value $5.48.

Ask about our prices on toilet goods and you will be satisfied that "We Do Sell for Less."

It is getting cold and you will sure need a pretty plaid, wool finish blanket. Large size—76 x80 inches. $5.00 value, $3.75.

ANOTHER REASON FOR THE LADIES

¼ off on our already extremely low priced blouses during this sale.

KRAMER BROS. AGAIN ON THE JOB

The reason why we can sell you a coat or a dress for less is because a certain manufacturer was hard pressed for money to meet his October bills and we bought our line at half price, for cash.

Look elsewhere at the latest creations in serge, tricotine, tricolette, charmeuse and silvertone dresses from $40.00 to $65.00, then see our dresses at $15.00, $20.00 and $30.00.

Our price tags show "We Do Sell for Less."

You will want a new skirt and we do not think you have seen the latest Fifth avenue model that we are showing—an all wool knife plaited blue serge with a heavily braided belt and bottom, $25.00 value, $13.50.

Air Float and Poudre de France talcum powder, 3 for 25c.

Ladies' winter union suits at $1.49.

FIRST ENTERTAINMENT IS THOROUGHLY ENJOYED

Tecumseh lodge, No. 190, Knights of Pythias, gave the first of its series of entertainments Thursday evening and it proved so pleasurable the members are eagerly looking forward to the next. There was a very large attendance, visitors being present from several nearby towns, Tipton being especially well represented. A short business session was held first, during which Hugh Hanna gave a splendid report of the grand lodge session at Detroit recently, which he attended as a delegate from the local organization.

The entertainment consisted of musical numbers, all of which were greatly enjoyed and heartily applauded. Miss Myrna VanVleet and John Kline gave vocal solos and Archie Boyd played violin solos, Mrs. E. H. VanVleet being the accompanist. Another bit of the evening was a reading by George Ziehr.

Following the program refreshments were served and then cigars were passed, the evening closing with a social good time. Other entertainments are to be given and while the first was for members only the families of the knights are to be guests at some of the programs.

At its next meeting, Thursday, October 21, the lodge will do work in the first and second rank.

St. Peter's Holds Impressive Service

OBSERVES ANNIVERSARY OF LAYING OF CORNERSTONE 87 YEARS AGO.

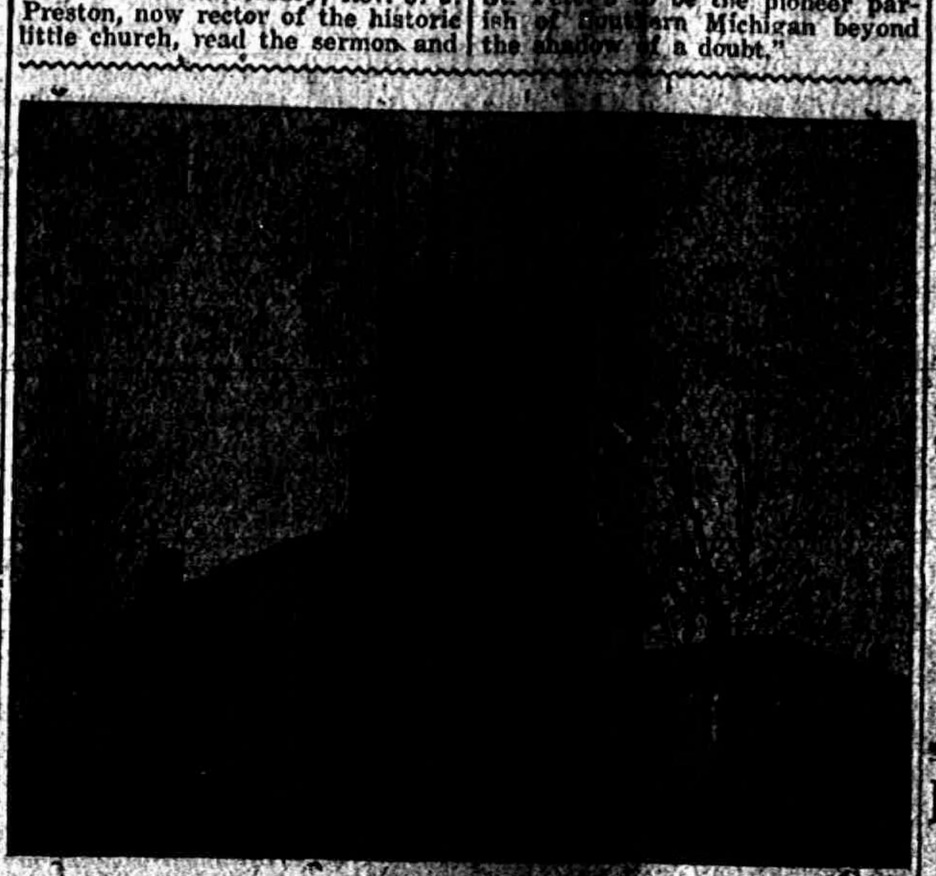
Memorable Sermon of Rev. W. N. Lyster, Pioneer Rector, Read by Rev. J. J. Preston—Sketch of St. Peter's Parish.

Interesting and impressive was the service held at St. Peter's Episcopal church at 4:00 p. m. Sunday in commemoration of the laying of the cornerstone of this pioneer church on October 10, 1833, just 87 years ago.

For the occasion of the celebration of this anniversary, Rev. J. J. Preston, now rector of the historic little church, read the sermon and wore the beautiful Irish silk vestments used by the Rev. W. N. Lyster, the first rector of the parish at the dedicatory exercises.

The sermon, considered so favorably in the early days of Tecumseh's history that the building committee of the St. Peter's parish requested its publication, lost nothing in its beauty of sentiment, simplicity of words and correctness of phraseology by the reading at this memorial service Sunday.

We quote from "The Pioneer Parish," compiled by Jennie M. Harris, the following comment on the early sermon: "The sermon had for its text, 'A city that is set on a hill cannot be hid,' a text more appropriate at that time than now, for the elevation of the church's site was more marked by the lay of the land. In the sermon the preacher referred to the distinction of the church the congregation was then founding. He said that in this latitude this building was the most 'western Episcopal edifice' which stood upon 'the main highway of migration' to the west, that our brethren in their journeyings to those portions of the country just opening would find this church structure the very last. In other latitudes there might have been more western churches, but they were in very isolated spots and not upon any main highway of migration.' Indeed this sermon of Dr. Lyster's establishes the claim of St. Peter's to be the pioneer parish of Southern Michigan beyond the shadow of a doubt."



The "Most Western Episcopal Church Edifice" which stood upon the main highway of migration.

The large congregation at St. Peter's Sunday listened intently and interestingly to the repetition of this excellent sermon of the noted pioneer missionary worker. The music by the large vested choir was exceptionally good and much credit is due to those in [illegible] by the [illegible] Dickinson as an offertory was exceptionally pleasing. The church was beautifully decorated with autumn flowers and foliage and presented an enhanced appearance of restful comfort.

Pays Its Deceased A Glowing Tribute

Tecumseh Grange Holds Impressive Memorial Service With Rev. C. M. Thompson as Speaker.

Simple but impressive memorial services were held by Tecumseh Grange, No. 166, Friday evening, Rev. C. M. Thompson giving the address. The attendance was not very large but a warm tribute was paid the deceased members of the organization.

The meeting was called to order by Norman McConnell, master of Tecumseh Grange. After a few introductory remarks he called on the secretary, Dan Hall, who gave a brief history of the Grange. He said it was organized 22 years ago last December with 87 charter members, most of whom he knew. Fifty-seven of these have died, he stated, as near as his report showed, but as eight years of the organization's records are missing he asserted there may be a few names which he has not listed. He read the names of the deceased members and spoke in loving memory of them.

Mrs. Ted McConnell gave a touching piano solo and then Rev. Thompson addressed the gathering. He read from the scripture the details of Jacob and Joseph's death and gave a brief history of these two men. In pointing to them as men of great reverence he expressed the opinion that we are too careless in worshipping God. Rev. Thompson advised his hearers to use the memories of deceased loved ones to help and uplift. "Our memories of the dead should hallow our lives, make us better men and women and inspire us to live more nobly," he declared. He said he had always enjoyed meeting with the Grange and as he was to leave Tecumseh he wished all the members of the organization well.

Rev. W. R. Curtis, lecturer of the Grange, was called on for remarks and gave a short but helpful talk.

Charles Snedicor had a word of reminiscence and then on his motion a rising vote of thanks was extended Rev. Thompson.

Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

Tecumseh to Play In Hudson Friday

Local Eleven Unable to Stop Addison, Losing Last Week's Game 28 to 0—Two Players Injured.

For its first game away from home this season the Tecumseh high school football team will journey to Hudson Friday afternoon to go into combat with that eleven.

Last Friday's encounter with Addison here did not prove very favorable to the locals as they were held scoreless, the visitors making 28 points. Two of the Tecumseh players were injured. Abbott was hurt about the head, being in a dazed condition when taken off the field. Davidson also had to be relieved. Neither was dangerously hurt. Since the game Davidson has suffered a fractured arm, sustained while cranking an automobile.

Addison's forward passes were especially effective, and coupled with the frequent fumbling on the part of the locals the visitors had no trouble in carrying off a victory. In one of the two excellent chances Tecumseh had to score VanWinkle made a 30-yard run, but his teammates could not give sufficient support.

The lineup was as follows:

Tecumseh		Addison
Cleveland	RE	Clark
Ousterhout	RT	Hibbs
Davidson	RG	Beal
Hensen	C	Sawyer
Swick	LG	R. Campbell
Waring	LT	R. Binns
Palman	LE	Hickey

Duncan	LHB	C. Binns
VanWinkle	RHB	Scott

CHILD IS BURNED WHEN IT TOUCHES SWITCHBOARD

While at play Monday morning at the plant of the Tecumseh Electric Company, Herman Hastings, aged 3, touched a switchboard and was severely burned by electricity. The child is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Hastings, the father being in the employ of the electric company.

The switchboard carried 110 volts of electricity and when the lad came in contact with it he screamed for help. Workmen rushed to the rescue, but before they arrived the boy's right hand and arm and his face had been burned. Dr. O. Q. Jones is attending the patient and reports he is getting along favorably.

The little chap and his sister were playing hide and seek around the electric plant when he ran into the building and touched the switchboard in an effort to find a place to hide.

Rev. Thompson's Farewell Sermon

Retiring Methodist Minister Gives Last Discourse at Community Service Sunday.

Taking his text from St. Mark 9:2, "He was transfigured before them," Rev. C. M. Thompson, retiring pastor of Tecumseh Methodist church, at the community service at the Baptist church Sunday [illegible] an excellent word picture of the transfiguration of Jesus in the presence of three of his disciples, Peter, James and John. These disciples were privileged to witness the wonderful vision of Christ transfigured and in conversation with Moses and Elias and there was a cloud that overshadowed them and the voice of God came out of the cloud saying "This is my beloved son, hear him."

Rev. Thompson said that he did not believe these three disciples were given this privilege because they were favorites or choice individuals, for God is no respector of persons. The speaker believed that God chose those men because of their fitness of character of soul. He chose them for the inner circle. It will pay any one to come into communion with Jesus Christ—to become members of the inner circle, said the preacher. It is well worth while to be a real christian and enjoy the faith and love of God. He urged the people not to be afraid of God or death, but rather court the presence of God and recognize Jesus Christ as the savior of the world. The appearance of Moses, dead 1,500 years, and Elias, 900 years, on the mount of transfiguration is proof of the immortality of man, said Mr. Thompson.

The community service was presided over by Rev. W. R. Curtis, Rev. Edward Escolme read the scripture lesson and Rev. Curtis offered prayer. Preceding the sermon both Rev. Curtis and Rev. Escolme expressed their appreciation of the co-operative work of Rev. Thompson and the spirit of real christian fellowship that prevailed among the ministers of Tecumseh. Rev. Thompson was largely responsible for the community services in Tecumseh and they enjoyed his counsel and fellowship.

Rev. Thompson also expressed his appreciation of the kind words of his associate pastors and the hope that the community services would continue here. When he leaves Tecumseh, Mr. Thompson stated, he goes with a kind feeling towards the people of the community and considers the ministers real friends. Rev. Thompson further stated that he is not retiring from the ministry, but from active pastorate after 46 years. He has no misgivings of the years to come for there will be plenty of opportunities to help in the Lord's work.

The congregation was large and all seemed to be interested in the service.

Next Sunday's community service will be at the Presbyterian church and it will begin at 7 o'clock instead of 7:30.

RUSE OF JOSEPH EHRLICH, ESCAPED LENAWEE SLAYER, FAILS AND HE IS CAUGHT

Although he devised a clever scheme to throw the officers off his trail, Joseph Ehrlich, of Adrian, a murderer who escaped from Jackson prison about six months ago, failed in the effort and he is again in the grip of the long arm of the law.

Ehrlich slew Leola Kelley, a Holloway girl, about 13 years ago and was sentenced to life imprisonment in Jackson. He made his escape last April. Nothing was heard from him until recently when a letter was received from Lander, Wyo., by the warden of Jackson prison conveying the information that Ehrlich was dead, having been killed in a mine explosion a few months previous. The letter contained a will supposed to have been made by the convict. The prison officials became suspicious, and after some further correspondence an officer hastened to Lander and there found Ehrlich very much alive and placed him under arrest. He and a pal had devised the ruse to make the prison authorities believe that the slayer was dead and thus cause them to cease searching for him. They overworked the stunt and as a result Ehrlich will spend a few more years behind the confines of the state prison.

BROWN-RICHARD

Wedding of Adrian Couple of Interest to Tecumseh People.

Solemnized at the Adrian home of County Surveyor and Mrs. J. L. Richard Saturday evening at 6:30 o'clock was the marriage of their daughter, Miss Bernice, to Mr. Seymour Howell Brown, Rev. Edward Montgomery of the Presbyterian church officiating.

The marriage is interesting to Tecumseh people from the fact that Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Richard are former residents here and very well known.

The bride was charmingly gowned and carried a shower of white bride's and sweetheart roses. Miss Alice Richard, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and Miss Winnifred Mitchell of Tecumseh, a cousin of the bride, played the wedding march from Mendelssohn. Elsie and Helen Slayton, granddaughters of Mrs. C. A. Slayton, were ribbon bearers.

The newly married couple will reside in Detroit, where Mr. Brown is employed with the Andrew-Sisman Co.

Tecumseh friends extend best wishes.

Editorial Comment

UNITED STATES POPULATION.

According to the latest report of the census bureau the United States has grown in population nearly fourteen million in the past ten years, making the total continental population 105,683,108. This makes an increase rate of 14.9 per cent against 21 per cent during the previous ten years.

Cities and towns are prone to boast of increased population. Have we, citizens of the United States, cause for jubilation over the nation's growth? That depends entirely upon circumstances — the kind of growth.

A natural, interior growth of such dimensions might be something well worth boasting of, but there are some kinds of growth that call for the opposite. Take California, for instance. The people of the Golden State bemoan the fact of the constantly increasing of the Japanese. The law has been and is that Japanese immigrants cannot lawfully hold title to land. But the little people are sharp. They have raised families and now are buying land in the names of their children, American citizens from the fact that they were born on American soil. A native of California the other day informed the writer that the Japs are rapidly getting possession of the garden spots of the United States, and they are becoming more and more a menace to the population and the control of the state's affairs. It is a very serious question with people of California.

An increase of population—a multiplying of our own American people—loyal citizens to our republic—is the most desirable. We can not afford to allow all classes of foreigners to come to our land and in a few years obtain control of our very government.

THE RETAILER AND PRICES.

The following editorial, which appeared in a recent issue of the Grand Rapids Press, is timely and contains good sound business sense. Now is the time that wholesaler, retailer and consumer should get together and do their best toward warding off panic and ruin. The Press says:

"While the consumer is rejoicing over the many signs of a general recession in prices it will be well for him to remember that in nearly all lines retail dealers are now in a ticklish position.

"It is an easy matter for a Henry Ford who controls both raw material and finished product to send a telegram to all the agencies handling his output to reduce prices offhand, but the retail merchant is in a very different situation. He has to constantly maintain a stock of goods to meet the day by day wants of his customers and so his shelves are filled with articles necessarily purchased when all costs were at their peak. In many lines orders had to be placed months in advance. He cannot drop prices abruptly to coincide with manufacturing cuts without dropping into bankruptcy.

"The automobile owner who discovers that the resale price of his car has been reduced a quarter or a third between noon and night can comfort himself with the thought that his bus is just as valuable to him for service as ever but the retail merchant has no such consolation. He must sell and at a margin that will enable him to continue in business as well as buy new stock at lowering prices.

"There seems no doubt that the general readjustment process is now under way. But the way to help is not to stop buying. The public can best help the movement by buying sanely and intelligently for its needs because it is not until present stocks can be disposed of without serious loss that there can be a general and permanent reduction in prices. If that thought is carried in mind there will be a gradual and steady easing of costs without violent dislocation or business wrecking. By helping the dealer dispose of his goods bought earlier we shall, in reality, be helping ourselves.

"Of course we need not expect really prewar prices for a long time, if ever. The sweat shops have been abolished. All workers are now receiving a fairer compensation than ever before. We want to maintain that condition and that fact in itself is bound to leave the price recession at a higher level than in the old days with their lower standard of living. So do not ask the retailer to bear the burden unassisted nor look for a price millenium over night."

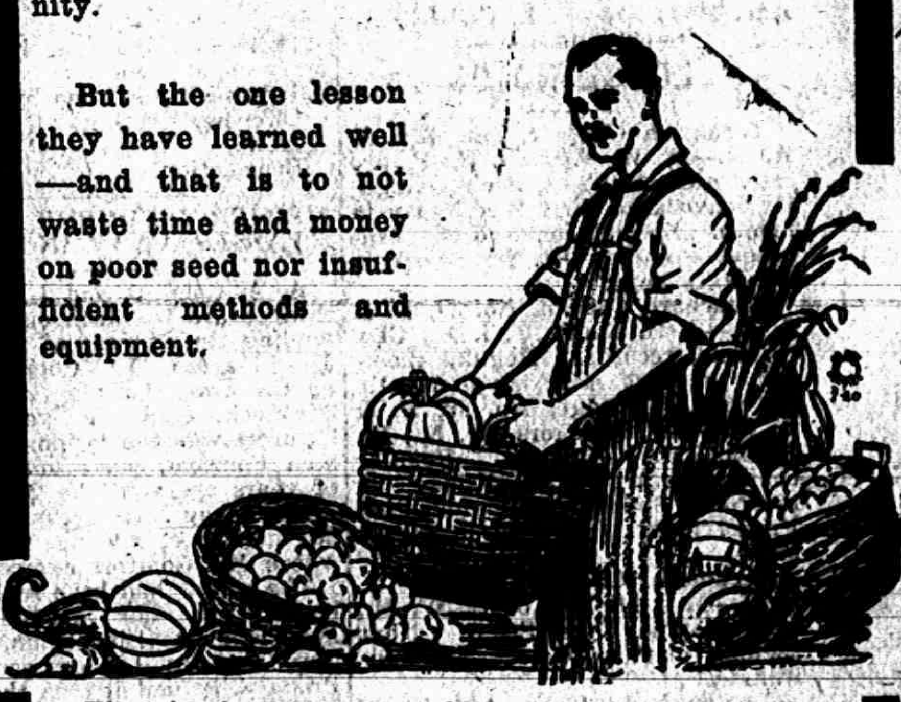
—Like those exhibited at our big fair do not "just happen." They are grown by experienced, hard-working, two-fisted agriculturalists—none better in the world than those right here in our own community.

But the one lesson they have learned well—and that is to not waste time and money on poor seed nor insufficient methods and equipment.



That is the reason we feel a bit of boastful pride in the wonderful production from this territory—because for a number of years we have furnished seed and efficient guaranteed farm machinery to the big majority of the farmers in this locality.

Justice Finch of the New York court has denied the application of minority stockholders of the D., T. & I. to restrain its directors and the Ford interests from entering into a lease of the company's lines for 75 years to the Detroit & Ironton Railroad Company, owned by the Fords. It is said the D., T. & I. will be known as the Detroit & Ironton railroad under the contemplated deal.

Sugar beet growers from 24 counties have been called to a conference at Lansing on October 19, by the state farm bureau to consider a plan for co-operative marketing of the 1921 crop of sugar beets. Dissatisfaction with the marketing in past years has brought the growers to a place where they are ready to do either one of two things; establish their own refineries and manufacture their product, or contract to sell the whole of their crop through one agency after the Californian plan which has already been adopted by the Ohio sugar beet growers, according to the state farm bureau. Lenawee is among the county farm bureaus that will have sugar beet men at this meeting.

MANY FARMERS GOING SOUTH

Tired of the long hard winters and discouraged by the crop uncertainty, many Michigan farmers are selling out and moving to the irrigated section of the Lower Rio Grande river, known as the Magic Valley of Texas. There a rich alluvial soil, irrigated with the warm waters of the Rio Grande river, coupled with the long growing season, makes farming pleasant the year round and unbelievably profitable. Corn, cotton, broom corn and hay crops are raised in the summer time and all kinds of vegetables in the winter time. Green pasture for hogs and cattle the year round.

Lack of frost danger and a soil which requires no fertilizer is developing the country into the richest and most profitable citrus fruit belt in the world.

Climate is beautifully mild in winter and lack of humidity with a cool gulf breeze make a cooler summer climate than that of the north. There is a no more healthful spot in which to live in the United States. Permanent relief is afforded such ailments as rheumatism, asthma, catarrah, dyspepsia and like diseases.

SIXTY GRAND RAPIDS WHOLESALERS VISIT HERE; BRING DRUM-BUGLE CORPS

Accompanied by a Zouave drum and bugle corps, about 60 members of the wholesale department of the Grand Rapids Association of Commerce spent an hour in Tecumseh Friday morning. They were on their fourteenth annual trade extension tour which began Tuesday, October 5, and closed when they returned to the Furniture City Friday night.

The visiting wholesalers arrived in Tecumseh at 7:15 on their special train, coming from Jackson where they had spent the night. The delegation left the train on Evans street, just south of Chicago, and headed by the bugle corps, [illegible] The Zouaves, composed of carrier boys of the Grand Rapids Herald, gave a drill to the enjoyment of the spectators.

In the meantime some of the wholesalers got in touch with business acquaintances. One group of the visitors, when they were informed that the local Episcopal church was the oldest such edifice this side of the Alleghanies, expressed a desire to see the structure and Village President Hines motored them to that place. One of the group had a comera and took a picture of the church.

From here the wholesalers returned to Jackson, making stops at Clinton, Manchester, Norvell and Napoleon. From the Prison City they began the last leg of their tour, leaving there over the Grand Rapids division of the New York Central and arriving home at 7 o'clock that evening.

Two of the buglers got so interested in the attractions of Tecumseh that they failed to get back to the train in time and were not on board when the special pulled out. They had about decided to start a walk to Clinton in an effort to catch up with the outfit when Mrs. Eugene Rosacrans volunteered to motor them to the town to the north. They got there before the train departed.

Old Timer Writes of Ye Olden Days

Geo. V. Schreder, Proprietor of San Jose, Cal., Novelty Store, Pens Reminiscent Lines.

Following is a letter from Geo. V. Schreder in which the writer harks back to the good old days when present grown men were boys. The letter will be interesting to Herald readers:

Emil Ahrens,
Tecumseh, Mich.

Dear Sir: A few weeks ago my sister, Mrs. S. W. Cadmus, sent me several copies of The Herald, and in one of them was a letter written by L. H. McNeil recalling old days in Tecumseh. At first I couldn't think who L. H. McNeil was, but when I said "Barney" McNeil it sounded natural at once. Well, my recollections of the old burg dates back a great many years before Barney's time. My family moved to Tecumseh the year the opera house was finished, for I remember wandering in there while Verne Wheeler was painting the drop curtain and "rubbering" at him, and Bill Jordan asked Verne if he wanted any help. We lived at first in Brownville next door of Jno. Hastings.

Charles Burlingame, who worked on The Herald for years, lived the second door north, and Fred Burlingame clerked in Gus Wright's durg store. Some of the first boys I met were Frank Snedicor, Charlie and Bert Bean, "Bun" Howe and Pete Phelps. "Put" Woodard was clerking for A. B. Cotton, who kept a dry goods store a number of years where later Harris & Hiteshu were located.

I started school in the third room in the East Branch school and Miss Anna Pennington was my first teacher. Among my schoolmates in that room I recall "Torchy" Thorpe, Billy and Bob Owens, Dick Farley, "Teenie" Spafford, Flora Schutt, Emma Conklin and Anna Spafford. Zeno C. Spencer was the principal at that time, as some of the old boys may remember to their sorrow, for believe me he was just as severe as his name sounds.

When I "passed" into the next room Miss Mary Fraser (now Mrs. C. A. Wright) was the teacher. I recall several funny happenings in that room. One was when a little German girl who lived in Brownville, when called upon to recite one afternoon, started out with "Mary Had a Little Lamb," but we all laughed so I can't remember if she ever finished or not.

I remember you, Mr. Ahrens, when you worked on The News and won a bet of one dozen photographs from W. L. Heck, the photographer, for letting your whiskers grow. I remember how the photograph looked. You were [illegible] overcoat and carried a cane.

When I think of you it recalls the good old days of the City band, when you and your brother, Paul, Prof. and Charlie Skinner, "Tyler" Root, "Speck" Gibson, "Windy" Rowland and all the rest of the bunch gave concerts every Saturday afternoon and evening.

I have always had a warm spot in my heart for the old town, and hope I may have the opportunity of visiting my relatives and friends there again in the not far distant future.

If this proves of interest to your readers, I will write again and tell the kids there that think they can play ball how John Freeman used to "put 'em over the plate"; also how Fred Rosacrans, Harry Snell, "Mat" Root, Ed McKinney and others used to "line 'em out" and slide for second, and (whisper) maybe now that I am several thousand miles away I'll tell all about the White Cap scare that made such a furore in Tecumseh about the year 1890.

Hoping to hear of others in the days of long ago through the medium of The Herald (long may she wave), I remain Yours.

Geo. V. Schreder.

The Lenawee ~~county~~ board of supervisors is in session. At the present meeting the apportionment of taxes will be made. Supervisor John Schreder of Tecumseh is attending the meeting.

The Pythian Sisters held a meeting Wednesday evening at which initiation took place. Burt Aten and Mrs. C. A. Stalter were the two made acquainted with the mysteries of the order. There was a business session and then the initiatory work was done. This was followed by refreshments.

Some time Thursday night the Atlantic and Pacific store was robbed of $36 which had been hidden behind a counter. Suspicion pointed to two boys, the older 9 years of age, and when they were taken into custody they confessed. The parents made good the $5 of the stolen money which the youths had spent.

Committees have been named for the Republican rally day to be held in Adrian, October 22 under the auspices of the woman's auxiliary of the Republican County association and Mrs. Jenny C. Law Hardy of this city is on the executive committee. Mrs. Ruth Rosacrans of Tecumseh is chairman of the music committee and Mrs. Grace Heck Moore is one of the members. Mrs. Mary C. A parade of about 20 automobiles from Adrian arrived in town about 10:30 this morning. The visitors were touring the county in the interest of Adrian's Gala Days Oct. 20-21, and brought with them a band. Speeches by J. N. Sletten, secretary of Adrian Chamber of Commerce, Attorney Henry I. Bourns and S. W. Raymond and music by the band was the program at the corners. The boosters remained here for dinner and were in town over an hour.

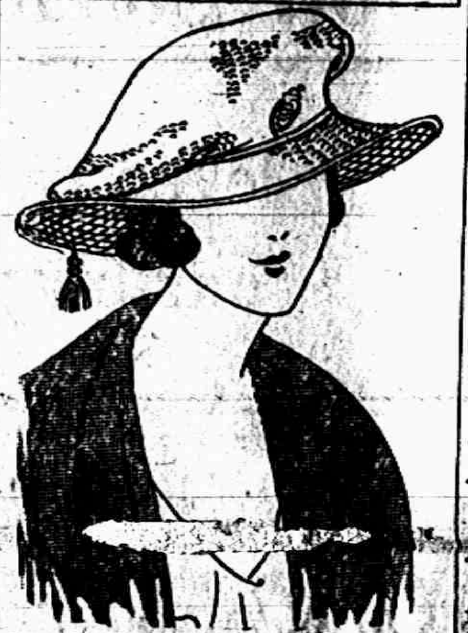
Since the promotion of the aniversary celebration members and friends of St. Peter's parish have expressed a desire to visit and attend service at St. Michles and All Angels church at Cambridge Junction. As the hour of worship in the Cambridge church is 2 o'clock in the afternoon, some deemed next Sunday, when service in St. Peter's is held in the morning, the opportune time for carrying out the plan. The idea is that members owning cars invite others and make the start early enough to arrive at Cambridge in plenty of time for the afternoon service. As the west end of the Monroe turnpike is in the hands of road builders it will be necessary to take the drive through Clinton and the scenic Irish hills. Rev. W. N. Lyster, it will be remembered, was also the pioneer rector of St. Michels and All Angels church.

"BETWEEN-SEASON" KNITTED HAT



This knitted or crocheted hat is fast becoming the vogue for milady's "between-season" wear when straws are left aside and heavy fall hats seem a trifle out of place.

The crown is quite similar to that of the Tam, falling loosely over one side and finished with a little tassel. The brim is knitted over a wire frame. Dark colors predominate in these clever homemade hats.

FORDSON
TRADE MARK
Farm Tractor

When Henry Ford set about building the Fordson tractor he had a thorough understanding of just what it should be and what it should do. His early life on the farm gave him a deep insight into the daily life of the farmer; his mechanical genius saw the type of tractor needed. He began work on a farm tractor thirty-five years ago, and for more than twelve years he experimented over more than 7,000 acres of land in different kinds of soil, with different crops.

So he built the Fordson. It is so simple that a schoolboy can operate it. It is low in first cost. It is lowest in operating cost and Fordson parts and Fordson service are always to be had promptly from the dealer.

The Fordson is a profitable investment. It can be used every working day in the year. It is an inexpensive power plant that will lighten your farm work. It has proven its worth on more than one hundred thousand farms not only in operating implements in the fields but in pulley work. And it doesn't eat when idle.

Don't delay ordering your Fordson tractor. The demand is greater than the supply.

American Legion Posts in Rural Towns are Rallying Point of Loyal Sentiment and True Americanism

Col. F. W. Galbraith, Jr., New National Commander of the American Legion, Writes Exclusive Interview for The Herald on What Organization Means for the Nation and Our Boys.

Cleveland, Ohio, Oct. 13.

I have been asked particularly to speak on the American Legion organization in the smaller towns and the rural communities. Nowhere is the Legion stronger than in such places. The local Legion post is fast becoming the dominant factor in the life of the smaller communities. It is a social center. It is a public forum where the principal issues of the day are discussed and threshed out. It is the rallying point of loyal sentiment. And it is the aim of the new officers, as it was with the retiring executives, to make it more so by absolute co-operation.

Ex-service men in the rural communities, too, seem to have discovered there are practical advantages to Legion membership, and it is our wish that ALL of them see it so.

How National Headquarters Helps Rural Town Posts

The Legion members in the smaller communities have been first to find out the service the Legion extends to its members through its Service Division at the national headquarters, where claims of all varieties are adjusted. In the year just gone by the Legion obtained the settlement of claims in favor of ex-service men totaling more than $2,000,000 in cash—and the majority of these claims originated in rural communities. Of course, I shall help keep up such good work and extend such service whenever and wherever possible.

The Legion, when it puts its compensation bill before congress, saw to it that a land settlement clause was contained therein. It saw to it that provision was made whereby an ex-service man living on a farm could borrow money from his government on easy terms for the improvement of farms. It saw to it that the man in the small town had the privilege of putting his money in a home.

There is Not, Nor Will There Be, Political Lines

The men and women who conceived the Legion idea believed that in peace as well as in war could be perpetuated the fine ideals for which we fought and which made America a nation of Americans in 1917.

The American Legion as it stands today is proof that the vision of these men and women was prophetic.

The Legion of today girds the world—9,800 posts, 2,000,000 members, in every city and town, every village and community in the land and in our island and overseas possessions and in ten foreign countries.

There is nothing like the Legion in the world.

It is national, not sectional. Men and factions, absolutely irreconcilable on no other grounds, stand together and work together in the Legion, all for the achievement of the same ideals. No question of creed, political affiliation, rank or station enters. In the Legion there simply are Americans. And I shall help sustain such to the best of my ability.

An autumn wedding, very pretty in all its appointments, and witnessed by about 90 relatives and friends of the young couple, marked the marriage of Donna B., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar J. Exelby, and James Taylor, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Taylor, which was solemnized Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents.

The Exelby home was prettily decorated throughout with sweet peas and roses, the color scheme being pink and white, Mrs. Linus Zeluff having charge of the decorating. The parlor was especially attractive with an arch built in front of the large window which was decorated with vines, sweet peas and rose buds where the young couple stood.

Just before the appointed hour Miss Rena Underwood, cousin of the bride, accompanied by Mrs. Ford Exelby, charmingly sang "O Promise Me." Following this Mrs. Fay Wiggins, sister of the bride, played "The Bridal Chorus" from Lohengrin, to the strains of which the wedidng party descended from an upper room and took their places, where the Rev. J. C. DeRemer performed the impressive ring ceremony.

The couple were attended by the little Misses Virginia Wiggins and Willoween Exelby as flower girls, who were beautifully dressed in white and carried bouquets of pink roses, and little Miss Margaret Gripton, prettily dressed in pink, who carried the ring in a lovely basket trimmed with pink rosebuds.

The bride wore a handsome gown of white satin with pearl trimmings and carried a shower bouquet of roses. Her traveling suit was of blue with hat to match.

During congratulations, Mrs. Ford Exelby, cousin of the bride, accompanied by Mrs. Fay Wiggins, beautifully sang "O Perfect Love," and Miss Grace Taylor, sister of the groom, sang "Our Yesterdays."

A two-course dinner, with Mrs. Polly Mattis as caterer, was served by the Misses Frances Zeluff, Florine Smith, Mary and Grace Taylor, Grace, Gladys and Eleanor Underwood and Pauline Snoddy and Messrs. Edward Gripton, William Underwood and Leland Smith.

The bride's table was artistically decorated with pink and white with a centerpiece of beautiful roses. The other guests were seated at prettily decorated tables arranged throughout the rooms and also at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Faunt Lenardson.

The bride is one of our popular young ladies, a fine musician and active church worker and leader in many social functions. She is a graduate of [illegible] school, and also of the Ypsilanti Normal. For three years she was an efficient teacher in the Britton schools and the past year has been teacher in the Detroit schools, having a position there now which she will continue to hold during the school year.

The groom is a promising young man and is also well known here, having grown to manhood in this place. For the past few years he has been in Detroit, having now a fine postion there. He and Mrs. Taylor left immediately for that place, having a home on Tillman street already prepared for them, where they will be pleased to welcome their friends.

The wedding gifts were many and beautiful.

The out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Smith and daughter, Mildred, Misses Luella Haines, Phena Palmer, Nellie Pillsbury, Eleanor Underwood, Mrs. George Exelby and Miss Helen and Jay Lowe of Detroit; Mrs. LaVern Taylor and son, Lawrence, of Palmyra; Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Collins, Miss Mary Knaggs and Roy Householder of Maybee, and Mr. and Mrs. George Householder of Erie.

Celebrates 90th Birthday.

John Bachman, sr., had reached his ninetieth milestone Sunday and in honor of the occasion his children and grandchildren and several relatives planned and effectively carried out a surprise. A fine pot luck dinner was an important feature, with covers laid for 48. The afternoon was pleasantly passed in social converse and congratulations.

Mr. Bachman is a "young man for his age," hale and hearty, able to keep up with many a man in his daily work, and is to be congratulated upon his activity.

Those present for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bachman, C. F. Brown and family, E. A. and Mike Bachman and their families of Adrian; Louis Bachman, wife and daughter of Monroe; John Bachman and Mrs. George Bachman of Toledo; Mrs. Nora Culver, Mrs. Carrie Randall of Milan; Fred and Leonard Miller of Macon; Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Daykin of Deerfield and Edgar Daykin and family.

Rev. William Narcissus Lyster, Pioneer Preacher

Rev. William Narcissus Lyster, pioneer rector of St. Peter's parish, was born in Sion, Wexford county, Ireland, Mar. 5, 1805, and died at Mapleton, VanBuren county, Michigan, September 9, 1877. His ancesters were men of fervent piety and superior intellectual powers in the community of which they were members.

Entering Trinity college, Dublin, in 1822, he graduated therefrom in 1826. He continued his theological studies at the University of Edinburgh, and in 1829 came to Michigan, returning to his native land after a short stay. In 1830 he was ordained priest and on March 5, 1832, he was married to Miss Ellen Emily Cooper of Wexford county, Ireland. The same year he came to the United States to devote himself to missionary work. In May, 1833, he came to Tecumseh and by invitation of Musgrove Evans, Gen. J. W. Bowen and George Spofford, he held service at the court house. The following June he brought his wife from Cleveland and took up the parish in Tecumseh. On the 10th of October he laid the cornerstone of St. Peter's church, which was completed in 1835.

In 1837 Rev. Lyster built a log house on his land on the bank of Angels lake, the home commanding a splendid view. In 1846 he preached about one year in Christ church, Detroit, and for about 25 years in later life he held services at Cambridge and Brooklyn. On May 1, 1870, he preached his last sermon in the church at Cambridge, at the close of which he bade his friends of that parish farewell. Delicate health and declining years induced him to seek a retired home with his brother at Breedsville, VanBuren county, Michigan, where on Sunday morning, Sept. 9, 1877, his soul peacefully departed for the eternal home.

ST. PETER'S HOLDS IMPRESSIVE SERVICE

Interested more than ordinarily were present Mrs. Henry Lyster, daughter-in-law of St. Peter's pioneer rector, her daughter, Mrs. Edward Parker, and son, Henry Lyster, of Detroit.

The building committee of the pioneer church that requested the publication of Rev. Lyster's sermon was composed of Peter P. Galatian, Musgrove Evans, Jos. W. Brown and Ross Wilkins.

Sketch of St. Peter's Parish and Church.

The first service of the Episcopal church ever held in Tecumseh, according to the records of St. Peter's, was conducted by Dr. Peter P. Galatian, an Episcopalian from the diocese of New York, who came to Tecumseh in 1831 to make his home. The doctor desired to give his own family the benefit of the beautiful worship of his church and to that end held services in his home. In a very short time his home became too small for the friends who gathered with him, and the use of the office of Gen. Brown was offered. More commodious room was found necessary soon after and the school house was secured to accommodate the worshipers. Dr. Galatian did good work for the church as lay reader for eleven years.

The parish of St. Peter's was organized in the year 1832, when the Rev. Freeman of Ypsilanti preached and held the first service. On September 22, 1832, a meeting was held for organization purposes at Gen. Joseph W. Brown's house, when Dr. P. P. Galatian and Geo. Spofford were chosen wardens and S. Blanchard, Daniel R. Burt, S. C. Boughten, J. W. Brown, J. B. McRay, Henry Hewitt and Alfred Budlong vestrymen. At this meeting Musgrove Evans, the pioneer settler of Tecumseh, was present and appeared much interested.

In May, 1833, Rev. W. N. Lyster, then of Cleveland, visited Tecumseh and celebrated the holy communion in the court house. In June the same year he moved his family here and took charge of the parish. Earnestly urging his parishioners to build a house for public worship he induced them to undertake the task. The cornerstone of St. Peter's church was laid on October 10, 1833. Rev. Lyster visited the east and succeeded in securing aid in the sum of about $2-000 for the completion of the church. Among the contributors were General Jackson, president of the United States, Henry Clay, Daniel Webster, Gov. Wise of Virginia and Congressman Thomas Benton.

The church was completed in 1835, the first services being held on Sunday, August 2. Rev. John O'Brien officiating in the morning and Rev. Lyster in the afternoon. On the third Sunday in August the Sunday school was organized with eight teachers and 43 pupils. In 1836 Rev. Lyster resigned as rector of the parish, although the records show that he held subsequent services here. The consecration of the new house to God took place in January, 1837.

On September 4, 1837, the original bell cast for St. Peter's church was first rung, the first tones inspiring Rev. Lyster to pen the following lines:

A voice rides forth on the breeze today,
O'er village and forest, around and away;
And the busy farm and the prairie lone,
Are singing alike with its full clear tone.
'Tis a voice through the region unheard before,
Yet recalling blest scenes, and seasons of yore.

And well, fair town, may thy startled ear
Incline with delight, yet with awe, to hear,
For those lofty pealings around thee borne
Are calls from that high one who blessed this morn.
Lose not, Tecumseh, one cadence sweet.
It is wisdom's voice as she cries in the street.

Hear it, ye woods! 'Tis the echo—the child
Of His that once rang through Judea's wild.
Prepare, prepare ye the way of the Lord;
Make straight the paths for His glorious word.
O, welcome the strains to your dwellings rude.
Let it gladden each depth of your solitude.

Hark as it rises—that joyful swell!
Up! up, and respond to its promptings well.
'Tis a summons to prayer, 'tis the Sabbath bell;
The noblest music that earth has given
To clothe the most tender entreaties of heaven.

Friends of the church we would charge you ply
Long and oh frequent those calls from on high.
Defile not their source, let it ever be
A herald sublime of ETERNITY.

Dare not to lower that hallowed chime.
To mark the lapses of changeful time;
Nor for earthly meetings profane one tone
Which should speak of heaven and heaven alone.

The present bell was hung in the tower in 1880.

During the 87 years of the Episcopal parish in Tecumseh 17 ordained clergymen (including Rev. J. J. Preston, the present rector) have presided over the parish. They are Rev. W. N. Lyster, 1832-1836; Rev. Cole, 1836-40; Rev. Chas. V. Kelley, 1842-1845; Rev. Edward C. Hodgkin, 1845-1846; Rev. Wm. M. Burton, 1848-1854; Rev. Joseph B. Prichard, 1858-1862; Rev. Wm. C. Hurd, 1862-1863; Rev. J. Rice Taylor, 1863-1865; Rev. Chas. Ritter, 1865; Rev. J. Wainwright Ray, 1865-1868; Rev. Geo. N. James, 1869-1870; Rev. Josiah Phelps, 1871-1893; Rev. W. R. Blatchford, 1893-1898; Rev. John K. Burleson, 1898-1901; Rev. C. C. Kemp, 1901-1911; Rev. F. Hewitt, 1911-1916; Rev. J. G. Widdifield, 1917-1919. Rev. J. J. Preston began his charge here last March and is fast winning his way into the hearts of his parishioners and the people becoming acquainted with him.

Rev. Josiah Phelps served the parish longer than any other rector, being in active charge 22 years. To his loving memory a tablet has been stationed in the chancel of the church.

Monday Club Gains Ten More Members

Letter from French War Orphan Read at Last Meeting—Interpretive Reading Feature of Next Session.

An addition of ten members was made to the roster of the Monday club at its meeting this week and the program was exceedingly interesting, it dealing with local and state government.

Six of the new members went on the active list, they being Mrs. John Snow, Mrs. Alvah Knight, Mrs. Glen Tansley, Mrs. Albert Foster, Miss Suzanne Casey and Mrs. Agnes Starkweather. The other four latest additions to the club became associate members. They were Mrs. Alta Lidke, Mrs. Myrtie E. DeSpelder, Mrs. Fred Sheldon and Mrs. Floyd Elliott.

Mrs. H. S. Bredow was the leader of this week's meeting. There was a round table talk and then local government, town, township and county, were taken up by Mrs. Marion Bills, Mrs. Jay Morse and Mrs. Frank Snedicor. State government, executive, legislative and judicial, were dealt with by Mrs. E. M. Lewis, Mrs. J. O. Eaton and Mrs. John McIntyre. There was also community singing.

The Monday club is supporting a French war orphan, Nelly Dumeige, by name, and an interesting part of the meeting was the reading of a letter from this little girl and one from her grandfather, Eugene Boidin, a retired teacher. The letter from the little orphan reads as follows:

Dreuil-les-Amiens, Aug. 5, 1920.

Madame and Dear Benefactress:

I have the honor to thank you again for your generosity. I have just received your remittance of 45 francs, which you have been so kind to send me. What shall I tell you to express my gratitude? Dear me! Why can I not throw myself on your neck, and cover you with kisses? Thank you, my dear benefactress; your kind heart has taken pity on the poor little French orphan deprived of her father, and whose mother is obliged to work every day to furnish the means for our subsistence. I am only ten years old, and I will yet be for a long time a burden to her, therefore I hope that you will continue your benefactions out of pity for my poor mother, who is so unhappy.

Thank you again, thank you, dear madame, and will you accept my sweetest kisses?

Nelly Dumeige.

The one from her grandfather is as follows:

Dreuil, August 6, 1920.

Madame:

For the second time my granddaughter, living at Dreuil-les-Amiens, has received from your generosity a remittance of 45 francs. In her name, in her poor mother's name, and in our, that of her grandparents, I send you my most sincere thanks, and before letting you continue your benefactions I will give you some details about our situation, so that you will not regret your kindness towards your little French orphan.

I am a retired teacher, and we moved to Breuil-les-Amiens in 1913. My wife and I, we lived happily in this village, our native country, with my daughter, my son-in-law, employed in the police department in Amiens, and our dear little Nelly, yours also now, dear madame. Alas! Our happiness was not to last, the terrible war arrived. I lost first my eldest son, at the very beginning, and at last when victory advanced with giant steps, also our unhappy son-in-law, who belonged to the 2nd Colonials. He was killed in four days by the terrible fever, which took so many victims. A lieutenant at the intelligence department, he had to quarter himself with his comrades in the underground rooms abandoned by the Germans in the neighborhood of St. Mihiel; a wire called his unfortunate wife to his bedside, where she remained three days and three nights, seeing him suffer atrociously, without being able to speak to her. At last she came back leaving down there her beloved husband's body! What more shall I tell you, my dear Madame, your kind heart will make you understand the despair of the poor mother and the little orphan.

She took an energetic resolution, not wanting the dear child to suffer too much through the death of her father, so addressed herself to the Judge of the Somme, and solicited a position in his offices. This favor was accorded to her, and since that time, in spite of her sorrow and in spite of her regret to be separated all day from her little girl, she goes to earn the few cents that are necessary for her to live. Especially in these times, when living is enormously dear.

Madame, forgive me this long letter. I wished that as far as possible you should know the one you have adopted.

Her unhappy father would never have dreamed that some day the good Americans would come to the rescue of his little one. In his letters he often spoke of the mutual sympathy they had—the one for the others—in his daily intercourse with the officers of your country. Alas! He did not foresee the terrible catastrophy which waited him.

Now that you know our unhappy situation, I leave it to your kind heart to know if you will continue your generous adoption towards our dear little Nelly. She is ten years old, pretty strong for her age, is merry, intelligent, but especially and above all that which constitutes our happiness, that she has a loving heart, she has for her unhappy mother an extraordinary affection.

Pardon me again, my dear madame, it is a grandfather who is speaking of his dear little grandchild, Nelly Dumeige.

Thank you for her, a thousand times thank you.

Boidin.

Eugene Boidin,
Retired Teacher,
Breuil-les-Amiens,
Somme.

Both the letters were in French when received here but were translated by Mrs. Jenny C. Law Hardy.

The next session of the club, October 18, will be in the nature of an entertainment, as Mrs. E. F. Cleveland of Adrian is to give an interpretive reading entitled, "Washington, the Man Who Made Us." She will be assisted by Mrs. Charles Seiffer and Mrs. Glendora Mason Johnson, both of Adrian. Coffee is to be served.

GOITRE

Completely Cured in Short Time for Hartland, Wis., Lady, by External Remedy.

Note: It would be illegal to publish these statements if they were not true.

Mrs. Wm. P. Jones, Hartland, Wis., says in her own paper, the Milwaukee Journal: "I have been troubled with goitre for 10 years. Before I heard of Sorbol Quadruple I suffered with choking and smothering spells. My entire health was impaired. After using one bottle of Sorbol Quadruple I was entirely cured. My neck was reduced 2 inches and all choking and other symptoms gone. I am now feeling fine. I will gladly answer anyone concerning this great remedy."

Sorbol Quadruple comes in small bottles containing enough for most cases. It will not stain or irritate. Does not interfere with daily work. Leaves the parts in healthful, normal condition. Requires ten minutes daily.

Independents Close Year With Victory

Tecumseh Outplays Adrian to Tune of 5 to 1—Athletic Association to Buy Lot for Football Games.

In order to finish the 1920 season properly the Tecumseh Independents determined to win and as a result when they clashed with Adrian here Sunday for the third time and in the final game for this year, the county seaters lost by a score of 5 to 1. There was a good attendance and the fans experienced plenty of excitement as the local players made three double plays and half of their hits were for extra bases.

The game was won in the first inning. Westfall was walked, Blesing singled, VanGieson doubled, O. Hanna hit for three bases, Bricker did the same and with Howe's sacrifice hit five scores were the harvest. It was a tight contest after this although Adrian managed to shove one man all the way around in the fourth. A walk to Baker and a double by Fisher gave the visitors their tally.

Gruel started to do the pitching for Adrian but after O. Hanna had made his three-bagger in the initial inning, Swartze went to the mound. He failed to prevent Bricker from duplicating the feat of the Tecumseh center fielder. Rogers participated in all three of the double plays and made 14 put outs. It was a great batting day for Bricker, as the speedy left gardener punched out three safe ones out of four times at bat. Howe twirled a brilliant game, being stingy with hits, only three being made off him.

Sunday's game and the one the week previous were benefits for the Tecumseh Athletic association, which now has about $150 with which to purchase the lot west of the baseball diamond, owned by C. A. Wright. This will be used as a football field and will be fitted up to play the pigskin game. It will be separate from the baseball park. The Athletic association is deeply grateful for the liberal support of the fans.

Vote "NO" on the School Amendment

Because

Governor Sleeper says:

I am opposed to the proposed constitutional amendment abolishing Parochial Schools.

Our commonwealth is broad enough to accommodate all shades of religious belief. It is big enough to give abundant room for the operations of all the religious denominations we have. The adoption of this amendment would engender bitterness and suspicion and distrust where now, mutual trust and good feeling to a large extent prevail.

I urge all good citizens to oppose this radical change.

Lieutenant Governor Dickinson says:

I am impressed that the present proposition is not one that will conduce to better moral, friendly and charitable relations between citizens of the state that is so much to be desired.

As an official in the War, I was proud of the patriotism and efficiency shown by those with whom I associated of both the Lutheran and Catholic faith.

As chairman of the Near East Relief of the State, I have also associated with these people and admire their spirit of loyalty and sympathy.

Attorney General Groesbeck, Republican Candidate for Governor says:

The proposed amendment is in conflict with the Federal Constitution and should not be placed upon the ballot. The proposed amendment tends most strongly to foment ill feeling and acrimonious discussion among the people.

I hold that the right of the parent to exercise a reasonable control over the education of his off-spring during the formative period of his character, is one of the most sacred rights preserved for the individual under the Federal Constitution.

Ex-Governor Ferris, Democratic Candidate for Governor says:

The amendment should be overwhelmingly defeated. The recent war taught us that Catholics, Lutherans, Methodists, Congregationalists, Presbyterians, Christian Scientists and other denominations can all work together. Our Democracy should guarantee this privilege.

I feel that this is a cowardly attack upon thousands of our best citizens.

Regent Frank B. Leland, of the University of Michigan says:

I do not favor this amendment for many reasons. I think it is un-American and in my opinion, its incorporation into the basic law of the commonwealth would be most unwise at any time.

As a lawyer it is my view that the proposed amendment would not be constitutional even if it were passed, therefore it has no place on the ballot.

Regent James O. Murfin, of the University of Michigan says:

I am against this proposed amendment for a number of reasons. First and foremost it appears to me it is dishonest; it is contrary to sound principles and sound ideas, and is the most decided step backward. I have yet to learn a good sound argument for it.

President Frank S. Kedzie, of the Michigan Agricultural College says:

I am not favorable to the anti-parochical amendment for three main reasons:

First: Interferes with religious liberty.

Second: Introduces one more element tending to unrest.

Third: Would lessen education facilities for the younger generation.

President McKenny, of the Michigan State Normal School says:

This amendment if carried would shut out thousands of children because of no public school buildings to accomodate them. Another reason is that there is no more loyal group of men in America than those who come from parochical or private schools. One-fourth of the men in the late world war who fought for America came from parochial and private schools.

The amendment is un-American and we cannot afford to have it carried.

Sunday Schools End Convention Today

Business Session in Progress—Sessions Opened Yesterday With a Large Attendance.

There is a good attendance at the thirty-fourth annual convention of the Lenawee County Sunday School association now in progress at the Methodist church in this city and some fruitful meetings are resulting.

This morning's session was opened with a song service and Rev. J. J. Preston, rector of St. Peter's Episcopal church of this city, led the devotionals, the [illegible] being deeply impressive. Rev. H. A. Fry, president of the association and who is presiding over the meetings, effectively sang "Some One is Waiting" and then briefly addressed the delegates along this theme. The business session was then opened. Mrs. Lawrence Hass of Adrian, the secretary, read the minutes of the 1919 meeting at Blissfield, which were adopted. The roll call of the schools was to be the next in order but this was postponed until after the other business had been disposed of. The secretary then gave her report of the work accomplished during the past year, showing she had been exceedingly busy since being elected. Among the recommendations made were that definite work be planned for the coming year, that closed Sunday schools in the county be opened wherever possible, that a state Sunday school worker be obtained to do some missionary work in the county and that a complete organization of all the Sunday schools in the county be perfected and a field worker and secretary be obtained to devote at least part time along this line.

These recommendations were to be acted upon one at a time and the first, with an amendment, and the second had been voted on favorably at the time The Herald had to close its forms and go to press.

The report of the treasurer, L. H. Richard of Adrian, election of officers and selection of the next meeting place were other business matters to be disposed of this forenoon. A report of the state convention at Muskegon was to be given by Mrs. Lawrence Hass, this to be followed by an address on "The Winning Sunday School" by E. K. Mohr.

After the dinner hour this program has been arranged:

1:30—Song service; devotionals, Rev. Edward Escolme, Tecumseh.

2:00—"The Sunday School—Its Relation to the Community," Rev. Oliver, Tipton.

2:20—Discussion, Rev. Moody, Morenci.

2:45 — "Making the Sunday Schools of Lenawee County More Efficient," Rev. Earl R. Rice, Adrian.

3:30—"Meeting the Challenge of the Hour," E. K. Mohr.

This will bring the convention to a close.

The convention opened Wednesday afternoon with the registration of delegates, about 100 thus making known their presence. About 25 of these spent the night in Tecumseh in the homes of local church goers, the others coming by auto from nearby places and re-

Ensilage Cutter Lets Go, Man Hurt

Machine Owned by Harris Bros. Wrecked While Being Operated on George Routson Farm.

While eight men were at work around the machine, an ensilage cutter being operated on the Geo. Routson farm late Saturday afternoon flew to pieces, one of the workmen being injured and considerable property damage resulting. It is believed the bolts in one of the gear housings became loosened and then the whole cutter went to pieces, fragments flying in all directions. George McKendry was cut and bruised and suffered severely from the shock. Mr. Routson's team became frightened and ran away, the wagon being wrecked and other damage done. One of the pieces of the cutter knocked the smoke stack off the engine of the machine.

The ensilage cutter was owned by Harris Brothers and is a total wreck. It is estimated the damage done will total $900.

G. A. R. Entertain, Serve a Banquet

State Organization Officers Here—Henry W. Stevens, Chairman Presented With Beautiful Flag.

With Department of Michigan officers present and visitors in attendance from Jackson, Detroit and Adrian, Beers post, No. 140, Grand Army of the Republic, gave an entertainment in K. of P. hall Monday afternoon, followed by a banquet, that was markedly and thoroughly enjoyable. It was the entertainment committee for October, with Henry W. Stevens as chairman, that presented this pleasurable occasion.

When the program opened at 2 o'clock there was a large gathering of the G. A. R. and invited guests, about 30 veterans coming from Woodbury post in Adrian. State Commander Henry Spaulding had been given a very urgent invitation to be present and had consented to attend. He was unable to be present, however, as he was still suffering from over exertion at the national encampment in Indianapolis recently. In his stead he sent Senior Vice Commander Richardson of Lansing and Past Senior Vice Commander Manning of Jackson and several other officers. There were present from Detroit Mrs. Catherine R. Wagner, representing the Daughters of Veterans, and daughter, and Mrs. Williamson, patriotic instructor for the Daughters of Veterans for Michigan, as well as Mrs. Nellie Goodrich of Jackson, patriotic instructor, and members of the ladies' auxiliary.

Mrs. Wagner presented Henry W. Stevens with a beautiful silk American flag, which Beers post may use on Decoration day, at the funeral of members or at any occasion of this kind. She made a short but impressive presentation speech to which Mr. Stevens responded, his remarks touching a tender cord in the hearts of the old soldiers. Mrs. Wagner has presented 25 flags to G. A. R. posts as the representative of the Daughters of Veterans of Detroit. A number of talks were given by comrades and invited guests. The meeting was called to order by Post Commander George J. Keyser, who summoned Henry W. Stevens to the chair as toastmaster and chairman for the occasion. John D. Shull gave the address of welcome and heartily greeted the 120 guests. Vocal selections were given by Mrs. R. S. Moore and F. C. Dickinson, Mrs. F. B. Wood being the accompanist.

Talks were then given by Senior Vice Commander Richardson and Past Senior Vice Commander Manning as well as by several of the members of the local post and others. This was followed by a general campfire. The Adrian drum corps, composed of old soldiers, played some lively selections and Miss Wagner favored the guests with a song, the program throughout proving most enjoyable.

The banquet was next in order and the feast provided by the ladies of Beers' auxiliary left nothing to be desired. The serving was done under the direction of Mrs. Belding, Mrs. Dickinson and Mrs. Butler. Chairman Stevens and his committee extends hearty thanks to the auxiliary and to the Knights of Pythias for the free use of their lodge room and dining hall, kitchen and utensils.

Others may make us happy, but we make the most of our unhappiness ourselves.

Park Site is Sought In Lenawee County

Two Tecumseh Men on Committee to Aid State in Finding Suitable Location.

Somewhere in Lenawee county the state of Michigan desires to establish a park for the convenience of auto tourists and two men from this city have been made members of a committee to aid in selecting the spot best suited for this purpose. On Monday a party of eighteen men from Adrian, Tecumseh and Clinton, accompanied by T. F. Marston, of the site committee of the state park commission, made a tour of the lake region in this county to inspect some of the places that would fill the requirements of the state for park purposes. Those from here in the party were Frank J. Temple, W. T. Eccles, Joseph H. Smith and Fred Rosacrans. After visiting a number of places at nearby lakes and discussing the advantages of each an advisory committee was appointed, with William H. Burnham as chairman, and Joseph H. Smith and William T. Eccles of Tecumseh, Dr. G. D. Gibson of Adrian, and George Lancaster of Clinton as the members. This committee will obtain prices and get other data regarding the more desirable sites of the several visited with a view to proceeding with the project.

Much interest is being taken in the state's action in developing a system of parks in all parts of Michigan, and it is anticipated this project will become one of the commonwealth's most important undertakings. With more improved roads being built every year motor traffic is increasing rapidly and the value of the tourists' trade is realized by the state parking commission. It is with this in mind that the system of parks is being established. The parks are to be close to the main highways and near lakes when possible. Large tracts of land are preferred, where there is a level stretch as well as wooded places. The park commission does not buy the sites, these being provided by the county, business men's organizations or by popular subscription. The park commission makes the grounds suitable for park purposes, however. When it is given possession of a site the plan is to erect such buildings as are needed for a caretaker, a shelter for the campers in case of stormy weather, water and toilet facilities as well as field ovens for the use of the tourists. Drives are built through the grounds but as near as possible the camping spots are left in their natural state.

The places visited in this county are ideal for the purpose intended as they are near two important trunk highways and when Mr. Marston visited the proposed sites he was immediately impressed and admitted he was unaware that Michigan had such wonderful places as are found in this vicinity. It is highly likely that one of the parks will be established in this vicinity and the advisory committee is taking steps to find a way of raising funds needed for purchasing a site. Land which is not suitable for agricultural purposes can be used for a park site and if grounds can be purchased at a low figure it will make this project more certain of becoming a reality. A park of this kind in Lenawee's lake region would be a very desirable acquisition.

Local Bank to Get Some County Funds

Tecumseh State One of Four Financial Institutions Outside of Adrian Thus Favored.

Beginning January 1, 1921, and continuing for two years the Tecumseh State Savings bank will be one of the depositories for county funds. The board of supervisors, at its session Tuesday afternoon, [illegible] make four banks the depositories for all county funds, including money raised in the future for roads not yet contracted for. The other three banks selected are the First National bank of Morenci, the Hudson State Savings bank and the Jipson-Carter bank of Blissfield.

The supervisors repealed action previously taken which provided that banks purchasing road bonds could be named depositories for the money obtained by the bonds they bought. Supervisor James E. Jacklin introduced the resolution which repealed the action taken last year. The vote on the proposition was unanimous.

It is of considerable importance to a bank if it can secure county funds and the fact that the Tecumseh State Savings bank has been thus honored brings added glory to this city.

Adrian Woman is a Gifted Impersonator

Mrs. E. F. Cleveland Charms Monday Club—Assisted by Mrs. C. L. Seiffer and Mrs. Glendora Mason Johnson.

A group of Adrian ladies most delightfully entertained a large company of Monday club members at their meeting this week. Mrs. E. F. Cleveland read portions from Percy Mackaye's play, "George Washington, the Man Who Made Us," with Mrs. C. L. Seiffer singing old English ballads descriptive of each act. She was accompanied by Mrs. Glendora Mason Johnson.

Mrs. Cleveland is an artist, impersonating as truly old "Mamselle" as the great Washington. In many of the acts she carried the characters of six and eight different individuals. The play gives Washington as the lad of 18 and takes him through to the end of the Revolution. The scenes she chose for her delineation of the wonderful man were when he was a surveyor, his departure with the Colonial army, Christmas night in camp, and the dark days at Valley Forge which were turned to joy when France came to our relief.

The ladies presented this reading before the Adrian Woman's club last year, at a meeting of the D. A. R., and before the Adrian high school. The play is exceedingly valuable from a historical standpoint and was made still more impressive by the rendition of the ballads which have been recently discovered among the back country folk of England.

The usual community singing was given before the reading and at the close of the afternoon refreshments were served by Mrs. F. G. Heesen and her committee.

The room at the M. E. church was beautiful with large bouquets of the gay fall flowers.

At the next meeting of the club Mrs. William Drake will be the leader and Mrs. George Sanford and Mrs. Irving Boltz will have papers.

COUNTY COMMISSIONER OF SCHOOLS TO REMAIN

Lenawee county schools will be under the supervision of George J. Tripp for another year, as the board of supervisors have refused to accept the commissioner's resignation. Mr. Tripp made it known when he handed in his resignation that he would stay another year if he was granted a raise in pay. It being illegal to raise a county official's salary while he is in office, the supervisors on Friday voted to allow the school commissioner $750 as clerk hire and under this arrangement Mr. Tripp will hold his office for the ensuing year.

There was some opposition to this action but those in favor of the plan, among whom was Supervisor John Schreder of Tecumseh, were in the majority. Mr. Schreder offered the resolution rejecting the resignation of Mr. Tripp.

Blissfield Comes For Game Friday

Tecumseh High School Falls Before Hudson at that Place by Score of 21 to 7.

There will be a football game in this city Friday afternoon, the Tecumseh high school eleven meeting Blissfield. The locals have high hopes of winning this contest, as they have lost the last two, and will battle fiercely to come out of the clash victoriously. If there is a large attendance it will help to cheer the home lads to overcome the enemy.

At Hudson Friday the Tecumseh team went down to defeat by a score of 21 to 7, but it was the stiffest game so far this season. The score does not indicate how close the game really was nor what a gallant fight the local boys made.

After scoring early in the first quarter Hudson was effectively held back by Tecumseh throughout the first half of the game. Tecumseh had the ball within 14 yards of the Hudson goal at one stage of the first half but lacked the force to score.

In the early part of the second half the victors again had a scoring spurt and made two touchdowns.

Ousterhout was the star for the Tecumseh griders. When there were only two more minutes of play he took the ball on a kickoff and with brilliant interference he dashed through for a touchdown.

The line-up was as follows:

Hudson—		Tecumseh—

Hutchins	q. b.	Abbott
F. Faler	r. h.	VanWinkle

WIT AND WISDOM CLUB HAS A FINE MUSICAL TABLEAU

With a musical tableau as the outstanding feature, the meeting of the Wit and Wisdom club Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Howard was a pleasurable and highly enjoyable occasion, about 50 being present.

The tableau was one of the first numbers on the program. Georgianna Conklin and Gertrude Turner represented an Indian girl and boy, respectively, they being in appropriate costume and sang an Indian song. Miss Lillian Kennedy represented America, was bedecked with a flag and sang "The Star Spangled Banner." Lester Waring, attired in his marine suit, also sang a patriotic song. F. C. Dickinson and Mrs. E. C. Heilman were attired in old fashioned clothes, the former singing "When You and I Were Young, Maggie" and the latter "Silver Threads Among the Gold." Mrs. Maynard Mulvaney was also in a costume popular some years ago and she rendered "Ben Bolt," all of the vocal numbers being greatly enjoyed. At the close of the tableau the various characters sang several of the old time songs together. Miss Mildred Boyce was program leader.

Mrs. Howard read a story entitled, "Turning Ducks," and this was discussed in response to roll call. Old fashioned games were then indulged in. Later refreshments were served and a social good time had.

Bittersweet and other fall flowers were used as decorations, the Howard home being made very beautiful.

In two weeks the club will meet with Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Waldron.

Inspiring Service Held on Rally Day

Baptists Have Musical Numbers and Program of Talks and Readings.

Rally day was fittingly observed at the Baptist church Sunday morning with a program taking the time usually given to the preaching and Sunday school services.

Several young ladies of the "Others" class most creditably gave a very impressive class exercise entitled "Woman's Life" as the opening number on the program. Each class did very well, but special mention should be made of the missionary song and drill given by the "Beginners" class.

Not a few thought seriously during the reading given by Mrs. Fred Sheldon of the "Ever Ready" class.

The program closed with an act, "Real Life," staged by Scoutmaster Curtis and several Boy Scouts. This act portrayed Scout life at camp. The story hour was not forgotten nor was the "rabbit."

The singing of the proposed new national anthem, "America, the Beautiful," and the feature songs added zest to the musical part of the program.

Several of the ex-superintendents gave short talks which were timely and bristling with good thoughts.

Dr. L. G. North took for his theme "The X-Ray, or Afterthought and Forethought," while Dr. B. F. Steinhoff emphasized the intrinsic value of an intensive Bible study. A. O. Howard spoke of the value of little things and R. S. Moore of building character. Pastor Curtis emphasized in story form the importance of co-operation—"All Together, Boost."

THE WAY IT ALL STARTED.

All-Hallow Eve falls on the last day of October, the day following being All-Saints' day, or All-Hallows.

This is the date of the last of three festivals held by the Druids, who in olden times were scattered over northern Europe. These festivals were observed on May 1, the time of sowing; June 21, the season of the ripening of the crops, and October 31, the harvest season.

One of the religious rites of the Druids consisted in maintaining, throughout the year, immense fires on stone altars erected upon eminences in honor of the Sun-God. On the night of October 31, the Druids assembled at the altars in their snow-white robes, and at a given signal, during the absolute silence on the part of the multitude gathered to witness the ceremony, they solemnly extinguished the fires. New fires were then kindled, and as the flames leaped heavenward, the people raised a mighty shout, and then, obtaining live embers from the altars, they returned to their homes to extinguish the old fires left burning on their hearths, and kindle them anew with the sacred embers of the priests. This new fire was believed to protect each homestead from peril so long as it remained burning.

As the Druidic faith faded in the light of Christianity, the heathen festivals lost much of their grandeur and former significance, and assumed a lower character. Gradually the simple country folk came to believe that on October 31 the fairies forsook their hiding places to dance in the forest glades, while witches, goblins, and other evil spirits had revels in deserted abbeys, or plotted against mankind in the shadows of ruined castles and keeps.

By a very natural transition the Hallowe'en fire came to be looked upon as a charm against evil spirits; and even as late as the seventeenth century we learn that it was customary for the farmer to make the circuit of his acres brandishing a lighted torch, and chanting of some doggerel rhyme to protect his farm from evil during the coming year.

From the fact that these supernatural agents seemed so near at this season, Hallowe'en was supposed to be the night of all nights for the prying into the mysteries of the future; and this is probably the origin of those games and ceremonies by which it is claimed that one's fate may be learned, at the same time providing a great deal of innocent fun and flirtation for youths and maidens of every degree at a Hallowe'en celebration.

OH, WELL, IT'S IN THE BLOOD.

"What's our Lady Canada trying to do to this country?" asks an American editor who is much aggrieved over the fact that so many real Americans of the good old stock are emigrating to the land of the north.

We learn that Canadian immigration increased 50 per cent for the month of July alone. For the four months ending with July 31, about 40,000 new people settled in Canada, of which nearly 22,000 were Americans. The latter, it is said, brought with them well over fifty million dollars in goods and money. None of them accepted free lands but bought the best in sight, although at a reasonable price per acre.

It is interesting to note that the four months immigration into Canada was divided as follows: American, 22,000; British, over 16,000; various Europeans, less than 2,000. While Canada was receiving good old American stock, the United States was receiving hordes of immigrants from south and southeastern Europe. Not a pleasant thought, although we hope the newcomers can be made into good Americans.

This emigration to Canada has been going on now for a score of years and there seems to be no use battling against it. It is instinctive in the Anglo-Saxon to wander off to new lands; the fact that a man's ancestors have been born on American soil for a hundred or so years does not change his instinct. About the only good unsettled soil left in a climate acceptable to Anglo-Saxons is in Canada and Alaska, and thither much of our adventurous young blood will flow for many decades to come. It's in the blood to do so.

A WORLD WONDER; LEPROSY IS CURED.

> "And Jesus put forth his hand and touched him, saying, I will; be thou clean. And immediately his leprosy was clean."

Jesus Christ cured the leper, but that was a miracle. Down the ages, the plague of leprosy has been ever present with mankind, ever uncurable. From our childish Sunday school days until our passing over, we look upon leprosy with horror even though we have never seen a case, as most of us have not.

The news, therefore, that comes from far-away Hawaii that this disease has at last been conquered is more notable as news than the crowning of a king or the election of a president. It is a modern world wonder, a happening in our own generation that will go down in history alongside the Great War.

A Mrs. Blaisdell is the lucky woman who has been cured by science. Her case became aggravated in 1908 and she was isolated. In 1917, the United States public health officials at Kalihi hospital took her in charge and began treating her with what is known as "refined chalmoogra oil." The chalmoogra is a handsome East Indian tree, with fragrant flowers, whose seeds yield an oil. This oil has for a long time been a relief in leprosy, but the health officials believed that by a system of treatment it could be made an absolute curative. For three years, five months and seven days, Mrs. Blaisdell was given this treatment. Now she is home with her famiy, entirely cured and perfectly well. And others in the Hawaii lepers' colony are under the same treatment and nearly cured.

Great is science! Our hat is off to those heroes, the scientists.

crop this year than ever in its history. But the United States also had a big crop and that was taken as no indication, considering the world-wide demand, that the price would go any lower than $2.25 a bushel if it did not run up to $3 per bushel.

Then a certain quantity of wheat was shipped in from Canada. That was the straw the Board of Trade gamblers were looking for and with that little edge they have hammered wheat down and down until the losses of the farmers still holding their crop have mounted, on paper, up into the hundreds of millions of dollars.

We don't know whether the gamblers can keep the price down to the present absurd figures. Perhaps they figured that the farmers, seeing the bottom falling out of the market, would send their holdings to the cities, thus forcing the price still lower. But, as it looks to us now, the price is bound to go up again—some, if not considerably. Anyway, the farmer can't lose much more if he continues to hold his crop. On the other hand, he might gain a good deal if the market should rebound.

But the Board of Trade hammered another nail in its own coffin. Their action this fall is going to give impetus to the farm bureau's marketing movement. When the time comes that the wheat farmers' own organization will market the whole crop, there will be mighty slim pickings for the gamblers.

"It pays to advertise," said Mrs. John D. Shull to The Herald over the telephone shortly after last Thursday's Herald was being delivered. You can get the same quick and positive results by using the classified column of this paper to get most anything you want or dispose of anything you do not want. Try it and be convinced.

FORDSON

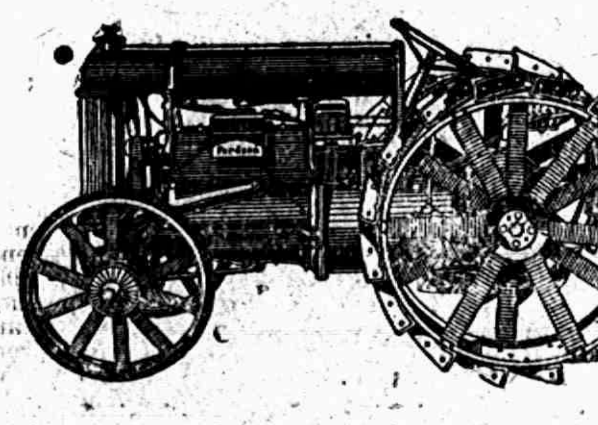
TRADE MARK

Farm Tractor

The Fordson cuts the cost of preparing land almost to half of what it costs with horses. But even more important is the fact that the Fordson saves from thirty to fifty per cent of the farmer's time. And time saved—getting fields in shape to plant in the proper season; getting things done when they should be done; means money to the farmer. BESIDES IT HELPS GREATLY IN SOLVING THE LABOR PROBLEM.

As ever, the machine way is proving more efficient, faster, easier than the old hand way. In the factory, the machine increases production, saves labor—produces more at less cost. And that is what the Fordson does on the farm. The Fordson way is the machine way of farming. BESIDES IT HELPS THE LABOR PROBLEM.

The Fordson's first cost is low; and the after or operating cost is low. It is a compact, easily handled tractor, backed by the greatest tractor service organization in the world.



We are Fordson dealers. Not only do we sell Fordson tractors, but we carry a stock of Fordson parts and employ Fordson mechanics to help the farmers get the best results from the Fordson. Let us demonstrate the Fordson on your own farm.

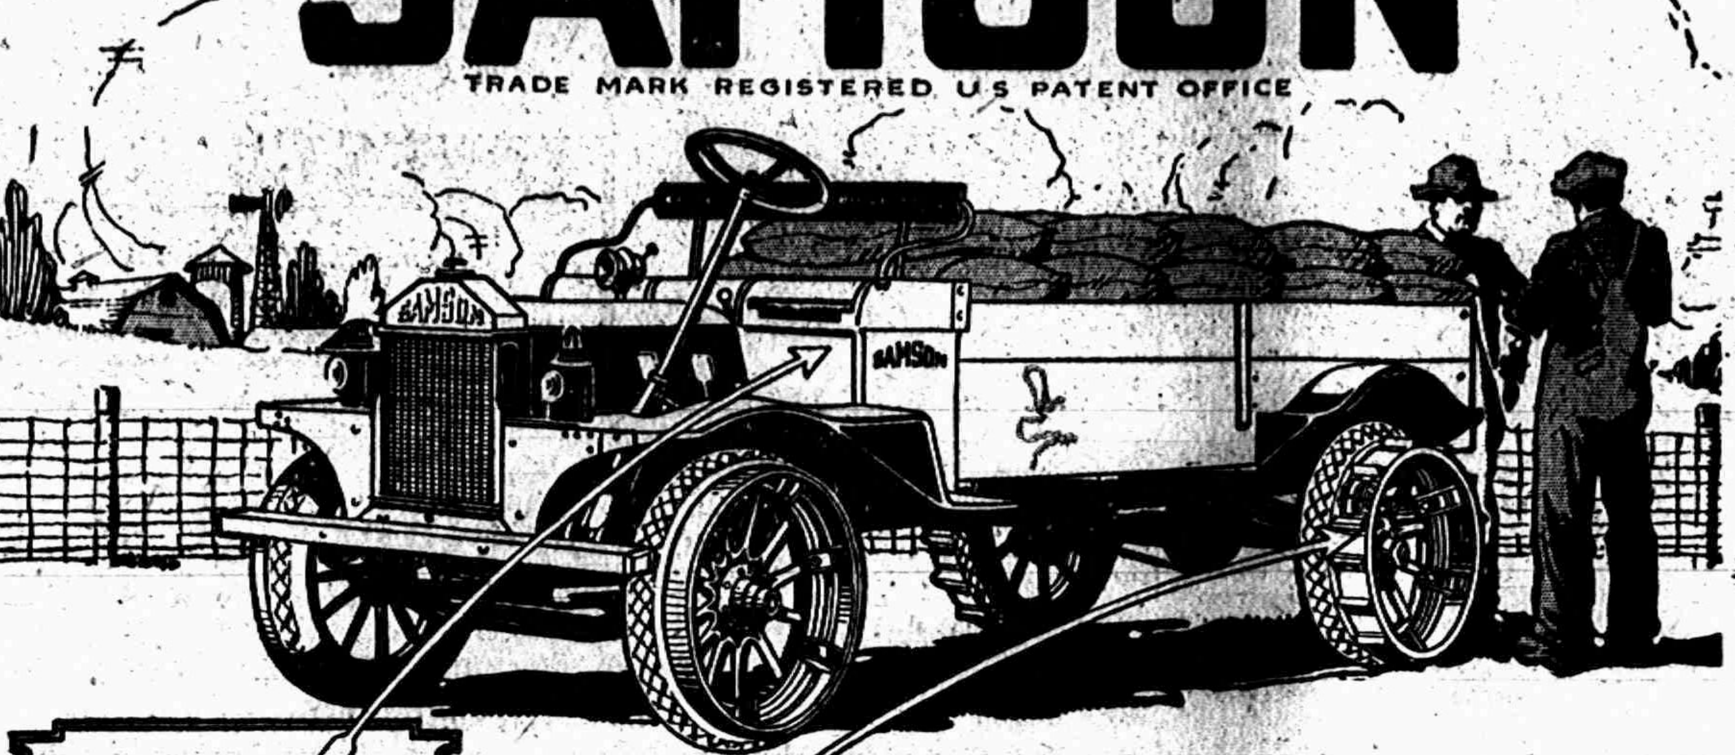
SAMSON

TRADE MARK REGISTERED U.S. PATENT OFFICE



Close Coupled Seat

One [illegible] Loading Space

Look at this picture of the SAMSON Truck. Note how the seat is placed forward near to the hood—instead of back of it. This gives one-third more loading space for SAMSON truck users than is possible in other trucks of same rated size and capacity.

Extension Bases

Demountable Cleat Bands Cannot Sink in Soft Ground

This is one of the newest truck inventions which you will find on the SAMSON. The wheels carry extension bases, and the rear wheels are equipped with demountable cleat bands and grouters. This provides sure traction in any weather on any road, or in any field. Mud, snow, slush or soft ground hold no terrors for SAMSON truck users.

Built for Farm Work

The Samson Truck is not just an ordinary truck for average hauling on good roads. It is a practical, proven mechanical unit and is built especially for farm hauling in the hard-going fields, as well as on the worst roads. You can use it in soft, slushy fields. You can use it on heavy, muddy highways. The Samson makes its own road. This is important to farmers in this community because in bad weather, when the roads are muddy and the fields are soft, the owners of Samson Trucks do not have their trucks idle at busy times. They can go right along with all their hauling. The special and exclusive Samson Truck features, explained opposite, make this possible.

We have Samson Trucks on our floor now and we will be glad to show them to you and give you the full details of their construction. You will recognize their intrinsic value instantly.

Mistakes Will Happen

A bank "balances its cash" every night. That is, we count our cash on hand and see that there is a proper difference since the previous day, after taking into consideration all deposits taken in and all checks paid in the meantime. The system we use in balancing our cash enables us to detect any errors made during the day, making it possible to rectify the same. The old joke that a bank will not rectify mistakes doesn't go at this bank. We can and will correct any and all mistakes.

Vote "NO" on the School Amendment

Because

Michigan's Educators Denounce It

University Regent James O. Murfin, says:

I am against the proposed amendment for a number of reasons:—first and foremost—it appears to me it is dishonest.

University Regent Frank B. Leland, says:

I think it is Un-American and in my opinion its incorporation into the basic laws of the commonwealth would be unwise.

Former Regent Chase S. Osborne, says:

The movement against the Parochial Schools is unwarranted, unwise, misdirected effort and, in so far as it destroys something of good and supplants it with nothing, is unjust.

Prof. H. C. Vaughn, Dean of the School of Medicine, University of Michigan, says:

I do not believe the amendment is wise,—I do not believe that the State should interfere with parents in selecting the school to which their children shall go.

President Stringham of the Detroit Board of Education, says:

The enactment of such a law would be a mistake and a calamity.

President Frank Kedzie, of the Michigan Agricultural College, says:

I am not favorable to the Anti-parochial Amendment.

University Regent Benjamin S. Hanchett, says:

I am earnestly opposed to any proposition that would result in the closing of Parochial or any private schools that maintain a proper standard of instruction.

President Charles McKenny, of the Michigan State Normal School, says:

This amendment, if carried, would shut out thousands of children because of no public schools to accomodate them.

Superintendent of Public Instruction, Thomas E. Johnson, says:

There is a very grave question whether the proposed amendment would not put up a legal barrier to prevent the use of the State Institution for the Feeble Minded, the State Institution for the Epileptic, the State School for the Deaf and State Schools for the Blind.

Superintendent Frank Cody, of the Detroit Public Schools, says:

The public school men of Michigan are unanimous against the proposition. The influx of the parochial and private school children into the public schools would swamp our schools.

Dr. Delos Fall of Albion College, formerly Superintendent of Public Instruction, says:

The State Department of Education already possess ample power to visit and supervise these schools.

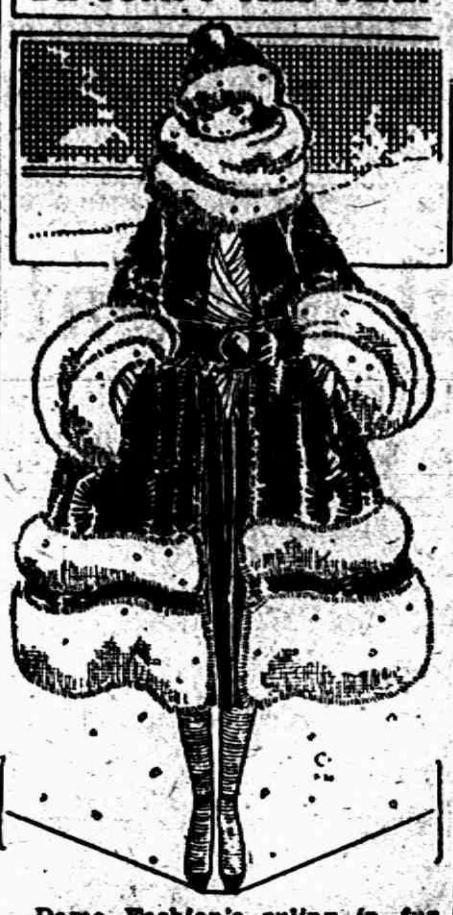
MILADY'S CHIN WILL BE COMFY THIS YEAR



Dame Fashion's ruling in fur coats this winter has at least sealed the mouth of mere man. Time was when the low rolling collars of women's fur coats and exposed throats brought forth all sorts of jibes from man's flippant lips. But this model—newest from leading designers in fur wear—elaborates on high choke collar and big cuffs—concealing all milady's face—save the eyes. The coat is of Hudson Seal with squirrel collar, cuffs and trimmings.

A GOOD FRIEND

A good friend stands by you when in need. Tecumseh people tell how Doan's Kidney Pills have stood the test. H. W. Stevens, real estate dealer and broker of Kilbuck St., endorsed Doan's three years ago and again confirms the story. Could you ask for more convincing testimony?

"I have used Doan's Kidney Pills with satisfactory results and do not hesitate to endorse them as a remedy of merit," says Mr. Stevens. "They proved very effective in relieving me of backaches and other signs of kidney complaint. I bought Doan's from Pulver's Drug Store." (Statement given July 27, 1916.)

On May 3, 1920, Mr. Stevens added: "I haven't had the slightest sign of kidney trouble since recommending Doan's Kidney Pills in my former statement. What I said at that time holds good today."

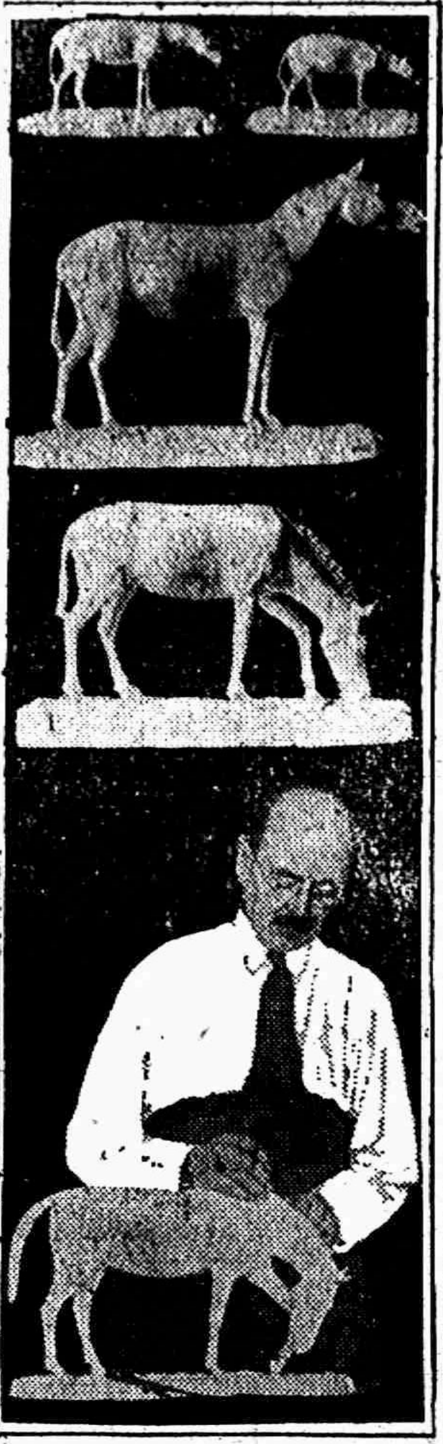
HOW EOHIPPOS GREW UP INTO A HORSE



According to Prof. J. N. Gidley of the Division of Paleontology, United States Museum, the horse at one time was a little animal, known as Eohippus, shown above. Through the ages it slowly developed into the Mesohippus, Hypohippus, Merychippus, Hipparion, and then to the well-known animal of today, the Equus, or better known as the Horse. Now it looks as though our Equus were going to develop into what be known to future Autohippomobil turning home, coming back for the sessions today. It is expected before the convention closes there will be many more registered.

There was a song service as the first part of the program yesterday afternoon, this being followed by devotionals. Rev. H. A. Fry of Blissfield then gave an address on "Consecration." This was followed by the announcements and appointment of committees. "Teacher Training" was the subject of a helpful talk by Dr. J. C. Willitts of Lansing. A conference was also held, this being led by E. K. Mohr of New Buffalo. During the musical part of the program Mrs. Billings gave a beautiful vocal solo.

Last evening the service opened with songs and the devotionals were led by Rev. Edward Escolme of the Tecumseh Friends church. Two addresses of great interest were given. E. K. Mohr took for his subject "Building a Clean Character" and Rev. Willitts spoke on "Evangelism in the Sunday School." There was a large attendance and the absorbing addresses received the closest attention. Two selections were ably rendered by a quartet composed of Baptist girls from Morenci.

2 Are Wounded by Unknown Assailant

MRS. G. ARTHUR RATHBUN AND MANCHESTER WOMAN VICTIMS OF SHOOTING.

Occupant of Passing Auto Discharges Gun as Cars Pass on Road Near Ann Arbor—Mrs. R. G. Haeussler Still in Hospital With Scalp Wound.

Mrs. G. Arthur Rathbun of this city and Mrs. R. G. Haeussler of Manchester were the victims of a mysterious shooting Sunday evening while they were motoring home from Ann Arbor with their husbands. Mrs. Haeussler suffered a scalp wound which has confined her to the homeopathic hospital in Ann Arbor since the attack and Mrs. Rathbun was injured about the face but has been able to be up and around.

The two couples had driven to Ann Arbor in the Haeussler machine to spend the day and were about three miles out of the University city on their way home when the shooting occurred. They were passing another machine and when this car was alongside the Haeussler auto two reports like the discharge of a gun were heard and shot came into the vehicle owned by the Manchester man. Mrs. Haeussler suffered a severe scalp wound while Mrs. Rathbun was struck in the face by some of the shot, powder and by glass from the broken window of the car. The other car passed so quickly that no description was obtained of the machine or occupants and who the mysterious assailant was is unknown. The two ladies occupied the rear seat of the machine and received the full charge of the gun, the men in the front seat being unharmed.

The party returned to Ann Arbor following the attack, taking Mrs. Haeussler to the homeopathic hospital, where she is still a patient. Mrs. Rathbun visited her yesterday and reports she is recovering as rapidly as could be expected.

While the shooting is believed to have been accidental, no motive being known for such an attack, it is said that this is the third time there has been such an occurance on this road.

Residents of Tecumseh township will pay $19,157.53 more in taxes this year than in 1919. The total for this year is $91,014.25, it having been $71,856.82 for the previous 12 months. Supervisor Schreder explains that the total tax of $91,014.25 for this township includes the road tax, individual tax and all.

Federation Leader Speaker Next Week

Mrs. W. R. Alvord of Detroit Addresses Monday Club November 1—Three More Members Added.

Members of the Monday club on November 1 will have an opportunity to hear the newly elected president of the State Federation of Woman's clubs, Mrs. W. R. Alvord, of Detroit. She will give an address before the local organization at its next meeting on "Woman's Place in the World of Industry." Mrs. Alvord is an experienced public speaker and is well versed in the topic she will discuss here. It is expected there will be an unusually large attendance of club members at the meeting Monday.

A Tecumseh woman who has a reputation as a successful platform orator is also expected to be a speaker at the next meeting of the Monday club, as Mrs. Jenny C. Law Hardy has been requested to give an address, explaining the amendments to the state constitution which will be voted on at the election next Tuesday. In all probability she will be able to be present.

During the community singing at the next meeting American songs will be featured. Tea will be served by a committee of which Mrs. O. W. Laidlaw is the chairman.

Mrs. William Drake was the leader for this week's meeting of the club. Three new members were taken into the organization, Mrs. Norman McConnell, Mrs. Russell Thurlby and Mrs. W. E. Wilson.

There was community singing and Mrs. George Sanford gave a well prepared paper on "Our National Government." A resume of the platforms of the four leading political parties was presented by Mrs. Irving Boltz, her talk showing she had given much thought, time and care to the subject. It was brought out that very few of the so-called best informed men of Tecumseh knew much about the several planks in the platforms of the leading parties, having only a general idea of what the party principles are.

BUGGY IS WRECKED WHEN STRUCK BY AUTOMOBILE

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cannon barely escaped being hurled to the ground when the buggy in which they were riding was struck by an automobile driven by Leon Williamson in front of the Garlinghouse garage about 8 o'clock Friday evening. The occupants of the vehicle were not seriously hurt but the buggy was wrecked. The horse attempted to run away but did not get far.

Mr. Williamson was driving south and the buggy was going north and being blinded by the headlights of another machine the autoist did not see the rig. The Williamson car was not going fast and when it struck and smashed the front wheel of the buggy stopped immediately, the rig resting on the fender of the machine when it halted. Mrs. Cannon would have fallen out of the buggy had her husband not caught her. Mr. Williamson took her to the office of Dr. J. W. Beardsley, but the physician pronounced her uninjured, though she was somewhat shaken up. Mr. and Mrs. Cannon reside in Brownville, and Mr. Williamson took the latter to her home. Admitting that he was to blame, Mr. Williamson has provided Mr. Cannon with a substantial buggy to replace the wrecked vehicle.

Men of St. Peter's Church Get Together

BANQUET ENJOYED AT THE GRANGE HALL TUESDAY EVENING.

Rev. Levering, Rector of St. Luke's, Ypsilanti, Gives Address—Ladies Serve Appetizing Dinner.

Although the number gathered at the men's banquet in Grange hall Tuesday evening was not large, the fact remains that St. Peter's, Tecumseh's pioneer Episcopal church, has staunch friends in men who retain their interest in the parish.

About two dozen men gathered at the table arranged in Grange hall and thoroughly enjoyed the roast beef dinner served by ladies of the church. The dinner was appetizing to a high degree and the men, after inward cravings were stilled, were in a suitable receptive mood to listen to a few truths brought before them by the speaker of the evening, Rev. D. S. Levering, rector of St. Luke's church, Ypsilanti. At the last moment Mr. H. E. VandeWalker was called from Ypsilanti on business and was unable to fill his engagement in Tecumseh, and in his stead he secured the consent of Rev. Levering to address the men of St. Peter's.

Rev. Levering is a young clergyman of pleasing personality and his mannerism and sound talk completely held the attention of the assembled men. His talk was on the work of men in the church, with special reference to the nation wide campaign. He explained the great work the church is doing at home and abroad and how the work of putting the nation wide campaign across had inspired into new life hundreds of parishes. The speaker gave numerous instances where the seemingly impossible was accomplished by men inspired with the right spirit. Prayer, said he, proved an important factor, and fortified with daily communion with their Creator the men accomplished feats that before had seemed impossible.

Lester Rogers, senior warden of the parish, acted as chairman, introducing the speaker of the evening. At the conclusion of the address Mr. Rogers appealed to the men to give their presence at the church services. It was their attendance that was desired more than money.

Mr. Rogers called upon Rev. J. J. Preston, rector of St. Peter's, for remarks, and the [illegible] clergyman [illegible], likening the church to an engine, he said to procure the maximum of power every function must be in working order to do its part. While he liked the ladies it seemed good to meet with men and he had no apology to offer for the sort of men that had gathered that evening. He urged upon the men to come to church—accompany their wives—and he would deliver the goods.

He was in favor of trying to bring across St. Peter's quota toward the nation wide campaign and had faith if the men would take hold in earnest an easy victory would be won.

The meeting closed with a few remarks by Rev. Levering, who then, with prayer and blessing, dismissed the gathering.

A similar banquet was held at Clinton town hall last evening, when the men of St. John's parish were served an excellent roast pork dinner by the ladies of the church. Rev. J. J. Preston presided as chairman, giving an earnest and pleasing talk. Rev. Levering addressed the men on the nation wide campaigng and again held the interest of his audience.

Mrs. F. E. Bradley, Long Ill, Expires

Wife of Prominent Business Man and Farmer Victim of Typhoid Fever.

Mrs. Frank E. Bradley passed away last evening about 6 o'clock after an illness lasting 54 days with typhoid fever and resulting complications. The case has been a sad one, as both Mr. and Mrs. Bradley have been critically ill for many weeks, and their friends have anxiously awaited tidings from the home. Mr. Bradley is recovering slowly, but now has to suffer this great loss.

Katherine Palmer was born in Germany 69 years ago, coming to Michigan when 12 years of age. The family settled in Ogden township. Upon her marriage to Frank Bradley she went to Franklin township to live, coming to the home here about 15 years ago.

Surviving are three children, Mrs. Alta McNamara of Lansing, Arthur Bradley of Detroit and Elvin Bradley of Jackson. All of Mrs. Bradley's immediate family have preceded her in death.

Mrs. Bradley was one of those quiet, sweet characters whom to know was to love. She was a devoted member of the Presbyterian church, entering into the work of that denomination in her unassuming way, but whole heartedly. She was also a member of the Order of the Eastern Star. During the war Mrs. Bradley did a wonderful amount of Red Cross work, although even then in frail health.

The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home, with burial in the family lot at Brookside.

MACON AND THE TECUMSEH LADY MACCABEES INSTALL

About 60 attended the joint installation ceremonies held by the Tecumseh and Macon Lady Maccabees in the hall of the local organization Monday evening.

Mrs. Hattie Meade of Dundee, the district deputy, was the installing officer, being assisted by Mrs. Alta Lidke and Mrs. Abbie Fagan. The work was very impressively done and elicited the praise of all present.

Following the ceremony a pot luck supper was served and the rest of the evening was spent in a social way.

Auto Leaves Road, Three Near Death

Driver of Approaching Car Fails to Dim Lights—Hollis and Lloyd Woodcox and Walter Marsh Hurt—Machine Burns.

Walter Marsh and Lloyd and Hollis Woodcox are congratulating themselves that they are able to be up and around after having been in an auto accident Friday night in which they miraculously escaped serious injury or death.

About 9 o'clock that night they were returning from Macon in Hollis Woodcox's car. When they were near the bridge close to the Fisher farm the driver was blinded by the bright lights of an approaching auto and turned out too far, his machine dropping down a steep embankment. Mr. Marsh was thrown clear of the car, the other two occupants jumping when they noticed the auto had left the road. All were more or less bruised, but none was seriously injured.

When the car had gone about half way down the embankment it caught in some wire fencing. The victims of the accident, who were on their way to Tecumseh, attempted to right the auto but their efforts were in vain. They started to walk to town and had proceeded but a short distance when the machine was seen to burst into flames. Members of the Fisher family hastened to the rescue but could accomplish little and the car is a wreck.

While the three men were badly bruised none sustained serious injuries and are able to be at work. They consider themselves lucky in not having suffered more seriously as the result of the carelessness of a passing motorist.

Legion Is Planning For Two Big Events

Underwood-Orr Post Will Celebrate Armistice Day and Soon After Have Community Banquet for Men.

Tuesday evening's meeting of Underwood-Orr post, American Legion, was of more than ordinary interest as the local world war veterans partook of a chicken supper and made plans for two important occasions which will be held during the coming month.

The meeting opened a 7 o'clock, at which time the supper was served, and all of the 40 present pronounce it one of the most satisfying meals the have ever enjoyed. The business meeting followed.

Armistice day will be celebrated by the Legion, plans for the observance being discussed at the Tuesday evening session. It has been decided to have a parade, led by a band, a short address by some prominent speaker and to present Victory medals to those for whom these decorations have been received. The celebration will close with a military ball to be given in Witherell hall. John Larsen is chairman of the committee working out the details of the celebration.

The Legion will also give a big community banquet for men, this to be served about November 17. It is not known as yet where this feast will be held. R. K. Anderson has been made chairman of the committee in charge of this event. It is planned to have speakers of nation-wide prominence address the banquetters. This feast is to be given for the purpose of demonstrating to the people that the Tecumseh post of the American Legion is back of this community in every civic enterprise that helps to develop. As Chairman Anderson stated it: "There will be no axes ground at this feast." It is the intention of the Legion to provide a menu that will be alluringly attractive and the co-operation of all the men of the community is hoped for.

HALLOWE'EN PROGRAM IS GIVEN AT WEST BRANCH

Yesterday afternoon the kindergarten, first and second grades, gave a Hallowe'en program in the kinder garten room at the West Branch school. The room had been very effectively decorated for the occasion. The shades were drawn and the only light used was that provided by the innumerable jack-o-lanterns brought by the children. The following appropriate and pleasing program was presented:

Song, "Hallowe'en"—Kindergarten.

Former President of Local Bank Expires

John Quincy Look, Past Master of Masonic Grand Lodge of Michigan, Dies at Alma.

News that John Quincy Look had died in Alma late Thursday night brought grief to many people in Tecumseh, as he was very well known here and had many warm friends among the local business men, having been president of the Tecumseh State Savings bank five years and active in Masonic circles. Mr. Look's death occurred while he was a resident of the Masonic home in Alma, he being aged 76 years.

The funeral was held and burial made in Lowell, Mich., Sunday afternoon, the Masonic Grand Lodge being in charge. Surviving are a half-brother, D. G. Look, of Lowell, and a niece, Mrs. E. S. Parish, of Grand Rapids, a former resident of Tecumseh, her husband having conducted a drug store in this city some years ago.

John Q. Look came to this city in 1900 from the Sault Ste. Marie Savings bank, taking a position as bookkeeper and assistant cashier in the Tecumseh State Savings bank. In 1908 he was elected president of the local bank and served in that capacity until 1913. Poor health caused him to retire at that time and he went to Grand Rapids, remaining there about three years when he became a resident of the Masonic home at Alma, where he died.

While here Mr. Look was a member of Tecumseh Lodge, No. 69, F. & A. M., Tecumseh Chapter, No. 42, R. A. M., and Blanchard Council, No. 34, R. & S. M. He was also a member of the Grand Rapids Commandery of Knights Templar. He was a past master of the Masonic Grand Lodge of Michigan and received the consistory and 33d degrees about 1915.

He was born in Lapeer, Mich., but for years his home was at Lowell. His wife was a former music teacher and she was organist in the Presbyterian church when they made their home here.

WILL GIVE ITS SECOND ENTERTAINMENT NOV. 4

At its next regular meeting, Thursday, Nov. 4, the Tecumseh lodge of Knights of Pythias will present the second of its series of entertainments for members. It will be in the nature of a musical program, with the same committee in charge which gave such a successful similar entertainment a few weeks ago.

It has been decided to make the December entertainment a family affair. The Pythian Sisters are to co-operate with the knights in making this occasion a festive and pleasurable one.

The Pythians at their meeting Thursday evening conferred the first and second rank impressively, a visitor being present from Chicago and taking an active part in the initiatory work. The attendance was good.

Editorial Comment

AT THE WAYS OF PARTING.

This being the last issue of the Tecumseh Herald to be published by Messrs. Ahrens and Ihrkey, a few words at parting with such a large number of patrons as represented by the subscription list of this paper will not come amiss.

Our work in Tecumseh has been interesting. It is always interesting to build up—to encourage public improvements, home loyalty and welfare movements. In a measure our object has met with success and for this we are grateful.

It was the aim of the publishers to give Tecumseh the best possible newspaper. Every effort was bent in that direction, and when we feel that success has been attained we also bear in mind that the labor and money expended would have been in vain had it not been for the loyal support of the people of Tecumseh and vicinity. The city people have been exceptionally loyal in their support, for there is scarcely a home in its confines that is not visited weekly by The Herald. The advertising columns of The Herald also attest to the appreciation of the business men that a live newspaper is a valuable asset to the city. Those who have used the advertising columns intelligently and persistently have found that their investments have brought munificent returns in growth of business. To them is due in a great measure the success not only of The Herald but also the growth of the city as a trading center.

The business of a good representative newspaper is, besides publishing the home news, to bring forth the good things of the community it represents and to advocate any improvements that tend to better living conditions. Its duties include urging the support of its churches, schools and all public enterprises. In its turn it should have the support of the people and the business interests of the community.

In closing our work as publishers here we would urge upon the business men, especially those who have not seen the wisdom of advertising their town through the advertising columns of The Herald, to see to it that the home paper properly mirrors the business activities of Tecumseh. Keep in touch with your patrons through your advertisements and your newspaper is bound to continue on the list of live publicatoins.

We thank the people of Tecumseh and the business men for their support, for the pleasant relations enjoyed and the many kindnesses shown.

A QUIET CAMPAIGN.

Not in the remembrance of the writer has a presidential campaign been as quiet in this county as the present. With election day looming up in a few days Tecumseh has not even seen a sign of the old time campaign spirit, with its political rallies and stump speakers. True, for a few moments our people were privileged to see and hear the Democratic presidential candidate make a few remarks from the rear platform of a New York Central train. Here it certainly has been a quiet campaign.

Predictions as to the final outcome of the campaign are made by both of the great political parties. Republicans predict a landslide their way and the Democratsl also claim victory. But The Herald will leave it to the ballots and trusts that right will triumph.

SHALL MEN TREAT WOMEN RESPECTFULLY?

We don't quite understand these Alice Paul and Margaret Hildreth persons who hang out at Washington as the leaders of a so-called "Women's Party." Miss Alice and Miss Margaret have decided to hold a convention of the party in February, at which time they will take steps to put an end to the thing of men taking their hats off to ladies and standing up in the presence of women.

They denounce such gallantries as "piffling," and not becoming to the independent new woman who now has a vote.

To our mind the male individual who shows respect to womankind, proves that he is a real man. The fellow who won't take his hat off to a woman is either an ignoramus or a ruffian. Of course there are plenty of them, especially in Europe, where women often take the horse's place at the plow. In America, respect for women is a national trait, a characteristic that makes our men manly, gentle, two-fisted humans.

We don't think Alice and Margaret will get very far with their kind of party. Also we suspect that their party is one that they can easily carry in their vest pockets.

But anyway, we know two men who will salute the women folks respectfully and treat them dutifully and with devotion at all times and under all circumstances, regardless of all the mannish Alices and Margarets in Christendom. We do not mind stating that these men are the editors of The Herald.

THE VISCOUNTESS AND GOD.

This fall we have had great numbers of magazine and newspaper articles and numerous ceremonies in England and America in commemoration of the 300th anniversary of the landing of the Pilgrim Fathers from the famous old Mayflower.

They were truly a God-fearing shipload and the anniversary is worth celebrating. Over in England, they unveiled a stone monument to the Pilgrims, of which the following is a correct typographical reproduction:

This stone
Was LAID TO THE GLORY OF GOD
by VISCOUNTESS ASTOR, M. P.
September 6, 1920.

Your printer friend or the editor of the paper will tell you that, typographically, as above, the line referring to Jehovah ran second to the line about the lady who was made rich by New York City real estate.

The fair Viscountess Astor was indeed the first woman to be elected to the English Parliament. She is indeed a most magnificent millionairess. Howbeit, she was never heard of until less than 40 years ago. And she probably never will be heard of after another hundred years. But God is everlasting to everlasting. Hence we think the above is not only poor taste but pretty nearly irreverent and profane.

2 More Teams Hold Tecumseh Scoreless

Addison Wins There 20 to 0, Blissfield Here 26 to 0—Hudson Griders Play on Local Field Next Friday.

During the past week the Tecumseh high eleven has been held scoreless twice while the opposition was piling up more than a dozen points. At Addison yesterday the local team lost 20 to 0 and on the home gridiron they were defeated by Blissfield last Friday 26 to 0.

Next Friday Hudson will be the opposition here.

The stubble field in which the game at Addison was played was very muddy, as it had rained practically all day and moisture was still falling when the contest was in progress. The Addison backfield was the fastest the local griders have encountered this season and the members of the opposition outweighed the Tecumseh boys 15 pounds each. The victors made two touchdowns in the first quarter and one in the second. They were very successful with end runs. When these two elevens clashed here some time ago, the visitors winning, Addison very effectively used passes, but could make no headway with these yesterday.

Ousterhout was in the limelight for Tecumseh, showing brilliantly in tackling. Russell Abbott made good gains on passes.

Van Winkle was rendered unconscious during the last quarter, but recovered and finished the game. Mills Swick's right wrist was sprained.

Blissfield proved to be a strong eleven and forced the playing all the way. The visitors could not get started scoring in the first quarter but at the end of the first half the score stood 13 to 0.

It was in the last quarter where the victors did the rest of their tallying, a strong offensive doubling their points.

The line-up of the two teams was as follows:

Tecumseh		Blissfield
Bowen	l. e.	Crane
Ousterhout	l. t.	Curbway
Updyke	l. g.	Ford
Hensen	c.	Place
Swick	r. g.	Cornwell
Waring	r. t.	Correy
McIntyre	r. e.	H. Zinger
Abbott	qb.	Giles
Duncan	r. h. b.	Al. Zinger
VanWinkle	l. h. b.	Nearhood
Crittenden	f. b.	George

Subsititutions: Cleveland for McIntyre; Murphy for Updyke.

Touchdowns: Giles, 2; Place, 1; Gordon, 1.

Referee, Bricker; head linesman, Herrington. Time keeper, Crampton.

Gives Life For Irish Cause

TERRENCE MAC SWINEY (Below) AND HIS FAITHFUL WIFE

After a hunger strike lasting 73 days, the lord mayor of Cork, Terrence MacSwiney, died early Monday morning, having sacrificed his all on the altar of Irish independence. MacSwiney had been unconscious for several days. His brother, John MacSwiney, and his private chaplain were with him when the end came. Mrs. MacSwiney, shown in the picture just as she was leaving Brixton prison, had almost daily visited her husband.

MacSwiney's hunger strike was begun August 12 when, with 10 of his associates, he was arrested by soldiers in Cork while attending a session of a Sinn Fein court. After trial by a courtmartial under the regulations of the Defense of the Realm Act, he was found guilty of sedition and sentenced to two years' imprisonment, which he was serving in Brixton prison in London.

Ladies will please bring boxes with lunch for two, and two ribbon bows just alike. "Come and help us boost the school," is the plea of those interested.

Sunday evening's community service was of more than ordinary interest as the sermon was preached by Rev. J. F. Kiskaddon, new pastor of the Presbyterian church, in which the meeting was held, and there was special music by the Presbyterian choir. "Buried Wells" was the subject of Rev. Kiskaddon's discourse and he made it most absorbing. The attendance was larger than usual. The service next Sunday night will be at the Methodist church.

The Juniors of the high school held a party at the home of Marian and Estella Kennedy, about six miles south of town, last evening, the occasion proving a very jolly one. Superintendent E. E. Crampton was the chaperon. A big supper was served, games were played, music enjoyed and a general good time had. The decorations were of the Hallowe'en kind and when two of the neighbors appeared dressed as black and white cats it added to the fun of the evening.

Mrs. B. Hurrey's Sunday school class and several friends, about 30 in all, met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Bangs near Adrian Tuesday, a very pleasant time resulting. About Coal

We are pleased to announce that we have in transit more of that good OHIO LUMP COAL than we have had for several months, and we really feel now we will get enough to give everybody a few tons and by another month what you need.

Place your orders now so there will be no delay on the arrival of a car.

It has been very much regretted by us that during September all we received was run of mine coal, but that is past and from now will have only that OHIO LUMP that we have handled for so many years.

We also have coal at the branch yards at Cone, Clinton and Pentecost. If you live near these towns place advance orders so you can get your coal off the car and you will find the fuel much better and more satisfactory to you.

Please do not get the idea that coal is plentiful, as it is very hard to obtain the better grades and if we had a cold snap right now there is not enough coal in sight to last over a few days.

Place your orders at once, as you know the first orders are the ones that get the first coal and if a snap does come you surely will be taken care of. Those who wait until the last minute before ordering will get their coal, of course, in turn, but if the supply runs out they will not be able to get coal at all.

HALLOWE'EN PARTY IS PLEASURABLE OCCASION

The annual Hallowe'en party of the Baptist Young People's Union was held Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clare Beland and in spite of the rain there were 50 present. The young people all came masked, which caused a great deal of merriment and much originality was shown in the costumes. When all had arrived they went to the barn, which had been prettily decorated with orange and gold, bats and black cats were pinned in conspicuous places and there was a spooky looking tent for the fortune teller.
